BRIEFS ▽

UW/R.O.T.C. Decision "Put-Off"... Again

Madison- The University of Wisconsin's Faculty Senate met Dec. 7th to discuss a ROTC program's ban against gays, and "put-off" any decision for now. The measure is expected to come up before the body again in February.

Although its recommendation would only be advisory to the governing UW Board of Regents, it could signal growing concern over the ban since the board last spring adopted a resolution condemning the policy. No action was taken at that time against the ban, either.

In late November, the committee rejected a report by the Faculty Senate Ad Hoc Committee on ROTC, which had been studying the issue for about a year. The ad hoc committee suggested that the University renegotiate contracts for the ROTC's Army, Navy and Air Force training programs to drop the exclusion of gays, and if that failed, to challenge the policy in court. The report also recommended dropping the ROTC program as a last resort.

The University system has been struggling with the issue ever since passage of the state's "Gay Rights Law", which prohibits the state from doing business with, or holding contracts with anyone who discriminates on the basis of sexual preference.

17 Yr., Old Charged In Beating Death

Milwaukee [Milw. Journal & Sentinel]- The District Attorney's office has charged a 17 year old boy in a delinquency petition of second degree murder in the beating death of Michael C. Koudelka, 37, of 802 E. State St., Asst. Dist. Attny. Thomas A. Schulz said he would ask that the youth be waived to adult court to face the criminal charge.

Police said that Koudelka, whose nude body was found Dec. 1st on the floor of his one-bedroom apartment, was a medical laboratory aide at the Milw. Co. Medical Complex, had been living with the suspect for some time.

Homosexual infidelity appears to have been the motive in the slaying, police said.

"Killing is only minor revenge," was written on the victim's body in felt tip pen, said Detective Lt. William Vogl.

Investigators said a letter the suspect had written to Koudelka several weeks ago indicated that the two had been quarreling over Koudelka's relationship with another man. Vogl said the letter mentioned Koudelka's infidelity and revenge.

Vogl said investigators found the letter, containing the suspect's first name, inside Koudelka's ransacked apartment. The suspect's surname later was found in Koudelka's personal phone book.

Koudelka had been dead for more than a day when his body was discovered. He had been beaten and burned on several parts of his body with a liquid drain cleaner, Vogl said.

Koudelka had numerous cuts and bruises on the right side of his forehead that police think were caused by blows from a clothes iron. The killer also took the hot iron and made an imprint on the victim's abdomen, the medical examiner's report said.

HIV Infection Advisory Council

Madison, WI- On October 23, 1987, Wisconsin Governor Thompson established a statewide HIV infection Advisory Council which will initially consist of 31 members.

According to Executive Order 27, the mission of the Council is to 1) advise the Governor and the Department of Health and Social Services on the HIV infection related issues; 2) determine the impact of the HIV infection in Wisconsin; 3) identify HIV infection-related issues which require attention and recommend actions to the Governor, the Department of Health and Social Services and the Legislatures to resolve the complex medical, legal, financial, ethical and workplace-related problems which arise; and 4) to determine the needs of those inflicted with the HIV infection while protecting the health of those providing health care to HIV infected patients.

Membership on the Council is for an unspecified amount of time, and is at the pleasure of the Governor. Council Chair is Dr. Jerome Gunderson, a physician from La Crosse, Wisconsin.

Jay Hatheway, the openly gay publisher and co-editor of Among Friends, a state-wide gay and lesbian monthly news magazine, was also appointed to the Council. This appointment came only one week after Representative David Clarenbach (D-madison) criticized the Council for not having any members representative of the affected community.

When contacted about the appointment and the Council activity, Hatheway stated that some of his concerns relate to increased funding for AIDS education and funding; establishment of additional alternative test sights; voluntary testing, civil rights and confidentiality; counseling; home and hospice care for PWAs and PWARCs. The actual agenda for the Council will have to wait until the first meeting, scheduled for sometime in January, 1988.

Nursing Homes Hit on AIDS Phobia

Madison [Sentinel]- Nursing homes have been reluctant to accept AIDS patients, particularly in Milwaukee County, where the majority of residents afflicted with the virus live, a legislative committee was told Dec. 7th.

In one case, a Milwaukee man with AIDS was accepted at the Manitowoc Health Care Center after he was refused admission at dozens of nursing homes, the director of the center said.

That man later died, said Thomas Harter, director of the 294-bed, county-run nursing home, who told the committee his facility cared for AIDS patients because it was "the proper, moral and right thing to do."

Health and Social Services Secretary Timothy F. Cullen said there "is some evidence that people are being refused" access to many nursing homes because of a phobia about the fatal disease.

Cullen, chairman of the Governor's

Nursing Home Study Committee, said the state was just beginning to face the issue.

10 New AIDS Cases in November

Figures released Dec. 7th show there were 243 AIDS cases in Wisconsin Dec. 1. Estimates say that by 1991 there will be more than 1,500 cases, and nearly 1,800 people will have died from the disease in the state.

Cullen said he was hopeful Wisconsin would not follow Minnesota which has gone to court to force nursing homes there to accept AIDS patients.

Nursing homes are expected to take on the lion's share of care to AIDS patients because they are much less expensive than hospitals. The cost of care in a nursing home is about $60 a day, compared to $600 a day in a hospital.

Battling animosity toward homosexuals, the prime victims of AIDS, is a major obstacle, said Will Handy, a Madison psychotherapist active in the Madison AIDS Support Network.

Gay Activists Cleared Of Protest Charges

Washington, DC [NGLTF]- Twelve lesbians and gay men were granted dismissals of all criminal charges against them resulting from their participation in the October 13 civil disobedience action at the U.S. Supreme Court, which was part of the March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights. The group appeared before D.C. Superior Court Commissioner Roy M. Ellis on December 2. Each had entered a plea of not guilty at the October arraignment to charges of unlawful entry and demonstrating on Supreme Court grounds.

Commissioner Ellis dismissed the charges against each demonstrator after the prosecution's witness, a police officer, did not appear for the trials. Noting that the activists had traveled great distances at their own expense to appear in court, Commissioner Ellis said, "I cannot ask them to return two or three more times just because the District of Columbia cannot manage its own security forces and guarantee the appearance of the state's own witness."

Of the 12 activists, seven traveled to Washington from New York-New England region, but one man made the trip from Georgia and one woman rode a Greyhound bus from San Francisco. Because of the dismissal on procedural grounds, none of them were allowed to make a statement to the court regarding the purpose of the action nor did anyone mount a "necessity" defense to explain their act of civil disobedience.

Four participants in the October action will return to DC Superior Court in December and January. Support for those with court dates is being coordinated by Sue Hyde, Director of the Privacy Project of the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF). Any persons needing help with a court appearance in connection with the civil disobedience may contact her at (202) 332-6438.

AIDS Commission's 1st Report Sets Direction

[USA Today]- AIDS "cries" for an immediate response, the president's AIDS commission said Dec. 2nd in revealing a plan for a closer look at the crisis.

"This is the most significant infectious disease certainly this nation has ever faced," said chairman James D. Watkins in presenting the preliminary report after four months of hearings and inspections.

Mostly, the report looked ahead. On tap: 13 hearings before the final report in June.

And recommendations will be submitted in February for dealing with major problems:

- Lack of AIDS drugs.
- Need for health care.
- Lack of treatment programs for intravenous drug abusers at risk for getting AIDS.
- Confusing data on the number infected.

Health and Human Services Secretary Otis Bowen said Wednesday he stands by a 1986 Centers for Disease Control estimate that up to 1.5 million people may be infected.

Now being planned to substantiate that number:

- Routine tests of blood from patients at hospitals and clinics in 30 metro areas.

- A pilot study in three metro areas to help determine whether a national random household blood testing program is possible.

Model Candidate Survey Released by NGLTF

Washington, DC [NGLTF]- The National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) issued a model survey of Congressional candidates and urged state and local organizations to undertake surveys in the upcoming election year. The survey covers the areas of gay and lesbian civil rights, bias motivated violence, immigration, AIDS funding and AIDS testing.

"In the upcoming election year, it will be very useful for lesbian and gay activists to gather information on which Congressional candidates support full civil rights for gay and lesbian citizens, so that we can educate our community and target the candidates who need special attention," observed Peri Jude Radecic, NGLTF Lobbyist, who wrote the model survey.

Radecic noted that NGLTF has begun files on the voting records of members of Congress on issues of concern to the gay and lesbian community. The files also log constituent contact with Congressional members. "We hope to increase the flow of information between local and state groups and NGLTF on constituent contact with representatives," said Radecic. "If we know what they are promising at the local level, we'll be better able to hold them to it here in Washington."

The Congressional Candidate Survey is available from NGLTF at 1517 U Street, NW, Washington, DC 20009.

Chicago "Christians" Rally Against Gays

Chicago [Windy City Times]- A right-wing religious group, 1,500 strong, descended upon Chicago's Loop on Saturday, Nov. 21, to vehemently protest civil rights for gays and lesbians, claiming that the soon-to-be-introduced Chicago Human Rights Ordinance "represents a serious breach of religious freedom."

Daley Plaza took on the tone of a born-again revival meeting as chairs lined the neat rows awaited busloads of suburbanites calling themselves the Coalition for the Family — bearing signs with anti-gay slogans, some carried by small children.

Distancing themselves from objection to other minority protected classes named in the restructured Chicago Human Rights Commission ordinance, anti-gay speakers repeatedly called for discrimination protection based only on "condition," not "behavior," referring to the "sexual orientation" wording of the ordinance which they characterized as imposing "immoral behavior dangerous to the public health."

The Schaumburg-based Christian Connection organized the political rally and invited arch-conservative U.S. Rep. William E. Dannemeyer (R-Calif.) to condemn the Human Rights Ordinance which Ald. Bernard Hansen (44th) announced at the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights that he and other aldermen would introduce in the city council.

NGLTF Releases Legislative Summaries

Washington, DC [NGLTF]- The National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) released documents detailing the voting records of all members of Congress on key bills of interest to the gay/lesbian community which are pending before or were voted on during the 1987 legislative session. The Legislative Summaries for the U.S. Senate and the House of Representatives briefly describe the different Congressional bills, list co-sponsors and detail the voting record of each member of Congress on each bill.

"This legislative summary is an invaluable tool for local and state political activists, because it shows us how much work we must do to educate our Senators and Representatives," said NGLTF Lobbyist Peri Jude Radecic, who compiled the documents.

The legislative summaries will be updated on a regular basis and may be ordered from NGLTF at 1517 U Street NW, Washington, DC 20009.

AIDS-Syphilis Link Proposed

Chicago [Windy City Times]- "I am one of a growing number of researchers who believe that the entity we call AIDS is not caused by a virus," Dr. Stephen Caiazza announced to a Chicago symposium on AIDS last month. "It is a bacterial disease, an odd, unusual form of tertiary syphilis," he claimed.

Caiazza, a New York-based physician, was in Chicago Nov. 8 to address a symposium on alternative therapies and treatments for AIDS sponsored by the newly-formed Chicago Health Choices.

Caiazza told the symposium that he came to the conclusion that AIDS is caused by a "pathogenic spirochete" — such as syphilis — on the basis of several observations. "I was seeing a logarithmic increase in HIV, but not in syphilis, yet they are spread in the same way." Additionally, he said, three of his patients who did have syphilis found that their AIDS-related symptoms improved when they were treated with penicillin for the syphilis.

When he tested some frozen spinal fluid from his deceased patients with AIDS, they turned out to be infected with syphilis organisms. Yet those patients had no history of syphilis and the standard VDRL test for syphilis was negative, or else not reactive, said Caiazza.

By way of attempting to explain that testing anomaly, Caiazza told his audience that, because of frequent needle sticks, he himself was antibody-positive for HIV. He then deliberately inoculated himself with syphilis, yet, while he became quite ill, he was never able to detect syphilis on any of the standard tests. That suggested to him, he said, that the standard syphilis tests are inadequate or that HIV somehow impairs the ability of the immune system to produce an antibody response to syphilis. He was then treated with penicillin for syphilis, he said, and "I am still here."

Boston Police Indicted For Extorting Gay Bars

Boston [Windy City Times]- Nineteen of the 58 indictments handed down by a federal grand jury against seven members of the Boston Police Department charge the officers with shaking down gay clubs for "protection" money.

According to Gay Community News, the three current and four former policemen collected more than $200,000 in cash and property from bar managers and owners. Joseph McGowan, part owner of the 1270 gay bar in Boston, gave at least $8,200 to five police officers between December 1982 and August 1985, and cooperated with the FBI in the investigation of the shake-down racket. The Loft, a gay-oriented after-hours club, was harassed almost from its opening in 1977. According to Joseph D'Onofrio, then manager of the Loft, nearly all the indicted police officers participated in the harassment at one time or another, going so far as to kick in the walls, destroy the sound system, and cut wires within the establishment, allegedly because management refused to comply with demands for money. D'Onofrio estimated that tens of thousands of dollars worth of liquor and soft drinks were "confiscated" by the indicted officers during repeated raids.

PWA Pleads

"Let me see my son again"

[USA Today]- A California AIDS victim, knowing that he is dying, appealed Dec. 7th to his ex-wife to let him see the son she's accused of kidnapping.

"What keeps me going most is the bond Shawn and I have and the love we have shared since he was born," said Artie Wallace, 32, a gay resident of Santa Rosa, Calif.

A warrant has been issued for the arrest of Julia Wallace, 30, of Apple Valley, Calif. who fled with the couple's 9-year-old son Aug. 3.

She disappeared one day before a scheduled court appearance on their custody dispute.

Benjamin Schatz of National Gay Rights Advocates argues that custody claims like Julia Wallace's are without legal or medical merit.

"This is happening more and more frequently," Schatz said. "Litigation may be the last thing a person with AIDS wants to deal with. It can be used as a threat... an effective threat."

Diagnosed with AIDS in July 1986, Artie Wallace said his ex-wife became upset when Shawn asked to live with him last January. She fears their son may get AIDS and disapproves of Wallace living with another man, he said.

Said Wallace: "If I do die before he is found, he will have a lot of problems and hatred inside of him over the years."

Roosevelt: Old Name, New Style

[USA Today]- Though proud of his ancestry, soft-spoken Mark Roosevelt does not mirror great-grandfather Theodore Roosevelt's flamboyance.

But the state representative is "making history" in Massachusetts, says gay lobbyist Arline Isaacson, by leading the fight to pass a civil rights bill for protecting homosexuals.

"We must create an environment in which people can maintain their dignity," says Roosevelt, 32.

Monday, amid cries of "shame, shame," the Senate refused to bring the bill out of committee for a final vote.

Roosevelt went to Boston in 1974 to attend Harvard University and never left. He won his Statehouse seat in 1986.

"He's always willing to do the difficult background work that's hardly seen," says fellow lawmaker Geoff Beckwith.

Madison Roast A Big Success

A roast of Madison bar owners before a crowd of approximately 150 people, benefitted the Madison AIDS Support Network [M.A.S.N.]. Held November 16th at The Avenue Bar, those roasted included Cheri Becker (Back East), Ricardo Gonzales (The Cardinal), Rodney Scheel (Rod's & The New Bar), and J.J. O'Connell (Shamrock). A dinner was served prior to the "beef" of the event — the "Roast" of the bar owners. Well aimed jabs and humorous zings kept the audience and the participants in high spirits. Friends, co-workers, and ex-employees kept the remarks coming, and the victims of their barbs received their comments in good humor.

Further entertainment by David Dosch midway through and at the end of the event, rounded out the evening's presentation.

Proceeds from the event went to M.A.S.N., which will use those funds and others in their recently expanded efforts.

M.A.S.N. Expanding

According to a release by "Speak Its Name," printed in Among Friends monthly news magazine, M.A.S.N. is increasing staff, and recently added a Public Health Educator, Susan Krause. They are also looking to hire a Case Manager before the end of the year.

Bob Enghagen, M.A.S.N. board president, said they would also like to hire a Volunteer Coordinator and an Executive Director, in addition to the positions of Krause and Sandy Starrett, who is M.A.S.N.'s Project Director. Enghagen admitted they would probably have to settle for a staff of three — a combination Volunteer Coordinator/Office Manager and the Public Health Educator.

According to the article, donations to M.A.S.N. pay half of Starrett's salary, while the City of Madison covers the remainder. One of M.A.S.N.'s goals is to get all staff supported by grants, such as the one received from the State Division of health to cover the full costs of Krause's position.

Recently, a proposal was submitted by M.A.S.N. and Hospice Care to Dane County's United Services Board for $84,000 for the provision of services to persons with AIDS. The county instead decided to set aside $52,000 to be used on a per request basis for "chore care" instead of funding any one AIDS organization, claiming that such funding would give PWA's freedom of choice regarding where they obtained these services.

Dane County currently accounts for approximately 13% of the state's PWA's. Besides its 13 emotional support volunteers, M.A.S.N. has some 75 "regular" volunteers, including 15-25 "very active" ones.

Milwaukee Pride Week Committee Forming

An exploratory meeting will be held January 10th from 1-3 p.m. for those interested in bringing a Gay & Lesbian Pride Week celebration to Milwaukee. Presently, most Milwaukeeans travel to Chicago to participate in their Gay/Lesbian Pride Parade, and preliminary plans are not to compete with the Chicago parade, but to explore other means of expressing our Gay Pride.

Anyone and everyone interested in, or having ideas how to express our pride, is urged to attend this formative meeting. Your input and ideas are needed.

The meeting will be held at The Foundation Community Center, 225 South 2nd St., in Milwaukee, Sunday, Jan. 10th from 1-3 p.m.

Feminist Chorus

Milwaukee- Maiden Voyage, Milwaukee's feminist chorus, recently participated in the 4th Annual Women's Choral Festival, which was held in Minneapolis this year.

Maiden Voyage continues to sing songs by, for, and about women, under the new direction of Chris Maxfield.

They meet Tuesdays at Sherman Park Lutheran Church. Call Rosemary at 344-6854 for more information.

Tri Cable Tonight
Cablecast Dates

[CCF]- having to prove itself first, the TRI-CABLE TONIGHT program for the area Gay/Lesbian community has won a spot on the monthly cablecast calander from Warner Cable, MATA Channel 14. The Cream City Foundation, parent of the Milwaukee Gay/Lesbian Cable Network which produces TRI-CABLE TONIGHT announces the following dates for the series:

Program 2- Dec. 22 at 7pm, Dec. 27 at 6 pm.

Program 3- Jan. 5 and 19 at 7 pm and Jan. 31 at 6 pm.

Program 4- Feb 2 and 16 at 7 pm and Feb. 28 at 6 pm.

Program 5- Mar 1 and 15 at 7 pm and Mar 27 at 6 pm.

Program 6- Apr. 5 and 19 at 7 pm and Apr. 24 at 6 pm.

Program 7- May 3 and 17 at 7 pm and May 29 at 6 pm.

Program 8- June 7 and 21 at 7 pm and June 26 at 6 pm.

The producers have worked hard to secure these dates. A series is not automatic and a group must prove to MATA that they have enough support, enough dedicated volunteers, can put on a representative program and have the sustaining qualities to fulfill a series commitment. Tri-Cable Tonight funded by CCF has met all those qualifications.

As a result, for the first time, Milwaukee will have a regular outlet for and by the Gay/Lesbian Community for exchange of news and views. "This is a major step ahead for this Community, and we are very proud to have been able to bring this dream into reality with the funds the community has so generously donated towards this end," said Don Schwamb CCF President.

LETTERS ▽

Editor:

A successful bowling tournament depends on the help and cooperation of the entire gay community as a whole, not just the efforts of a handful of people. So, on behalf of the H.I.T. IX board of directors, I would like to thank all of the bars, businesses, and local bowlers and fans for their continued support and hospitality that made H.I.T. IX the tremendous success that it was. You made it all happen.

Many out of towners said they'd be back next year, and with the generous support you have shown, we will be able to bill H.I.T. X as the biggest and best gay bowling tournament ever.

Thanks also to the entire board of directors that organized, planned and executed their respective positions to the fullest, and to the volunteers who, while not on the board, donated their time and talents and chipped in to help wherever it was needed.

Again, thank you, Milwaukee!!

Sincerely,
Bob Gliniecki
Tournament Director, H.I.T. IX

Editor's Note: The following letter was sent to WISN-TV, and a copy forwarded to our office for publication.

Gentlemen:

Yesterday I was preparing to write you a congratulatory letter on your "Growing Up Gay" series, which, given the severe time constraints, did a decent job of showing the kinds of abuse gay kids suffer in our society. But this morning I watched "This Week".

You prefaced each of the week-day news segments by saying that you were not examining the morality of homosexuality. You should have added "...until Sunday morning". On this morning's program, morality — a conservative Christian morality — was the basic text of what turned out to be the whole sermon. At first, I could not believe that you had invited two clergymen on the same side of the issue to be your only guests in the discussion. My disbelief turned to anger as I realized that there would be no effective questioning of the basic premises of the ministers, much less any assertion of another point of view. I think that the impressions most people got from the show were probably: that being gay is sinful and something that can and should be "gotten over"; that gay people form the same sort of group that "drug addicts and gangs" do; that all gay people are promiscuous; and that most gay people are unhappy because they are gay.

This morning's program did a great disservice to those gay kids you professed concern for in the earlier segments by perpetuating these and other myths and prejudices. I do not think that it would be going too far to say that you might as well have invited two members of the Ku Klux Klan to discuss the difficulties black kids face in coping with white society. If you can imagine your own outrage at such a spectacle, you will have an adequate perception of my feelings about this program.

Editor:

To whom it may concern. I visited Milwaukee in August and I ran across your paper "In Step" and brought it home and read it from cover to cover.

I must commend you for a very professional, interesting, and entertaining paper. The local Gay paper here in Sacramento could never compare.

I thought I would contact you about some poetry I've written after spending Christmas by myself last year.

I told myself that I would never spend Christmas like that again. I also promised myself that I would do something to put a smile on another lonely persons face at that very special time of year.

If I could make just one person happy it would touch me very much.

I would like very much if you could help me reach these "lonely people," by

DEAR SANTA:

I'm a dark-eyed man with skin so fair, attractive and slender with brownish hair.
 I stand 6' tall, not too big & not too small!
 I do smoke & drink socially a bit,
 I'm out-going & have humor and wit!
 I'm just 25 — still very young,
 I'd say, I'm in excellent shape —
 why I'm not even gray!
 My interests are varied — I love nature, too,
 and hugs & togetherness — and being happy like you!
 I dwell in a log house in a beautiful setting,
 Sitting here by the fire and my Christmas tree,
 with no man to share in this season with me.
 Santa, I seek someone kind and sincere,
 who'd like a nice man for Christmas this year!
 One who's adventurous & has a good mind,
 the outgoing, caring, hang-in-there kind!
 To my interests he should related,
 I'm looking for a lifetime mate.
 I'm a wholesome man, affectionate and true,
 and I want a man who is that way, too!
 Oh Santa, won't you hear my plea — and leave a nice man under my Christmas tree?
 Someone who'd want me, not just for today,
 but for all the Christmases to come our way.
 I'd be good to him, just wait and see,
 he'd be someone special to me.
 And when Christmas is over and the New Year begins, there'd be two happy people to ring it in!
 Thank you, dear Santa, that's my wish this year,
 Merry Christmas to you and to all your reindeer!

Four Milwaukee "celebrity bowlers" participated in Chicago's "Strike Against AIDS". [L to R] Marty Martin [Wreck Room] represented Milw.'s Monday Night Irregulars; David Fre [Ballgame], Chicago organizers R. J. Chapin & Dick Uyvari; Bobby Kaufmann [M&M Club] for the Sunday Mixed Handicap; and Steve Strand who bowled for the Wednesday Goodtime League. Money raised by Milwaukee bowlers will be split between Chicago's Howard Brown Clinic and Milwaukee's AIDS Project.

Tournament at Chicago's Marigold Lanes on Saturday, Dec. 5th. Although the Milwaukee bowlers only represented about a tenth of the total field of almost 40 bowlers, they managed to raise close to $7,000 of the total $33,000 raised in the bowling portion of the weekend.

Of the approximately $7,000, $5,800 was derived from per-pin-pledges and close to $2,000 in out-right pledges. Bobby Kaufmann, bartender from the M&M Club, and representing the Sunday Mixed Handicap League reached a per pin total pledges of $18.46 which more than doubled that of any other bowler in the tournament, in addition to the $18.46 per pin he also had pledges of $1,090.00 out right. Way to go BoBo! (He didn't leave his pledges off cheap either, he rolled a fantastic 194 game which equalled $3,581.24 from per pin pledges.

David Fre representing The Ball Game bar roled a 174 game, while Marty Martin of the Wreck Room represented the Wednesday Goodtime Bowling League with a great 170 game.

Now the real work begins, collecting their pledges! Please help by remitting your pledges to the bowlers promptly. They've already put in a lot of work on this, don't make it any harder for them. Remember half of the money raised comes back to our own Milwaukee AIDS Project [MAP] while the other half goes to Chicago's Howard Brown Memorial Clinic.

Thanks to all of you guys who bowled for making this such a huge success; and thanks to all of you who supported it with your pledges.

H.I.T. '87

—by Ken Kurtz

First of all let me start out by addressing my last column in which I criticized some members of the committee for not pulling their weight, and Milwaukee bowlers for not being flexible enough in their scheduling. I want to emphasize that the vast majority of the committee did an excellent job, they put in many, many hours of hard work, and their work showed. As far as the Milwaukee bowlers go, I humbly apologize. They pulled together at the last minute to have over 70 bowlers from Milwaukee participate in this year's tournament, one of the largest in-town participations ever.

H.I.T. '87 was indeed a success, it attracted a near record 270+ bowlers. Red Carpet South Park lanes which hosted the tournament offered excellent lane conditions which was selected in very high scores. They also provided us with excellent hospitality. A big thank you to the management and staff.

From the welcome show at La Cage on Wednesday evening, to the banquet at the Marc Plaza on Saturday, the whole tournament went smoothly. As always, the farewell brunch sponsored by M&M Club was a huge success and gave bowlers the chance to get together for fond farewells. And, yes, there were the usual marriages over the weekend; Minneapolis and Milwaukee, St. Louis and Jefferson, and Cincinnati and everywhere!

The Hospitality end of the tournament was headed by Diane "Legs" Gregory and her committee did a great job. They kept things afloat at the hospitality room (with the competent help of Greg Mano the fund raising chair) and made sure there was coffee and rolls for the bowlers at the lanes. Great job people!

Thanksgiving Day saw a buffet at the Wreck Room sponsored by the bar and the "Show Me Classic" tournament from St. Louis. It indeed was a traditional feast. (That dressing was out of this world.) Great job Marty, Gary (Blanche), and all of those involved. It truly was like being home for the holidays. Home is where the heart is, and the love we all have for one another was really displayed well there that day.

The Piggy Sisters (Rick & David) hosted Tess again... will they ever learn? Ray V. hosted six people from Kansas City and they raved about how great their host was. Bill from M&M signed up as a last minute host and Tom Salzsieder came through with emergency last minute housing for me. Thanks to all of them, and all the others that hosted guests for the tournament. It's all of you that help to give us the reputation as good hosts that we have!

Getting back to the banquet. The food was adequate (chicken kiev); but what the menu lacked in, was made up for by the fantastic service. The food was hot, and served attractively and promptly. Our waitress was friendly, jovial, and non-obtrusive. Presentation of awards when quickly and without hitches. The use of two stages, one for the entertainment, and one for the awards presentations was a great idea and worked well.

"Nothin Dirty Goin On" the theme for the banquet was carried out in two production numbers performed by the H.I.T. Company. Entertainment was coordinated by Doris De Lago (Jim) and he did a fantastic job. As emcee he fell a little short, (partly due to not using a conventional microphone and going with a cordless one.) The company was fantastic, I didn't realize we had so many hot men here; and the mix of real and drag girls worked well. Miss M, our new Miss Gay Wisconsin, and Scott our new Mr. performed; they both did their titles proud. Last, but not least, the Cream Cith Chorus shined. Jeff Clark (Jenny) was this year's banquet director and deserves the credit for a job very, very well done.

Out-of-towners are never ceased to be amazed by the hospitality of our bars here in Milwaukee. Not only the free drink tickets, which are very greatly appreciated. But, the genuine interest the bartenders and owners show them while they are in

Rubber Gloves — The Story Continued

By Ken Kurtz

Milwaukee- Two issues ago In Step published a letter to the Editor concerning rubber gloves being worn at the Marc Plaza Hotel by some of the wait staff during the Mr. & Ms. Wisconsin Pageant. Following that letter we ran a letter from the sales director of the Marc Plaza apologizing for the incident and assuring the gay community that no future incident of that manner would take place.

Shortly after that issue came out we were notified that the Marc Plaza had issued a memo to all its staff that rubber gloves were not to be worn. (As you may or may not know most hotels employ the services of waiters and waitresses from the Restaurant Workers Union that are not their own employees, for banquets.) Some of these workers took offense to the directive to not wear gloves and filed a grievance with the union. In a phone call from our office to Vince Gallo, president of the local union, he stated that they would indeed fight for the right of their members to wear rubber gloves if they so desired. At that time we asked him if he would be receptive to having someone from the Milwaukee AIDS Project (MAP) contact them and set up informational seminars for their employees. Mr. Gallo stated that he would be 100% supportive of such a program, but, they could not make attendance at the seminars mandatory.

News of the possibility of waiters and waitresses wearing rubber gloves at the upcoming H.I.T. banquet Nov. 27th leaked out to the community. We were receiving phone calls at the rate of 5 to 10 per day at our In Step office and officials from the Marc Plaza and MAP received a great deal of phone calls also. It was rumored that the Marc Plaza had ordered their employees to wear gloves and that organizations would be billed for them, at gay functions only. This was only a rumor. The Marc Plaza was doing everything possible to make good their promise of no gloves.

While setting up some interviews for "Tri-Cable Tonite"— Mark Behar one of its co-producers and a long time member of health related organization in the city queried me on what was happening with the rubber glove issue. I filled him in with the above information, and Mark, being the responsible member of the community that he is, decided to take some further action.

While talking to Dr. Karen Lamb (Mayor Maier's wife) and telling her of the situation, she volunteered to help if she could. Mark, knowing that I was working on the story for In Step, and also involved in the tournament, had her call me at the bowling alley during the tournament on Friday.

During her phone call she advised she had been made aware of the situation and wanted very much to help in any way she could to "save the community from this embarrassment." She said she would be setting up a meeting with the employees that would be working the banquet prior to the event. At the meeting she would have members from MAP, officials from the hotel, the Marcus Corporation, and union leaders. The purpose of the meeting would be to give a short educational talk on how AIDS is contracted and to quell any fears they might have, hopefully resulting in them not wearing gloves. She also asked if I would attend and have officials from the H.I.T. board present.

The meeting went off as scheduled. Dr. Paul Turner (of MAP) along with Karen Lamb conducted the meeting which was closed to the press in general. (Channel 12 and 6 had been contacted and H.I.T. officials sent them away "to avoid the banquet turning into a media hype.") It was truly enlightening to be present at the meeting. Only 1/2 hour in duration, the workers had question after question... they were really hungry for information. Dr. Turner and Dr. Lamb fielded the questions brilliantly. At one point Dr. Lamb stated "I have a hard hat out in the car which I was tempted to wear in to this meeting, to emphasize the fact that there was more of a chance of this building falling in on my head than you contracting AIDS from waiting on these people." At the conclusion of the meeting the general manager of the Marc Plaza told the employees that he could not order them not to wear gloves, but, if even one of them requested them, they would all be required to wear long white gloves, and that the rubber gloves underneath were not to show. At that point we still did not know for sure whether or not the gloves would be worn.

I seated myself at the banquet and waited. When the staff came out bare handed a chill went up my spine. A battle for the gay community had been won, and more importantly a chance to educate the public had not been passed up. We owe a deep debt of gratitude to Mark Behar, Dr. Lamb (who is also a member of the MAP board of directors), and Dr. Paul Turner for the fine job they did. We also owe a thank you to the officials of the hotel and the union who were behind us 100%. They saw first hand the need for education. Perhaps the doors have been opened to future similar seminars. Most of all we owe thanks to the waiters and waitresses that kept an open mind and were willing to dispell their fears when presented with the correct facts.

“Gay Personal Ads I’d Like to See”

Whether you’re looking for that special someone to share your hopes and dreams with or you’re just searching for a cheap, sleazy sexual encounter, personal ads have exploded into a popular method of meeting people. Unfortunately, I think most of the personals lack that special spark of originality that it takes to stand out amidst the others. So, here I am offering a few examples of personal ads I’d like to see.

Attractive WM looking for another attractive white male the same height and hair color to stand across from me in the little alcove next to my living room and perform that wacky mirror illusion that Lucy and Harpo Marx did on her television show. He should also have a big wanger. Call 555-0965

WM, BI, 40’s seeking man with a foot fetish. The kind of guy who likes to go shopping and spending hours around the Dr. Scholl’s display getting all hot and bothered and drooling. I’m into air-cushioned in-sole and corn pads. Call 555-2365.

Submissive Female in search of a real butch girl who rolls her own tampons. Call 555-7203.

Italian Stud I come real fast and I’m looking for a man who likes to use sex as a way of timing an egg. Call 555-0098.

Attention Photographers come take pictures of my lover Bruce. Reasonable rates, we need the money to buy a new toaster. 555-9955.

29-Year Old Business Executive clean-cut, with 8” seeking the biggest and thickest meat in the U.S. Will travel to meet the biggest. No fems, fats or drags. Christian non-smoker preferred.

Help! I seem to have lost my penis. Can you help me find it? Reward, call 555-7542.

Kevin, Please Call Me I’m that really kinky trick you picked up last Wednesday. Remember? I’m the one who got up early in the morning so I could make you french toast for breakfast and got my tongue caught in the toaster. Please call me, I’ll be waiting! 555-4529.

GWM, 23, College Grad, Well-Hung needs a date for a costume party. I’ve got a real great costume. I’m going to take off all of my clothes and put on a pair of roller skates and go as a pull toy. Need someone with another original costume to be my date. Call 555-4520 for info.

I’m Really Butch I’m looking for another butch guy, who likes to use the manly word “fuck” before every noun, pronoun,

Mathew John Hoffman III — A Gifted and Royal Persona

At this point in the Holiday Season, I begin to count my blessings. Among them has been the friendship of many fine persons within the gay community. This year, I wish to share with you a dear friend who has not been found among the interview pages but whose person has been seen both in picture form and at a variety of functions sponsored by Milwaukee’s gay community. This man is Mathew John Hoffman a multi-talented individual who is designer, costumer, gourmet, humanitarian, gay activist, HRM Queen Elizabeth I, HRM Queen Victoria and Maria Federovna of Russia all rolled into one. As I reflect on my friendship with this man, I wish to share with you his warmth, sensitivity, insight, and unique giftedness.

How did you become a costume designer?

MH: Funny you should ask. I walked into a costume shop and never got out. I was a student in elementary education and library science in college. I had a friend working on a production and she asked me, “Can you sew?” I graduated after working on costumes for many straight plays and musicals, a water show, and then went on to Yale to get a degree in design. Once you’re in a costume shop there’s so much mess, you never get out!

Do you think the value of costume design is fully appreciated in the theatre experience?

MH: Yes and no. If its a spectacular show where the costumes are actors themselves, its sometimes noticed and appreciated. Quite often its more appreciated “within the show” by the actors themselves. An example might be LA CAGE AUX FOLLES because its about drag and the costumes are characters as well as the performers who wear them.

Which are some of the "best" or most favorite of the shows you've been involved with?

MH: I did a production of MOLLY BROWN with Barbara Rush and George at Guy Little's theatre in Sullivan. It was a wonderful show and I had marvelous experiences and made great close friends. PIRATES OF PENZANCE here, George and I had such fun with the show because we both wanted to do the same show! Anything with Jo Anne (Worley) in it is fun, and I love it! I did for the city of Chicago a Black history show, FOR MY PEOPLE. It was a ritual piece on the Black in America. It didn't dwell on the oppression but the joys of being Black. I had the best time with those kids I've had with anyone. I got so much from them — in love — and besides, they gave a damn good show!

Now, the flipside, what are the "worst"?

MH: I've not liked certain shows but you put it to the back of your mind; you can't dwell on it. When it's over, it's over. Wearing a sign saying, "I hate SOUND OF MUSIC! I won't climb the damn mountain!" That's not going to get you anywhere. You're going to have to do it again, anyway. Shows always keep coming back into your life.

I've enjoyed most of the things I've done. I can't be that nice! I don't like CABARET. I never liked it even on Broadway. THE SOUND OF MUSIC. Maybe I don't like shows with Nazis in them. Oh yes, I remember it was a show called NOW IT MAKES SENSE. It was supposed to go to Broadway. It was the worst piece of trash I've ever had my name on. DARK OF THE MOON — that one I really detested from the word, go. WEST SIDE STORY seems to have curses in it. Maybe it's because of what it represents, the injustices and the inhumanity in all of us.

Are you a drag queen? [a repeated story from a question asked Mathew]

MH: (answered in a very Victorian voice) No dear, but every time I've done drag, I've done a queen.

We're still extremely grateful for your participation as HRM Queen Elizabeth I both at HIT and the Wreck Room Classic. How did she come about?

MH: I designed the costume and got the fabric and the design and fabric sat in a box for about two years. I was invited to a costume party and smashed out the sixty-five pound costume. I went to the party with the guy I was dating at the time and then at the Masquerade won grand prize. She went into the closet and came out for the Milwaukee party with Guy. I won a prize at M & M and she didn't come back here until the HIT banquet when you asked me.

Tell me about your famous queen impersonations at the Chicago Gay Pride parade.

MH: When the parade route was changed, it overlooked my balcony at Broadway and Addison. I thought what fun! This could almost be like the reviewing balcony from the 1880's. The make-up required takes four hours to apply. I trotted out there and held up a sign which said, "Oscar, come home! All is forgiven!" And also, when my lover and I were moving from the apartment to a home, we dragged Maria Federovna, the downager Empress of Russia out. The fun thing was we started out with one old queen in a black dress in the balcony and appeared on the front page of Gaylife and ended up with another old queen in a black dress on the same balcony — only this time we were in The Sun-Times.

What's it like to do those people?

MH: To walk into the Crystal Ballroom and had an entire room of men sing, "God Save the Queen" to you, its the biggest high in the world!

One of the metaphors you use for yourself is "Auntie Mame." What does that say about Mathew?

MH: I like to open windows. There are so many people — all they really need — is someone not to be critical. They get enough of that. They're sort of like Peter Pan's lost boys. They need some fun in their lives. They've become too serious too soon. And they've lost the ability to be able to laugh at themselves. Because if you're unable to laugh at yourself, you're not allowed to laugh at anyone else. They need someone to take them by the hand, and make them a little mad, or get involved in something. They need an Auntie Mame "to open a new window." I didn't pick that title; it was given. And there isn't any one Auntie Mame, there are many people who do the same sort of things for their friends. I may do it a little more outrageously at times. It's in keeping with the woman of fiction.

Milwaukee, you've worked here for six seasons. Your impressions please.

MH: I came here first to see Barbara Rush in a show at the Pabst Theatre. I was enchanted with the physical look of the city.

I had the impression they scrubbed the streets. Then when I came again at Guy's invitation, I was once more impressed. Meeting a number of people who have been kind, gracious, caring, fun to be with, straight and gay, Black and White, male and female, you name it — that's what makes any city worth being. It's not the beauty of the architecture or the glory of the climate or the fabulous foods. It's the people you know.

You've been involved in a myriad of gay related causes. Why do you do it?

MH: Because I owe it. It's part of if we say we have a gay heritage, its got to be paid for somehow. Not something that's paid for only by raising money, its paid for by doing. If you don't do it, you have no right to complain when the Anita Bryants of the world win one. Its really a matter of living. I feel that if we don't get politically involved we will not have the weapons needed to fight for our rights or to change things so that our rights are made part of law. I would love to be wrong. I would wish we wouldn't have to continue. If more of us loved and less of us hated...

There's another thing I want to say. We've gotten so liberated and political with activists who want to present a very "straight" image to the community. We've got to keep the drag queens in the background and not let them be seen because they don't present a great image of the gay world. But what all these people are forgetting that when the Stonewall riots happened, it wasn't someone very preppy in an "I can pass anywhere" outfit who fought back. It was the kids in drag. They were the ones who started it and they fought for their pride. And, no one is ever hurt by what they have done! There is nothing of hatred; a celebration of the joy of being; its part of the gay experience.

What about your work against AIDS in Chicago?

MH: I just hate losing people to something I can't try to stop. I may not be able to stop it myself but I can do something to try. And if you try, that's all that really matters. Because if enough people try, it'll be accomplished!

What haven't I asked that I should have?

MH: Something personal. I was not born in a trunk in the Princess Theatre or anywhere. I didn't have a difficult time coming out. I've never been in. You can't come out unless you've been in. I'm going to be twenty-one again this year. I am every year. I believe in tradition. I'm of the drinking age of whatever state I'm in, no more no less.

Video on Filmmaker Pasolini Released

Whoever Says The Truth Shall Die, a film on Pier Paolo Pasolini, directed by Philo Bregstein, has been released on home video by Facets Video. "Whoever Says The Truth Shall Die" is an extraordinary film about this remarkable gay filmmaker, poet and novelist who was tragically murdered at the age of 53 in 1975. One of the most controversial aspects of Bregstein's documentary, is that he poses the question whether Pasolini was indeed murdered as a result of a conspiracy among right-wing fascists to assassinate Pasolini, who was an outrageous non-conformist, atheist and Marxist, even though he had been expelled from the Italian Communist Party for homosexual scandals.

Filmmaker Bregstein uses clips from many now-famous Pasolini films including "Accatone", "Hawks and Sparrows", "Oedipus Rex", "Teorema", "Gospel According to St. Matthew" and his final work, "Salo: 120 Days of Sodom" to trace Pasolini's career, as well as interviews with filmmaker Bernardo Bertolucci ("Last Tango in Paris") and actress Laura Betti.

"Whoever Says The Truth Shall Die" is a unique investigation of the life, work and death of a singular artist. The film is in English, and in Italian and French with English subtitles, and runs 60 minutes. Retail price is $59.95.

For further information about "Whoever Says The Truth Shall Die," contact Facets Multimedia at 1517 West Fullerton, Chicago, Illinois 60614 or call (312) 281-9075 or toll-free at (800) 331-6197.

A WOMAN'S VIEW by Linda Hendersen

Get Lost, Maybe, Yes!

Being hit on is a very awkward situation for many of us. We often find ourselves at a loss for words and consequently, respond in ways that are unappropriate for how we feel about the other person. Women particularly seem to have a difficult time saying, "Get lost, woman." We also have trouble with being open about immediate attraction. This leaves us muttering "maybe" instead of "yes" or "no." Saying maybe instead of yes to a definite possibility is only somewhat confusing. After all, if she really wants to develop something with us, she'll continue to try. Then again, why keep her guessing when you are very interested? Saying maybe to a definite no is real confusing; it allows her to hold out hope. All of us tend to interpret "maybe" as "maybe yes" rather than "maybe, no." By saying maybe, we are setting ourselves up for further pursuit by someone we may not even want to talk to, much less be picked up by. Maybe should be used only in those situations when you are truly uncertain and need more info to make a decision.

I've pondered this dilemma for some time and came up with some answers to common "pick up" questions that will let our real message be heard loud and clear, whether it's "get lost," a genuine "maybe," or a definite "yes."

You're in a crowded bar and a woman walks up to you, asks a question and you respond appropriately.

"Haven't I seen you someplace before?"
(Get Lost) "County Jail?"
(Maybe) "Women's Music Festival"
(Yes) "Yes, I've been following you for weeks."

"Would you like a drink?"
(Get Lost) "No thanks, I'm taking antabuse."

(Maybe) "Yes, thank you."
(Yes) "At your place or mine?" "I haven't seen you here before."

(Get Lost) "And I hope you never see me again."

(Maybe) "Oh, I come around periodically."

(Yes) "Well, I've certainly seen you."
"You have great rhythm."
(Get Lost) "You don't."
(Maybe) "I like to dance."
(Yes) "I'm even more physically expressive in private."
"I like your outfit."
(Get Lost) "I stole everything from Marshall Field's."
(Maybe) "It's one of my favorites, too."
(Yes) "I'm more comfortable with no clothes on."
"You're such a calm person."

by Ron Geiman

Well, well, well — another year has passed. This is our last issue of the year, as a matter of fact, there won't be another In Step coming out until Jan. 21st of 1988. That issue will mark the start of our 5th year. This month long break is coming at just the right time... this one needs a rest! I'll be heading back home to Harrisburg, Pennsylvania for The Holidays. I sincerely hope all of you have a safe, happy Holiday season, and the best of New Year's!

Let's flash back to Thanksgiving, and the H.I.T. bowling tournament. Over 200 out-of-town men and women converged on Milwaukee from across North America. Once again, we put our best face forward and made Milwaukee lots of new friends. Even the cab drivers complimented the out-of-towners. You can read more in Kenny's "Jock Shorts" column elsewhere in this issue about H.I.T., but suffice it to say we all had a great time! Thanks to the following bars for their special HIT parties: Jet's, Dance/Dance/Dance, Fannie's and the Glass Menagerie.

1101 West celebrated their 7th Anniversary with a week of festivities and special events ranging from Tony Dominico (sorry about those lousy pictures from last issue, but I think our photographer was a tad too far from his subject), to a Thanksgiving feast, a show with Ebony D'Angelo and her 9 Friends, to beer busts and drink specials (of course!).

A number of bars had free Thanksgiving feasts, so no one in our community should have had to go hungry (at least if they are of legal drinking age). Thanks for the food to: 1101 West, Rod's, The Ballgame, and the Wreck Room for their generosity. It was almost as good as going home to Ma's!

Well, the Chicago girls did it again. They want to be treated like royalty & get top $$, but they don't even know how to keep a date. They've scheduled performances at a number of Milwaukee bars, and then after publicity — not shown up. They're supswirling the snow all about and with "Ho! Ho! Ho!" he was gone, disappearing in a white cloud of snow dust.

Don arrived about 9:00 upset that his car had broken down — or so he said. I wasn't about to question him. Later, at midnight, we all went out to hear the bells of Milwaukee ring in Christmas.

"Steven," Peter said quietly as we listened to them sing their ancient song. "I told you miracles happen on Christmas Eve."

"You mean Santa?" I asked.

He shook his head. "No. Even if it wasn't Don, that isn't the miracle I was looking for. It's this," he said with a nod toward the hill. "It's these people, the kids. It's Don and Jim. It's everything that's happened today. That's the miracle, Steven. It's friends and family and fun and home on Christmas." He paused, looking out on our Christmas world. "We Gay people, we have to see things a little differently, a little more truthfully and that could make us better at seeing miracles."

I nodded, feeling hot tears at his words.

"And listen. The angels are singing.

I listened and heard voices up and down Palmer Street picking up the carolers' hymn now to the melody of the bells.

"Steven. There's even a greater miracle I see because I'm gay."

"What?" I asked.

"You," he whispered and he took me into his arms and there in a world draped in angel hair, he pressed his lips to mine.

"Merry Christmas, my angel," Peter said.

I nodded, crying, as I sought his lips again.

posed to be professionals at The Baton — but obviously they aren't.

Who's in Green Bay is really "pumpin up the volume" lately with a full schedule of shows and party's. Gotta keep those cold nights hot one way or another!

The Station II — The Eastern Connection celebrated their grand opening in their new location. Things varied from night to night over their 3 days of festivities from drink specials to hors d'oeuvres, to door prizes, to live music with Jeff Stoll. Co-owner Sheri supplied me with 2 rolls of film, which, when I had developed, turned out to be two rolls of family photos. I hope she didn't supply her family with the bar pictures —

I'm sure it could tend to be a bit embarrassing. Anyway — they all had a great time. Those "Trollops" know how to party!

Dottie had her D.K.'s farewell party on Dec. 5th, with free beer, and lots of cocktails to celebrate the sale of the bar to its new owner Alan Thomas from Kenosha (soon to be Milwaukeean). Alan reopened right away the next night, with the same staff, and said "Don't worry girls, all is safe. I intend to keep the bar a ladies bar." He said it would continue with the same name, bartenders — just with a new owner and new hours and specials.

Christmas on Brewer's Hill

It was the Eve of Christmas. All day long there were the comings and goings, the hustle and bustle that went into the final preparations for the holiday so that I really didn't have much time to think about miracles. Don and Jim were to arrive after Don's store closed about 7:00 for dinner and then to spend the holiday with us. Promptly on the hour, Jim arrived — alone.

"Where's Don?" Peter asked.

"Be along," Jim replied. "Store was sure busy... maybe ought to hold dinner a bit."

So we sat with coffee and cookies until suddenly, about 8:00 we heard the sound of bells, jingle bells as if on a sleigh.

"What th....?" But before I could finish, Jim and Peter had grabbed their coats and were heading for the door. I followed suit.

What we saw was not a sleigh but — well — standing in the middle of snow-covered Palmer Street was — I mean as true as could be — was Santa Claus!

"Oh dear God!" I thought. "It's Don. It has to be!"

And then, as if on cue, there were carolers, neighbors, I guessed, dressed in the height of Victorian fashion, singing as they walked up the hill.

Down Palmer Street and across the way, people poured from their homes, the kids crying with delight as they ran out to surround Santa. From the huge sack that he carried, he pulled brightly colored packages, distributing them to little outstretched hands with abandon. Then there were candy canes and other wonderful things.

"Oh God!" I found myself praying, "Don't let it be Don." But I knew that it was. It had to be.

Santa had just finished emptying his pack when a sudden wind sprang up, Christmas Caroling Tour of the bars on Dec. 5th from 9pm till closing. They hit 15 bars, and could barely talk, much less sing by the time they wrapped things up for the night! And you know how this has been a "Teddy Bear" Christmas? (Would you believe Wendy's has creatures called "Furskins"!?). And now the F.C.S. has created their own GWB (you figure out what it means) mascot they are calling "Fest'e." The little white bears with the red and white stocking caps are decorated with little vests and red bowties and teeny little FCS buttons. They cost $10, and the first batch of over 100 bears is already sold.

Aren't the bars looking ever so festive for the Holidays? All that creativity and artistic application. The "Garden Bars" add an extra touch with their outdoor displays, such as Your Place, Club 219, M&M, and even the Wreck Room's mini garden. The special decorating efforts are appreciated by all.

"Christmas with the King Family" was presented at Appleton's Pivot Club. The show was a benefit for both M.A.P. and Center Project in Green Bay. Not all the "Family" showed up, even the "Matriarch" — Jimmy King, couldn't make it. The weather was frightful, "and so was the crowd," according to Miss M (just kidding) who trudged up there in a snowstorm from Milwaukee to play emcee.

Tons of Holiday parties, of course. Suffice it to say practically every bar had some special party or show to celebrate the season.

The Cream City Chorus held their annual Christmas Concert at La Cage's Dance Dance Dec. 8th, entitled "In The Spirit of Peace". Nothing but good reports from the decent crowd in attendance. The bar kicked off "Two Bit Tuesdays" after the concert, where you pay $1 cover (or bring a food donation) to get 25 cent tappers and $1 shots.

I'd like to take this time to welcome some new advertisers to the pages of In Step: D.K.'s bar under its new owner Alan; Something Different — a bar that's recently been taken over by the owner's daughter — Kim (who's one of us). The mixed (Gay/Straight) bar on North Teutonpossible outcome, but being honest and upfront hadn't let me down yet.

When I read the first article I was almost afraid to drive home. We've all heard about the devastation ignorance can cause as (with the family in Florida).

Ten articles later and our house is still standing! I have received a lot of mail during this time and I would estimate 95% of it to be supportive and positive. People have stopped me in shopping malls and restaurants asking if I am the person from the articles and their comments have always been positive ones.

As I have tried to help the people in Wisconsin who are living with AIDS by going public, it seems that the public is saying "thank you" by showing me that there are a great number of supportive people out there and I firmly believe that support helps to extend my life.

In closing I wish everyone a Merry Christmas as I celebrate my third since my diagnosis... Thanks to the help of a positive and supportive community.

A Closet Marked AIDS

An Insider's View by Todd Butler

Just when I thought I had made all of the decisions that had to be made about my illness another dilemma arose. Who would I want to tell, and who would have to be told?

Everyone I had dealt with in the field of AIDS had told me of the need for confidentiality. From hotlines to medical personnel it was always the same... even the antibody test was done anonymously. I know that these were steps taken to make life easier for me — to help to ensure my rights as a citizen. At first I went along with them, keeping my diagnosis quiet, telling only my family and a few close friends.

I knew that there were a few other people that I would have to tell. The few people THAT I had been sexually active with. Those few people needed to know and I wanted to be the one to tell them.

The more I thought about how I could do this as discreetly as possible the harder it seemed to find a way to do it.

Suddenly — something dawned on me. Why am I trying to keep this illness a secret? I had a long hard fight coming out of the closet and I wasn't about to climb back into one — especially not a closet with the word AIDS marked on the door.

One thing I had learned about my openness regarding my sexual preference was that if people couldn't accept me for what I am, I didn't need them. (Or as Bette would say, "Fuck 'em if they can't take a joke.")

Another thing that entered my mind was that I know a lot of people in the gay community, and maybe if they were to see that this devastating illness had hit Milwaukee through someone they knew, then just maybe people would begin to practice safer sex.

So I went public. To be honest, I was pretty scared in the beginning. The first time I walked into a bar (as a person with AIDS) I was scared shitless!

After all, that was two years ago and people didn't know then what we know now. I'll never forget the feeling that every eye in the bar was staring at me as I ordered my drink, how it seemed that every conversation in the room was about me. That didn't last too long though.

People seemed honestly concerned but felt as awkward as did I. Then I noticed that the more I was honest and open the less awkward everyone felt. This has also seemed to hold true for the majority of people within the entire community as I volunteered to do a story for the Milwaukee Journal. When they asked if they could use my name I was frightened about the unique, beautiful fine gifts, and he also offers an interior design service. There's 10% off items if you bring along the ad from In Step's "Shopping" section this issue.

I'm going to ask you once again, to please mention to these and all our advertisers that you saw their ad in In Step. They like to know their advertising dollars are well spent, and bring them results, and your comments and purchases are the best feedback they can get.

My heartfelt sympathy to Jerry — one of the partners at Green Bay's Brandy's. Last week his partner Duane took his life. I had hoped to be able to run an "In Memorium" in this issue, but we haven't received the needed information.

As Editor/Publisher of this magazine, my policy for "In Memorium" articles is to have friends and/or relatives supply me with the article. Personally, I would find it too repugnant to intrude on lovers/friends/relative's grief period to get information for "the story." It's just not my style, and I would get too emotionally wrapped up to do it right anyway.

Don't forget the needy and hungry this Holiday Season. Both The Beer Garden and La Cage are collecting non-perishable food items to be distributed to food groups. Do your part, and share your bounty.

Wisconsin's new "Uniform Tavern Closing Times" law has taken effect. Sunday through Thursday all taverns in the state can stay open until 2am. Friday and Saturday they remain open until 2:30am the next morning. It used to be that only Milwaukee could stay open until 2, but we lost our 3:30 Sat. nights. Overall, a fairly even trade-off. And it definitely should stop cross-cityline bar hopping into Milwaukee from the suburbs, and cut down on traffic fatalities. And — we can all stay open New Year's Eve non-stop until 2:30 a.m. Jan 2nd. That's alot of partying! Please don't overdo it — and find a designated driver. I don't want to lose any of my readers over the Holidays!

See you next year... Remember to Play Safe!
