One of PV's longest standing traditions, the annual project has expanded this year to include participation by the members of Northern Womyn, Inc. in the procurement of gifts for those living with HIV/AIDS in the nine north-east Wisconsin counties served by CPI's three offices.

Solicited by the PV social committee last July, the Life Care Services department at the agency recently delivered a "wish list" based on client need and benefit. The department provided a bit more direction in this year's list, suggesting specific stores which have outlets throughout the service area for the purchase of gift certificates and several "do-it-yourself" gift packages which offer the creative gift giver a chance to provide festive yet practical support (see adjacent box for complete wish list).

The "gift tree" is covered with colorful ornaments, each of which contains a wish list item. The social committee also maintains a gift registry to prevent unnecessary duplication of gifts. The tree will be available next at November PV meeting. The wish list will also be published in Positive Voice Newsletter and NWInk, the Northern Womyn newsletter, for those unable to attend the meetings. If you are unable to attend the November PV meeting, call Bob at 468-1089 to select a gift idea.

Gifts will need to be brought to the Positive Voice general meeting on December 4 for the traditional "wrap" party.

Gay Guide Moves Toward Publication

Salepersons continue solicitation through October

The first-ever Gay/Lesbian Guide to Northeast Wisconsin will be a reality by the end of this year according to co-editor Mike Fitzpatrick. The project, co-sponsored by Positive Voice, Inc. and Northern Womyn, Inc. of Green Bay and the Gay/Lesbian Education and Economic Development Alliance of the Fox Cities, has achieved the minimum number of display ads necessary for publication, although about a third of the resource contacts generated by the research phase remain to be solicited directly by the Guide's sales staff.

Support from gay business owners and managers moved the Guide from probability to reality, according to Fitzpatrick, but the real surprise has been the generally positive response from the gay-supportive element of the mainstream business community.

"I guarantee that there will be more than a few eyebrows raised by the presence of some of our advertisers in this pioneering issue," Fitzpatrick said.

"The support from the 'straight but not narrow' business community has been especially heartening."

Salespeople have reported that the majority of the contacts which have passed on the first issue of the Guide have asked to be contacted for subsequent issues. "They want to take a 'wait and see' attitude," sales representative Cindy Thomas said. "Some are fearful that in this political climate there might be negative repercussions."

On the editorial front, layout editor Paul "Cricket" Jacob has met with the Guide's printer, Mark Mariucci, and has "synchronized computers." Typefaces have been selected and layout designs are underway. Cricket is also designing some of the display ads as requested by accounts.

However, the big push remains in completing the ad contacts by the October 27 deadline. "Though the date isn't written in stone, it remains the goal to have all ad solicitation completed by that date," Fitzpatrick said.

1996 Wisconsin Artists for AIDS Calendar Now Available

The 1996 edition of the Wisconsin Artists for AIDS calendar went on sale Saturday, October 14, at a gala reception at Herberger's Avenue Mall location in Appleton.

The spiral-bound calendar features pictorial reproductions of the works of ten state artists done in a variety of mediums. The calendar's dramatically unique overall design was created by the staff of Directions Incorporated, among them art director Scott Mueller, graphic artist Tami Budz, and illustrator Joe VanDomelen. Photography of both the artwork and artists was done by Will Croff of Image Studios.

Calendars are $10 each and all proceeds will be used for HIV/AIDS related programs throughout northeast Wisconsin. Copies of the calendar are currently available at both the Appleton and Green Bay offices of Center Project, Inc. Call (800) 675-9400 for other retail points of purchase around the state.

Kitty insisted I show you a picture of her when she's all dressed up and ready for Halloween! Seriously though, Kitty is involved in music and performing on stage when not working.

Film Festival. "Smoke" won the second prize, or Special Jury Prize, at the festival. The second film, "Blue in the Face," opens Fri., Oct. 20 at the Downer Theatre.

Both "Smoke" and "Blue in the Face" take place in Brooklyn, in a former post office on Prospect Park West in Park Slope, and Mr. Auster, a resident of Park Slope and the author of such novels as Mr. Vertigo, Leviathan and The Music of Chance, makes no effort in either film to disguise his love for his home borough.

sit-n-spin

Well, Rockamerica has done it again! October's Dance Music Video reel is a real winner. It's not very often a video club gets a reel in which just about every song will be a dance floor hit, but October's does it. I want to take a few minutes and highlight some of the stronger cuts.

Simply Red has a new video called "Fairground" Up until this cut I have been lukewarm about Simply Red. This song became an instant favorite with me and I had immediate response on the dancefloor. The video is catchy taking us on a rollercoaster ride that could get you dizzy if you stand too close to the screen. All in all it is a refreshing sound from someone we haven't hear from in quite a while.

Since my ET Laserdisk arrived broken (again) I had to wait until the beginning of October to play Janet Jackson's "Runaway". Most clubs have had it for all of September. This song has a familiar JJ sound but is fun to watch and is doing extremely well. Besides, we love Janet.

Also new for our club is D:Ream's "Shoot Me with Your Love" a hot video featuring that hot lead singer. Everyone is watching this video; hopefully they will start dancing to it soon.

We got Corona's "Try Me Out" on compact disk last month. This month it's out on video and is going strong in our club. The video is weak, but the song is catchy and that's the most important part.

Legacy of Sound came out with "Wait" which is the best they have done to date in my book. We have instant floor response on this one in both the regular and extended versions.

Last on my list to mention is Lisa Nilsson, "Let Me in Your Heart". It runs around 126 bpm's so the trend to slow things down a bit (thank God!) continues. Lush vocals and melody make this a sing along full of energy on the dance floor. Sounds best when played really loud!

the organization a little over a year ago, Matt has assumed the chairmanship of the Finance Committee and of the newly formed Marketing Committee. These areas are familiar to Pamperin, who has a B.S. in Sociology with a minor in Journalism/Advertising. Following his assumption to the presidency, he will be focusing on his new duties and the Marketing Committee.

"The chorus is in the process of transition into something bigger and better than it has ever been," Pamperin says. "This will be best achieved through the expansion of our Board of Directors to include both corporate and member delegates. I believe that once we install corporate guidance and representation, this grass roots chorus will obtain a level of solidity that will enable it to be one of the best Fine Arts groups in Milwaukee."

The Chorus rehearses at the First Unitarian Society, 1342 N. Astor St., every Wed. 7-10 pm. Interested? Come!!!

"BLUE IN THE FACE" OPENS FRI., OCT. 20 AT THE DOWNER THEATRE

What can a screenwriter, a film director and a star do when they become so fascinated with the characters they have created that they can't bear to let go of them? If the screenwriter is the novelist Paul Auster, the director Wayne Wang and the star Harvey Keitel, they simply extend the shooting schedule five days, call on some big-name actors willing to work on short notice, for far less than their usual pay, and improvise a quick second film.

Both films—the one that was planned and the one that was unexpectedly born on the set—were given their world premiere in February at the Berlin
