DON'T MISS THIS DEC. 10 GALA EVENT!

"Christmases Remembered" is the holiday concert of the Wisconsin Cream City Chorus; it will be performed Sunday, Dec. 10, 3 p.m., at the Performing Arts Center's Vogel Hall.

Tickets ($8 advance, $10 at the door) are available through the PAC box office, the WCCC office, chorus members and at the following establishments: BESTD Clinic, Survival Revival & the M&M Club.

"We're all very pleased with our musical growth this year," said chorus publicist Emory Churness, "so we're bringing back some of our favorite pieces, even bigger and better than before!"

BESTD PAYS TRIBUTE!

BESTD Clinic recently received two money gifts, and they now publicly acknowledge them!

The Links Block Party over Labor Day week-end resulted in a $250 check for BESTD, delivered by Bob Mazzacone (Designing Men), a prime mover of the event with Fannies.

The Boot Camp Saloon held a BESTD fund raiser, and it turned up another $250 for the Clinic!

Bravo! Thank you!

ACCOLADES FROM JEFF JENNINGS!

As my year as Mr. Wisconsin USofA comes to an end, I must say thank you to many people. From the start, I felt enormous support of many, and for that I'm grateful.

Jimmy King and Michael Westlake gave me my start and I was welcomed openly, despite my ignorance regarding pageant life.

It would be far too difficult to list every sponsor who has helped me this past year, but please know that to everyone, every club and every organization who helped, I say thank you!

ZA's, Napalese, Rascals, The Pivot, The New Bar, The Madhatter and Sass deserve to be mentioned as they gave me the opportunity to perform in promoting myself and the US of A system. TAG Team Productions helped guide me and provided me with bookings. Thanks, guys....I hope I did OK.

Special thanks to Brandys II, and Terry especially, for going above and beyond what anyone could ever expect. Terry, you weren't only supportive as a sponsor; you helped save my life. The extent of your friendship is immeasurable.

Thanks to all my friends for their support and help with each pageant, show, appearance or function. You made it easier and a lot of fun, whether you dressed me, listened to me, or just rode along on trips; it all means a lot. Thanks, Todd and Glen, for the victory celebration parties!

As I say good-bye as Mr. Wisconsin USofA, I'm fortunate enough to look forward to representing Wisconsin as Mr. Wisconsin 1995-96 in "The Pageant" system. If my experience is half as rewarding, I'll be happy.

I'm a mere thirty years old, so I'm sure there are a few good years in me. I may be back very soon. There's nothing I'd like better than to bring the Mr. USofA title to Green Bay, Wisconsin.

Finally, thank you to Mike for your support and love. Everyone, including God, knows I'm no angel. For every medal I've won, you deserve one, too. The year was busy, stressful, and tiring, but very rewarding and you made me feel proud....proud of myself and proud of you. I love you.

Good-bye, Wisconsin USofA. I'm sure I'll see you soon.

With appreciation,
 Jeff Jennings

Quest's 1995 Christmas Gift Giving Guide

In our last issue, we listed a number of businesses with holiday gift giving in mind. In this issue, we will repeat a condensed version of that list along with two new additions:

Brady's Bunch, 1221 E. Brady St., Milw. 53202
Tele. (414) 289-8332

Antiques and collectibles are their specialty. They've been open for over a year now on Milwaukee's historical east side on Brady St., not from BESTD Clinic. It's a drag queens' haven for that "special" outfit...other accessories, as well, feather boas, etc. Check out their collectible Christmas merchandise while you're there. Owned by Sheldon, Rick & Miriam, and undergoing a big expansion currently!

There are different fragrances to change with the seasons. This is also a full service floral shop dealing in fresh flowers, silk arrangements and plenty of unique home accents. For this reason, they have Christmas cards and wreaths, etc. Owners Greg & Greg mentioned they
