Cover Story

Our cover artist this issue remains a bit of an enigma. We do know his name — Daniel Alan Bartle, and we know he is a patron of Jo'Dee's International bar in Racine, but that's about all we do know. Jo'Dee's owner Judy sent it to us, and we agree with her that it's definitely cover potential. We decided to run with it, even though we couldn't get any background or bio information about the artist by deadline time.

Note:

The Maps have been dropped from this issue due to lack of space.

The Juicy Bits column will return next issue — W.W. missed deadline — again.

Why is this a 48 page issue? Because there weren't enough ads to make it economically feasible to go to 64 pages.

Deadline for Issue 14
Aug. 20-Sept. 2nd Issue
is 6pm, Wed., Aug. 12

Reagan Names Gay Man to AIDS Panel

President Reagan named Frank Lilly, a gay geneticist to his 13-member AIDS commission. The committee was assigned to report back within 90 days on ways to deal with AIDS. A final report from the panel will be due in one year.

Reagan seemingly buckled-under to intense pressure from both gays and many in the medical profession, to name a gay man to the panel.

Lilly is chairman of the genetics department of the Albert Einstein Medical Center in New York, and was a board member of New York's Gay Men's Health Crisis Center.

Lilly's appointment stirred up controversy from both gays and non-gays. Larry Kramer, co-founder of the Gay Men's Health Crisis Center, said "I don't know if Lilly is prepared to battle with his buddies at the National Institute of Health... I worry he's more one of them than one of us." However, Crisis Center spokesperson Lori Behrman said "I have confidence Lilly will represent the needs of the homosexual community. He wasn't chosen simply because he is gay. He's a very qualified candidate."

Republican Sen. Gordon Humphrey said Lilly's appointment sent the wrong message to young people because "homosexuality is immoral", and "it seems the president has knuckled under to the homosexual rights lobby."

Lilly has doctorates in organic chemistry and biology, and is recognized for his research in the hereditary factors that cause leukemia and other cancers. After being named to the commission, Lilly said "I hope to forcefully represent the gay community as well as the bio-medical community as a member of this commission." In a statement released with his resume, he also said, "I am well aware that my homosexuality must have been a factor of considerable weight in my selection for this honor." He said he believed he was among the few openly gay people to have been appointed to "A significant position in any U.S. administration" and described the appointment as "Richly deserved recognition of the gay community."

Reagan, who has long been silent about AIDS, appointed the commission July 23, then went to the National Institute of Health in nearby Bethesda, Maryland, to meet with four children with AIDS. Reagan mourned the disease's toll on friends and former associates and challenged his newly created commission to help "beat this disease." He then visited the laboratory of Samuel Broder, where the first work was done on the use of the drug AZT to fight the AIDS virus.

Besides Lilly, the following were also appointed to serve under previously named chairman William Mayberry, chairman of the board of governors of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn.; New York Cardinal John O'Connor, an outspoken anti-gay Roman Catholic traditionalist; retired Admiral James Watkins, who was instrumental in the Defense Dept.'s decision to begin HIV testing of military recruits; Colleen Conway-Welch, director of a San Diego Clinic which treats sexual dysfunction; Richard De Vos, president of Amway Corp.; Burton James Lee, a physician who specializes in treatment of lymphomas; Woodrow Myers Jr., health commissioner of Indiana; Penny Pullen, an Illinois legislator who has sponsored AIDS-related legislation; Cory Servass, publisher of the Saturday Evening Post and president of the Foundation for Preventative Medicine; and William Walsh, president of Health Opportunity for People Everywhere (HOPE).

Rabbis Make Plea

Washington, D.C. [Equal Times]- The World Congress of Gay and Lesbian Jewish Organizations is sending a newly-prepared educational brochure on lesbian and gay Jews to 10,000 rabbis and Jewish community leaders in the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom, an official with the Congress said.

Barret Brick, a member of the Congress' board of directors and former president of Bet Mishpachah, Washington's Gay synagogue, said the brochure received a promotional boost in April when two prominent rabbis agreed to write a cover letter to accompany the mailing of the brochure.

Rabbi Balfour Brickner of New York City and Rabbi Hershel J. Matt of New Jersey state in the cover letter that they are troubled by wide-spread discrimination against gays.

The two rabbis call on Jewish leaders to work to eliminate "hostility, prejudice, and discrimination against gay men and lesbians within both the Jewish and general communities."

The brochure compares anti-gay hostility to anti-Semitism and states that it has caused widespread suffering of gays.

Louisiana Awards Estate to Gay Lover

New Orleans [Equal Times]- The Louisiana State Supreme Court recently awarded most of a resident's estate to his lover.

Samuel Wilds Bacot died in 1984 and left his entire estate to his lover, Danny Washington. A civil district court had ruled that most of the over $400,000 estate should go to Elmo Orgeron, Bacot's adopted son. The state Circuit Court of Appeals reversed that ruling in favor of Washington.

The case is considered a possible landmark ruling in favor of the principle that "two men can live together and hold themselves to be like man and wife, and be legally recognized as such."

Two Red Cross donors get fake test result Letters

Washington, D.C. [Equal Times]- Two Washington-area blood donors recently received fake letters on what appeared to be American Red Cross stationery saying their blood had tested positive to the AIDS antibody.

A Red Cross official, who declined to identify the two people who received the letters, said one of the recipients was ready to kill himself until he found out the letter was fake.

"It was just devastating," said Dr. Fred Darr, medical director of Red Cross blood services for the Washington region. "He had made plans on how he was going to do it (kill himself)."

Red Cross officials said donors who test positive for AIDS antibody are always told in person — never by mail or over the telephone.

Darr said Red Cross personnel were able to calm the two donors who had received the letters only after both contacted the Red Cross about the letters, were retested, and given the negative results.

In a telephone interview, Red Cross Public Relations Specialist Carbery Morrow said the organization still had no leads as to who might have sent the letters.

Insurance Company Won't Pay for AIDS

San Francisco [Equal Times]- National Gay Rights Advocates has announced it is filing unfair practices complaints with fourteen state insurance departments against the American Service Life Insurance Company (ASLIC).

In its complaint, NGRA charges the Texas-based health insurer with refusing to pay for AIDS-related medical expenses. NGRA cited as evidence ASLIC's promotional materials, which declare in small print that the company will not pay for expenses, arising out of "any disease which was sexually transmitted."

Benjamin Schatz, Director of NGRA's AIDS Civil Rights Project, declared: "Insurance companies cover medical expenses for cancer, heart disease and other life-threatening illnesses. They must not be allowed to carve out a special exception for AIDS. For insurance Companies to shirk their responsibility to pay for AIDS-related medical expenses is to undercut the very purpose of health insurance."

Man Charged with Extortion

Waukesha [Milw. Journal]- A 24-year-old Milwaukee man was charged July 22 with extorting about $10,000 in hush money from his former lover, who did not want the affair to be known.

Kenneth J. Brierton of Milwaukee appeared in Circuit Court and was released on a $5,000 signature bond. He was ordered to return to court Aug. 17.

A 51-year-old Waukesha man has told police he paid Brierton amounts of $500, $750 and $1,000 every three to six months to keep him quiet. The payments began in 1983 or 1984, a criminal complaint says.

The victim told police he had homosexual relations with Brierton 20 to 25 times from 1978 to 1981, the complaint says.

Anti Gay Legislation Introduced

by Leon Rouse

On June 23, of this year, Senator Joseph Lelan (Rep.-Waupaca) made good on his promise to re-introduce the "Rawhide Bill." The Rawhide Bill was narrowly defeated in the 1985-86 Session of the Wisconsin State Legislature.

Last Session the bill was stopped in an Assembly committee and passed by a Senate committee, but did so too late to be placed on the Senate's agenda for floor debate and a vote. Once this occurred the leaders of the repeal effort found another way to push for their anti-gay initiative. They found an innocent bill that had passed committee in both houses of the legislature and deliberately tried to amend the bill on the floor to contain a provision allowing all 501 (c) (3) tax exempt organizations the right to fire gay people. This anti-gay amendment passed the Senate 21-12 and was narrowly defeated in the Assembly by a vote of 53-47. Tony Earl, our former Governor, would have vetoed that bill. Governor Tommy Thompson has publically stated that he will sign the measure.

This year's Rawhide Bill is entitled (SB 301). It has 11 sponsors in the Senate and 26 sponsors in the Assembly. Eight of the Senate sponsors and 25 of the Assembly sponsors are Republicans. SB 301 has been referred to the Judiciary and Consumer Affairs Committee in the Senate.

Representative Wayne Wood (Dem-Janesville) is expected to introduce a companion bill in the Assembly. Rep. Wood lead the fight against AB 70, our human rights bill, in the 1981-82 Legislative Session when it was up for approval. Rep. Wood is a member of the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church and often holds prayer vigils in his state capitol office.

One very major hypocrisy that I find with both Senator Leean and Rep. Wood is that they both oppose public funding for abortions because they feel that taxpayers that disagree with abortion rights should not have to pay for them. However, they both insist that taxpayers that support gay rights should still be forced to contribute their tax dollars to an organization that demands the right to fire gay people. The Rawhide Boys Ranch receives over $500,000 in taxpayer's money, including gay taxpayer's money, to run its organization every year.

MAP FEST '87

[MAP]- The Milwaukee AIDS Project, in cooperation with local merchants, is proud to announce this year's "MAP-FEST", to be held on Labor Day. That's MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 7th, so mark your calendars.

On that day, South 2nd Street between National and Walker will be transformed into the "Best Fest in town," featuring 8 hours of entertainment on the YP Stage (located in the YP parking lot), fun, frivolity, food and drink, with a variety of tantalizing taste treats to titillate your tummies!

Your $2.00 donation (payable at convenient stands located at either end of Second Street and inside the YP) will allow you admittance to all the fun.

Close to 2,000 people attended last year. We're expecting that many... and more, yourself included. You didn't attend last year? Well, ask someone who did, and they'll tell you of all the fun that you missed. Don't miss it this year! Join all your friends in the spirit of unity and camaraderie and help raise the much needed funds to enable MAP to continue to provide its quality services to the Milwaukee area.

Food and game booths will be mixed with local businesses displaying their wares. Attention Merchants: If you'd like to be included in this year's MAP FEST, please call the MAP offices (273-2437) and leave a message. Someone will contact you because, with your participation we can make this year's FEST the best ever.

Milw. March on Washington Committee Sets August 8th Meeting

The Milwaukee Committee for the March on Washington is moving into high gear, and seeking members to fill out their board, and volunteers to "get the word out." The general gay/lesbian public is welcome to join the Committee's invited guests (ranging from public officials, to business owners, and other gay/lesbian organizations), to a town meeting to be held Sat. August 8 in a meeting room behind In Step Magazine's office (225 South 2nd St.).

The committee is looking for interested individuals to fill in the vacant positions on its board - the following slots are open: Treasurer, Secretary, and Media Spokesperson.

During formative meetings, the group, formed by Bill LeGrave and Steve Spera, ordered National March T-Shirts, and decided to make up Milwaukee March T-Shirts and buttons to draw attention to the Committee's efforts to take a sizable contingent to Washington, D.C. for the Oct. 11th March for Gay and Lesbian Rights. The Milwaukee March Committee is looking for several local organizations to co-sponsor their efforts. They've also decided the March committee will be represented at the Lavendar Hill Party and the 2nd annual Labor Day MAP FEST. There are just a little over 60 days to pull all

Spring H.I.T. League Finishes 6th Season

Tuesday, July 28th, the Spring H.I.T. League wrapped up its sixth annual season with an awards banquet at "Jet's Place."

The banquet was catered by M&M and featured "build 'em yourself" sub sandwiches, potato salad, beans, jello, etc. The cold lunch went over well with the 80 bowlers and their guests. Bob Schmidt owner, and chef Bob Grunwald (also a bowler) are to be congratulated on their excellent job. Thanks also to Jet and her staff for a wonderful time, and all their hard work. (Their regular "Main-man" bartender, Bob, was in the hospital — hope to see him up and around soon!)

Over 42 award pins were presented to bowlers who managed to make the 200, 500, and 600 clubs. Marilyn R. & Barb G. from Jet's 747's were awarded high scratch woman's game & series respectively. Jeff (a.k.a. Jenny) Clark walked away with all the scratch awards for the men. He also had the high league average of 198.

league, a portion of the dues are designated as a donation to the H.I.T. organization. The funds are used to help defray costs involved in putting on Milwaukee's national gay bowling tournament (H.I.T.) over Thanksgiving weekend. This year the contributions from the bowlers totaled $700. Bob Gliniecki, director of H.I.T. thanked all those who participated on behalf of the H.I.T. board of directors.

A special thank-you to the Bayview R.F.D. team who donated their entire winnings to M.A.P. for the third year in a row.

84 Charing Cross Road

by Kevin Michael

A thoughtfully charming film for viewing this summer is "84 Charing Cross Road" which at this writing is playing at one Milwaukee theater on the Northwest side. Yes, that's right, one.

This simple film chronicles the relationship between American scriptwriter, Helen Hanff, and a clerk at the London book-sellers found at the above address. In Hanff's search for rare books, she and the clerk correspond only through the mail but the friendship and relationship which develops over many years is touching and poignant.

Anne Bancroft is a marvelous actress who has a delightful time with this role. She is especially credible as a New Yorker and portrays the proper mix of heart covered by enough tough crustiness to make her believable as an inhabitant of the Big Apple. Also, she clearly communicates that she enjoys this role, and we too; enjoy her having a good time.

Her co-star as the English bookseller is Anthony Hopkins. He gives us a good portrayal. However, his acting is typically British as are the members of his family and co-workers and one experience the English as themselves — on their terms — to understand fully. The scene involving the coronation ceremony of Queen Elizabeth II (see also in "Prick Up Your Ears") shows this quite clearly. If you have visited England or have any British acquaintances, you know exactly of what I speak.

One fine example of international cinematic cooperation is the fact that two film companies — one American, the other English, compiled this film. It makes for a remarkable blend of two distinct yet complimentary filmatic styles and gives the movie a terrific flavor and feel in the presentation of both main characters and their respective milieux.

It is personally discouraging to me that so fine a film is relegated to one Milwaukee theater while there is a multitude of summer movie bilge getting maximum exposure and marketing and making megabucks. On which type of summer film will you spend your movie money? "84 Charing Cross Road" is a must from my perspective but then again you could settle for bilge.

'Stonewall Inn Editions' Released by St. Martin's

St. Martin's Press has released four new books: Buddies, Gay Priest, Blackbird, and Joseph and the Old Man, in a new line of gay trade paperbacks called Stonewall Inn Editions.

The first four titles have all been previously published in hardcover by St. Martin's and represent the beginning of what is hoped to be a popular and successful new format for gay fiction and nonfiction titles. The Stonewall Inn Editions will be publishing approximately four titles a season culled from St. Martin's extensive backlist as well as paperback reprints acquired from other publishers. Each of the titles in the series will be popularly priced at $7.95, and are delightfully packaged with a distinctive look, and all will carry the Stonewall logo on the front cover.

The name Stonewall Inn was chosen for the bar in New York City, where in 1969, a riot broke out between gays and police — marking the birth of the gay rights movement in the U.S.

Michael Denny, the general editor of Stonewall said in an article published in Publisher's Weekly, "Today an extraordinary ferment among gay writers is bringing forth a body of literature that seeks to map the new world of gay life. Eighteen years after the riot at the Stonewall Inn, the surge of social energy unleashed by that event continues to gain momentum." Denny continued, "Why literary and cultural movements happen at a certain point in history remains a mystery, an enigma based on the deep symbiosis between the individual and private act of writing and the public consciousness of a community. It is hoped that the dramatic surge in creativity among gay writers will likewise enrich American culture in general, even as it reflects the aspirations of this new community to see its life and innermost soul reflected in works of art."

These new editions are available in Milwaukee at Webster's Book & Schwartz Booksellers.

Submission guidelines- Send 4 copies of written work with name on each page. Include SASE if you want your work returned. Write: Evergreen Chronicles, P.O. Box 6260, Minnehaha Station, Minneapolis, MN 55406. Prose: submit typed, double-spaced stories, up to 15 pp., limit 3 stories. Poetry: submit typed, single-spaced poems, up to 10 pp. B&W Graphics: submit clean, reducible copy, up to 8 1/2 x 11". B&W photos should be 5 x 7" minimum.

Here we go again — two weeks sure fly by quickly. A lot has happened — so lets get right to it.

In Madison on July 17th, The Shamrock wrapped-up their 2nd Anniversary celebration with a rail drink bash. Meanwhile, Green Bay's Who's kicked off their weekend-long 5th Anniversary. Congratulations to both bars management & staff! Who's held their annual Mr., Miss & Ms. Who's contest, and the Ms. contestants out-numbered the Mr. & Miss combined. Best of luck to the winners: Miss-Tess Sinclair, Mr.-Kevin Czarnecki, & Ms.-Licia Samms.

Here in Milwaukee, The Boot Camp hosted the Beer Town Badgers & their "Bier Stein Three" run. I haven't seen so many leathermen since the last Chicago Mr. International Leather Contest I attended.

That Sunday was a busy day around the state — 1101 West in Appleton had a Tea Dance with a show (drag in the afternoons—heaven forbid!). Who's crowned their winners, and Madison's Back East hosted a show with Mr. & Miss Gay Madison (Terry & Rosa) & some special guests.

Tuesday, July 21st, brought the 4th Annual Miss Gay Continental Pageant to Club 219. The first 2 years- Miss M owned the Wisconsin franchise, but the last two years Ginger Spice has taken over & dropped overhead by having the contest at 219. There were seven contestants: Kenosha's Tiffany Thomas, Chicago's Ginger Grant & K.C. Jones, along with Milw's Rene; 2nd runner up, Gloria Holloway; 1st runner-up Chicago's Sheri Payne; and the winner - B.J. Daniels. The night was filled with high quality entertainment, and I must give special praise to Gloria — who did the best job I've seen her do in years!

The "Baton Girls" — K.C., and especially Ginger Grant & Sheri Payne really worked the stage, but B.J. worked her

A WOMAN'S VIEW by Linda Hendersen

How to Stay Single

Say "I'm single and like it" within the first five minutes of conversation with a new woman and never say it again."

Never name names.

Don't dance more than two slow dances in a row with the same woman during an evening.

Talk about moving to another state someday.

Never talk about bars you go to.

Never talk about couples you know that have been together more than one year.

Tell her you don't have a job and live with your parents.

Talk about your job incessantly, all the hours you work, all the traveling you do, how busy your life is, how many women you meet on the road.

Tell her you hate driving, live 60 miles away, and only get into the city once a month.

Date out-of-towners.

Trash suburbia.

Go to motels.

If you take her home, play your answering machine messages right away; make sure she hears them.

Stock four toothbrushes and three brands of toothpaste.

Hang towels that say, "Mine" and "Theirs."

Keep your handcuffs hanging above the bed.

Say "I love this"; not "I love you."

Don't coo and sigh — scream and swear.

Never show a trick how to set your alarm clock.

Never let a trick reprimand your pets.

Don't make love in the morning.

Don't cook her breakfast.

Mention that you keep an overnight bag packed at all times.

Don't comment on her apartment/decorating taste, personal belongings.

Never say, "I feel that way, too."

Sing, "To All the Girls I've Loved Before" loudly when showering in the morning.

Tell her you have to leave early the next morning — don't tell her why — and do it.

Don't let her cook you breakfast.

Don't leave anything.

Never give her your work number.

Don't memorize her phone number.

Don't give your parents her number.

Never say, "It's good to hear your voice."

Never accept the first offer of a second date.

Don't make plans more than 24 hours in advance.

Meet places — don't drive together.

If she's late, don't wait more than 20 minutes.

Never spend Sunday together.

Never spend holidays together with her/your family.

heart out in the entertainment segment. Sheri Payne blew it all with her self-centered response to the question segment. Ginger Spice keeps getting better as mistress of ceremonies & her guest entertainers—the retiring Miss Gay Cont. Wisc.-Shante, and the regining Miss Gay Cont. USA-Tandy Andrews, proved to the crowd why they had their titles.

July 25th brought the 14th Annual Madison M.A.G.I.C. Picnic to the shores of Lake Monona. What can I say about the huge crowd (1,300) that swarmed Brittingham Park? Milwaukee had a very large contingent (although the In Step Magic Bus was, shall we say, less than 1/3rd full). And Gay Chicago Magazine & The Men's Room brought 2 busloads for an overnight stay. I think every area of the state was represented as well as people from Iowa & Minnesota.

Well, now that you've missed out on all that — don't get left out for the next two weeks! Check the calendar section, following this column, for listings of all the special events coming up.

You find out some interesting tidbits by reading the Inc. column in the Chicago Tribune — for instance: During the London Lighthouse's first anniversary festivities — George Michaels introduced the young man he was with as his "cousin"—Andross. Sure Michael — we understand. During the same party ex-lovers Boy George & Jan Moss sat on opposite sides of the VIP Room & glared at one another. In the most recent column before press time, Inc. reports that Broadway dancer/actor Tommy Tune Chicago bar-hopped with Chili Pepper. Their final stop was at Chili's favorite watering hole—Take One. I guess they must serve Dom Perignon Champagne, Chili's favorite libation.

Enjoy, but play safe.
