Jo Ann Dearing

A good taste of bad taste

By Vernon Hester

Jo Ann Dearing, Jo Ann Dearing—the name sounds calculated to gently coerce America into taking its owner warmly to heart with a whimper of delight. And, after getting a good taste of Ms. Dearing, America should indeed take her to its bosom—but more with a sigh of orgasmic exhaustion.

Dearing has been referred to as a cabaret performer, a cross between Bette Midler, Lily Tomlin, and Martha Raye. But that just doesn't say it all. She sings with startling verve and vulnerability, and she cracks hopelessly silly jokes that ravenous black whip, she gives the impression that she wallows in kink—and that she does. She prowls the stage intimidatingly; she flings down the microphone stand, squeals and growls, and puckers like a wind-up Kewpie doll on the rampage.

But the image is a subterfuge. Her comedy routines center on repression and release, obsession and everyday life. Commenting on her costume, she wryly notes: "This outfit is every Catholic girl's dream!"

Her strong point is her ability to infuse her characters with a life of their own. Amnesia "F'get-Me-Not" Washington, a white hooker who excels at being the blackest girl on the street corner; Helen Not-Quite-So-Reddy, the flip side of one this century's most cheerily inexpressive singers; Lady Schick, who calls McDonald's gift certificates "the best in punk giving"; and "The Perfect International Woman": "Shop at Gucci, eat only Sushi." It's all rather tacky, but without succumbing to tackiness for tackiness' sake, thanks to her transcendent energy and sheer will power.

Dearing brings her audience into the show with her, making them have as much fun as she seems to.

[The California-based Dearing is steadily gaining in national fame; you can catch her in a Midwest date in the near future.]

Back to enlighten and enchant you:

Keyboard wiz Patrick Cowley has a new album that will play on your mind and in your favorite club, titled Mind Warp. The hit title cut is just what we've been waiting for. "Invasion," on the same LP, is an uptempo instrumental that adds a real twist to your attuned ear. The whole LP definitely displays Cowley's artistic talents and is a must for any music lover.

The dubbed version of "Take a Chance," by the group Bizzy and Co., is perfect for gay audiences. This hit has an electronic backbeat characteristic of much of today's dance music.

Compared to the blue vinyl of Bizzy's album, a new hot red vinyl has made it across the ocean from Italy (of course). This red hot LP, Wee Thee People, features the hit remixed version of "All Night Long." This album is a must for anyone into Latin lovers.

As we all know, Melissa Manchester's latest hit, "You Should Hear How She Talks about You," has been making its way to the top of the charts. This hit by the well known contemporary ballad singer has been remixed by Hot Tracks—a promotional service for qualified DJs. This extended version delivers an extended intro with a few more twists and breaks along with a long but abrupt ending.

And who could forget Sonny and Cher's ever-popular hit of the '60s, "The Beat Goes On?" Well, the group Orbit couldn't! This updated version of the old classic features vocals by Carol Hall—strong, soulful and (here we go again) sexual—along with backups by those little chipmunks of Cheri "Murphy's Law" fame. This '80s version, done in the same fashion and with the same beat as the recent hit "Planet Rock," by Soul-Sonic Force, is destined to become popular with dance crowds. (It's in the script!)

One week after this issue of Escape is released, you will be hearing Sylvester's new LP. Yes, that's right—an LP, and just in time for holiday shoppers. Speaking of which, Salsoul Orchestra has released extended versions of their Christmas and New Year's medleys.

Happy Turkey Day.

Week of November 18

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) OK, you took your stand, did what you wanted, and now what do you do? How about some fun and games? Lay off the heavy side of life and try a little old-fashioned amusement. Be playful (with maybe just the slightest touch of kink.)

TAURUS (April 21 - May 20) Your mind is working overtime; which is fine. You know something about limitations. Your thoughts mostly concern others—what they want and need. Think it over carefully before you go and give something away. (Especially your heart.)

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20) Is it time to change partners and dance? You're so inquisitive. You want to get all the facts together, and that's fine, but don't let a good opportunity pass you by just because you can't make up your mind. How many partners do you want or need? Now there's an important question.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22) A change of fortune comes in this week's picture. Part of your life that was just rolling along suddenly goes topsy-turvy. But when it does, you still wind up a winner. Hold onto yourself and enjoy the ride.

LEO (July 23 - August 22) Astrology for the most part is a study of cycles. Nowhere this week is that more evident than in Leo's stars. A new beginning is taking place. You're ready, willing and able. You might bump up against some heads in the process, but that's inevitable.

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22) All the compassion and attention you've been giving others comes back to you in a way you like. You're looking good, feeling good. With a keen eye on the future, you're making some memories in the present with a special person.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22) You've got more than mere thoughts about the future; you're nearly obsessed with it. You have the awareness that the right move right now could lead to something important down the road. Decisions, decisions.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21) Nothing like a new perspective to rearrange your life. The love you've been getting has gone a long way in giving you the security you need to explore new areas and see things in a different light. Horizons widen. No need for rose-colored glasses.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21) Been longing for a long weekend getaway? Wait no longer. Take a long friend along. But seriously, don't take anything too seriously this week. Go play somewhere. If you can manage to get out of town, do it!

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19) With Mars in Capricorn, in this Scorpio season, do you need any advice? If you're not worn out from your current sex marathon, I'd recommend that you not stop now. Sometimes you just can't get enough of that wonderful stuff!

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18) That cool, detached attitude of yours won't work this week. There's too much going on to sit it out on the sidelines. Friends and lovers demand your attention, and even a relative or two could appear. Take your vitamins, honey.

PISCES (February 19 - March 20) Are you ready for the weekend? Some of them just slide right by, but not this one. Make some plans and make a date. No disappointments in sight. The good meanings of warm, hot, light, and heavy all apply right here.

Week of November 25

ARIES (March 21 - April 20) You suddenly find yourself in a work project that you never imagined becoming involved with. And you find yourself living it. Your enjoyment is reflected in an easier-going Aries. Don't you wish every week was like this one?

TAURUS (April 21 - May 20) Watchout for whiplash. You're doing a lot of head turning this week. All that heavy cruising is hell on necks, great on necking. Romance takes a back seat to plain ol' sex. Keep an eye out for weirdos, and enjoy yourself.

GEMINI (May 21 - June 20) All of that questioning and wondering comes to an end. You've finally figured it out, and you're a little surprised with what you've come up with. But then, you love surprises, don't you? Especially when they're as lovely as this one.

CANCER (June 21 - July 22) Thanksgiving week means family week. Interchange, especially with brothers and fathers, could be interesting and revealing. This can be a learning time. Your past could just catch up with you, and that ain't necessarily bad, is it?

LEO (July 23 - August 22) You're into it. This new life of yours is fitting like a glove—feeling just right. You even look different. Your influence over others is somewhat magical. Wave that wand around, Leo!

VIRGO (August 23 - September 22) You don't see exactly eye to eye with a man who's very important in your life. You both know what you want and expect of each other, but they're not necessarily the same thing. Compromise comes hard, but it comes.

LIBRA (September 23 - October 22) A holiday weekend is just your thing. Getting together with friends or family, caring, sharing, talking about old times. Your efforts and ability in bringing people together don't go unnoticed by one whom you want to be noticed by.

SCORPIO (October 23 - November 21) Thanksgiving feels like just that. Thanks giving. And you're already planning ahead to Christmas and New Year's. In fact, you're full of all kinds of plans, juggling a lot of balls, and loving every single one of them.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 - December 21) Starting out on a new path is very exciting. Avoid some dangerous pitfalls by having a definite goal in mind, not just a hazy direction. When everything looks good, pay attention to what—or who—looks best.

CAPRICORN (December 22 - January 19) Do you think you could get out of bed long enough to join your family for Thanksgiving dinner? There's a potential problem this week in damaging old relationships by paying attention only to new ones. You can give enough for both if you want to.

AQUARIUS (January 20 - February 18) There's someone out there who'd just love to meet you; a secret admirer who probably won't be so secret when the week is out. This one could blow more than just your ordinary cool. Are you in for some surprises!

PISCES (February 19 - March 20) It's a week of obligations and responsibilities that you're not exactly pleased about. In the midst of this rather strained reality, it might be a good time to explore your fantasies. Anyhow, it couldn't hurt, right?

Roll out the carpet for HIT

It's time once again for Milwaukee to roll out the red carpet to welcome bowlers from throughout the United States and Canada for the 4th annual Holiday Invitational Bowling Tournament.

Bowlers from Seattle, Chicago, Baltimore, Dallas, Houston, Minneapolis-St. Paul, New York, Detroit, Louisville, Atlanta, Toronto, Vancouver, Lafayette, Ind., Big Springs, Texas, Toledo, and Washington, D.C., will converge on Milwaukee during the Thanksgiving weekend to take part in the HIT festivities.

The fun starts with a welcome party on Wednesday evening, Nov. 24, at 10 p.m. at the Factory. It will be a great time to renew old acquaintances and make new friends. The welcome party will be free to HIT participants, with a slight charge for non-bowlers. Food will be served. All are welcome to attend.

Bowling will begin on Thursday at 9 a.m. (that's before noon) at the Red Carpet Lanes near the airport. Bowling will continue on Thursday until 7 p.m., with time after that for a traditional turkey dinner. On Friday, bowling will be from 2 to 5 p.m. for team events, and from 5 to 10 p.m. for singles and doubles.

For most bowlers, Friday evening will be free for our guests to enjoy any of Milwaukee's fine dining places. After dinner, there will be plenty of time to bar-hop and cruise. On Saturday, bowling runs from noon to 3 p.m.

The tournament concludes on Saturday evening with the awards banquet at the Marc Plaza Hotel. Cocktail hour starts at 6 p.m., with dinner scheduled for 7:15 p.m. Bowlers will receive tickets for the banquet; non-bowlers may purchase banquet tickets for $15. A limited number of tickets will be available at the bowling alley and at the door.

It has been rumored that several special surprise guests are likely to attend the banquet. Certainly, Milwaukee's famous mascot "Killer" will be called upon to say a few words. One can only surmise what other dignitaries will honor the banquet guests with their presence.

Following dinner, there will be some great entertainment, and then the awards will be presented to the top bowlers. There will be $1,000 for the first-place team, $500 for first-place doubles, and $200 for first-place singles. After the awards, it will be time again to party—the bars are open until 3:30 a.m. that night.

Fans are encouraged to come to Red Carpet Lanes during the tournament to cheer on their favorite teams or just to watch some outstanding bowlers doing their own thing.

Music Update

By Kim Zweibohmer

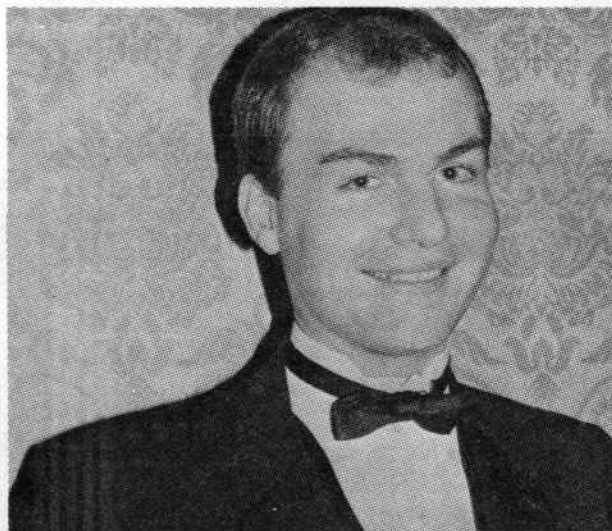

Back into the Top Ten this week with the single "1999" and a specially-priced double album is Prince. Out on the Warner Bros. label, this Minneapolis superstar continues to be a forerunner of modern music with his fusion of R&B, funk, rock, and electronics. The new release is a must for all Prince fans.

Patrick Cowley's Mind Warp (Megatone Records) is a wide-ranging assortment of pop-sounding melodies and Euro-disco, combined to create an excellent LP. Both sides, segued loosely, do interesting and exciting changes in the form of mid-tempo instrumentals. "Primitive Man" is very much Voyage-influenced, and break fans will love it. Other picks include "Tech-No-Logical World" (Paul Parker guests here on vocals), "They Came At Night," and the title track, "Mind Warp." Produced by Marty Blechman, this is Patrick Cowley at his best.

Some rock crossovers that stand out strongly this week are: the Thompson Twins "Lies" (Arista 12-inch), which teams the group with producer Alan Sadkin. Leaning slightly toward a more conventional funk sound this time, the vocals still sound close to their last No. 1 song, "In the Name of Love".... Devo's "Peek-a-Boo" has been released commercially as a 12-inch by Warner Bros. Produced by Roy Thomas Baker, this electronic production sounds almost like the Cars' last work.

Scherrie Payne, former Supreme (remember "He's My Man"?), turns in a sharp, precise reading of 10 CC's "I'm Not in Love" (Altair 12-inch) at pop-disco tempo with all-star help, including Edmund Sylvers, Freda Payne, and Mary

Wilson on backup and arrangement by John Davis and Tom Tom '84. Produced by Rick Gantos, Scherrie really sells her audience on this one.

Cheri's "Give It to Me, Baby" (Venture 12-inch) is a great followup to the chart- and world-busting "Murphy's Law." From adolescent French purring to a neat male rap, producers Hunt and James make another hit tune for this new and exciting duo.

Madonna, a young duo from New York, probably have the solution to Yaz's "Situation." Produced by DJ Mark Kamins, their commercial 12-inch on Sire Records, "Everybody," does the trick. Containing two versions, a vocal mix and a nine-minute dub mix, this spare but bright cut makes everybody wanna party! Watch out for this one.

Cheekers:

Where are you?? Haven't seen you. . . .
Where are you? We still wonder where you are.

36, Milwaukee

36 Milwaukee:

He's on an extended honeymoon. . . . I know, I'm his father!

Ron, Escape

Mr. Gay Wisconsin:

Ha ha ha ha ha ha ha.

Guess Why?

Terry (Factory):

I love New York, too.

Love ya,

Jim (YP):

Do I still get to teach you how to make "tomato roses"? Let me know if you are still interested.

Love ya,

James

G.E.:

We did it, let's do it again. Watch out for June.

Love,

E.O.

Didn't think that the incredible hulk and pixie stix would last, congrats.

Extra Fat

Steve:

To a new bartender, welcome. We hope you can handle all of us.

Phoenix crowd

Lisa and Kathy:

Here's to our hot Saturday. Thanks for keeping us so well entertained, you big sluts!

Love,

Marc and Bobby, Phoenix

Bob & Freckles:

You're both great, even tho you have both cut me off.

Fred

Del:

HAPPY BIRTHDAY

Love,

Debi & Cindy

Castaways MC:

Congrats on your 3rd Anniversary, hope your party weekend in Milwaukee is a slammer!

Ron, Escape

Scorpions & Sag's—

Happy brthday to all of you at 210. . . . don't any other signs work there?

Love,

Ron, Escape

Congratulations to all 82-82 title holders.

Debi & Cindy

BRUNO:

AT LEAST I HAVE ONE (WHICH IS MORE THAN I CAN SAY FOR YOU, CLIT FACE) . . . AND, A HEAD ON THE BAR IS BUTCHER THAN YOUR FEET ON THE CEILING.

RON

W.R. Mike:

Love your "south of Market" attitude.

R.A.U.

Castaways M.C.:

Good luck on your '82 run.

Tony, Del & 219 Staff

Ron:

Who put that damn pole there, anyway?

Ty

Terry, Mr. Gay Wisconsin 82-83:

You can ride your bike up my stairs, anytime.

Ron

If I had known all you had to do to win the pageant was be a pee hole, I would have got on stage and flashed mine.

Guess Who

No more "PEE," let's urinate!

Roses are red, violets are blue, Gloria's Queen, Wisconsin is through.

Ron

Pick on the sound system, not Rona!!

De'

Ron . . . NOW RON . . .

I suppose they'll blame all of that on you, too. I thank you and all the people who worked thine butts off.

Your sis,

Chuckie

Gloria . . .

Now that you have the crown drop the pee hole. The title needs some class.

Good luck, best wishes

Charollett

Grace:

Your appearance under extremely trying circumstances at the pageant was much appreciated. You sing beautifully even without back-up. Hope Milwaukee audiences learn to respect performers real soon.

Uncle Al

Phil . . .

Don't forget your deep breathing exercises.

Jules

Rene:

If only words could describe . . . !

Always,

Diane

Cindy & Debi:

Thanks for your support, help and especially your friendship thru the years.

Love you both,

Ms. Gay Wisconsin, Legs

John Rogge . . .

Many thanks for the wonderful job you did designing and building the "enchanted castle." Your time and talents are much appreciated.

Love,

Rona

Julie:

Thanks for being "Den Mother" and secretary during our committee meetings and pageant night.

Love,

Rona

Charlotte Lorraine:

You should have won!

A Fan

Julie:

You were wonderful! Even if you were my date for less than 5 minutes!

Legs

P.S. It was fun while it lasted?!

Tod, Chuck, Doris:

Thank you for cocktail hour.

Love you all,

Legs

Gloria Pee-Shy:

If you're what they wanted, they sure got a good one!

DEBI:

HAPPY BIRTHDAY SWEETIE

LOVE,

CINDY

Tony (219):

WHERE is your car?

Ty (say what)

Bruno:

I can see it's going to be a white Xmas.

219 Ty

Rona:

Tell me how much you love Select Sound. Can we use them for Gloria's reception?

De

Scott (GAP):

Thanks for making my life have meaning!

Bethekadeth!

Pat (GAP):

Exactly what is a salad bar?

Gaul

Ron (GAP):

Your friendship is invaluable!! Give her hell on NBC.

GAP Staff

Tony & Del:

My appreciation for your continued involvement to promote women's involvement in the gay community. It's important and it's time they realize it!

Always,

Ms. Gay Wisconsin

Rona:

All your help has been greatly appreciated!!

Love ya,

Legs

I am so glad there were no drugs or other dirty doings going on at the pageant.

Charlotte Lorraine,

Princess of all there is

Charlotte:

If there were no drugs there would be no pageant!

De

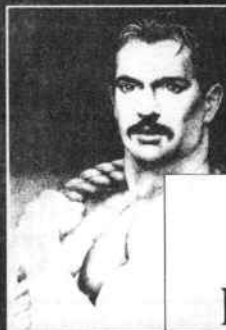

Dear Mr. Gay Wisconsin:

A couple made in heaven. Well, that's the tall and short of it.

Little think pieces

Richie Daley wants us to vote for him as though we were voting for the father, son, and holy ghost.

I love Mayor Byrne—she has brains and money, and neither of them are her own.

People often take up religion—after they have dropped everything else.

If you wear underwear to Rod's, you might as well also wear rubber gloves to the Club Baths when you go into the steam room.

When I say what I think, I am not to be believed—I'm to be thought about.

Little think pieces

Advice to all Ex's: Snot not lest you be snotted.

We pride ourselves that we think "scientifically," which only means we think "astronomically," when actually we think "astrologically."

Ronald Reagan treats us like children he never wanted, and Nancy Reagan treats us like children she never knew she had.

"The last goodbye? Hell, from most guys, I'm still trying to get the first hello!"

—Jon-Henri Damski

Little think pieces

And then there was the kid at the U of W who had to drop out because he kept changing the sex he was majoring in.

If you think life is a burden, that only means you are carrying around more reality than is in your environment.

"I got VD and it improved my hearing; now I listen when they say get a checkup."

There is a time to be pompous—but never at night.

—Jon-Henri Damski

Richie Daley is so Christ-like—every time he gets in trouble, he calls on his father.

Little think pieces

A real love affair should begin in anger, not end in anger.

I always thought Thompson and Stevenson were fit to be tied.

Eye Witness: When life began, I was-n't there.

We never act on how we feel, but on how we imagine we feel.

The world is a toy God bought on credit.
