WISCONSIN'S GAY GUIDE TO ENTERTAINMENT

Gay Milwaukee

This week's cover.

Though a native of Virginia, our cover subject this week, Debi Vance, has lived in the Milwaukee area for a number of years. Debi, a Sagittarius, is interested in music, theater, movies and last, but not least, leather. With her in the photo at right is Tony Canfora of Club 219, which will hold its grand opening Thursday, Feb. 12. Debi is working at the new bar on S. 2nd Street as a bartender and she also works the door.

Mention "GAMMA" to many people in Milwaukee, and they immediately think of volleyball. But GAMMA is much more than volleyball. Started in 1978 by a small group wanting to play touch football, GAMMA has grown to a present membership of 125. Activities have been expanded to include sports, social, and cultural activities. Sports include social as well as competitive volleyball, swimming, bowling, rollerskating, canoeing, skiing, biking, ice skating, and touch football. For the less sports-minded members, GAMMA offers card and game nights (that's checkers, chess, and backgammon, not the night games you're thinking about), theater and movies, wine-tasting parties, dinner parties, and picnics.

Fees are $1 per month, plus a nominal charge for use of sporting facilities. A monthly newsletter is published to announce all the activities for the coming month.

The highlight for February will be rollerskating on Thursday, Feb. 19 at Rollero Rink, 5200 S. Pennsylvania Avenue at 9pm. A ticket for one free drink at the Wreck Room following skating will be provided to those attending. On Saturday, March 14, GAMMA is proud to sponsor a special Milwaukee performance of the Windy City Gay Chorus from Chicago at 8pm in U.W.M.'s Englemann Auditorium.

All members of the Milwaukee community interested in any of GAMMA's activities are welcome to participate. The scope of activities for GAMMA is limited only by the interests and imagination of its members.

Anyone interested in more information on GAMMA should contact any of its members or write to: GAMMA, 2511 N. Farwell, No. L, Milwaukee, WI 53211.

Congratulations to Ken Kurts who was recently elected Tournament Director for Holiday Invitational Tournament III (H.I.T.). Watch for H.I.T.'s upcoming benefit raffle.

For those persons interested in the Atlanta bowling tournament over Easter weekend, some details are now available. Bowling will start on Friday, April 17 at 8pm, and continue all day Saturday. An awards banquet will be held on Sunday at 10am to 12 noon. Each person will bowl 11 games (5 Team, 3 Singles, and 3 Doubles). Entry fee for the tournament is $43 per bowler, which includes everything.
