WHAT'S UP FRONT?

We're very proud to have Jim Faulkenberg grace our cover with his extremely intricate pen and ink illustration.

Jim obtains his inspirations from such diverse sources as the French Symbolists, British Pre-Raphaelites, turn-of-the-century children's book illustrators, medieval tapestries, Art Deco, 1930's cartoon animation, and New Wave music video. He enjoys working in different styles to avoid being pigeon-holed.

It is refreshing to find such a contrast to the abstract and conceptual art which still seems so predominant in today's art world. Jim holds a firm commitment to the human figure in his art.

This is Jim's first appearance in In Step and we look forward to seeing more of his art appear on these pages.

Welcome aboard, Jim!

A.I.D.S. Virus Found

Officials of the U.S. Department of Health announced last week that a probable cause of AIDS has been found. U.S. scientists at the National Institutes of Health, were credited with isolating the virus they call HTLV-3 and devising a process to routinely detect and grow it.

Officials made it clear that no cure for AIDS was found, and acknowledged that any treatment they may devise from the identification of the virus may come too late for those currently afflicted with the disease.

Some of those involved with the AIDS investigation think more research is needed to confirm the findings, in case it is assumed the cause has been identified, and researchers stop looking for the disease. Some think the virus may just be another infection people had after getting AIDS.

Government officials say a blood test to detect the presence of the disease could be widely available in six months or less, with nearly 100% accuracy.

The latest developments do not offer much hope to those who already have the disease. As of April 16, the government has recorded 4,087 cases and 1,758 deaths. More than 70% of AIDS victims are gay men.

According to the research papers outlining the work of the U.S. team of scientists, the virus appears to be a member of a family of viruses called human T-Cell leukemia virus previously suspected of having a role in AIDS.

Harassment Bill Signed Into Law

Governor Earl signed into law a bill (A-353) that makes harassment or intimidation a separate crime. Harassment includes insulting or provoking a person in a manner likely to provoke a violent response.

The bill was among more than 50 signed by Gov. Earl recently as his review of bills passed by the Legislature continues. He has until May 11th to sign or veto any pending bills.

Although this new law applies to all state residents, it has far reaching implications in favor of Wisconsin's gay and lesbian population.

The signing follows a survey that was conducted by the Governor's Council on Lesbian and Gay Issues and released last January. In that survey, 92 (68 male & 23 female) respondents completed the questionnaire for the Violence Survey Report. Some highlights of the survey concluded that:

• 80% said that they had been called

A.I.D.S. — IT ISN'T OVER YET!!

We must encourage everyone to not let down their guard just because the probable reason for the cause of the deadly A.I.D.S. has been found. It is not enough of a reason for those of us most concerned with its impact to let down our guard.

Continue using care in selecting your sexual partners, avoid anonymous sex, try and cultivate repeat "fuck buddies" relationships. Don't swallow cum, or get involved in rimming — don't exchange bodily fluids (blood, urine, semen, stool). Try and refrain from anal intercourse — the use of rubbers is recommended. Watch your health, and limit your alcohol and drug intake.

Just because they think they've found a cure, doesn't mean they can treat you, or even thoroughly test to see if you have it yet — we're a long way from that at this point.

National March Planned To Coincide With Democratic Convention

The National March for Lesbian and Gay Rights has been planned for Monday, July 16th in San Francisco. The march is planned to coincide with the Democratic National Convention. Its purpose is to move lesbian and gay issues to the center of the American political debate.

Within the structure of the march committee, supporting groups have two options available to them: first, they can endorse, which allows the march organizers to use their name and if possible contact their members to solicit their personal support. Second, they can become Sponsoring Groups, which in addition to the above requires a donation of at least $100 for groups of over 100 members or $50 for smaller groups. Only the Sponsoring Groups will be given the right to vote on the National March Demands and Speakers.

12 areas of concern to lesbian and gay people will be addressed in the national forum. It is hoped that the media (both straight and gay) will help make these issues known to the nation and the world. Although there are many issues of importance it was decided to keep the demands at a reasonable level to avoid a lengthy or complicated list.

The list of specific demands has not yet been finalized. The march committee would appreciate any comments given as a sponsoring organization, both positive and negative. If 10% or more of the sponsoring organizations have concerns with a demand, it will be reconsidered by the general membership.

Those desiring more information should contact The National March for Lesbian and Gay Rights, 2301 Market Street, Suites A, B, & C, San Francisco, CA 94114. Their telephone number is 414/552-4287.

Governor's Council Urges Full-Time Liaison

The Governor's Council on Lesbian and Gay Issues has gone on record urging the appointment of a full-time employed liaison to the gay/lesbian community by the Governor. It was felt that there are simply too many things that need to be done to ensure the rights of our community are maintained. A volunteer Council, as presently exists, can help but cannot do everything themselves.

Ed's Note: We concur. Currently the Governor's Council meets once a month, and with everything that has been happening here in Wisconsin, a permanent full-time liaison within the Governor's office would certainly be in the best interests of the "Gay Rights State." The Council made a wise decision to urge our Governor to consider this matter. Perhaps if enough people would take time to write to Governor Earl, State Capitol, Capitol Square, Madison, WI 53702, he would realize the merit of this recommendation.

VD Rate Drops — Fear Of AIDS Suspected

Reported cases of gonorrhea and syphilis in Wisconsin continued to decline last year. The fear of AIDS or herpes was most likely responsible, a state official said.

There were 11,003 cases of gonorrhea reported in 1983, compared with 11,857 in 1982, 13,264 in 1981, 14,383 in 1980 and an average of 14,000 cases annually from 1976 to 1979.

Reported cases of early syphilis in Wisconsin also dropped slightly, from 210 in 1981 to 173 in 1982 to 165 last year.

"Blood Sister" Project To Be Honored

Poet/author May Sarton and the "Blood Sister" Project of the Women's Caucus of the San Diego Democratic Club will be honored at the Seventh Annual Fund for Human Dignity Dinner to be held at New York City's Plaza Hotel on May 14th. Sarton will receive the Fund for Human Dignity Award of Merit, and the Humanitarian Award will be presented to Barbara Vick of the "Blood Sister" project. The recipient of the Howard J. Brown Award, previously announced, will be U.S. Representative Gerry Studds.

The "Blood Sisters" project was the first of its kind in the U.S. On July 16, 1983, over 170 women came to the San Diego Blood Bank to donate blood, both to replenish supplies which had been depleted when most gay men were excluded from donating blood because of the AIDS epidemic, and to show support for gay men from the lesbian community. The blood drive was conceived and organized by the Women's Caucus of the San Diego Democratic Club. Since that event, other blood drives among lesbians have taken place in cities from Los Angeles to Baltimore.

Gay Delegate Candidates Being Considered For Election

At least five and perhaps as many as six gay delegate candidates advanced to the second round of the delegate selection process, on May 5th.

In Madison, four out of five gay delegates won, including activist David Carter and NOW's Kathy Patrick. The Governor's Gay and Lesbian Council co-chairwoman Kathleen Nicols won, but

In Stevens Point, lesbian activist and Wisconsin Lesbian/Gay Network (WLGN) member Jeanne Witte was elected as a Mondale delegate with the support of a strong labor vote.

Gay PAC Launches '84 Campaign

The Human Rights Campaign Fund (HRCF) is in the midst of final preparations for an ambitious new fund-raising campaign dubbed "Show Our Strength-'84" (SOS-84). The gay political action committee has set a goal of collecting at least $19.84 from each of 25,000 or more contributors in a 2-1/2 month national drive that was officially kicked off on April 16th.

HRCF Executive Director Vic Basile says he hopes SOS-84 will account for at least half of the $1 million the organization hopes to raise for the 1984 election cycle. He said the drive will be targeted at 180 cities including major metropolitan areas in Wisconsin.

Vic Basile met with Madison gay/lesbian leaders and 18 Milwaukee leaders on April 26th. Dick Wagner has been named Interim Chair of the Madison SOS-84 group. Paul DeMarco, Tom Martin, and Roger Durand are the Milwaukee Interim Committee for SOS-84. The Milwaukee group meets again May 4th and a permanent Milwaukee committee and further plans will be developed at that time. (Basile informed the Milwaukee group that they made up the second largest group that he had spoken to thus far on his whirlwind tour.)

Basile noted that SOS-84 committees have been established in 25 cities so far. He added that committees in another 23 cities would be set up by the first week in May and that another 17 cities would come on board after that.

HRCF, established in 1980, disburses money to certain Congressional candidates who are supportive of — or at least open-minded about — gay rights. The PAC raised just over $600,000 for the 1982 elections and made contributions to 119 candidates. Basile is optimistic the fund will fare better this election cycle. "My sense is we're well-positioned to raise more than $600,000," he said.

UW-M Faculty Senate Urged To Protest Against Gay Bias

The University of Wisconsin — Milwaukee Faculty Senate will be asked to vote May 15th on increasing its call for the campus ROTC to stop discriminating against gays, campus leaders said recently.

ROTC regulations prohibit gays from being commissioned as military officers or receiving ROTC scholarships.

The senate voted in May 1983 to urge ROTC officials to abandon those policies and follow UWM regulations barring discrimination against gays. However, "technical problems" hampered enforcement of the original senate resolution, said Eric Jernberg, former Student Association vice president and one of those who originally pressed the issue.

"Translations"

by Kevin Michael

The Milwaukee Repertory Theater closes its 30th anniversary season with Brian Friel's Irish drama, Translations. Set in a hedge school in County Donegal in 1833, it is a clear study in intercultural relations. A team of British surveyors come to draw a new map of Ireland, but are confronted with the dilemma of the Gaelic language and the problem of trying to communicate.

Friel penned Philadelphia, Here I Come while at the Guthrie Theatre in Minneapolis in 1965. It was first produced at the Dublin Theatre Festival and is his most famous work and enjoyed a long and successful Broadway run.

Translations, which was written in 1980, is a definite challenge to mount. Because of the grand import of the language, the emphasis is on understanding or the lack of it within the context of the play. Interestingly, it is easy for this reviewer to enjoy the delightful linguistics of a Shakespearean drama, but to stay with the Gaelic speech patter and language flow here demanded much discipline and concentration.

It is the renaming of Gaelic bags and dales with Anglo choices that says a great deal about a subtle cultural overpowering by the British. Perhaps this issue, among many others, is at the base of their con-frank discussion. Explain that his subtle motions (i.e. - the winks, etc.) have not gone unnoticed and you'd like to pursue the matter further if he's interested. Believe me when I tell you that he'll either A) let it go further, or B) deny that his winks have any subliminal meaning to them and probably will not "tease" you anymore. It's against the law to fire someone for their sexual orientation, so I wouldn't worry too much about that. Let me know what happens! (I too had a crush on a lawyer a few years back. I fought with myself for several weeks trying to decide whether or not I should ask him out. Finally, I slipped a frank, but polite note in one of his briefs knowing he'd be the only one seeing it. It worked. Too bad he turned out to be a bonafide jerk, but at least I settled my curiosity.)

This week's mail was really FUN! (You should have seen the ones that didn't get printed!) Keep those grodie letters coming to Dear Davey, c/o Wisconsin In Step, 823 N. 2nd Street, Suite 409, Milwaukee, WI 53203.

DEAR DAVEY

DEAR DAVEY: While down in Chicago recently, I found myself at one of the bath houses there. I settled down in the TV room to watch some good smut when this cute little thing strolls in. One thing leads to another and the next thing I know I'm impaled in his butt. After a short while, I felt things get a bit "loose" down there and decided I'd had enough. After pulling out, I felt this warm mass in my downed trouser leg, and to my horror found a true load had found its way all over my body from the waist down. What a mess! I went to the shower room and scooped most of it off and showered the rest off. Luckily, I had an extra pair of jeans with me. Any suggestions on how to avoid this situation again?

Stinkpot Steve Slinger

DEAR STINK: Yech!!! Congratulations — you're the first person ever to gross me out like that!

DEAR DAVEY: I live in a small town where one's sexual orientation is best kept sort of secret. Getting to a bigger town presents somewhat of a problem most of the time, so I masturbate a lot. My paperboy happened to catch a glimpse of me saying hello to Betty Palmer and her Five Swinging Sisters a couple of weeks ago. When he came around to collect for that week, he asked if it would be alright if he came over and jerked off with me. I said fine thinking he wouldn't. Well, the next day he was there at my doorstep ready and willing. We both had a good time, although I didn't want to do anything with him because he's only 15 or 16 (I'm 31). Within three days, he was bringing over anywhere between five and eight other boys and all of us would get into these pretty steamy sessions. I have to fight back every ounce of lust I have to avoid sexual contact with any of these boys. Three of them are particularly handsome (and hung) and I don't think I'll be able to control myself much longer. Can I get into trouble for doing what I'm doing?

Chickenchaser Chuck Little Chute

DEAR CHUCK: You bet your sweet ass you can! I know it must be hard for you to say no to these fun and games, but the bottom line is that you can get arrested and put behind bars for quite some time. It's immaterial that you haven't touched any of them — just the fact that you're engaging in what you're doing is enough to convict you. For God's sake put an end to your sessions immediately. Try taking out a classified ad in any of the statewide papers and try to meet someone that way. Let the boys know you're interested in them — but in a couple of years when they're 18. Pray that none of them spill the beans to someone they shouldn't!

DEAR DAVEY: I work in a large legal office in downtown Milwaukee. There is this one hunk of a junior lawyer who is real cute and often flashes me a wink and a smile that makes me shiver with excitement. I'd really like to find out if he's gay because I don't know if he's gay or not. Is it possible for a lawyer to be gay? How do I find out? How do I approach him?

Legalbeagle Bob Bayside

DEAR BEAGLE: Many professional people live an alternative lifestyle, but because of the professional "image" usually will not flaunt their sexuality in public. The trick here is to get your hunk out of the office where you can talk without the danger of "little ears" overhearing any tinued conflict even today. Eric Hill's character Owen, is the pivotal one in this process. He excellently portrays an Irishman who allows himself to be used as the tool of the English in their takeover. Lieutenant Yolland is acted well by Tom Blair. In his seasons since 1975 with the Rep, he has matured greatly in character depth. Splendid performances are also turned out by Daniel Mooney, Wyman Pendleton, and Alan Kopischke.

The Milwaukee Rep is to be greatly commended for the installation of the new infrared listening system for the hearing impaired. Theatre patrons wishing this service should contact the PAC Box Office for seating information.

Sports In The Heartland

by Tom Salzsieder

13 Milwaukee bowlers participated in a bowling tournament held in Kansas City over the Easter weekend, and three of them did extremely well. David Fre took first place in the singles event and fourth in all events. Also placing in the money were Dickie F. and Tommy L.

The Monday and Friday night bowling leagues have recently concluded their 1983-84 seasons, while the Sunday night league has one more week to go. Congratulations to Uncle Al, Dean, Jeff, Joe and Lou of Your Place Partners for their first place finish in the Monday Night League. This Is It Ball Bangers finishes second and Ball Game DeLuxe 30 & Over came in third. Congratulations, too, to the Ball Game Flo Jobs, with Flo, Swanee, David J., Paul F. and Ken W. for their first place finish in the Friday Night League. Second place went to Metro Tap and third place to This Is It, who was runner-up for the second half of the season.

Remember, the Spring H.I.T. League starts Tuesday, May 8th at Landmark Lanes, and the H.I.T. Duck Pin League on Thursday, May 10 at Koz's.

Preparations are underway for the Wreck Room Classic Softball Tournament to be held over Memorial Day weekend in Milwaukee. So far, commitments have been made by teams from New York, Atlanta, Chicago, Los Angeles, New Haven, and a first time entrant, Tampa. Teams will be arriving in Milwaukee on Thursday, May 24th with the games slated to start on Friday, May 25th. Housing will be needed for many of the out of town guests. If you can host anyone during that weekend, please contact the tournament housing director, Ken Kurtz at 273-0494. The next fund raiser for the tournament will be an auction at the Wreck Room on Sunday evening, May 13th at 10 p.m. If you have any items you would like to donate, just drop them off at the Wreck Room before the auction. The earlier the better. Donations of cocktail parties and dinners are especially welcome. Also, stop by the Wreck Room that evening to pick up some great bargains (you may also "pick up" someone else that evening). On Sunday, May 20th, the YP softball team will sponsor a cook-out at Your Place as a fund raiser.

We had a great showing at the opening day celebration for the Saturday Softball Beer League (SSBL) at Mitchell Park. Let's keep that show of support rolling and do try and attend the games held every Saturday in Mitchell Park. ■

"Gadabout"

by Ron Geiman

Gadabout — "One who goes about seeking gossip or excitement." And, how's this for a definition of gossip — "A healthy interest in human feature."

Here's another definition for you that occurred to me after hearing about the recent earthquake in the Ess Eff area — instead of using the "Richter Scale" to measure the quake's intensity, why not call it the "Rectal Scale" — to show how much you "excrete" in your pants when you're scared to death by the quake?

Next item . . .

If you've seen the hunky blonde stud in the Soloflex work-out video — you must read on . . . the blonde is 21 year old Scott

Madsen, who two years ago was an Oregon farm boy, who answered a newspaper ad for "male model with a gymnast build." Since he became their model, they've sold thousands of the machines at $625 (and probably hundreds of thousands of videos). Anyway — now he's signed to star in Leatherboys — a feature film about a post-nuclear holocaust teen gange, which starts shooting in June. You can also keep your eyes peeled for Christain Dior underwear ads (featuring Scott) in national magazines this summer. (There are also rumors that Scott appeared in porno flicks before the Soloflex stint — hmmm!) If anyone has that

THE LIBRARY

Black Fashion Book Has Good Photos And Advice

by Alyn W. Hess

Mike Fields, famous black model who was the first one accepted by the top Ford Model Agency, has just had his Getting It Together new book published. This is a rather high priced paperback book at $12.95 for only 150 pages. But it does have a lot of photographs, however they are only black and white. So why should such a small book cost so much? Better ask Dodd, Mead & Co., the publishers.

There are not a lot of fashion and grooming guides just for black men alone. There are several for black women, which may give a quick note for some male problems like whisker bumps, and leave it at that. So this is a book to fill in a much needed gap. But they must not think they will sell many books and with such a high price they will fulfill their own guess as to the size of the market for such a book. They did not even add in all us white guys, who will just buy the book to drool over the lovely black models. Many are in rather fetching and slightly suggestive poses. Now this not an erotica collection however, so don't get the wrong idea!

Much of the advice Fields gives is sound, but color photos would have gotten across his messages about what looks good with particular shades of skin, particular builds, and types of hair style. It is hard to believe that even now young men have not yet learned how to dress for a job interview. But I have seen friends of mine go to an interview with hair in braids, with friends (for moral support) and even wearing radio earsets for listening. Fields tells how to dress for a power look (not his words, however) and still not give up a black sense of fashion and style. How many times I've seen a guy who just cuts and styles his hair in a way that makes his face and head shape look odd. There are many whose skull is not a beautifully sculptured shape, yet they wear their hair cut right down to the skull and waved flat to boot. A medium to longer afro could balance up the sculptural composition of the face and use the hair to frame it. Or, we have seen a man with a hair line so low on the forehead that it gives his face a monkey look! Fields tells you how to choose a style for your hair. You don't all have to try and look like Michael Jackson with a few long stringy curls hanging down the forehead. That look does not look good on all faces. And where it does not, it just looks like a mindless imitation instead of an original fashion statement of one self.

So forget the price and go to your library and check it out. If they don't have it in that library collection, ask them to order it for you. After all, if you don't stand up for your right to get information relevant to your life, who will?

Someone once labeled television as a "vast wasteland" with programmers and producers often ignoring minorities, least of which is the gay community. With the explosion of cable television, many minority groups have been able to view programming specifically aimed at their culture. The latest venture into the cable television market is the Gay Television Network (GTN). Broadcasting locally over channel 69B, GTN boasts a wide variety of programming geared toward the gay viewer. GTN has provided a tentative list of the programs to be aired this Summer, which I have listed below.

Diff'rent Strokes

A documentary focusing on bizarre and unusual methods of self-gratification.

I Was Lucy

Ricky is furious when Lucy has a sex change operation to impress guest star Renee Richards.

The Wide World Of Water Sports

Live coverage of the National Distance Competition held in San Francisco.

The Crisco Kid

The on-going story of a young man's quest to spread the joys of Crisco in the Old West.

The Day After (Movie)

The true story of the tragic aftermath resulting from a Saturday night date with Jackie "Oh".

S&M Magazine

Reports on the latest fads including Texas chain saw massages and solar powered vibrators. Chef Tell prepares a tasty aphrodisiac.

Cool Hand Luke

A drama depicting the chilling story of a crazed doctor with ice cold hands, who enjoys checking young males for hernias.

Who Says TV Is A Vast Wasteland?

by W. W. Wells III

Eight Is Not Enough

Willie, a size queen, continues his pursuit of men endowed with more than eight inches.

The Price Is Right (Movie)

A sex starved man searches for a reasonably priced hustler who accepts VISA, MasterCard, or American Express.

Genital Hospital

Romance and intrigue in a small town sex clinic is the setting for this soap opera.

All In The Family

"Incest is best" when a gay father and his two gay sons hit the baths in search of fun and relaxation.

More

porno (pant, pant . . .) pleeze let me know!

Did you read the recent Dear Abby? It seems there was an on-going dialogue between Abby and her readers involving men who didn't want their wives going to male doctors. This one woman then wrote in to tell how her husband had demanded her to change to a female doctor. Well, she changed alright — divorced her husband and moved in with her new female doctor.

I love it!

The Parkway Theatre is now featuring all-male cast porno movies every Monday — all day until 11 p.m.

Another new bar opened in Milwaukee — Clay's Castaways, a relaxing, easy atmosphere bar on South Kinnickinnic, one block south of Mitchell.

That's three bars opening in three months — The Unicorn, La Cage Aux Folles, and Clay's Castaways.

However, Grand Avenue Pub's (GAP) doors are locked. Lots of rumor, but Paul told me he had "other business interests," and sold the bar for a "good price." He's thinking about taking up a West Coast position. (Is Scott staying or leaving? I

M&M continues with their renovations — and I must congratulate them for taking the plunge by un-shuttering the street level windows. I like it, and they're going to start some new live entertainment on Saturday nights with Glass Menagerie "candlelight dining."

La Cage Aux Folles is having its grand opening celebration Tuesday, May 8th — 4 p.m.-on. There will be complimentary champagne and buffets and "Guess The Pennies Contest", performance by the resurrected Who's No Lady Revue (Samantha's group), with special guests plus Miss Gay Wisconsin Abbey Rhodes. Drink specials and prize giveaways ("Get a bike, get a bike!")

Sam's in Madison is being sold — no papers signed yet, the last time I talks to Sam. But, there are interested parties — one of which wants to keep it gay.

Meanwhile, Rod's The New Bar is going great guns in Madison.

Women — going to Madison? Clip Emily's free admission coupon that appears in this issue. The more that get clipped and used — the more Julie will realize that many lesbians read In Step.

I must welcome artist Jim Faulkenberg to our art staff — his work appears on the cover of this issue. Many of his works involve women. (Maybe one of the women's bars in the state should invite him to do an art show.)

The Wreck Room now has refund nights every Sunday — kicked off on IRS-D-DAY, Sunday, April 14th — it's a good gimmick.

Finally made it to Racine to attend Judy's birthday bash at Jo'Dees. Champagne and beer flowed, a good buffet and a round or two of shots on the house made it a lot of fun. Congratulations!

Stopped in The Shack in Kenosha afterwards. Ran into my old friend Louie and re-aquainted myself with some old faces — and met a few new. I kept hoping a slew of sailors would come gushing in the door.

Lots happened during Easter weekend — managed to stop in at Fannie's Saturday night for their Easter egg hunt — you'd be surprised at where they had some of those eggs! M&M had an egg hunt and so did Green Bay (between shows). My partner Dave covered the Y.P. Bunny/Basket party — I stayed home all day Sunday and cooked dinner and served eleven friends. Shadows had a benefit show for their softball team, with Mardi McCall, Bouji, Christina, and Jennifer Jeffries.

I must admit I just came from recording artist Pamela Stanley's live concert at Club 219 and I was extremely impressed. I've seen other dance music artists in concert at nightclubs — but none as professional as she was. 219 added to that with great lighting and staging to compliment Stanley in her energetic performance — and those vocal chords on that woman — why, she even sang "Evita" sans music. Now, I'm really looking forward to more of the same.

dance to. With a staccato chic-derived chorus, the group is backed with harder sounding music and Debra Cooper couldn't be better. Another cut on the album that is worth checking out: Warm — absolutely gorgeous!

The off-the-wall award this week goes to a group call Icicle Works! Whisper To a Scream (Birds Fly) (Arista 12") is by a Liverpool trio that offers this intriguing entry in England's tribal-electro-acoustic-power-folk genre. Though this is forceful and pretty music, at the same time the meaning is still pretty obscure. (If anyone can figure the title out, please let me know c/o In Step.) The above 12" includes the original version and the U.S. remix by Steve Thompson and produced by Hugh Jones.

Soft Cell's This Last Night In Sodom (Sire LP) is a vibrant set of dance pop equally geared to club and radio play. Cuts like My Self Destruct and The Best Way To Kill have the punch of ABC's The Look of Love; Down In The Subway has the melodic appeal of Tainted Love, Soft Cell's smash hit of two years ago! It's great to see this group back in the dance music scene as they will be welcomed back! And finally, Re-Flex Hurt (Capitol 12") is by the British quartet that pursues the politics of airplay by releasing a second single that sound almost identical to the first. Still has a good beat and you still can dance to it.

Malcolm McLaren Returns!

by Kim J. Zweibohmer

With the unexpected success of Buffalo Gals and World Famous, Malcolm McLaren and the World Famous Supreme Team are back. Hey D. J. (Island 12") brings together N.Y.C. underground D.J.'s and McLaren in a tuneful melody and wild electronics. When scratch music first started, lyrics were sparse; Hey D. J. is definitely a lyrical approach to the scratch-funk genre. This record is a must for you scratch fans and surely a step better than Buffalo Gals.

Change is back on the dance scene (remember Lover's Holiday and Paradise?) again, and their new release is bound for the Top 10. Change of Heart (Atlantic/RFC 12") teams them up with producers Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis for a wonderful production that is a joy to
