MARK'S REMARKS...

Our time in New York for the Stonewall 25 Celebration was exciting and wonderful (some pictures shared in this issue), but it's good to be home in Wisconsin! Too expensive in New York! Shame on the bars who tripled their $15 cover charges - yes, they were $50 - and took advantage of all of us. Inexcusable! I think you could sum up the thousands in attendance in one word; MUSCLE! At least as far as the men were concerned, everyone seemed to have "body by Soloflex". I guess it's time for more Slimfast.

I must say, marching on the United Nations (I should tell the truth; I was on roller blades) was a special thrill! My heart did skip a few beats as I pondered the magnitude of it all; could not help but wonder what the next quarter century will bring.

My traveling companions - Mark & Eric just about dialed 9-1-1 for me when (on roller blades again) I encountered some big hills in Central Park and almost checked out for good!

LtoR Mark, Eric & myself standing outside the site of the original Stonewall bar where the riots took place. By the way, Mark & Eric are celebrating their second anniversary just after Quest goes to press. Congratulations!

SAGE/MILWAUKEE UPDATES!

Last month's fish fry with the Midwest Lambda Club, with Jim Kepner as honored guest, was almost a sell-out, and a good time was had by all. Thanks to those volunteers whose efforts certainly is the reason for the fish fry's outstanding success.

Two new Advisory Board members are Milwaukee County Supervisor (and candidate for the Democratic nomination for lieutenant governor in the September primary) and downtown Milwaukee city councilman Paul Henningsen.

On Sunday, August 7, SAGE/Milwaukee folks and their guests will meet at 1:00 p.m. at the Counseling Center, 2038 No. Bartlett, for a brief meeting, after which they will car-pool to the Bradley Family Foundation Sculpture Gardens on Brown Deer Road. An Art Museum docent will give us a private guided tour ($3 per person minimum). We will return to the Counseling Center after the tour.

The closing ceremonies for Gay Games IV were held at Yankee Stadium in New York. Thousands of people from all over the world attended. The Gay Games ended on Stonewall 25 Weekend. Parties and reception events were held at clubs throughout Manhattan.

BESTD SAYS THANKS! THANKS! THANKS!

BESTD Clinic was recently the recipient of two significant gifts....a $1,200 grant from the Cream City Foundation, and the proceeds of the LaCage BESTD benefit on Father's Day, a total of $470.

The Cream City Grant will be used to pay registration expenses of some twenty volunteers at the Wisconsin Annual AIS/HIV Conference September 19-20 at the Hyatt Regency in Milwaukee.

Ross Walker, BESTD president, notes the grant is especially significant because it acknowledges the tremendous efforts of volunteers who make it all happen!

The Father's Day benefit proceeds are most helpful in offsetting extra expenses currently as the renovation project proceeds (coming along nicely, incidentally).

First floor work should be done by late summer, and then second floor renovation will be launched.

The BESTD Clinic, celebrating its 20th year of service to the Les/Bi/Trans/Gay Community, is located at 1240 East Brady Street.

Editor's Note: We are looking forward to their open house when it's all done!
