newest album release,
"Imagine The Best"
raises money for the
Green Bay & Appleton
AIDS organizations.

Volume One, Issue 6
April 13 - April 27, 94

RICK MIDDLETON ON OUR COVER

"Imagine the Best" is the latest album by the rock group JAKE. Several tracks dealing directly with gay life, and the proceeds from the cassette sales will benefit Center Project in Green Bay and Appleton's Fox Valley AIDS Project

Rick Middleton (who adorns our cover for this issue), is an openly gay Wisconsin musician who wrote all of the songs on the album. The other members of JAKE are Jeff Roberts, Jon Hunsbuser, Mike Hazelwood, Jerry Johns and Sandy Tank.

— "It's not really music you play in the bar," he admitted — he was quick to stress that the overall tone of the work, an eclectic blend of rock, blues and jazz, is upbeat.

"It's not a doomsday or negative look," he said. "It's optimistic."

The "Being a Man" track deals with love between two men; "Sassy Daphne" is about a drag queen and "Damn it, it fits" explores dealing with one's sexuality, no matter what it is.
