Cover Story

Once again, our art files are depleted, and we had to dig into our "clip art" for something for this issue's cover art.

The next issue's cover will depict our anniversary and that has been assigned to staff artist Tom Rezza. We could use something oriented towards St. Pat's Day for our March 3rd issue (deadline Feb. 24th); and something not too religious for the March 24th issue (deadline 16th) — that will cover the Easter holiday. The April 14th and May 5th issue don't cover anything special so you can do most anything seasonal for those issues.

Note:

Deadline
for the next issue
Volume 5, Issue 2
the Feb. 11-
March 2 Issue
is 6pm, Wed., Feb. 3

REMEMBER: We are on a three week schedule through the end of April, instead of our usual 2 week schedule. The next issue will be our 4th Anniversary Issue!

Supreme Court Protects Georgetown U. Gays

The U.S. Supreme Court rejected a bid by Georgetown University to delay enforcement of a court order requiring the school to let gay rights groups to meet on campus and obtain other benefits accorded to student organizations.

Gay groups accused the school of violating the District of Columbia Human Rights Act. The University had appealed the District Court of Columbia's decision which had also supported the inclusion of gay groups. The District Court ruled that the nation's oldest Roman Catholic university provide the same "tangible benefits" to lesbian and gay groups as it grants to other student groups. The Appeals Court upheld the District Court's decision.

"This country has a long and unfortunate history of discrimination based on sexual orientation," Judge Carter Mack wrote in the opinion of the District Court.

According to Gay Community News, Attorney Ronald Bogard, who filed the original lawsuit, said the seven year legal battle resulted in a decision of broad significance. He said, "it establishes that if you have (anti discrimination) ordinances and they don't apply to religious folk, they don't mean anything."

Stoughton Pupils Defend Gay Ads

Stoughton, WI [Journal]- High school students lectured school board members on the need for tolerance in placing advertisements of gay support groups in the school newspaper, Jan. 4th.

About 20 speakers, including former school newspaper staff members home for the holidays, told nine board members during a well-attended public hearing that refusing the ads in the school's newspaper, the Norse Star, would mean denying that homosexuality existed.

Board member Larry Roberts has made an informal proposal that the board cut $1,800 in annual support to the newspaper if students continue to carry such ads.

Six advertisements from The Madison Community United and the Ten% Society, two Madison support groups for gays, have been published in the Norse Star during the past three years, Gerber said at the hearing.

New advertisers Jane and Bob Hill, owners of the Buggy Scrub car wash, complained to the newspaper's staff this fall about the ads. The Hills have threatened to lead an advertising boycott.

Stoughton junior Matthew Schultz had harsh words for Roberts' proposal.

"It's ridiculous," he said. "This town must be full of rednecks."

Schultz said he didn't think Madison was trying to push its social agenda on nearby communities.

"Part of me says it's freedom of the press," Schultz said. "The other part says that gays are getting pushed around again."

Extra Fines/Time Urged for Hate Crimes

Madison, WI [Journal]- All society is the victim of crimes of bigotry, and therefore the penalties should be more severe, proponents of a so-called hate crimes bill said at a State Senate committee hearing.

They urged passage of the bill, which would stiffen penalties for crimes motivated by intolerance based on race, religion, color, creed, disability, sexual orientation or ancestry.

The state has an obligation to protect minorities from harassment, whether the harassment stems from "racial hatred, religious intolerance or gay-bashing," State Rep. David Clarenbach (D-Madison) told members of the Senate Judiciary and Consumer Affairs Committee.

Penalties for crimes of bigotry should be more severe because the victims of these crimes are whole categories of people.

"These crimes are directed, not only against an individual, but against an entire community, an entire class," Clarenbach said.

The bill (S-442) would allow judges to add as much as five years to the regular sentence for a felony if the crime was motivated by some form of bias.

Also, the fine could be increased by $5,000. If the underlying crime ordinarily were a misdemeanor, it could be upgraded to a felony with a maximum penalty of two years in prison and a $10,000 fine.

Youth, 17, Charged as Adult in Slaying

[Milw. Journal]- A 17-year-old boy was charged as an adult last week in the slaying of his 37-year-old former roommate during a quarrel.

Samuel Dashner, of 1435 W. Cleveland Ave., was charged with second-degree murder.

The victim, Michael C. Koudelka, was found dead Dec. 1 in his apartment at 802 E. State St.

An autopsy showed Koudelka died from blunt force injuries to the head and chest. He also suffered crushing injuries to the neck and chemical burns.

The youth told police he and Koudelka had a gay relationship. Det. Irvin Kraus testified at a hearing. Police said infidelity appeared to underlie the motive.

Kessler noted that the youth would be 18 on Feb. 4. Although he could be kept in juvenile custody until he turned 19, Kessler pointed out that a psychiatric evaluation said the youth would need 10 years of treatment to overcome the effects of a difficult childhood, which included living with an alcoholic mother.

He told police that he and Koudelka quarreled for several hours after he became angry about Koudelka's drinking. The youth said he got so angry he began to hit Koudelka and pour liquids — ranging from drain cleaners to soda — over him. When Koudelka began yelling that some of the liquid was burning his eyes, he pulled him into the shower to help wash the material off, the youth said.

The youth claimed that he left the apartment with Koudelka still alive, but bleeding from the nose and mouth.

Gay Family Rights Opposed

Madison, WI [Journal]- Mayor Joseph Sensenbrenner said he opposes a plan that would give gay and lesbian couples and others in non-traditional family relationships some of the same rights as traditional families.

The proposal is backed by seven members of the Madison City Council.

But Sensenbrenner said, "I haven't seen any drafts (of the plan) I could support."

The proposal calls for the city to provide family-type health insurance benefits for people who are in non-traditional relationships.

Sensenbrenner estimated that the insurance feature would cost the city an estimated $40,000 a year.

Expansion of AIDS Tests Proposed

Madison, WI [Journal]- AIDS test provisions that now apply only to individual insurance policies would be expanded to policies written for small groups under Gov. Thompson's budget proposal.

If approved during the Legislature's coming budget debates, the proposal would allow an insurance company to require an AIDS virus tests, or required access to results from previous tests, for individuals getting insurance through certain small groups.

State Deputy Insurance Commissioner Robert Elconin said the new regulation would be limited to businesses with fewer than 25 employees and possibly those with fewer than 15 individuals covered by a group policy.

Anti-Gay Helms Language Diluted

[Windy City Times]- Modifications of the "Helms Amendment" to legislation appropriating funds for the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services were termed a "modest victory" by the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force.

The Helms Amendment, sponsored by conservative U.S. Sen. Jesse Helms (R-N.C.), originally prohibited the use of federal funds for AIDS education and material which "promotes or encourages, directly or indirectly, homosexual sexual activity." The amendment was attached to the Labor and Health and Human Services Appropriations Bill for fiscal year 1988; it passed the U.S. Senate by a vote of 94-2 (with four abstentions) on Oct. 14, 1987 — the first working day after the National March on Washington for Lesbian and Gay Rights — and was seen as a direct slap in the face of the gay community. On Oct. 20, on a motion by right-wing U.S. Rep. William Dannemeyer (R-Calif.), the amendment was overwhelmingly endorsed by the House of Representatives.

But when the appropriations bills went before a joint House-Senate Conference Committee in December, changes were made to limit the broad scope of the amendment's original language. The word "indirectly" was deleted, thus weakening the amendment's application to gay-supportive AIDS educational material. Also, the Conference Report specifically states that the amendment shall not be construed "to prohibit descriptions of methods to reduce the risk of (Human Immunodeficiency Virus) transmission" or "to limit the eligibility for federal funds of a grantee or potential grantee because of its non-federally funded activities." Thus, a gay-run organization that promotes safe gay sex in a privately funded program can apply for federal funds to support other efforts.

The motion to weaken the amendment's language was made by Rep. Steny Hoyer (D-Md.).

The clarifying language also notes that the amendment cannot "limit counseling or referrals to agencies that are not federally funded." However, original language in the Helms Amendment requiring that all AIDS education materials encourage monogamy and abstinence from sex outside marriage was left unmodified.

Taylor Found Guilty in Eau Claire Killing

Eau Claire [Sentinel]- A traveling entertainer charged in four killings in the state was found guilty of first-degree murder in one of them Jan. 8th after changing his plea.

Alvin Taylor, 40, withdrew a not-guilty plea in the May 1986 death of James Severson, of Eau Claire. That leaves only a plea of not guilty by reason of mental disease or defect before the court.

Eau Claire County Circuit Judge Gregory Peterson found Taylor guilty and scheduled a trial for Feb. 15 to determine Taylor's sanity at the time of Severson's death.

Taylor has been charged in three other deaths, including a first-degree murder charge in the November 1986 gunshot slaying of Daniel Lundgren, 33, of West Bend. Two other murder charges are pending in Dane County.

Virginia Gay Group Runs Newspaper Ads

Alexandria, VA- The Alexandria Gay Community Association placed the first of a series of bold quarter-page ads in the Washington Post in mid-December to promote acceptance and understanding of gay and lesbian Americans.

"We believe our ads encourage people to examine their prejudices, discard attitudes based on ignorance, and begin treating Gay men and Lesbians with the same respect they extend to other minority group members," said Jay Clark, AGCA's president.

The first ad addressed the difficulties facing Gay adolescents and asks parents who are ignorant about homosexuality, "Are you abusing your child without knowing it?". A future ad will address the

Hoover Asked about Gays in Press Corps

Washington, D.C. [Journal]- In November 1970, President Richard Nixon's chief of staff, H.R. Haldeman, asked then-FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover to pass on any information the agency had collected about homosexuals "known and suspected in the Washington press corps," according to a newly discovered memo that Hoover made at the time.

Hoover, who addressed the memo to his five assistants, said Haldeman had called and "stated the president wanted him to ask, and he would imagine I would have it pretty much at hand so there would be no specific investigation, for a rundown on the homosexuals known and suspected in the Washington press corps."

The memo went on to say, "I thought we have some of that material. Mr. Haldeman mentioned (name or names deleted) and some of the others rumored generally to be and also whether we had any other stuff: that he, the president, has an interest in what, if anything else, we know."

Charles D. Brennan, one of the assistant FBI directors to whom the memo was addressed, said he had no recollection of the memo.

"It's well known Hoover was obsessed by the issue of homosexuals. Many people think it was because he was not certain about his own sexual identity," said Sanford Ungar, dean of the school of

Slaying May Be Tied to Blackmail

Fresno, CA [Milw. Journal]- A teenage male prostitute whose body was dismembered with a chain saw and buried in two counties may have been murdered because he tried to blackmail customers, a newspaper reported earlier this month.

Authorities have no firm evidence, however, that Tracy Leroy Nute, 18, was blacking the man charged with killing him, Max B. Franc, formerly of De Pere, Wis. according to an article in the Fresno Bee.

Franc's attorney, Mark Kaiserman, said the death penalty should be ruled out if the motive was blackmail. Franc has been charged with murder for robbery, which

Don't We Care?

Members of Congress don't hear from us, and wonder if we don't really care.

Our community's organizations and lobbyists are hard at work, advocating a vigorous, effective and non-hysterical response to the AIDS crisis. But, despite opinion polls showing support, legislators seldom receive mail from constituents supporting our positions.

What's worse, our Far Right opponents are exploiting the health crisis for political gain—mobilizing hostile constituent pressure. While our advocates work the halls of Congress, our opponents work the streets and avenues of Congressional districts across the country. And, as a result, legislators too often are afraid to stand with us on controversial and emotional issues.

With critical AIDS funding decisions, the defeat of countless AIDS hysteria measures and basic fairness questions hanging in the balance, we just have to turn this situation around!

Finally, Here's an Easy Way to Give 'em a Piece of Our Minds

The Fairness Fund's Public Opinion Mailgram campaign now gives us an easy way to make our voices heard on Capitol Hill on the issues we care about. A POM is a 50-word mailgram that costs just $4.50 each (the same 50-word message would cost almost 3 times as much outside this system). They are charged to your telephone bill. You don't even have to know who your legislator is—that'll be taken care of for you.

Too often, there just doesn't seem like there's time to write a letter. And sometimes you're just not sure what to say or when to write. Now, by signing one of our Public Opinion Mailgram authorization forms, or by calling the 800 number we have established, you can ensure that your voice will be heard in a timely, articulate fashion.

And, because the Fairness Fund works in close cooperation and with the support of the Human Rights Campaign Fund and other national gay/lesbian groups, your mailgram will reflect our community's current lobbying strategy and priorities.

Won't you take just a minute, right now, to make a difference. Let's prove that we really do care.

I support fairness and privacy for lesbians and gay men and adequate AIDS funding and therefore authorize the Fairness Fund to use my name to send (2-12 or unlimited) Public Opinion Mailgrams (50 words) during the next year at a cost of just $4.50 each. (The mailgrams will be charged to the phone number authorized. CANCEL AT ANY TIME.) The mailgrams will be sent to elected officials (at all levels) at critical times on the general categories of increased AIDS funding, defeat of AIDS hysteria measures, and support for justice for gay men and lesbians.

GROUP NOTES ▽

In Step Expands "The Calendar"

This and all future issues of In Step will incorporate the information previously contained in the monthly Community Calendar of the Cream City Foundation, which summarized the upcoming activities of about 20 of Milwaukee's gay and lesbian organizations. This information is gathered at a monthly meeting of all groups, which also provides a forum for discussing issues of concern to the groups and the entire community.

Special meetings & events will be included in "The Calendar" of every issue of In Step.

Regular meeting schedules will appear on a "space available" basis, immediately after "The Calendar", but as a separate entity. You might want to clip this "Daily Organizational Meetings" which appears for the first time in this issue of In Step. It won't appear again until early March.

This enhancement will allow wider distribution of the information of the activities of the participating groups, and continues In Step's efforts to increase public awareness of all aspects of our community. We are pleased to provide this support to the Cream City Foundation, our new office neighbor, and hope you will participate in some of the bar and group activities listed below. If you're in the neighborhood, stop by our offices (In Step and the Foundation Community Center are at 225 S. 2nd Street).

M.A.S.N. Benefit: "Sweet Sunday Afternoon"

M.A.S.N. [Madison]- Some Madison residents have decided to do something about the sadness and frustration resulting from the tragedy of AIDS and the seeming inability for any one person to do anything about it. They thought that although sympathetic, there is not much one can do beyond being informed, informing others and using preventive methods.

Thus was born a benefit for the Madison AIDS Support Network entitled "Sweet Sunday Afternoon" a Valentine's Day Afternoon of Sweets and Entertainment... and you're invited.

The event will be held Sunday, Feb. 14th from 1:30 to 4:30 at the Wilson Street Grill (217 S. Hamilton). A $10 donation will allow guests to partake of a smorgasbord of donated sweets, chocolates, and other "just desserts". Local ensembles including ARK, Jane Reynolds and Lynette and Chris Wagner will provide entertainment which will be interspersed with short talks.

At least 64 individuals, WORT 89.9 FM and the WSA Pharmacy are filling the roles of co-hosts of the event.

For information or advance reservations call M.A.S.N. at 608/255-1711. Tickets will be available at the door.

Pride Committee Forms

[Milwaukee]- Approximately 25 people representing themselves and 15 Gay/Lesbian organizations met at The Foundation Community Center offices to form a committee to explore a G/L Pride Week in Milwaukee. They will meet again, and everyone interested is invited to attend the Jan. 31st, 2pm meeting at The Foundation Community Center (225 S. 2nd).

Those in attendance at the mid-Jan. meeting set 4 immediate goals: 1) To display the variety and depth of G/L culture; 2) Promote the involvement of G/L organizations; 3) Rejuvenate the spirit and sense of identity with in the Milwaukee G/L community, and to; 4) Foster cooperation between G/L groups.

Three chairs were chosen from those in attendance to head various committees: Bill Meunier was named "Events" chair; Mirian Ben Shalom- "P.R." chair; and Scott Gunkel- "Fundraising and Finance" chair.

The following suggestions for events were mentioned as possibilities: a massive Picnic, Memorial Service for G/L vets,

AIDS PRAYER SERVICE

On Friday evening, February 12th, at 8:00 p.m., the Episcopal Bishop of Milwaukee, the Right Reverend Roger J. White, will speak at All Saints Cathedral (818 East Juneau Avenue, Milwaukee). This service will consist of hymns and psalms, scripture readings and prayers. The purpose is to bring comfort and caring to the community affected by the AIDS health issue.

This will be an interdenominational service with prayers for the sick, the care-givers, medical scientists, and for the repose of the souls of all who have died.

If you wish to have prayers made on behalf of yourself or friends, or for a departed loved one, please call the cathedral office (271-7719). Give the first name only, to protect the confidentiality of all, and indicate if the person is ill, or has died.

Foundation Adds Two Board Members

[CCF]- John Cowles and Scott Gunkle have joined the Cream City Foundation (CCF) Board of Directors. "Both are widely known in Gay/Lesbian circles, and The Foundation is proud of their participation at this critical time" said Don Shwamb CCF President.

Challenges to the Foundation in the next few months include getting the Foundation fully functioning on behalf of the entire Community, increasing the support of the Foundation, and undertaking several new projects.

The two new Directors brings the Board strength up to nine members.

In addition an Advisory Board of Volunteers will serve as a major resource for the Board of Managers. Seven community leaders volunteered for this role.

New Fund Raising Committee Appointed:

Chuck Brotz and Julie Kleppin, Co-chairpersons of Fund Raising have appointed a twelve member committee to guide fund raising in 1988. Organized as three sub-committees each has specific responsibilities in a specific area thus bringing together close development and attention to the Phone-A-Thon, Casino Nite "88" and general activities.

"The Foundation must double its income this year in order to meet the needs that have developed," said Chuck Brotz. "Only with more good people involved can this be accomplished. We feel that this core group will be able to reach out as never before to assure that we can do more for this Community," he continued.

GLC/UWM Lunch Meetings

[Milw.]— Beginning on January 26, the Gay & Lesbian Community at UWM will hold afternoon meetings one Tuesday each month. These meetings, called "Lunch Box Rap" sessions, will be held in the UWM Union from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. on Jan. 26, Feb. 23, March 8, April 12, and May 10.

Soda will be provided but you must bring your own lunch. Occasionally, a film may be shown during the meeting. It is GLC's intention that the afternoon meetings will encourage the attendance of those who are unable to be present at the regular evening meetings.

10 More AIDS Cases in State

Madison, WI- Ten new confirmed cases of AIDS were reported in Wisconsin in December, boosting the state's total to 253, the state Division of Health reported earlier this month.

Seven more deaths were blamed on acquired immune deficiency syndrome, said Timothy Cullen, secretary of health and social services. That boosted to 159 the number of AIDS deaths in Wisconsin since 1982, Cullen said.

Definition of AIDS Too Narrow, Experts Say

Washington, D.C. [Journal]- So many kinds of illnesses have been traced to the AIDS virus that leading researchers have concluded that the term AIDS no longer adequately describes the nature or magnitude of the epidemic.

They now regard acquired immune deficiency syndrome as only the most dramatic and visible form of a complicated disease and think that AIDS has become a misnomer based on symptoms rather than infection. Instead, many argue that the epidemic should be renamed after the virus that causes it: the human immunodeficiency virus.

The Public Health Service estimates that as many as 1.5 million people have been infected with HIV, almost 30 times the number of those who have been diagnosed with AIDS. A growing body of scientific evidence suggests that most — perhaps all — of those infected will get sick. And recent research shows that the virus often causes serious damage even to those who seem healthy.

"It has been clear for some time that the real epidemic starts when you become infected with HIV," said William Haseltine of the Harvard University School of Public Health.

AIDS-related complex, for example, has made tens of thousands of Americans gravely ill and has killed many others. But because the Centers for Disease Control has established a specific definition of AIDS, those who die from ARC are not normally included in the weekly count of AIDS cases.

As for the narrowly defined version of AIDS, the disease struck more than 20,000 people in the United States in 1987, and the total number of cases reported nationwide passed the 50,000 mark as 1988 opened, federal health officials said last week.

But as they learn the many ways HIV can assault the body, physicians have begun to disregard the official definition of AIDS, saying they find it of little use in treating patients.

The CDC system relies heavily on specific symptoms and illnesses associated with HIV infection for its definition of AIDS. It has been modified several times in the past five years.

Army doctors have developed a system that evaluates subtle changes HIV causes in the blood of infected people that harm key parts of the immune system. Specialists, including those at CDC, say it does a better job of measuring the effects of the disease among individuals.

Under the CDC system, 20% to 30% of those infected with HIV will develop AIDS within three to five years of infection. But the staging system developed by the Walter Reed Army Institute of Research tells a far more alarming story.

"Walter Reed doesn't look at symptoms as much as it looks right at what HIV has done to the immune system," said physician Anthony S. Fauci, director of AIDS activities for the National Institutes of Health. "It shows that the vast majority (of those infected) have some deleterious effect of the virus within five years."

The CDC's revision of its AIDS definition last year raised the number of AIDS cases by nearly 15% and enabled thousands of people to qualify for Social Security disability payments and other benefits reserved for AIDS patients.

But for thousands of others the revisions did nothing. Federal health officials estimate that there are as many as 10 people with ARC for every one with AIDS.

Faster Test Can Also Help in AIDS Fight

Washington, D.C. [USA Today]- A fast, new test for the AIDS virus has been developed by National Cancer Institute scientists.

Dr. George Paviakis, physician and molecular biologist, says the new test has two important applications.

- It can be used immediately to test how well experimental AIDS drugs kill the virus.

- If trials are successful over the next year, it could be used to screen for the AIDS virus much faster and more accurately than today's methods.

In a study reported in January's Science journal, the test was used to prove that a new drug — dideoxycytidine (ddC) — is 50 times more effective at killing the virus in the laboratory than AZT, the first drug approved for AIDS treatment.

Transmission of AIDS During Lesbian Sex

Washington, D.C. [Journal]- Two reports of possible female-female transmission of the AIDS virus have shaken the American lesbian community. The reports in medical journals about apparent woman-to-woman transmission through contact with infected blood are being widely quoted in the gay press as evidence of a potential danger to lesbians.

In one case, reported in the Annals of Internal Medicine, a New York woman apparently caught the virus that causes acquired immune deficiency syndrome from her infected female lover during sexual activities.

In the other case, reported in Lancet, a 24-year-old dancer from the Philippines tested positive for the AIDS virus after several years of travel in which she said she had sexual contact with women of many nationalities.

The dancer "denied all heterosexual contact and intravenous drug abuse, and she had no history of blood transfusion," according to the report.

"I think the sum total of the reports would say that female-to-female transmission appears possible but at this time is still a very rare occurrence," said Stanley Weiss, one of the physicians reporting on the possible transmissions.

"What I believe about safe sex is that lesbians have to pull their heads out of the sand (and stop thinking) that it doesn't happen to them and that we're some kind of pure race that it won't affect," said Susie Bright, editor of On Our Backs, a San Francisco-based magazine for lesbians.

In Step:

Friends, it is January and time for New Year resolutions. Let us take a review of this yearly phenomenon. I realize at this point I'm probably at risk of losing you as a reader. I ask, please persevere. First, we should reflect upon the many pitfalls that might be encountered making the resolution. One is the word resolution itself. Feel free to disguise it. Might I suggest a French twist to the word? Le Resolution! The key here is creativity. Remember the medicine always goes down easier with a little sugar. So the song says. Next be mindful of the impossible resolution. Dates with Tom Selleck do not qualify. As fantasy, yes, reality tells us no. For some of you out there a resolution stating you will try to wear less makeup than Tammy Fae would be a real stretch. It is always wise to refrain from all forms of public and self abuse. Moreover your resolution should not endanger world economic conditions. Resolutions dealing with drinking less beer or smoking fewer cigarettes could cause serious gluts of these commodities on the world market. Let caution be your watchword. Besides it is never favorable to have your name linked to major disasters.

Presently you are pondering the correct and appropriate resolution. Perhaps some examples of good resolutions are in order. Any resolution regarding credit cards is good. That is if it involves spending less than the national debt. Another good choice would be to have fewer dates than some of the presidential hopefuls for 1988. If you too are getting ideas of your own you are catching on to resolution making. It can be fun and rewarding. My perennial favorite has always been to do more reading. You know, expand my horizons. I will accomplish this by subscribing to at least two more porno magazines. Alright, it is time for each of you to brave the commitment and tell your friends and lovers just what you will accomplish in 1988.

Letter to the Rep:

Ms. Dianne M. Cenko
Media Coordinator
Milwaukee Repertory Theater

Dear Ms. Cenko:

I write as the Arts Columnist for Wisconsin In Step, a magazine published for the gay and lesbian community in — not only Milwaukee but for the entire state. Each issue has us publishing about 7,000 copies for circulation.

This letter to you will be published as my column which will run in Issue 1 of our 5th Volume. We publish bi-weekly except for January through March when we publish every three weeks. But, enough about us.

"The Diary of Anee Frank" was a compelling production. You are to be congratulated on the piece. Catherine Lynn Davis was superb and developed ever so convincingly. Marie Mathay and Tom Blair were outstanding in their portrayals.

As I left the theatre, one image continued to run through my head. In your production as the Jews were forced to go into hiding, Peter in his own act of conscience cuts off his yellow star and Anne follows suit. But the star on Anne's clothing has faded through unto her dress beneath and she and the audience are reminded of her being branded as unclean and unacceptable because she is Jewish.

I'm not sure if you are aware but gays were forced to wear pink triangles to represent the same, yet I can't help but feel that some of the same type of residue has bled through on Milwaukee's gay community by the Rep. Allow me to continue, please.

My column has been written for our magazine since we began in February of 1984. In that time, I have promoted your seasons as well as included other press releases as space has allowed. Honestly, I have not reviewed every production but our pages have included reviews of: "Translations", "The Art of Dining", "Tartuffe", "An American Journey", "Twelfth Night", and most recently, "The Matchmaker" which I forwarded to you at your request. I must thank you for putting me on the press release listing as I had requested too.

However, we were not included in your opening festivities at the new theater so I called to request tickets for review which you most graciously provided. I had expected that we would again be placed on the preview list but were not. Are we no longer acceptable? I see no traces of pink triangle residue on my clothing or that of my gay sisters and brothers.

We of the gay community to this point have had very good relations with the Rep. Ms. Sara O'Connor has graciously appeared for the Cream City Business Association. Many of our community are already and have been season ticket patrons. We are also very excited about your upcoming production of Joe Orton's "Loot" which we plan to review.

Perhaps this has just been a simple misunderstanding. I shall be most happy to see that your response is published because as Anne so beautifully points out in her diary, "in spite of everything I still believe that people are really good at heart."

Awaiting your reply on behalf of Milwaukee's and Wisconsin's gay community, I remain.

—Sincerely

Gospel Music to Play Riverside

Mama, I Want To Sing, New York's award winning smash hit musical will play Milwaukee's Riverside Theatre for five performances only, Friday-Sunday, January 22-24.

Written by Vy Higginsen and her husband Kenneth Wydro, Mama, I Want To Sing is the exhilarating "story in concert" of a talented young gospel singer who sings her way from a Harlem church choir into the big time as a pop-soul star, despite the strong objections of her deeply religious mother.

An exuberant, ecstatic, inspirational celebration of gospel music and gospel-inspired rhythm & blues "Mama" is based on the career of Higginsen's sister, Doris Troy, a minister's daughter who learned to sing in her father's church and left home to become a pop star with her early 60s hit "Just One Look." Troy's top-40 hit was her entree into the swinging British music scene in the 60s. She worked with the Beatles, hobnobbed with the Rolling Stones, and toured with stars like Neil Diamond and John Hallyday. George Harrison was so impressed with her that he signed her at Apple Records and co-produced the "Doris Troy Album." Upon returning to the US in the mid 70s she became a featured artist in our top clubs and cabarets. Miss Troy portrays her own mother in "Mama, I Want To Sing."

"Mama" opened in New York at the Heckscher Theatre in 1983 and has become the longest running Black off-Broadway show since Eubie Blake's "Shuffle Along" in 1921. It is still blasting cheering New York audiences right out of their socks. Time Magazine listed it as one of the best 10 plays of 1984.

Performance times for the Riverside run of "Mama, I Want To Sing" are Friday, 8PM, Saturday 5 & 9PM and Sunday, 3 & 7:30PM. Tickets are available at the Riverside box office, all Ticketron outlets and by phone 271-2000. Ticket prices (without service charges) are $25.00- 21.00-17.00.

"Faith Healer"

The Milwaukee Chamber Theatre will present Faith Healer by Brian Friel, March 4 - 20, 1988. Brian Friel, the author of Translations reveals the hidden fountains of faith in a shamelessly opportunistic Irish evangelist. A transcendental whodunit of rivetting power!

All performances are at the Skylight Theatre, 813 North Jefferson Street.

Ticket prices are $10.50 to $12.00. Senior and student discounts are available.

makes him eligible for the death penalty in California.

Nute's body was cut up and parts were scattered in Los Angeles County and more than 200 miles north in Madera County, near the campus where Franc taught public administration.

The newspaper quoted Kaiserman and other unnamed sources as saying Nute had asked a friend to assist his blackmail scheme by photographing a doctor and a high-ranking police official performing sex acts with Nute.

league, etc. could not exist. But, it takes a driving force, someone who is willing to put up with all the guff, to get it all rolling; and John, is one of those special few. We take pride in presenting this award to him and hope that it will spur him on to continue his fine record of service to our community. It does help once in a while to know that your efforts have not gone unnoticed, and they are indeed very much appreciated.

Saturday Volleyball League Update

Milwaukee's gay volleyball league is alive and well at UWM's Englemann Gym. The league plays on Saturday afternoons from 3-6 p.m. If you've never made it down to spectate, please do so. It's exciting competition, and a good way to while away a winter afternoon. (Hot men and women in shorts!)

This year, after initial round-robin play, the league has been divided into an A & B Division which allows for more exciting play for the remainder of the regular season. The double elimination playoffs will begin on February 20th, with the championship matches the following week.

But, if you can't make it down, be sure to check In Step for our coverage, and photos, in the following issue.

H.I.T. To Elect New Board Members

Thursday, January 26th, the Holiday Invitational Tournament (H.I.T.) will hold it's first meeting of the new year at Jet's Place at 7PM. The main item on the agenda is the election of new board members; the positions of Secretary on the executive board is up for election, a long with various board positions.

As this will be H.I.T.'s tenth year it will be an exciting tournament to be involved with. In addition to committee heads, there will also be positions available as assistant committee heads and committee members. The various committees are as follows: Graphic/Publicity, Banquet/Entertainment, Statistics, Scorekeeping, Scheduling, ing, Housing/Transportation, Prizes/Awards, Fund Raising, and Hospitality. If you are interested in getting involved in this worthwhile project show up at the meeting at Jet's, it's open to the public. If you would like additional information call Bob Gliniecki at 278-8686 and he will fill you in on all the details. Bob is the tournament director for H.I.T. again this year.

Strike Against AIDS, Correction

In our last issue there was a typographical error made by our typesetter which we missed. Oops!

A line was omitted and erroneous information ended up being given. Marty Martin represented the Monday Night Irregulars and his high game was 164. Steve Strand's name was omitted. He represented the Wednesday Goodtime Bowling League and bowled that fine 170 game. Good going Steve, and we are really sorry for the error. You did Milwaukee proud!

numbered eight; a healthy size league for a city of our population. John is extremely proud of the fact that the league this year consists of approximately one-third women. Besides their regular competition on Saturday afternoons at UWM's Englemann Gym, the league sends teams to tournaments in various cities around the country, and Milwaukee always makes a good showing. John himself averages 3-4 out-of-city tournaments a year. Occasionally when a Milwaukee team is not going he fills in on a Chicago team, but, always he represents Milwaukee very well.

A fact not many people know is that John was responsible for being the liaison to Miller Brewing Company when Milwaukee hosted the Gay World Series back in 1986. The Saturday Softball Beer League called on him at the last minute and through John's efforts the money needed to provide the necessary funding to make that gay world series one of the best the country has ever seen, was received. The money was actually given to GAMMA, and then it was forwarded to the SSBL, one of the finest examples of organizations working together to get the job done, it typifies the unity that exists between the various organizations in the city.

When John was notified of his election, he typically came back with "Why me? There are so many others that could be awarded this. I haven't done it alone, I've had so much support and cooperation from others in getting it all together. Pete Tonn, just to mention one, has been invaluable to the league."

John for years (more than he or I care to mention) has tried to hid behind his cute all-American boy image, and often refers to himself as a dumb blond. But, it doesn't take long to find out that he is no dummy, and behind that cute image is a hard working, caring man, who's always ready to help Milwaukee's gay community in any way he can.

You're right John, no one does it alone. Without the cooperation of the individual participants, Milwaukee's gay businesses, and many, many others, such things as our volleyball league, bowling leagues, softball

By Ken Kurtz

Dear readers, this will be my last column for In Step magazine for awhile. I am taking a much needed leave of absence. Over the past few years I have enjoyed working with Ron and his staff, and with the members of Milwaukee's Gay sports community. Although you may not have always agreed with everything I've stated in my column, I have tried to report things as I've seen them, and said the things I felt needed to be said.

Timm Short (Laverne) will be taking over my duties as sports columnist for In Step. Timm has been an active member of Milwaukee's bowling community for the past few years and is a transplant from St. Louis. I know you'll enjoy reading his columns and fresh insight on Milwaukee's and the state's gay sports activities.

We know there is alot more going on in gay sports in the state of Wisconsin than is covered in the pages of this magazine, and also our newest addition to Wisconsin's gay publications, Wisconsin Light. It is only with the help of you, our readers, that we can provide you with the coverage you deserve. Let us know when you have gay sports activities going on, send us the results and the standings of your various leagues. Neither of our publications have the staff or the funding to provide on-sight coverage for all activities, but, both are more than happy to provide the coverage when it is submitted to us. (By the way, I wish to congratulate Jerry Warzyn of the Wisconsin Light staff for the fine job of coverage he is doing in that publication.)

On leaving, I wish to offer a challenge to Timm and Jerry, the members of Wisconsin's sports community, and Wisconsin's gay community as a whole. In 1990 the Gay Games will be held in Vancouver, B.C. The 1986 games which were held in San Francisco had very little representation from Wisconsin — a couple of people in wrestling and one in track. These people showed very well, but, they had to do it all on their own.

Come on Wisconsin let's get started now. Let's get a fund going to send Wisconsin's gay athletes to these games. Provide them with uniforms and pay the majority of their expenses. They are representing our state and our gay community.

Let's show this country that Wisconsin's gay community has it together. Let's be a part of this celebration of Gay pride. It will take responsible individuals from all of Wisconsin's sport organizations to make up this committee, and other interested parties as well. I know we can do it, so, show me! I know that 1990 sounds like a long ways away. But, the funds needed will be great, and the time needed for athletes to train and work toward this goal is also great. Let's not let them down. The time for action is NOW!

Sportsperson of the Year JOHN COWLES

We are proud to announce our selection of John Cowles as this year's recipient of the In Step Sportsperson Of The Year award. John has been a part of the board of GAMMA since it's inception, and served as it's first president. Under his presidency GAMMA has been instrumental in helping to form the Monday Night Irregular Bowling League on which he still bowls. But, John's real forte in Wisconsin's gay sport community has been his involvement with volleyball. Milwaukee sent it's first team to a tournament back in 1979, it was held in Columbus, Ohio, and John put it together. In October of 1982 the Saturday Volleyball League was formed and John has been the driving force behind it ever since. Each year the teams in the league have

by Ron Gelman

Back again (where did all that vacation time go?) Hope you all had a happy Ho Ho and a glittering New Year's Eve. Mine was so hetero/family I almost couldn't live with myself! The whole time I was home the extent of my social life was three movies and a trip to an Aunt's home for Christmas dinner with my Mom. Sincerely though, my life is practically 100% gay all the rest of the year and those two week "back home" remind me of how all the rest of the world lives. I tend to forget. Even the t.v. shows they watch are totally different then the ones my roomies and I tend to watch.

It's nice to be back, but I'm glad we're on this three week schedule for the winter. I wasn't ready to come back to putting this baby out every two weeks. Each issue of In Step is like giving birth, and each one adds a few more grey hairs to my head.

We're going to mention Christmas and New Year's events with just these words: "It was great fun, but I'm glad it's over!" It all seems so long ago anyway, that for me to flash back to Dec. 9th and bring you up to date from there it would seem like ancient history... (and this column would take up far too much space). I wasn't here anyway (for much of the time), so how could I honestly write about it?

I'll start out with when I got back to this arctic wonderland. I arrived at Mitchell International (had to stop in at the airport restaurant to have a bowl of cheedar cheese/beer soup- the perfect way to feel at home again) and the temperature was hovering around 5 degrees. How nice to be greeted warmly by friends Kim & Nel.

That night, La Cage kicked off its new season of "Claim to Fame" with hostess Holly Brown. The variety talent contest will run every Wednesday. Cash prizes kids! Meanwhile, down in Racine, Jo'Dee's kicked off their all new Wheel of Fortune with a new wheel, new set, but the same ole' Havanna White. (Don't slap me girl... just kidding!)

That weekend in Milwaukee the Castaways M.C. held their monthly club night at the Wreck Room. The leather community partied and had prize drawings throughout the evening.

Club 219 kicked off their Thursday night Beer & Wine Bust Jan. 7th that continues every Thursday. Holly Brown is no longer a "219 Girl" — she's been replaced by Marquee & Tiffany as regular cast members.

1101 West rocked to the sounds of the new band "Emergency Exit" on more than one occasion over the holidays, and again Jan. 9th.

I missed La Cage's first Sunday evening show, but made it to the one on Jan. 10th. They start off the day with a tea dance, followed with a 6:30 highly edible buffet, and then a show at 9:30 with Holly Brown heading a cast of impersonators, real women and men. The variety format includes lip sync and comedy with some production numbers and I found it highly entertaining. The show is over early enough that you can either get a full nights sleep, continue to party at la Cage or wrap up your evening elsewhere.

Our 4th Anniversary comes up in early Feb. (actually Feb. 9th), but the Feb. 11th issue will be our celebrating issue. Deadline for that is Feb. 3rd.

Kenny Kurtz is on his last photo assignment for us as I write this column (Jan. 14th). He's down partying in Racine at Jo'Dee's 15th Anniversary party. (And I'm sitting here slaving away over a hot typewriter... life's not fair!) Kenny will be leaving us and going "back to the womb" (he's moving home) and to a new job. We've already found someone to replace him as Sport's editor, and someone else to add to our photography staff. Thanks Kenny — your time was of great value to

In Memorium...

Time has passed
 since we're apart,
 and everyone
 dear to my heart,
 has left this earth
 or left my love,
 and are no more
 Why did this life
 I've come to know
 bring such strife,
 pain and woe.
 And if by chance
 I live again,
 will time repeat
 problems I can't mend?
 So who's to know
 or who's to say,
 if there'll ever
 come a day.
 When men can love
 and women too;
 whom they choose,
 if love is true!

But then again
 time does repeat,
 mistakes we've made
 I think we're beat!
 So if by chance
 I live again
 I'll ask for love
 to be my friend!

"TELEVISION UPDATE"

The following is a preview of programming to be broadcast over the coming weeks on the Gay Television Network, seen locally on cable channel 69B.

Wally Parton-Variety; 60 min. Wally has a really big wanger and sings a whole lot of tragic country and western songs with his back-up group, The Dingleberries. Tonight, Tammy Faye Bakker and Pee Wee Herman join Wally in a spectacular tribute to body hair.

Musical Highlights

Please Pass The Mascara, My Thighs Are Inflamed..... Tammy
I've Got Bugs In My Beehive Hair-do,
Licking The Bottom Of A Miracle Whip Jar,
Split-Crotch Panties Can Chafe.... Wally
Just Pluckin' Those Eyebrows.....
..... Pee Wee, Tammy, Wally

Oprah Winfrey; 60 min. Today's discussion: Do women have two sets of lips so they can piss and moan at the same time?

Win, Lose Or Drag-Game Boy George hosts this new game show, a variation of charades, where contestants vie for cash and prizes while a celebrity panel dresses in brightly colored, rhinestone studded party dresses and lip synch clues to solve a puzzle.

Gilligan's Islet-Comedy The Skipper beats the living shit out of his "little buddy" after Gilligan gives him crabs. Meanwhile, the Professor and Ginger are planning a big talent show.

Aerobics For the Fat And Stupid-Exercise Fudge lifts followed by toe wiggles. Hosted by Divine.

Movie-Science Fiction; 90 min. "Attack Of The Giant Killer Sissies" Real big interior decorators re-do Japanese train lay-outs. Charles Nelson Reilly, Nancy Reagan, Judge Wapner.

Captain Wangaroo-Children The Captain and Mr. Green Jeans have a nude camp-out.

This Old Slut-Restoration Tired old queens are restored, given tips on make-up and the latest techniques for picking up men.

The Flying None-Drama; 60 min. A sex starved airline pilot discovers that the only kind of meat a priest will eat on Friday is nun.

Move-Thriller; 2 hrs. "Fatal Reaction" (1987) A taut suspense yarn where a one night stand and mistaken identity cause an unsuspecting young man to be entered in the Miss Gay Wisconsin Pageant and pursued by the evil drag queen who wants his evening gown. Liz Taylor, Shelly Winters, Florence Henderson, Barbra Steisand and Michael Jackson.

God Damn It-Religion "You and I and Him" Oral Roberts discusses you and God and how you can make Him like you.

Blubberbutt And The Dyna-Pigs from Flippity Honk Honk-Cartoon.

Soap-Documentary; 60 min. Film crews bring back stunning footage of what really happens when you bend over to pick up the soap in the Y.M.C.A. lockerroom. Narrated by Dr. Ruth.

Wrestling; 60 min. Long Wang vs. Slippery Dick.

Bloops, Goofs and Practical Jokes; 60 min. Tonight the crew plays a hilarious practical joke on George Bush by putting Crazy Glue in his Preparation H.

Movie-Drama; 2 hrs. "Water Street" (1987) From the director of "Platoon" comes the gripping saga of a young man's coming of age, where he must choose between the sleazy sexual affairs of Water Street and a monogamous relationship. Graphic footage of an adult bookstore make this movie not for the queemish. Charles Nelson Reilly is brilliant as the evil and twisted queen of the bookstore.

60 Seconds; 60 sec. A short, but in depth look at the problem of premature ejaculation.

Embarrass Your Love-Game Contestants tell terrible personal things about their lovers for trips and appliances.

The physical training I received from you has been a great crime deterrent for me here in Chicago. Everytime I'm accosted by a rapist or mugger, I just drop down, do 30 push-ups, spit-shine their shoes, and yell "hardcore." While they stand there babbling, I march away singing about stomping little bird's heads and polishing my brass.

The neighborhood children are doing well at marching. There are some problems with the "change step" but a few more four hour drills in 95 degree weather and they'll have it down. They're excited about our parade next week. The city is coming to change a street lamp. We took a vote and I decided it was a perfect occasion.

Don't think I've forgotten my weapons' training. In the spirit of time-efficiency, I practice offensive and defensive maneuvers in my sleep. I'm still trying to convince my roommate that black and blue are becoming colors for her. I'm teaching my cats Russian to heighten my motivation. I was having a difficult time convincing my landlord that a foxhole in the backyard could only increase property values but the claymore mine exploding in his toilet seemed to do the trick.

I'm sure you recall that it took three drill sergeants and two PFC's to drag me on the bus home. I'll never forgive Sgt. Parker for forcing those tickets on me. Friday, the 13th of July was truly a sad day in my life. It seems amid the confusion of sawing through the lock and chain to force me out of the wall locker, I have become separated from my boots and one pair of fatigues. The fatigues I won't miss, I have three additional sets, all a different size per Army regulations.

My boots, however, are absolutely necessary to me. I simply can't shower without those beloved boots on my feet. I even tried ice-cold showers, all that did was make me homesick for Ft. McClennan. It didn't stem the nausea I feel every time I step on all that mush on the bottom of my feet. I have an appointment with a podiatrist to remove the bottom of my feet and replace them with leather.

I miss Ft. McClennan and my dear friends so much, I have asked my recruiter to have me assigned to basic training again next year in lieu of summer camp. He promised to start the paperwork when his bodycast is removed. I really didn't realize I was holding my 80 lb. duffle bag when I threw my arms around him in appreciation for all he did for me. Regardless of what you hear, stepping on his face was purely accidental, I was trying to feel for a pulse with my big toe.

A WOMAN'S VIEW by Linda Henderser

Attention!

(This is a reprint of a letter I wrote to my U.S. Army Drill Sergeant shortly after I returned home from basic training at Ft. McClennan, Alabama.)

Dear Drill Sergeant Goodwin:

Please excuse any typing errors you may find in this letter. I'm just learning how to type with calloused hands. I wanted to call you but my doctor said it would irritate the scar tissue in my throat. How I miss singing those heart-rendering marching songs. Remember the one about the little yellow bird on the window sill - and stomping his head in?

How are the new trainees doing? I remember watching them arrive the night before we left. So excited, curious, well rested, unscarred, so much energy - a lot of spirit to be broken. I could see the excitement in your eyes as you planned their future with Foxtrot Company.

My friends were impressed with the souvenirs of my stay with you - bronchitis, vaginitis, red ant bites, blisters, and poison ivy. They think it's very patriotic that my medical bills are spurring our wanning economy. I have you to thank for all the things that happened to me and, believe me, I'll never forget you or your tattoo.

Things are going well here, although I haven't been able to eat much since I returned. After the mess hall, food

"outside" is dull. As soon as I get out of traction, I'll be able to drive the 40 miles to Ft. Sheridan for breakfast. Overcooked, greasy, and tough have taken on new meaning in my life. Continued on page 36
