Cover Story

Holly Brown returns as our cover artist this issue (she also did Issue 10's cover). As the summer hot weather approaches, we thought this water polo player might cool you off. But then again he may cause your temperature to climb.

Water polo is a rare sport here in the USA, but in Holly's native Australia, it's much more common. Maybe it's time for us all to make vacation plans for the land down under.

The American Run for the End of AIDS comes to Milwaukee & Madison

Milwaukee (In Step) — He runs in memory of his friends, and he's up against our most vicious enemy.

Brent Nicholson Earle, a 35-year-old New York City playwright, arrives in Milwaukee at 4pm, Thursday, July 10th part-way through his 10,000 mile run, a 20-month ultramarathon to raise money and consciousness to help fight AIDS. He left New York Feb. 29th, and after a two week break back in New York, left from Chicago and arrives here before departing for Madison, where he's expected to arrive on July 15th.

A press conference has been called for 10AM, Thursday, July 10, to precede the runners arrival in Milwaukee. Local concerned runners are urged to escort Brent Earle the last miles into Milwaukee. If you are interested in running, please contact coordinator Tom Boll at the MAP Office (273-AIDS.)

The American Run for the End of AIDS (AREA) has been working with AIDS service organizations, local health departments, community and religious groups, and educational institutions. They (the runner and a four man run crew) have been a very successful catalyst for local fund raising efforts, and for spreading the word about the existence of the National AIDS Network.

The AREA run will eventually go into over 80 American and Canadian communities, and Brent is a healthy, concerned athlete committed to the entire route. He is out to spread the message that "Together, we can stop the spread of AIDS—now."

After running twenty miles per day towards Madison, Brent will return to Milwaukee each night for various fundraising events, which are being coordinated by M.A.P. At presstime, MAP was still confirming dates, but look for posters in various gay establishments.

Earle and his crew will be out in the bars selling buttons, T-Shirts, and dispensing literature, so be sure to keep your eye out for their 30 foot Winnebago.

Brent Nicholson Earle

Earle, who is a photography buff, along with his crew takes Sunday, July 13th off for Milwaukee's Circus Parade. (Afterall, even runners have to have fun!)

Earle expects to hit the West Coast in September, and is scheduled to return to New York in October, 1987. "The purpose is to unify the country", Earle said. "I've lost too many good friends, and much of the information about AIDS has only fanned the fear." He continued, "we've had positive press coverage, and people along the route beeping car horns, waving, and even passing out money from their car windows."

If you miss the AREA team in Milwaukee or Madison, donations may be sent to: AREA, 2350 Broadway, N.Y., N.Y. 10024.

Terrigno Sentenced

Los Angeles (N.Y. Native) — U.S. District Judge Laughlin Waters sentenced Valerie Terrigno, former mayor of West Hollywood, to 60 days at a community treatment center along with 1,000 hours of volunteer community service.

Terrigno was found guilty on 11 counts of embezzlement, totaling $11,000. She had taken the monsy from Crossroads, a gay organization she had worked for. The amount Terrigno has to pay back was reduced to $6,800.

The question of bias against Terrigno because she is a lesbian was "not a factor" in the decision, according to Waters. Terrigno's attorney, Howard Weitzman, said he thought the sentence was fair but would file for an appeal.

Green Bay Paper Discriminates According to ERD

Milwaukee (InStep) — The Green Bay Press Gazette's refusal to publish a classified advertisement for a Gay and Lesbian resource agency was probably discrimination based on sexual orientation, a state investigator for the Equal Rights Division has ruled.

Among Friends is a Madison-based agency that aims to help rural gays and lesbians to contact each other, and to put them in touch with community resources.

Among Friends has placed classified ads in many state newspapers that read: "Gay/lesbian resources referrals networks for rural Wisconsin. Write Among Friends, Box 881, Madison, WI 53701." The Press Gazette refused to publish the ad, according to the Among Friends spokesperson Jay Hatheway. After some revision, the ad was again rejected, and Hatheway filed a complaint with the Equal Rights Divn. of the State Dept. of Labor, Industry and Human Relations.

According to the Initial Determination by the ERD, the Press Gazette stated "The advertisements were rejected because they were a solicitation for dating which the paper has continually refused to print; that a newspaper in not a public place of accommodation; that the public accommodation statute violated the First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution; and that it has the right to reject any advertisement it deems not acceptable for publication." It goes on to state that the paper denies all allegations of discrimination based on sexual orientation.

Pamela A. Meulemans, the ERD investigator found that the Press Gazette is a public accommodation within the meaning of state statutes, and that "there is probable cause to believe the respondent discriminated against the complainant because of sexual orientation in reagrd to advertising/full and equal enjoyment in violation of Wisconsin Statutes".

The next step after the ERD makes a decision is conciliation, where the two parties work out a solution to the problem. According to Hatheway, "Green Bay now refuses to come to conciliation, and we are forced to file a lawsuit in court".

According to Hatheway, "The Green Bay Press Gazette is owned by Gannett, and we suspect that they will fight this all the way to the Supreme Court, if need be." He continued, "This case will address a significant constitutional issue: whether or not a newspaper has the right to use the First Amendment to the US Constitution as a cloak for discrimination."

Financial assistance/and or legal help is needed to help them in their suit. Checks or money orders whould be made out to "Among Friends Legal Fund", and mailed to: Among Friends, PO Box 881, Madison, WI 53701.

UW To Probe ROTC Bias

Madison (Milw. Sentinel) — The University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents has agreed to look into possible discrimination against gays by ROTC programs at seven campuses.

The governor's Council on Lesbian and Gay Issues and student Regent John Schenian, of Madison, requested the investigation into the Reserve Officer Training Corps programs of the Army, Navy and Air Force.

"Discrimination does occur within these programs; of this there is no doubt," said Earl Bricker, Gov. Earl's liaison on gay and lesbian issues.

Rick Villasenor, chairman of the task force on ROTC policy reform, said homosexual students were allowed into ROTC classes, but were not allowed to achieve cadet status and were not eligible for ROTC scholarships.

Homosexuals are not allowed to be instructors in the military science, naval science or Air Force aerospace studies departments, he said.

ROTC programs are offered on the Madison, Milwaukee, La Crosse, Platteville, Oshkosh, Stevens Point and Whitewater campuses.

Nun Seeks Help

(Milw. Journal) — Nobel Peace Prize winner Mother Teresa, trying to establish centers in the United States for AIDS victims, has tried to enlist Reagan to help her, and she says she hopes his help is on the way.

The Roman Catholic nun met with the president and emerged to say the discussion went well.

"He gave me great hope," she said after the Oval Office meeting. She was accompanied by Sister Frederick, regional superior of her order the Missionary Sisters of Charity.

The 75 year-old Yugoslav-born nun said she told Reagan, "We are looking for a nice place where the people can come and receive love and also remove their loneliness."

Mother Teresa, who won the Nobel Peace Prize for her work with the poor of Calcutta, India, said Friday that Reagan encouraged her.

To launch the project, she said, "I told him I would do the praying, and he will have to do the work."

ACLU Names Gay Project Head

New York (Wash. Blade) — The American Civil Liberties Union this month announced the appointment of former Washington D.C., attorney Nan Hunter to head its Lesbian/Gay Rights Project nationally.

Hunter, who for the past five years has been staff counsel for the ACLU's Reproductive Freedom Project, is a graduate of Georgetown Law School and was co-founder of the D.C. Feminist Law Collective, no longer in operation. She was also a member of the National Lawyers Guild and the Women's Legal Defense Fund.

Lambda Asks Missouri Supreme Court To Overturn 'Sexual Misconduct Law'

(GLC Voice) — A lawyer working on behalf of Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund has asked the Missouri Supreme Court to strike down the state's "sexual misconduct" law as an unconstitutional infringement of the right to privacy.

The Missouri law criminalizes all private sexual acts between adults of the same sex.

The lawyer, Arlene Zarembka, based in St. Louis, strongly attacked the state's defense of the law on the basis of the AIDS epidemic. "The key in this instance was to get the Court to base its ruling on the specific facts of this case," she stated. "Because the sexual conduct here involved the alleged touching of genitals through the clothing, the state's rationale that the law is necessary to prevent the spread of AIDS is absurd. Even the most irrational among us now know that the AIDS virus can't be transferred through clothing."

Zarembka, by agreement, also presented the position of the American Civil Liberties Union. The defendant, called John Doe to assure confidentiality, is directly represented by private counsel.

Logo Contest

Lesbian and Gay Bands of America is looking for a new logo and will award $100 to the Graphics artist, professional or amateur who submits the winning logo. National coverage is assured as LGBA has 15 member bands nationwide.

A National Logo Contest is now underway as LGBA is considering a new logo. When designing the logo, artists are to consider the design needs to encompass the organizations full name Lesbian and Gay Bands of America, and a national and musical theme.

To be considered for the $100 prize, camera ready artwork should be sent to: Ron Rayder, c/o Great America Yankee Freedom Band of Los Angeles, 7985 Santa Monica Blvd. #108, West Hollywood, California, 90046. All entries should be received by September 1, 1986 and will be considered at LGBA's fall conference in Dallas, Texas.

Milwaukee GAMMA

The Board of Directors of Milwaukee GAMMA has announced a new-membership campaign to coincide with their 1986 summer season of activities.

GAMMA is reminding the community that the variety of social and athletic activities it offers to members of the gay/lesbian community is unsurpassed. For many, the best relief from the fear and frustration of AIDS is exercise and other healthful socializing.

During Summer 1986, Milwaukee-GAMMA members and guests will participate in their 8th Boat Cruise on Lake Michigan on August 1, their 8th Annual Corn Roast and Picnic on September 7, and many other popular events, including beach-front volleyball, biking, hosting of a group of people from the Twin Cities for Summerfest, and weekly volleyball socials, plus numerous other parties and gatherings.

All of GAMMA's activities give members and friends the opportunity to meet and socialize with others in a casual, quieter setting than is otherwise available.

Membership in Milwaukee GAMMA is open to any individual the age of 18 and over, and entitles a person to receive the monthly GAMMA newsletter (which hasn't missed an issue in over 7 years), advance opportunities for event reservations, and discounts on many events. Cost is very low; $14 for six months, $24 for a full year.

For more information, a schedule of upcoming events, and membership application, interested persons are invited to write: Milwaukee GAMMA, Membership Committee, P.O. Box 1900, Milwaukee, WI 53201-1900.

Alternative Women's Clinic Changes Hours

The Alternative Women's Clinic (AWC) is now open Saturdays from 10 a.m. to 12 noon. The Clinic changed its hours from Thursday nights to Saturday mornings to accommodate women who expressed concern and difficulty attending clinic Thursdays. The AWC is a walk-in facility that offers well-woman care, support and counseling, information and referrals. The AWC is a service of the Brady East STD Clinic, 1240 East Brady Street. Brady East is a non-profit volunteer-operated organization serving gay health needs in Milwaukee. A donation is requested but everyone is welcome regardless of their ability to pay.

There are other places that offer well-woman, preventative health service. Overall, however, personal support, information and acknowledgement of life-style choices is lacking. Many women—straight and lesbian—ignore the well-woman care that is available because they don't want to deal with the systems that are in place. The AWC is an unique facility designed to fill the gap in women's health resources.

Volunteers at the AWC are available to inform women about health care options and to encourage and empower people to seek help they need and deserve. Making informed decisions is one of the most difficult tasks facing a woman who needs attention or treatment. Fear, anxiety and confusion are natural reactions to health problems. ## American Foundation For AIDS Research Awards $1.1 Million In First Group Of Grants

New York, — The American Foundation for AIDS Research (AmFAR) announced it has awarded more than $1.1 million in scientific research grants and fellowships to AIDS researchers throughout the nation.

According to Dr. Mervyn Silverman, president of AmFAR, the 20 research grants—AmFAR's first—ranged from $50,000 to $60,000 each. A total of $1,162,422 is being awarded by the foundation at this time, Silverman said.

"These initial research awards will be going to a diverse group of predominately young investigators, in virtually every aspect of AIDS research, from all areas of the continental U.S.," Silverman said, adding that one grant was awarded to a Canadian investigator.

AmFAR received a total of 147 proposals from researchers following its call for grant applications in January. Of these, 56 were deemed fundable after exhaustive peer-review and evaluation by AmFAR's Scientific Advisory Committee, which consists of many of the nation's top AIDS experts. The top 20 proposals were then selected for AmFAR's first round of grants.

"The total amount requested by all the proposals was in excess of $8 million. We're sorry we can't fund all of them right now; we're also unhappy with the fact that these requests represent only a small fraction of the research dollars needed nationwide to

IN MEMORIAM

In Loving Memory Of My Brother — Gary W. Cleven

Born May 20, 1955
Died May 26, 1986

Diagnosed with AIDS March 7, 1986. Gary didn't have much time, he suffered so, but he never complained of pain, he was strong through it all, he wanted to be the first to beat this awful disease, I only wish that was true, I miss him so, I want him back. He's at peace now, with no more suffering, he is being taken care of now, instead of him taking care of us. I do hope I will see him again someday.

To Gary:

Because you are my brother my heart contains a peacefulness I never knew before. I do not seem to mind life's blows and pains...They do not seem to hurt me any more.

I do not feel as lonely nor as blue as once I did when days seemed without end, for now the hours are filled with thoughts of you, and I am glad you are my brother.

*With Love to You,
Your Sister, Jan*

If any contributions are to be made, please give them in memory of Gary and they can be sent to: Milwaukee AIDS Project, P.O. Box 92505, Milw., WI 53202 or call 273-AIDS. Thank You Very Much!

one of the athletes entered in Gay Games II, Rick Peterson, from Seattle, Washington: "There is a lot more to Gay Games II than just the competition. It's a real celebration of our community that goes beyond whoever wins a particular event, or whoever comes in 10th. It's a celebration of life in general and gay life in particular.

Being gay is only part of us. We're not defined just in terms of our sexual orientation. A lot of people are working to develop diversity in the gay community. Participation in athletics is one way of doing that.

Milwaukee's Love Affair With Toronto Continues

Milwaukee has had a long standing love affair with Toronto when it comes to Gay athletics. Toronto has always been one of the major supporters of Milwaukee's Softball and Bowling Tournaments, and we have always loved them for it. This year Milwaukee is making a full fledged showing of their support of Toronto by sending 5 softball teams to their Cabbage Town Tournament over the 4th of July. Entered in the Recreational Division are: Wreck Room Spurs (Defending Champions), M & M Peanuts, and Your Place Flamingoes. Entered in the Competitive Division are: The Ball Game and The 27th St. Raiders. We wish all of the teams well in Toronto, perhaps this year we can have first place trophies from both divisions.

And, if you have a good time in July, or, bowling is your forte rather than softball, you can go back to Toronto again August 1-4 for their third annual Maple Leaf Classic bowling tournament. This year's tournament is shaping up to be their best yet. If you are interested in applications or more information contact Ken or Bob at Alpha Composition 278-8686.

bring an end to the AIDS epidemic," Silverman said.

"For a small foundation in the first few months of operation, this was a remarkable beginning," Silverman said. "We have funded more than $1.1 million in a record amount of time, with the help and support of the finest scientists and professionals in the field. We have a great deal to be proud of today."

According to Krim and Gottlieb, the grants will support research into such areas as epidemiology, genetics, diagnostic methods, antiviral drug development, vaccine research, and a study of ethical issues involving AIDS.

Silverman indicated that AmFAR's fund-raising activities were greatly aided by a recent benefit in New York involving the fashion, fragrance and cosmetics industries. Future fund-raising events are being planned in New York and Los Angeles as well as other cities, and direct mail campaigns as well as televised public service appeals are also generating additional revenues, Silverman reported.

The organization hopes to review and award a second cycle of grants later this year, Silverman said.

AmFAR is led by a distinguished board of prominent citizens, including national chairman Elizabeth Taylor.

MEDICAL UPDATE

by Dr. Paul Turner

If you're concerned about the apparent confusion that surrounds the diagnosis of AIDS and the related syndromes, well hold onto your hats because the Centers for Disease Control (CDC) has just come out with a new classification system for disease caused by the AIDS virus, HTLV-III. The CDC states that the classification system "... is primarily applicable to public health purposes, including disease reporting and surveillance, epidemiologic studies, prevention and control activities, and public health policy and planning." Although implementation of this classification system will take some time, it is already appearing in some recent "Letters to the Editor" in a few medical journals. I list it here since you may come across these classification in your readings.

CLASSIFICATION SYSTEM FOR HTLV-III LAV INFECTION

Group I: Acute infection (Acute AIDS virus infection has recently been described in which some people infected with the virus develop symptoms similar to those of mono—sore throat, swollen glands, and fever).

Group II: Asymptomatic infection (In this situation, a person is infected with the virus but does not develop any illness).

Group III: Persistent generalized lymphadenopathy (Lymphadenopathy syndrome).

Group IV: Other disease. Subgroup A: Constitutional disease (Fever, night sweats, weight loss, oral thrush—previously known as ARC—AIDS Related Complex). Subgroup B: Neurologic disease (It is also known that the AIDS virus can infect the brain and cause dementia, memory loss, muscle weakness). Subgroup C: Secondary infectious diseases. Category C-1 Specific disease listed in the current AIDS surveillance definition, Category C-2 Other secondary infectious diseases. Subgroup

D: Secondary cancers (Such as Kaposi's sarcoma). Subgroup E: Other conditions.

Typical of the federal government, the CDC apparently likes to complicate things. In another development, it seems that the AIDS virus will no longer be called HTLV-III or LAV but Human Immunodeficiency Virus or HIV. More on this in the future. •

California Big Hunks

Bijou Video Sales has announced the national release of "California Big Hunks", a high-tech, male erotic-dancer video. More information on the title can be obtained by calling 1-800/932-7111 (in Illinois, 1-800/572-2369).

"California Big Hunks" is directed by Mark Schulze and produced by New and Unique Video. The tape features six appetizing hunks in six delicious fantasies where the characters, including a policeman, a cowboy, a Michael Jackson look-alike, and Latin ballroom dancer (ala Valentino), each performs an erotic strip/dance in their own fantasy world.

Director Schulze hoped to create a romantic, erotic adventure, that would appeal to gay men as well as to women. Initial response has been great. Adult Video News critic John Rowberry wrote, "clever tableaux, sexually appealing men who have screen presence . . . elaborately produced, beautifully photographed and edited." "California Big Hunks" is a truly unique and arousing film.

Bijou Video Sales, the midwest's largest distributor of gay video, will be releasing additional videos later this year, including a new film by Steve Scott, starring Lee Ryder.

"Statement"

The Board of Directors of the AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin has drafted position statements regarding the Antibody test and Mass testing; they are reprinted here [ed].

1. The HTLV-III Antibody Test

The AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin (ARCW) acknowledges the value of the HTLV-III antibody test in protecting the nation's blood supply and in certain limited clinical applications. Because of the relatively high correlation of seropositivity with carrying of the "AIDS virus", test results can be useful data when provided by an individual to his/her health care provider. However, because of the uncertainties regarding overall reliability of the test, its inability to detect infectiousness, the possibility for civil rights infringements based on the test results and the lack of treatment or alternative behavior recommendations based on test results, we recommend that the HTLV-III antibody test be offered only in an environment which is voluntary, anonymous and confidential, and where informed consent is obtained based on thorough counseling and adequate support mechanisms.

2. Mass Testing

(Absent a general accepted definition of "mass testing", ARCW's policy committee defined mass testing as any program which attempts to involuntarily administer the HTLV-III antibody test to any identified class of individuals, whether considered "at-risk" or otherwise.)

ARCW opposes any plan for involuntary mass testing of any identified group(s) of individuals for the presence of the HTLV-III antibody. This recommendation is based on our assessment of the inherent problems of identification, logistics, cost and incompatibility with the tenets of basic human rights.

On Saturday, August 9th, the Opening Ceremonies unfold at Kezar Stadium beginning at 12 noon—the Lesbian/Gay Bands of America and Flag Corps, the San Francisco Tap Troupe, the Barbary Coast Cloggers, the Vocal Minority, the Gay Games Dance Corps and others—all this fabulous entertainment paves the way for the excitement of the Parade of Athletes. An estimated 5,000 athletes from around the world will enter the arena in all their pride and glory.

If that could be topped, Closing Ceremonies on Sunday, August 17th, will offer many additional treats including a performance by a fabulous top name performer and a closing T-dance. (All in attendance are invited onto the field to boogie the afternoon away with the athletes!)

This issue, I would like to encourage any on you involved in sports organizations, or any upcoming sporting events to contact me either through In Step, Alpha Composition (278-8686), or at my home (321-5593) with information for this column. I do not want the column to become just a bowling and softball column. There are alot of other Gay sporting activities going on out there...let's get the word out to everyone about them.

As mentioned in the Briefs section of this issue the A.R.E.A. Run will be coming through Milwaukee, Thursday, July 10th, I encourage any runners from the Milwaukee area, and all concerned members of the Gay community to help welcome Brent Nicholson Earle and become involved with this very worthwhile project.

GAMMA is coming up with some great things for this summer...check the Group Notes column for more information...and why not consider joining GAMMA...it's a great organization, and a good way to expand your circle of friends.

Clavis Theater to Mount Exciting 1986-87 Season

by Kevin Michael

Clavis Theatre offers a superb array of possible offerings for its 1986-87 season. As in the past, plays under consideration have the impact for the gay community of last season's splendid production of Execution of Justice. My own review of this show as well as those of others in the city spoke clearly of the artistic level to which this Clavis company has arrived. Also, you may remember the spell-binding production of Agnes of God reviewed in this column a year ago. Both productions were stellar among many of the theatrical offerings of Milwaukee in recent seasons.

The first show of this upcoming season will be The Miss Fire-cracker Contest by Beth Henley. She is best known as the author of the Pulitzer Prize winning Crimes of the Heart. Plans are to have it directed by Ted Altschuler, interviewed in In Step just this past mid-May.

An adaptation of one of the classics will be selected as the second offering. Either Life is a Dream by Calderon or The Reverend Oedipus adapted from Sophocles where the famous myth becomes the context for an incisive look at the new Christian right. A most interesting social commentary.

As was previously mentioned, Clavis has never strayed from a commitment to present gay themed plays for consideration by the entire Milwaukee populace. The excellent Execution of last season and the successful production of March of the Falsettos which opened the evolution of this company speak this loud and clearly.

The third production of the season will continue to further expand an awareness of

Tuesdays
SLOW DANCING
—Cocktail Show—

gay issues. Either As Is by William Hoffman which the New York Magazine described as 'the best new play of the season' or The Normal Heart by Larry Kramer will be offered. Both plays examine the AIDS crisis of New York City. Tom Hulce, the actor who delighted audiences as Mozart in Amadeus is currently starring in a production of Normal Heart in London. Whichever play is selected, hopefully will result in greater understanding of and sensitivity toward this destructive epidemic for all here.

Lastly, the Second Annual Festival of One-Act Plays based on the excellent response to the festival this Spring will be offered.

An entire season subscription is less than one would pay for four film admittances at your local movie house. And here you're being offered live theatre! That is one particular commitment Clavis has made to Milwaukeeans that is to keep theatre available and affordable at reasonable rates. Plans are available for fixed evenings of presentation or the flexibility of selecting alternate days and performances. Further information on the season or subscriptions can be found at the theatre's summer number of 272-3043.

Consider please your support of a theatre who cares enough to present and support gay issues for education and further awareness for all persons in Milwaukee. We all need to do our part to keep this theatre company alive and well and living in Milwaukee.

Fortunately, there is one surefire, time honored technique the astute single gay man can use to keep any conversation going smoothly and without the slightest moment of awkwardness: Ask Questions.

No matter what happens, never attempt to make a direct statement of any kind. Just keep on asking questions and everything will be fine. Lets see how one wordly man handled it.

Kevin and Tommy

"Are you enjoying yourself tonight?"

"Yes, I'm having a wonderful time. I'd like you to know a little more about me. I work for a clothing store."

"What do you happen to think about the prospects for a nuclear nonproliferation treaty?"

"I think they're unfortunately unrealistic. You see I just really enjoy selling clothes and I get to wear all the latest fashions because I get an employee discount."

"If you placed all the blood vessels in the human body end to end, how far would they reach?"

"Fifty-seven miles. I guess I would like to design my own clothes someday."

"Wanna have sex?"

"Sure."

"How about my place?"

By his conversational skill, this wise young man was able to make his partner feel completely relaxed in his presence and therefor ready for the ultimate form of human expression.

Stay tuned for my next installment of How to Pick-Up Guys.

Steppin' Out

by Ron Geiman

Some changes, in what promises to be a hot summer here in the old state of Wisconsin...The Mint has a closing party June 28th, and will be moving into its' new space early in July. Look for Angelo's Mint Bar II at 819 South 2nd Street. Stop in on the 28th from 3pm on to help them celebrate, before the Bradley Bulldozers take over the place. Nearby, The Grand Avenue Pub has already stopped food service, and rumors are afloat about an Annex opening nearby, soon. In Sheboygan, welcome to Close Encounters, which takes up residence on Pennsylvania Ave. (Speaking of Pennsylvania — my mother comes to visit me starting July 9th.) back to Sheboygan, Encounters fills a void on the entertainment scene, where there hasn't been a 'publicly gay' bar in quite a while. Up in Green Bay, a new bar has been opened by Tim, called Grand West, and it's located at 1444 Main Street. (Tim used to manage the Napalese Lounge.)

That reminds me about Green Bay — Who's had to cancel their Mr and Miss Contest due to lack of contestants, but they've rescheduled it as part of their 4th Anniversary Weekend on July 20th. ZaZa is back in town, we hear...Hi Dear.

1101 West recently crowned their Mr and Miss for 86/87. The New Miss 1101 West is Toni Clarke, and the new Mr is Kevin McCarthy. Congratulations kids!

Your Place's "Orient Expressed" Garden Party was tres chic! Everyone loved the little fish pond and Oriental garden effect. (I still think the bartenders should have dressed as geishas.)

I trekked to Madison for Rod's "Miracle Thespian Company presentation of Snow White and the 7 Tiny Inches." Too much. Their plays never cease to amaze me...The awesome talent, the brehtaking sets, the darkest drama. I'm truly touched...(as I think the entire cast was, too....touched that is.) The hot tub provided the crowd with a convenient place to rinse off the watermelon goo that got tossed. I predict stardom for Alan George, the black man who starred as Snow White.

Don't forget Rod's Golden (7th) Anniversary, on July 7th (the 7th day, the 7th month, the 7th year), it caps off a week of events scheduled for the 4th of July week. (See the Ad for details.)

La Cage Strip Search Finals (where yours truly got to be a judge, fun job, but I wouldn't want to do it for a living) brought together 6 contestants, to vie for a $1,000 Grand Prize. 1st Place was won by David Rodgers. Great entertainment provided by Brian Winston (alias Gloria P Hole), Chicago's Jamie Curtis, Tiffany and our reigning queen Nichole, filled in the gaps between the strippers.

Be sure to check out the double page ad this issue about the MAGIC Picnic in Madison and the Magic/InStep Weekend Package. The MAGIC Picnic raises money that is then distributed amongst various Madison area Gay and Lesbian organizations, and it is a guaranteed good time each year. Two busses are coming up from Chicago, and people from throughout the state descend on the Mad City for the day. ## W. W.'s Guide To Picking-Up Men, Part II

Many people mistakenly believe that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach. However, history seems to indicate that the best way to a man's heart is through his funnybone. Gay men seem to love nothing more than a sense of humor, which is why any male who even comes into the InStep office automatically gets laid on the spot. Please, Johnny, I told you. I can't concentrate on my typing while you're playing with my thing!

Sorry, back to you. At any rate, you should try to demonstrate your sense of humor to any guy you meet, and as often as you can during the course of an evening. Here are some simple surefire techniques for getting him to laugh:

- Spill your drink down your fly.
- Tell a knock-knock joke in a spastic voice.
- Twist your face into weird faces.
- Tell ethnic jokes in a loud voice.

The Most Important Man-Getting Technique Of All

We come now to what may well be the most critical technique ever developed for dealing with men. In fact, many knowledgeable men-about-town go so far as to say that it is really the only technique known that can lead to victory after victory with gay men.

Lie.

Lie about everything you can get away with. Lie about your age, your job, your salary, your likes and dislikes. If he likes Madonna you like Madonna. If he likes lime vodka sours, you like lime vodka sours. If he insists that some stupid kind of food that you can't stand is subtle and exquisite, don't hesitate to tell him that you haven't tasted anything better since you had calves' groins over sheep testicles on your last trip to France to close an international business deal.

He who lies gets laid. It's really as simple as that.

Of course, the whole idea of lying is not to be found out, so successful use of this technique requires that you make a quick estimate of your prospect's IQ. If he uses a lot of big words, seems capable of figuring out the dinner check, and his outfit was fairly well color co-ordinated, he may be able to detect some of your more obvious lies (like telling him those little red dots all over your face are just bee stings that will soon go away). If, however, he never speaks in words of more than one syllable, and only uses one of them per sentence, and only utters one sentence every two or three hours, then congratulations! You should do just fine. Johnny, Johnny, how many times do I have to tell you, please! I have to finish this by my dead line.

The Easy Way To Keep A Conversation Going

Okay. You've gone to the right place, picked the right person, used the right opening line, and now the man of your dreams is sitting opposite you in some dark little corner of a bar, and it's time to do the thing you dread more than anything else in the world: have a conversation with this guy.

kend package we've put together for you. With or without a hotel room, it's a great way to save money, and Madison is a quick trip from Milwaukee. Due to In Step losing money on the bus we took there two years ago, we will not sponsor a bus, however, Badger Bus Depot is right across from Rod's and the New Bar and only 2 blocks from the picnic site. See the ad in this issue for more details.

And of course, I hope you've scheduled time out for Milwaukee's world famous music festival — Summerfest. There is always great entertainment scheduled on the main stage, and this year's offering is varied and interesting. Also, the other stages often present nationally-famous acts. All of this for one low admission price. And for those of you from out-of-town, who may be coming into Milwaukee during these next two weeks, check ahead for hotel accommodations, they may be booked up. Many of Milwaukee's bars are within walking distance of the grounds, and most of the others are within $3 cab fares from the lakefront. Enjoy yourselves!

M&M consistently offers quality cabaret entertainment three nights a week, so check the calendar of events for performances on Wednesdays, Saturday and Sundays. (If you've never seen Kathy & Diana or Farron & Evans — they're a must!)

La Cage has a drawing for the first of it's Summer Madness Honda motor scooters, on Sunday, June 29th. The same night, Boot Camp has an AIDS Benefit in memory of Robert Uyviri, with drink specials, and a chance to win a TV. The party goes from 6-11.

There's a whole . . . load of events spanning the weekend of July 4th, starting off on July 3rd and running through Monday the 7th. Too many to go into here, but nearly every bar outside of Milwaukee has something scheduled over that weekend.

The following weekend the Circus

Parade rolls into Milwaukee, and promises lots of out-of-town visitors. Even the A.R.E.A. Run (see news article in Brief Section) scheduled themselves into Milwaukee to be here during the parade. Seems that the runner, Brent is an avid photo buff, and they scheduled a day off the run just so they could be here to shoot the parade. Even some of their New York associates are flying into Milwaukee to join them. For those of you who can't come, PBS/stations nationwide will carry it, as well as many local stations.

It promises to be one wonderful Summer — and Remember — we ARE having Fun!! (And check this week's Calendar to organize your leisure time.)
