PEOPLE'S CHOICE AWARDS

10:30PM

(VOTES ACCEPTED UNTIL MAY 10)

APRIL 30 - Katrina Kay & Freinds / 10:30 p.m.

Club 219 held their Factory Reunion Party Weekend April 15, 16 & 17. I couldn't make it for the two shows on Sunday, but I did stop in Saturday night. Kim was playing music I haven't heard in a long time! (Of course I could have pretended to be too young for all that stuff...) The patrons had a great time getting into the old disco and fun videos. Pictured above, the group I was partying with, above right the famous bar staff, below right, Tom shows us he still knows how to shake it. Photo's by ZA

The weekend's highlight will be the contests where the 1994 Leather Daddy and Boy will be chosen. International Mr. Leather 92/93, Len Broberg, will emcee.

Daddy's boy will be chosen Friday evening at The Wreck Room and the new Daddy will selected Saturday evening at The 1100 Club. Current Daddy Paul aka "Horse" (don't ask) and cute, cuddly Stud/Boy Alvin will assist Mr. IML install their successors. Paul is also Wisconsin Mr. Leather.

All contestants must pre-register and while sponsors are not necessary, clubs, bars and others are recruiting contestants to represent them in the quest for the title and prizes, which, last year were in excess of $2,000.

The weekend package price of $20 includes three special parties, a champagne/leather auction, as well as the two contests. Individual event tickets and party invitations will be available at the contest. Further information, contestant entry forms, as well as tickets, can be obtained at the above bars, The Argonauts of Wisconsin in Green Bay, The Unicorns of Madison or The Castaways MFC and The Oberons in Milwaukee before the weekend. North Woods Productions, P.O. Box 341611, Milwaukee, WI 53234-1611, can also be contacted before May 1.

The Saturday Celebrity Banquet has limited space at $25 each. Tickets can also be obtained from the above sources.

Out-of-town guest at the L/L friendly Hotel Wisconsin, 720 N. Old World Third St., (414) 271-4900, will receive a special rate by mentioning the Daddy and Boy contest when reserving.

PRIDEFEST TAKES TO THE ROAD

PrideFest has packed up some of its entertainment and is taking them on the road, with stops now thru May in Green Bay, Appleton, Madison and Janesville.

The idea behind the tour is to display some of the talent and entertainment that Wisconsin will see on stage at PrideFest 94, and to underscore the fact that PrideFest is WISCONSIN'S Pride celebration.

"We want to issue a personal invitation to the rest of Wisconsin to come to Milwaukee for PrideFest," says PrideFest co-chair Bill Meunier. "With entertainers, businesses and individuals from throughout the state will be participating. It truly is Wisconsin's Pride celebration."

On Fri., April 29, the Rainbow Tour will be at Za's in Green Bay. The show that night will feature nationally known Josie Santiago, who wowed the audience winning at the Night at the Appollo competition & she's appeared as a musical guest on HBO's Def Comedy jam where she earned a standing ovation!

Other performers at Za's will include Singsational, one of the most popular gay and lesbian groups in southeast Wisconsin, plus Green Bay's own Kitty Rosman and the incomparable Jeff Jennings, in addition to Appleton's Ladies of the Valley, a wacky troupe that sings, dances and does great comedy; the latter led by Jill Clarke.

The following evening, Sat., April 30, much of the show — Josie, Kitty, Jeff, the Ladies of the Valley and BJ DANIELS, mid-America impersonator extraordinaire (and a former Miss Gay Wisconsin).

Raffles for PrideFest and Miller Lite merchandise will also be held at each Rainbow Tour stop. A $3 cover charge will help cover tour costs.

Look for the Rainbow Tour show on May 13 at Madison's Club 3054 (lineup listed in next Quest); shows for Janesville's Runway 51 soon to be scheduled.

PrideFest thanks all of the Rainbow Tour performers for donating their time and talents.

Desperately seeking springtime:

And someone to share it with. Must be tall, short, thin, fat, old, young, black, white, smoker, non-smoker, divorced, never married, married who likes to take long walks along the beach, who's allergic to sand, who enjoys choral music, who really enjoys choral music, who would sell Grandma for a plug nickel to hear choral music...to come to

Bay City Chorus of Green Bay's
