From the editor:

Quest will be attending the Gay Pride Festival in Milwaukee and also the Stonewall 25 Celebration in New York! Since we will need a little R&R when we return, and because we need to adjust our publishing schedule to ensure we come out the opposite week of In Step, we will also have a three week issue. This will happen in issue # 11 now running from 6-22 to 7-13. Ad deadline is June 15.

As always, Za's is closed on Monday, Memorial Day!

International Film Festival, "Sex Is" is a penetrating look at the meaning of sex and sexuality in the lives of 15 gay men. From church pastor to porn star, the case offers deeply touching interviews and provocative personal stories. Combined with rare archival footage and hot flashes of male erotica, the film provides a wonderful panoramic view of gay sexuality from the repressive 50's through the hedonistic 70's to the cautionary 90's and the age of AIDS.

Some reviews:

"Sex Is"...is so welcome...it addresses male homosexual intimacy with a refreshing directness" says Stephen Holden of the N.Y. Times.

"Boisterously entertaining and heart-breakingly sad...." "Sex Is" is a boldfare seismograph of gay male sex in America since the 50's." Betsy Sherman, Boston Globe.

Peter Travers, of Rolling Stone, critiques: "Responsible, raunchy and always riveting."

Show time info; please call 276-8711.

SAGE/MILWAUKEE UPDATE

At the April 12 very successful showing of the film "Before Stonewall," newly selected officers were introduced: Shirl Greeb and Steve Brondino, co-presidents; Mike Vaughn, secretary, and Tom Boll, treasurer.

The co-presidents will alternately chair our monthly events.

Impressive additions to the Advisory Board are State Rep. Tammy Baldwin and Nannette Smith, Steering Committee of LOC (Lesbians of Color).

SAGE/Milwaukee, Inc. is now the legal name of our non-profit corporation, chartered by the State of Wisconsin. Work progresses on filing for tax exempt status (501.C.3) with the Internal Revenue Service.

Put Friday, June 10, 7:30 p.m. on your calendar. It's the date & time when SAGE/Milwaukee, Inc. will co-host an all-you-can-eat fish fry (with the Midwest Chapter of the Lambda Car Club) in the upstairs banquet room at the M & M Club, 124 N. Water St.

Guest of honor will be Jim Kepner,

Neely Ohara walked away with the crown at this year's Miss Emerald City-USA Pageant. Neely an Appleton "Girl" will represent Za's at the Miss Gay Wisconsin-USA Pageant to be held in Appleton later this year. Pictured right are Neely and the two runners up, Dynasty Duponte (Second Runner Up) & Shannon Dupree (First Runner Up). All the contestants were excellent and choosing the winner was hard. I want to specially thank Mr. Gay Wisconsin-USA, Gregory for making this pageant go like clockwork! Good Job!

long time activist, historian, founder and curator of The International Gay and Lesbian Archives in Los Angeles.

Kepner's major gay history display will be featured in the History Tent at PrideFest June 11 & 12. IMPORTANT: Advance reservations are necessary ($10 includes food, beverage, tax and gratuity); make same by calling 271-0378 any evening after 4 p.m. (This is not a fund raising event for SAGE.)

And, a final note from SAGE: Volunteers are badly needed for their booth at PrideFest (one hour shifts). Please call 271-0378 after 4 p.m.

A couple more pictures from Club 3054. Ken took these for our last issue but we ran out of space. As you can see, the patrons tend to be very friendly indeed! Now that Cheri has the patio open, I'll be making a point of stopping by some Sunday soon to see just how friendly it is! I better leave Ken at home... too much competition... Photos by Ken Kujava
