ON OUR COVER

Mr. Cool Yule featured on this issue's cover is really Ric Lodel, from Manitowoc. Ric is a member of the Bay City Chorus and donned this "gay" apparel for their Christmas concert held at Union Congregational Church recently. In this pic, Mr. Yule is taking in a little sun. I told him this was no way to get a tan...

MARK'S REMARKS

We are quickly approaching the end of our first year bringing you QUEST! Over this past year we have undergone many changes and more exciting ones are about to happen! Well over a year ago I saw the need for a bar publication, (a "bar rag") if you like, for Wisconsin. Although In Step and Wisconsin Light do a great job bringing you the news, we still needed a smaller zine to better serve the entire state at prices smaller bars outside Milwaukee and Madison could afford. We take pride in delivering on our promise along with quality photography showcasing the varied talent the entire state has to offer!

With this issue of Quest we add record reviews and a top 10 playlist. This issue, Tony from the New Bar in Madison is featured. Look for more entertainment columns to start soon. Another big change is our new toll free 800 # for our advertisers. Now more than ever, Quest is making it easier for you to advertise!

We do not intend to become a news magazine, since that area is well covered, but we hope more and more, when you want to know what's going on in the bars around the state, you'll turn to QUEST first!

HOW TO REACH QUEST:

433-9821 (Green Bay), outside Green Bay call toll free, 1-800-5QUEST5 or Write: QUEST Box 1961 Green Bay WI 54301 E-Mail/Internet to: "Zanatra@AOL.Com" Editor: Mark Mariucci Quest is published bi-weekly, every other Wednesday, and distributed free in Gay bars, restaurants & bookstores throughout Wisconsin. Quest is available at UWM & UWGB Student Unions. ©Quest 1994 All rights reserved. Eric noted, "there were only two choices for people in the used furniture market—expensive estate sales or junk shops. That's all changed now!"

On hand at the opening was Marcia, of course, and the well-known automobile dealership consultant, Jerry Petrone, among others.

"The champagne was flowing, and Marcia was glowing," Eric proudly affirms, "and wine and cheese was also in abundance, compliments of Mr. Petrone, to whom we are grateful."

While Marcia will not always be in attendance, Mark and Eric will be on hand to serve you; "large enough to service you, and intimate enough to know you" is not only a slogan, but reality. Don't see something you like? (Make them work for a change) Tell them what you want and perhaps they'll be able to find it for you.

Marcia's Second Time Around is open at 10 a.m. Tuesday thru Saturday, and from noon on Sundays (closed Mondays); telephone 778-1918.

BESTD CLINIC RECEIVES GRANTS!

BESTD Clinic recently received two grants-$21,000 from the Faye McBeath Foundation, which will allow completion of the current renovation project without debt, and $1,500 from the Wisconsin Energy Corporation Foundation, Inc., charitable arm of Wisconsin Electric.

Ross Walker, BESTD president, says the two gifts "represent the largest ever given to the clinic in our twenty-year history, and will permit us to continue to serve the lesbian community as well as anyone who comes for care and treatment."

"UNDER THE RAINBOW" — A GIFT TO BESTD

BESTD Clinic climaxed its 20th anniversary by accepting the Aerosol painting by Milwaukee gay artist Richard Waswo, entitled "Under the Rainbow." The work, now hanging in the general waiting area of the clinic, was commissioned for the anniversary and reopening of the remodeled facility. It dominates the major wall of the area and was framed in two pieces by Grava Gallery. It was purchased and presented to the clinic as a gift by two BESTD volunteers.

SAGE/MILWAUKEE NEWS!

On Sat., Dec. 24 (Christmas Eve), SAGE/Milwaukee (Senior Action in a Gay Environment) will host a Holiday Buffet and Tea Dance at Just Us, 807 So. 5th St. from 1-5 p.m.

This holiday event will feature a full buffet with turkey (donated) and all the trimmings, free non-alcoholic beverages (cash bar for alcohol beverages), a tea dance (our deejay promises lots of slow danceable music with a few fast songs thrown in) and door prizes.

The event is free, but reservations are a must by Dec. 17 (271-0378)!

And, on Mon., Jan. 9, at 6:30 p.m. at the Eastside Library, 1910 E. North Ave., Pat Bruce of Crossroads Interfaith, a group committed to enhancing the quality of life for older adults, will speak to members and guests on the topic "Knowing Community Resources and Acting as Your Own Advocate."

Ms. Bruce has had much experience in referring seniors to the services available to them in our community and learning about these resources could be very valuable to you or someone you know. A brief social period will follow the presentation and the event is open to the public without charge, but the hat will be passed as usual at SAGE events.

LARGE ENOUGH TO SERVICE YOU, INTIMATE ENOUGH TO KNOW YOU!

Relatively new and gay-friendly, Marcia's Second Time Around (used furniture and more) had a most successful grand opening recently as it launched a quest to fill a need for quality used furniture at prices folks can afford!

Located at 8121 W. National Ave., West Allis, and owned by Mark and Eric, Second Time Around is well on its way to fulfilling its mission. "Until now," Mark and

The Miss Gay Milwaukee Pageant held this past Wednesday at Club 219 Plus brought out five contestants. Kenya Moore (above) walked away with the title and will next compete in the Miss Gay Wisconsin Pageant that will be held at the end of October. One highlight of this contest was the talent done by Trisha Reese, (top left). I just love that flag waving! Also on hand but not competing was Neely Ohara (Miss Appleton-USA), (middle left) as well as Andy Topick, (Mr Gay WI-USA) and hosted by Jill Clark. Photos by ZA

SIT 'N SPIN

REVIEWS:

Rich and uncommonly smooth is how I would describe Donna Summer's new 12-inch single, Melody of Love. David Morales' classic club starts out very mellow (not to worry), then escalates into Donna's rich vocals & pumps a great fierce house track on this gem. Excellent twirling music.

Oh yes, a fabulous rendition by Nicki French of the classic Total Eclipse of the Heart originally sung by Bonnie Tyler is out. The mobius loop mix has great finger snapping appeal. Available on Import on Love, this record records. Excellent hi-nrg!

Willie Ninja has released the single, Hot, which is mixed by "Little" Louie Vega. The Ninja mix (8:00 should be played out), which features India & Michael Watford has a deep house groove with excellent breaks that might make you want to vogue. I'm Hot...I'm Hot...I'm Hot...I'm Hot For You is worth the money.

PICK HIT:

Sister Bliss' single Can't Get A Man, Can't Get A Job (Life's a Bitch) is ferocious! Now, if you are a drag queen, this is for you! Sis Bliss tells it like it is. This engergetic import house cut on Go Beat records has an excellent breakdown half way through which contains "No Parties, No Hoe-Downs, No Good Times" and kicks back into her great chorus. Makes you wonder if life's...a...Bitch?
