Feingold Meets With Action Wisconsin

3 Region III members elected to board

Senator Russ Feingold addressed the Action Wisconsin's Annual meeting held on the Pridefest grounds in Milwaukee June 10. Feingold called on the group to intensify its opposition to the Radical Right.

In Board elections, Mike Fitzpatrick and Tina Geronimi of Green Bay were elected as regional members and Jacklyn Richter of Oshkosh was elected an at-large representative.

The group also sponsored rights seminars by state senator Tammy Baldwin, Wisconsin ACLU director Chris Ahmuty and Madison attorney Judy Newton at the festival.

The newly-elected board will meet on July 15 in Madison.

PV Board Backs Hinz As Top Cop

First-ever endorsement supports current Green Bay interim Police Chief's candidacy

In a precedent-setting move, the Positive Voice Board of Directors voted unanimously recently to endorse current Green Bay Deputy Chief of Police Tom Hinz for to replace retired city Police Chief Bob Langan.

The board's decision came after a report by Dr. Gerald Wellens of his May 26 breakfast meeting with Hinz. At that meeting Hinz agreed to meet with Positive Voice and any other gay organization and discuss issues such as police relations with the gay community and hate crimes committed locally, plus any additional concerns the group might wish bring up. Wellens reported that Hinz wished to meet with the gay community representatives whether he gets the top job or remains in his present position.

According to the report Hinz also agreed that, should he be named Police Chief, he would ask Dr. Wellens, who also serves on the Diversity committee of the Green Bay Press-Gazette, and PV President Lloyd Schaefer to assist him in the development of curricula on gays and lesbians to be added to the cultural diversity training city police officers receive at Northeast Wisconsin Technical College (NWTC). Hinz suggested the names of PV board member and Brown County Sheriff's Deputy Anne Grinkev and a former Green Bay city officer as possible instructors, according to Wellens.

As to the establishment of a Citizen's Review Committee for the Police department, Wellens reported that Hinz said he was open to the possibility of such a group and would appoint a gay community member to such a panel should one be formed. Wellens also reported he felt Hinz was noncommittal on the issue.

Overall, Wellens believed that Hinz made a sincere effort to reach out to Green Bay's gay community at the breakfast meeting.

AIDS Walk Wisconsin Outreach

The northeast region AIDS Walk Wisconsin committee has set it's next distribution outreach for Saturday, July 22, 1995, beginning at 9:30 AM at Center Project's Green Bay offices, 824 S. Broadway. Following a continental breakfast and training, volunteers will begin a four-hour sweep of the city and surrounding areas placing AIDS Walk registration poster stands in business and other locations. After the outreach the volunteers will return for check-in and a pizza party.

For more information or to volunteer for the outreach, call Carrie Beno at 437-7400 (Green Bay and vicinity) or (800) 675-9400.

THE PARTY'S OVER, BUT...

165 People who attended Pridefest took advantage of the anonymous HIV antibody counseling and testing offered at the BESTD Clinic tent. Most have picked up their results, for which the BESTD volunteers are thankful. However, a few have not!!

If you were tested at Pridefest or at any other BESTD Clinic or outreach, please do yourself a favor and come back to get your results. Call the BESTD phone at 414/272-2144 and set up an appointment or come in any Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday between 6 pm and 8:30 pm. You'll be the loser if you don't!

CPI & FVAP Say Thank You!

On behalf of Center Project in Green Bay and the Fox Valley AIDS Project in Appleton, I would like to thank the Alive With Pride attendees & supporters for the contributions generated from the sale of buttons. Both agencies received checks for $435 from the event!

It was members of the gay community, way back in 1985, who laid the foundation for what is now a three-agency, 11-county, multi-service AIDS Service Organization. Now ten years later, we are still thanking you for your continued support & fundraising efforts.

As "Alive with Pride" suggests, "You are here. You are an important part of our communities and you should be proud of it!"

Guemsey Balloting Underway

Milking their candidacies for all they are worth, the eight member herd of 1995 Ms. Gay Guemsey candidates are currently soliciting votes in preparation for the fourth annual Gala.

Five "bulls" and three "heiffers" are in this year's contest, two each representing the Green Bay area taverns. Each dollar raised counts as one vote for the highly "cow"-veted title.

Dowager Guemsey Queen Elsie Bovine has promised an exciting pageant, which will be held at Brandy's II on Saturday, August 5 at 10:30 PM. She confirmed that Miss Mona, beloved 80's entertainer and pin-up calendar model, will be coming out of retirement for the show.

All proceeds from the Gay Guemsey competition will benefit Center Project, Inc., northeast Wisconsin AIDS resource center.

Pageant Season in Full Swing

The glittering you see under the summer moon in Wisconsin is more than stars - it's the twinkle of tiaras as TAG Team Productions conducts almost weekly preliminaries to the Miss Gay Wisconsin-USA Pageant, scheduled in Appleton on August 19-20.

The Miss Capitol City will be held Sunday, July 16, at the New Bar in Madison. Miss Gay Green Bay will be crowned at ZA's on Saturday, July 22.

One break in the state competition will occur August 4-6 when Green Bay's Jeff Jennings, Mr. Gay Wisconsin-USA competes for the national title in the Quad Cities.

For more information on entering any of these or other upcoming preliminaries, contact Gregory James at (414) 432-2577.

SAGE/MILW. PICNIC JULY 23

ANGEL OF HOPE - Green Bay GETS FULL-TIME PASTOR

Reverend Ken Hull will assume duties as full-time pastor of Angel of Hope MCC Church in Green Bay the first Sunday of August.

The congregation has been meeting in Green Bay for nine years, initially at the Center Project building on Broadway Ave. and currently each Sunday at 11:30 a.m. at the Best Western Downtowner on Washington St. Prior to Rev. Hull's relocation for Indianapolis, weekly services were conducted by the Rev. Tom Schuh, who commuted from Milwaukee.

Now the community of Green Bay and Fox Valley cities will have a resident pastor of the Metropolitan Community Church at their availability on a full-time basis and the opportunity presents itself to initiate various innovative projects.

Telephone number for Angel of Hope Church is (414) 432-0830.

JOE ST. CLAIR'S ANNUAL FARM PARTY!

The fourth Annual Farm Party, organized by Joe St. Clair, will be held this year in Hilbert, Wis. on Sat. & Sun., August 5 & 6.

Planned for this year are many fun-filled activities including the live foot stomping, hoe down music of the WAMI award-winning Ghilles, impersonations by Gloria P. Hole and Cher, male entertainment by Dance, a live DJ, an Udder Queen contest (contestant pre-registration at the gate), other contests, games, prizes, and, of course, the chickens will be there, too!

The Farm Party will also provide a fine buffet, picnic lunch, and all the beer you can drink. There will be a bonfire on Sat. nite, and a Sun. brunch by Mama Roux. To get there, you can hike, bike or drive; for accommodations, bring a tent or camper. Festivities begin at noon on Sat., Aug. 5, at N8287
