A new Tuesday nite gay television feature - "True to Desire" - has begun on Warner Cable, MATA channel 47; air time is 9 p.m. on the first Tuesday of each month. (It will be re-broadcast on the second Tuesday at 9 p.m. & each Sat. at 2 a.m.)

This exciting drama will cover the lives of seven gay men, three lesbians, one bisexual woman and one straight man. The series will bring these characters through both positive and negative relationships, bashings, bigotry, custody battles for their children and many other interesting situations.

This program will feature mainly gay, lesbian and bisexual characters giving the community exposure to positive role models, entertainment, new gay, lesbian and bisexual musical artists.... and just plain fun.

The majority of actors, actresses and production staff has extensive experience in television and public performance. They have performed from the March on Washington to Disneyland in Los Angeles and in Florida. Credits include programs and films like Jack & Mike, Father Dowling Mysteries, Vice Versa, Joy Farm, Dillinger and even CBN.

Wisconsin's Gay and Lesbian Entertainers Rally to Support Grinke

The "Angel" Tour, a four-day series of three benefit shows by Wisconsin's top gay and lesbian entertainers, will kick off in Appleton, October 18, to benefit Georgie and Annie Grinke's "Help Adopt Angel" legal fund. After the initial night at the Pivot Club in Appleton, the show will travel to ZA's in Green Bay and Just Us in Milwaukee.

Among the celebrities scheduled to appear on the tour are Vickee, Ms. Gay Wisconsin USofA, Loretta LaMour, 1995-96 Miss Gay Wisconsin USofA, Sage LaRue, Miss Gay Great Lakes USofA At-Large and a host of other titleholding female impersonators, comedians, singers and other acts. The show will be hosted by veteran entertainer Gloria Holloway, with assistance from a variety of guest hosts.

Although a court order prevents the Grinkeys from discussing the final outcome of the case and any of its particulars, it has been learned that Anne Grinke is now the adoptive parent of the nine year-old daughter of biological parent Georgie Grinke.

The Grinkeys, however, are able to comment on their attorney bill which currently is at $12,600.

The tour is being organized by Green Bay activist Mike Fitzpatrick. "I was happy to see the men's and women's communities band together to help the Grinkeys last Spring at the 'Help Adopt Angel' banquet and wanted to develop a fundraising effort which would encourage those who weren't able to attend to assist as well." Fitzpatrick said. "I spoke with several Green Bay performers and the whole thing snowballed into this tour.

The talent roster will vary slightly from show to show due to entertainer commitments, according to Fitzpatrick, but each town will have just about all of the headliners. "Loretta LaMour committed before she won the her state title, which brought with it a conflicting commitment the last night of the show." Fitzpatrick said. Performance routines will also vary from show to show to give tour followers variety according to Fitzpatrick.

Showtime each night will be 10:30 PM. Performers may be tipped with cash or checks made out to the "Adopt Angel Fund." All proceeds will benefit the legal fund.

NWPC TO HOST ACTION WISCONSIN SPEAKER ON OCT. 15 - EAU CLAIRE

The Oct. 15 meeting of the Northwest Wisconsin Pride Council (NWPC) will feature a speaker from Action Wisconsin, the statewide grass-roots political organization for gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender equality. Michael Martinez will lead a discussion of the activities and opportunities for participants in Action Wisconsin.

"With our equality challenged every day by politically active extremists, we need the support of all members of the gay, lesbian, bisexual and transgender community as we work to promote our rights from Madison to Superior to Washington, D.C.," said Action Wisconsin president Juliet Brodie.

NWPC member Wayne Marek agreed, adding that "groups like Action Wisconsin and NWPC provide our community with a voice in government, no matter where we live in Wisconsin. In turn, groups like Action Wisconsin depend on our participation all across the State."

The mission of NWPC is to provide people of diverse lifestyles in western Wisconsin with a safe place to find support, fellowship, encouragement and a sense of community. This upcoming NWPC meeting will be held on Sun., Oct. 15, 6 p.m., at the Unitarian Universalist Fellowship Church in Eau Claire, at 421 So. Farwell St. Refreshments will be served.
