It's been a while since Andrew Kerr has had a piece on the cover of In Step and we'd like to welcome him back. Andy, who did much of the mural work at the defunct Mom's Kitchen, recently completed the South American jungle murals that decorate the walls of Xotic Imports. The piece featured on our cover this week was done with colored pencil.

Green Bay bar manager stabbed

Green Bay — The manager of The Napalese Lounge, Paul D. (Cricket) Jacob, 31, was stabbed in the bar parking lot early March 13 by a customer who had been in the bar. Green Bay police arrested 21 year old suspect Carl J. Roberts, who was later charged in Brown County Court with first degree reckless injury. His preliminary hearing was after In Step deadline.

Jacob received a six inch deep knife wound in his lower back and initially was in intensive care, and listed in serious condition. Doctors at St. Vincent Hospital also opened a foot long incision on Jacob's abdomen to do exploratory surgery to see whether the knife damaged vital organs. Luckily, it didn't.

Some members of Green Bay's Gay/Lesbian community, as well as Jacob feel the assault was a 'Hate Crime' and would like to see a Hate Crimes provision added to the charge against Roberts, increasing the penalty if Roberts would be convicted of the charge. The recent Gay bashing case in Appleton, where a police officer was acquitted of a hate crimes enhanced felony battery charge and of a misdemeanor disorderly conduct charge, is on many peoples minds.

According to reports in the Green Bay Press Gazette and News Chronicle, Jacob, who had been bar hopping at Green Bay's Gay/Lesbian bars with several friends, returned to The Napalese about midnight the morning of the 13th. Once there, he noticed the suspect sitting alone at the bar, and as bar policy requires, approached Roberts, introduced himself and chatted for a few seconds. Jacob said Roberts seemed cordial.

Later, at closing time, Jacob and a friend left and walked towards his car. Roberts, who was the last customer to leave the bar, came up behind Jacob, and according to the criminal complaint, stabbed Jacob with a six inch boning knife, turned and ran.

Jacob was not immediately aware of the pain, but then found his clothing was quickly becoming covered with blood. He went back inside the bar and called for help.

Roberts was arrested later that day by police who went on witnesses descriptions. The criminal complaint said Roberts told police he had been drinking heavily, at several different bars, as well as using cocaine. He said while in the Nap's a man he talked to rubbed his leg, making him angry. Green Bay Deputy Police Chief Cletus Alexander was quoted in the News-Chronicle as saying the suspect 'remembers stabbing someone.'

Jacob denies he rubbed the suspects leg. The Press-Gazette quoted Jacob as saying in response "I don't operate that way. That's not my cup of tea. I can't say it didn't happen, but I didn't do it and I didn't see anybody else do it." He continued, "The individual either did or didn't know he was in a Gay bar. If he did know and he stabbed someone, he went in looking for trouble." According to the article Jacob also said "And if he didn't know and found out once he was in there, he had the option to leave and he didn't. He stayed until closing time and was the last one to leave. If he was having a problem, why stay? If it did occur, he had other options. It doesn't justify stabbing someone."

Student's upbraided Petri

The United States Student Association (USSA) responded on March 16 to comments made by Representative Thomas E. Petri (R-WI, 6th Dist.) at the 22nd Annual Legislative Conference in Washington, D.C. on March 15.

When asked by the student leaders for his views on hate crimes legislation and safety on campus, Petri responded: "I

Students demand UW/Shalala 'get busy' on minority/ ROTC issues

Madison — The Queer Liberation Front, an ad hoc group in Madison, asked Chancellor Donna Shalala to have the University live up to its rhetoric on minority concerns and start a comprehensive educational program for the faculty, staff and student body on racism, sexism and homophobia. Over 90 signatures appeared on the letter to Shalala including, among others, State Representatives David Clarenbach and Timothy Carpenter.

The March 15 letter referred to a November, '90 letter sent by the UW-Madison 10% Society to the UW. Board of Regents detailing the problems Lesbians, Gay men and Bisexuals face on the various campuses in the UW system. When the Board replied that the system works from the "bottom up" rather than the "top down" the 10% Society went about gathering the needed grass roots support the Board wanted to see.

The 10% Society went to the Wisconsin Student Association which passed SB38-44 the Lesbian and Gay Rights Program in January of '91 (details on the Program are outlined below). In February,

 voted against the law legalizing homosexuality. I think it should be illegal. It's wrong! I'll be honest with you — you know (that) you do have to set standards. If you want to call it discrimination, it's legal."

In condemning Petri's statements, Julius A. Davis, President of USSA said, "Combating homophobia and heterosexism is a critical component in ensuring the access of Lesbians, Gays and Bisexuals to higher education and all of society."

"Education and homosexuality are very much related in today's society," Davis said.

USSA, in its struggle to represent all students, deplores actions such as Petri's, which violate the constitutional and human rights of all students.

the Academic Staff Assembly passed a resolution affirming the need to educate all the members of the university community on homophobia and Gay/Lesbian issues. With the sought after "grass roots support" in hand, 10% has now gone to Shalala for the resources to put the programs in place. The letter from the Queer Liberation Front says "We demand the University to commit personnel and funds to fulfill its responsibility to its minority students."

The letter continues "Lesbians, Bi's and Gays face discrimination, both verbal and physical harassment on a daily basis." It also refers to a Daily Cardinal March 11 report that University Medical School Professor Thomas Warner advised "the people in Eagle Heights to fight this (proposal) with all their strength and might" and said Gay/Lesbian couples do not constitute families. Warner spoke at a hearing on changing the admission criteria of the married student housing to allow Gay/Lesbian couples in the married students housing unit.

The letter also asks the University to "provide a harassment free, safe environment where students can concentrate on their academic pursuits without being harassed for their sexual orientation, race or sex."

STAFF RESOLUTION

The academic staff resolution says "The University should actively educate students, faculty and staff about Gay/Lesbian issues, and should implement a systematic education program for the entire UW-Madison community."

It also resolved that University Police and Security receive sensitivity training and designate liaisons to the Gay/Lesbian communities; University publications should not exclude illustrations of same sex couples, publications should address issues that concern our community and materials for prospective students should include a description of Gay/Lesbian environment on campus. It also urged against discrimination in recruitment of faculty, staff and students.

STUDENT ASSOC. BILL

The large document, Wisconsin Student Association SB38-44, demanded the UW-Madison administration enact a series of measures to "remove continuing institutional support for discrimination, including:

- Publicize (and open to public scrutiny) efforts to end discrimination by the Reserve Officers Training Corps (ROTC);
- Sponsor official reps to attend conferences and meetings of campuses to end ROTC discriminatory policies;
- Require all campus organizations or corporations doing on-campus recruiting, to adhere to the University's non-discrimination statement;
- and divest from Phillip Morris Corporations, Inc., as a protest for their extensive support for anti-Lesbian/Gay Senator Jesse Helms.

The bill also charged the administration enact specific measures to enhance understanding:

- Create Gay/Lesbian studies dept., or program;
- Expand and support courses addressing our concerns, history and culture;
- Sponsor Gay/Lesbian studies conference in Madison;
- Actively recruit Gay/Lesbian students, faculty and staff;
- Provide open and substantial support, including sponsorship of coming out groups;
- Expand and update appropriate library materials;
- and provide incoming faculty and staff with information explaining the special needs of our communities.

And that wasn't all...they also demanded the enactment of the following measures to improve the quality of life for our communities: create and fund an office for our concerns; create a student lounge or center for the Lesbian, Gay and Bisexuals students, with separate offices for the 10% Society; open married students housing to domestic partners;

provide health insurance and other benefits afforded married couples to domestic partners; Police and Security training to educate against homophobia, and to prepare them for bashings; creation of a Gay transportation service similar to the Women's Transit Authority; improve AIDS/HIV education and testing as well as make condoms and dental dams widely available; and to sponsor programs for the residence halls, frats, sororities and other campus organizations on our issues.

The UW-Madison had committed itself to creation of an open, inclusive environment in the past, and state law, city ordinance and system policy prohibit sexual orientation discrimination, according to the bill. The bill also said the above resolutions should be dealt with by the Administration and not handed off to the Ten Percent Society or the Dean of Students' Gay and Lesbian Issues Committee because of those groups limited mandates, lack of funding and limited resources.

Preludes to the bill refer to harassment and violence as being "severe" problems, and a threat to the quality of campus life by insensitivity to the needs and concerns of our communities.

The 'ball' now lies in the hands of Shalala and the UW Board of Regents.

Natl. Gay/Lesbian rights bill re-introduced

By Cliff O'Neill

Washington — Key members of the House and Senate formally reintroduced the Lesbian and Gay civil rights bill to Congress, announcing a record number of co-sponsors for the proposal and renewed hope for action on it in the next two years.

Sponsored in the Senate by Sen. Alan Cranston (D-Calif.) and by Rep. Ted Weiss (D-N.Y.) in the House, the measure would extend to American Lesbians and Gay men the protections of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, making discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation in the areas of employment, public accommodations, housing and federally assisted programs a federal offense. The bill has been introduced to every Congress since 1975.

"Gays and Lesbians in many communities face discrimination, hostility and prejudice," said Cranston in introducing the bill, "My legislation is needed to bring an end to that discrimination and to provide a clear remedy to redress violations of individual rights."

Added Weiss, "By historically denying civil rights protections to Gay men and Lesbians, our government shamefully has neglected that responsibility to an estimated 25 million Americans. To this day there exist no federal laws and no legal recourse to protect this minority when they encounter discrimination based on their private lifestyle or their public comportment. We can tolerate this inequity no longer."

With nine senators and 79 House members originally sponsoring or co-sponsoring this year's bill, the twin measures now boast the highest number of co-sponsors upon introduction in the bill's 16-year history. At the end of the last Congress, the bill had 12 Senate and 79 House sponsors and co-sponsors.

On March 14, Reps. Leon Panetta (D-Calif.) and freshman Rep. Rob Andrews (D-N.J.) signed onto the bill, bringing the number of names on the House bill to a record of 81.

The 1991 co-sponsor numbers so far show no change in the overall 14:1 ratio of Democrat to Republican backers of the bill.

And while the co-sponsorship numbers are still far short of those needed to yield any immediate movement towards the floors of the House and Senate, this year lobbyists are taking active steps towards effecting formal House and Senate hearings on the bill by the end of the 102nd Congress in the fall of 1992.

Bolstered by 1990 victories on the Hate Crimes Statistics Act, which for the first time included a provision on "sexual orientation" in federal law; the Americans with Disabilities Act, which among other things banned AIDS discrimination nationwide; the removal of the U.S.'s bans on AIDs and Gay immigration; and several other AIDS-related bills, Gay and Lesbian lobbyists are now suggesting that action on the Gay rights bill is in the foreseeable future.

HRCF seeks local organizer

Washington, D.C. — Wisconsin has been targeted as a key state for increased constituent mail by the Human Rights Campaign Fund. The nation's largest Lesbian and Gay organization hopes to dramatically expand the 'Speak Out' constituent mail program in the state and thereby convince Senator Kohl and other members of Wisconsin's congressional delegation to support and co-sponsor the federal Lesbian and Gay civil rights legislation. To build Speak Out participation in Wisconsin, the Campaign Fund's National Canvass Manager, Cathy Nelson announced that they hope to identify an ongoing organizer to serve as HRCF's 'Area Canvass Supervisor' (ACS) in the state.

ACSs recruit and train people to sign up concerned citizens — Lesbian, Gay and non-Gay alike for the constituent mail program. With the recession in full swing, Nelson stressed that Speak Out enrollments are a great way to earn a part-time paycheck or even to raise money for their favorite community group.

In addition, the Campaign Fund will pay other volunteers who will set their own hours and get an opportunity to meet many new people as they sign people for the overnight mail program to Capitol Hill. As the local coordinator for Speak Out, ACSs are paid at a higher rate.

The recruitment of an Area Canvass Supervisor in Wisconsin, as well as other paid volunteers is part of a major new drive to enroll more than 60,000 people during 1991. There are more than 25 such Area Canvass Supervisors currently in place across the country.

"While 'Speak Out' has nationally become an extremely successful grassroots organizing program, we haven't yet reached nearly as many people in Wisconsin as we need if we're going to be able to help ensure enough constituent mail on the countless bills and amendments coming up. With the help of committed — and paid — volunteers we hope to be able to regularly generate more than 500 constituent letters from concerned Wisconsin constituents on AIDS and fairness for Lesbians and Gay men," said Campaign Fund Executive Director Tim McFeeley. He went on, "Given the state's proud record as the first state in the nation with a statewide Lesbian/Gay civil rights law, we should be able to secure broader congressional support. But grassroots pressure is the key."

Over the past three years, more than 150,000 individual overnight messages to Congress on Lesbian/Gay rights and

ARCW gets rental help for PWA's

Milwaukee — Governor Tommy G. Thompson announced March 20 housing assistance grants to 39 communities and non-profit organizations statewide, including a $219,150 grant to the AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin, Inc. (ARCW). The grant will, for the first time, provide rental assistance funds to people living with AIDS.

ARCW, the parent corporation of the Milwaukee AIDS Project, received the largest grant in metro Milwaukee. The grant, administered by the Milwaukee AIDS Project, will provide rental assistance to more than 100 people with AIDS and HIV infection with incomes below 50 percent of the county median.

"This grant will help us assure that no one with AIDS will be homeless in Milwaukee," said Doug Nelson, executive director of ARCW. "The program is an important compliment to the state-funded case management services offered to the current 450 clients of the Milwaukee AIDS Project. It truly helps us to meet the needs of an AIDS issues nationally. But millions of concerned voters, including in Wisconsin, have not yet signed up or even been approached to join the program.

Participants sign up for constituent messages to be sent to federal legislators prior to critical votes. Speak Out messages, which can be delivered overnight when Congressional votes come on short notice, guarantee that members of Congress will hear from Lesbians, Gay men and their non-Gay supporters. Congress is regularly flooded by Far Right hate mail and Speak Out makes it easy for people on our side to be heard.

Because of the orientation and training involved and the fact that Pride Days are fast approaching, HRCF urges those interested in canvassing or in serving as Area Canvass Supervisors contact them as soon as possible. Contact Cathy Nelson or Tom Swift, Assistant Canvass Manager at (202)628-4160 or write: HRCF Canvass Unit, Field Division, P.O. Box 1723, Washington, D.C. 20013.

increasing number of People Living with AIDS who have low incomes."

Through the Governor's housing Cost Reduction Initiative, as the program is known, MAP will provide rent assistance for efficiencies and one bedroom apartments for an average period of one and a half years for persons with HIV disease.

Rent assistance will be based on ability to pay, with the client paying 30 percent of their monthly income towards rent. The MAP will pay the balance directly to the landlord, up to a cap of $140. Currently, 89 percent of the Milwaukee AIDS Project's clients have incomes under $1,000 per month. The average income is $500 per month.

Other persons with HIV disease not directly served by the Milwaukee AIDS Project will also be able to access the program through referral from other agencies serving persons with AIDS and HIV infection.

G/L awareness at UW-M April 15-18

Milwaukee — An exciting opportunity awaits the community when the Gay/Lesbian Community at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee (GLC-UWM) present 'Gay Awareness Week' at the school April 15-18. Several renowned speakers from around the country will present insights into modern Gay/Lesbian issues affecting both students and the community at large. All the programs will be free of charge and open to the community.

Students entering social welfare and human services careers will be especially affected by speakers who include:

• Susan Vasbinder, who will speak Monday April 15 on "Sensitizing Our Awareness". She aims at breaking down misconceptions and stereotypes in society and sensitizing them towards Gay/Lesbian needs and concerns. She will speak in the Union Wisconsin Room from 4-6pm. Vasbinder has been teaching and training people on Gay sensitivity for over 20 years at Universities across the country.

• Dr. Michael Bailey will speak Tuesday, April 16 on "Sexual Orientation with a Genetic Basis" in the Wisconsin Room from 4-6pm. Dr. Bailey will share recent research on the role of genetics and sexual orientation. Bailey has spoken nationally and been widely published in the fields of behavior genetics and sex research.

• Ivy Young of the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force will appeal "Yes Virginia, We Have Families, Too" Wednesday, April 17. Young will present new dimensions for Gay/Lesbian relationships with recognized marriage, child adoption, and child custody. She will speak from 4-6pm in the Wisconsin Room. Young, as director of NGLTF's Families Project, works with agencies, activists, and government officials to educate and lobby for protection of Gay/Lesbian families, custody, and adoption.

Dr. Gregory Herek will analyze social influences that create hostility and hatred for Gays, Lesbians and Bi-Sexuals in his "Anti-Gay Prejudice from a Social Science Perspective" address on Thursday, April 18 at the Union Art Gallery from 4-6pm. Herek as chair on Gay/Lesbian concerns of the American Psychiatric Association, has testified for the APA in a push for an anti-Gay violence bill.

Awareness Week is sponsored by the Office of the Dean of Students, the GLC-UWM, Union Programming, Student Affairs Minority Affairs, and the Department of Sociology. The week could not have been possible without the help of Carmen Witt, the Dean of Students at UWM.

The birth of the week came from the controversy sparked by 'Ex-homosexual' speaker Bill Windel back in October. The event reflected a need for the Gay, Lesbian and straight community to be provided with accurate, updated information on sexual orientation, as well as social and human issues. Witt and GLC-UWM's President Jeff Wellhoefer, worked together to confront these problems. Witt proved instrumental in getting the week off the ground by providing necessary funding and seeing the program through the hurdles.

GLC-UWM has been working hard all semester to make Gay and Lesbian Awareness Week a success. Although it is a small organization, it hopes to make a BIG impact on the university and the city, itself. They've planned weekly events for students and hopes to be able to provide reputable speakers more often in the future.

For more information contact Jeff at the GLC office at 229-6555. Coming as a precursor to the first national Graduate Student Conference on Lesbian and Gay Studies beginning April 18, the week will be an exciting event for all those who attend.

CCF joins foundation coalition

Milwaukee — The Cream City Foundation and four other Lesbian and Gay foundations from around the country have formed a new organization. The National Coalition of Gay and Lesbian Foundations is a coalition of community based charitable organizations that benefit the Lesbian and Gay community.

Formed during a conference in San Francisco over the weekend of March 9th and 10th, the five organizations seek to share ideas and concepts, discuss mutual organizational and fundraising issues and problems, and foster an atmosphere of philanthropy through coordinated efforts. The meeting, attended by Don Schwamb representing the CCF, agreed on several areas of cooperation, and methods of sharing ideas on a regular basis through conference calls and annual conferences.

Member organizations are all community based, deriving funding from the members of the community itself. All member groups serve regional to statewide geographical areas; they conclude that funding only a small area (such as a single county) is short sighted, in that growth cannot be properly fostered without looking at the overall atmosphere and needs in a wider area. In this light, one of the coalition's first cooperative efforts will be a national media campaign, designed to generate new sources of support for Gay and Lesbian causes by instilling in people in rural as well as metropolitan areas the need to support their own causes.

Besides the Cream City Foundation, the coalition includes Equity Foundation (Portland), Horizons Foundation (San Francisco), PhilanthroFund (Minneapolis), and Pride Foundation (Seattle). Several other foundations in the eastern part of the country are also considering participating.

The Cream City Foundation maintains its offices at the Milwaukee Enterprise Center, 2821 N. 4th Street Suite 217B, Milwaukee WI 53212. Contact the CCF at (414)265-0880 for more information about CCF or the new coalition.

Flaunting it!

Milwaukee — "Flaunting It: the First National Graduate Student Conference on Lesbian and Gay Studies" will take place in Milwaukee on April 18-20. The conference is the first of its kind in the midwest. Over 80 graduate students from across the U.S. and Canada will gather to read papers and share ideas on widely diverse areas of study, all focusing on Lesbian or Gay issues.

The conference will be held at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee campus. Student panels include topics such as literature, community organizing, and sexuality. Registration for the entire conference is $10, the public is welcome.

One of the keynote speakers at the conference is Joan Nestle, who will be presenting a talk and slide-show called "Lesbian Courage Pre-1970." Joan Nestle is the author of the provocative book Restricted Country and is a co-founder of the Lesbian Herstory Archives in New York.

The other keynote speaker, Thomas Yingling, is Professor of English at Syracuse University. His talk is entitled "Gay Studies: Commodity and Desire." He is the author of the recently published book Hart Crane and the Homosexual Text.

The community is welcome to attend both Yingling's presentation on Thursday, April 18, 1991 at 7:30pm and Nestle's presentation on Friday, April 19 at 7pm.

Admission will be $5 for those not registered for the conference. Both talks will be held in Curtin Hall, Room 175 at UWM. The conference is funded; in part, by the Cream City Foundation (CCF).

For more information, call the Center for Women's Studies at UWM, 229-5918.

Food pantry 'wish list'

Milwaukee — Many nutritious food and personal care items are available through the Food Pantry to clients of the Milwaukee AIDS Project and their families only through in-kind donations from the community. The Pantry is in need of the following items to supplement products obtained through other sources: soup, hamburger helper, noodles, sugar, flour, salt, canned vegetables, canned chili, spaghetti sauce, vegetable oil, frosting, bread, margarine, and fruit juice. Other items specifically asked for include: canned fruit, tuna helper, jelly, muffin mixes, cake mixes, toothpaste, tooth brushes, shampoo, toilet paper, and baby diapers.

Anyone interested in helping the Milwaukee AIDS Project Food Pantry to continue to provide food and personal care items to persons in need should contact Christina Kotlowski, case manager and food pantry coordinator at (414)273-1991.

Pantry given 5 tons by CCF

Milwaukee — The Cream City Foundation has issued a check to a non-profit food bank which will allow the Milwaukee AIDS Project to withdraw from that food bank 10,000 pounds (5 tons) of food, which they will issue to persons with HIV/AIDS who require nutritional assistance.

This $1,000 grant was made possible in part by a designated donation, with the balance funded by general contributions to CCF. The CCF Grants Committee and Board agreed that routing the money through a non-profit food bank, operated by Second Harvesters, would give MAP and its clients the greatest 'bang' for the buck.

Second Harvesters receives donated food from numerous sources, which it then makes available to its client organizations. Although certain types of food may not be available at any given time, the food bank normally contains canned meats, vegetables, and fruits; dry goods such as cereals and pastas; milk and other supplementary powdered foods; and many other items. The Milwaukee AIDS Project may draw food on their account at any time, as the food is needed and when appropriate food items become available. Contact the CCF at (414)265-0880 if you wish to participate in a future grant of this type.

GAMMA springs outdoors

GAMMA announced an ambitious group of 'Spring Outdoors' activities during May and June, 1991. The fun starts with a hike around Devil's Lake on May 11th, followed by participation in the lumberjack Bike Ride sponsored by the YMCA of Green Bay, WI on the weekend of May 18th. The main event of the month will be a leisurely canoe trip down the Wisconsin River from Boscobel to the Mississippi River over Memorial Day weekend. The highlight of the canoe trip will be overnight camping on sand-bars and afternoon volleyball and frisbee contests.

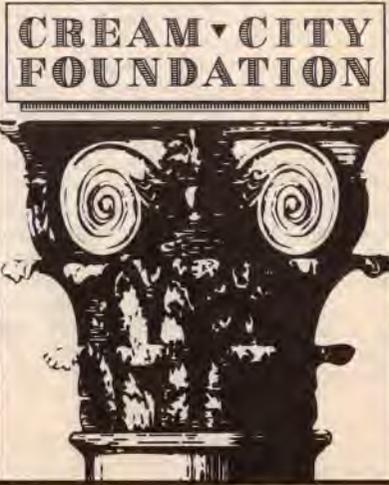

GAMMA members will be joining a Gay whitewater rafting group on the first weekend in June. On June 9th, GAMMA enters three teams in the Miller Lite Ride for the Arts. Rides will be scheduled for 15, 30, or 50 miles - a wide variety to suit all levels of biking interest. On June 16th, Father's Day, the tenth annual GAMMA excursion to Great America in Gurnee, IL will be held. It's the day we all wear red T-Shirts! The weekend of June 22nd is reserved for a camping trip at Long Lake Park, near West Bend. Finally, on June 28th, it's Summerfest time and members from GAMMA/Twin Cities will journey to Milwaukee to enjoy the sights and sounds of Bo Black's festival with us.

All Spring Outdoors events are open to all members of the Wisconsin Gay community. Many require reservations and need advanced deposits. On Friday, April 5th from 6:30 to 8:30pm GAMMA will host a cocktail party in Shorewood; during this party, anyone interested can find out more about GAMMA's activities. For full information on these events, or on the host of other outdoor, social, and sports events sponsored by GAMMA, write GAMMA at P.O. Box 1900, Milwaukee, WI 53201 or call 963-9833.

Thanks For Your Support, Milwaukee!

Once again, you've come through for us. Response to our fall fundraising Phon-A-Thon and your contributions to the Cream City Foundation and A Choice in the combined giving campaigns have set new records. This means '91 will be another great year in which we can provide funding for educational, cultural, civil rights, health and human service programs of many organizations. Progress will be made through the efforts of us all.

We can still use your help as a volunteer, to serve on one of our action committees. Call us for details.

Queer Nation goes shopping

Milwaukee [Queer Nation] — Queer Nation made several successful ventures into the 'straight' world and had one frustrating confrontation. The Queer Shopping Network episodes at Mayfair and Grand Avenue Malls went smoothly and the Queer National presence was particularly strong at Grand Avenue Mall where approximately 25 Queers of varied colors and genders shopped openly for compact discs, clothing and wedding rings. Queer Nation has committed itself to a full schedule of Queer Shopping Networks.

It was a different story however when Queers attempted to place same-sex dedications with WMYX-99 FM. Queers that managed to get through the maze of busy signals were informed that WMYX-99 FM would not play same-sex dedications for 'moral' reasons. This is sure to be a hot topic when Queer Nation meets Sunday, April 3rd at 3pm in the first floor meeting room of the downtown public library. Queer Nation will also discuss responses to the Appleton Hate Crimes trial, Amnesty International's exclusion of Queers, Queer marriages and domestic partnerships, Queer Nights Out, a Queer National Holiday on June 27th (the anniversary of Stonewall), fundraising and merchandise options, and the Queer National presence during Lesbian and Gay Pride Week. See In Step's calendar for future Queer shopping dates.

Queer Nation is a multi-cultural direct action group dedicated to fighting anti-Queer bigotry and to promoting Queer visibility. We welcome womyn and men of all gender identities, sexual orientation, races, abilities, ages, classes, and cultures. We demand the same rights and privileges that the heterosexual population of this country enjoys and takes for granted. We will settle for nothing less!

Make a Promise auction action

Milwaukee — Five special donations to the Fifth Annual Make A Promise Dinner will be offered to participants in the event's first voice auction, part of the evening's line up of a fine dinner, show and silent auction.

In addition to the nearly one-hundred pieces being offered in the annual silent auction, a porcelain vase valued at $780.00, a leather chair valued at $2,300.00, a reproduction of a Frank Lloyd Wright window valued at $900.00, a five-day, four-night trip to Puerto Valarta valued at more than $900.00, and a priceless painting by Robert Uyvarti will be offered by auctioneer Rep. David Clarenbach, Speaker Pro Tem of the Wisconsin State Assembly.

"We are truly overwhelmed by the degree of support we experienced when putting the auction together," said Steve Bahr, auction coordinator and member of the Milwaukee AIDS Project Fundraising Committee. "We have more than 100 beautiful items this year, including art, antiques, furniture, and dinner and hotel gift certificates."

"We are anticipating more than 600 people to attend this year's dinner, show and auction," said Louise Searing, special events manager at the Milwaukee AIDS Project. Proceeds from Make A Promise will support the many programs for people affected by AIDS offered by the Milwaukee AIDS Project.

Tickets for the Sunday, April 7 event to be held at The Pfister Hotel Grand Ballroom, 424 E. Wisconsin Ave., Milwaukee, are $45.00 for general seating and $75.00 for preferred, reserved seats. Individuals who are unable to attend are encouraged to purchase seats for clients of the Milwaukee AIDS Project.

Reservation forms are available at outlets throughout Milwaukee or can be obtained by calling the Milwaukee AIDS Project at (414) 273-1991.

Steppin' Out

by Ron Geiman

Ahhh, Spring is here... at least according to the calendar. The Upper 60 degree temperatures we had last week certainly felt good. I found it very hard to get to work on this issue... I wanted to be outdoors instead of sitting in front of my computer terminal writing this column.

Getting right into it... Leaded Shade II celebrated owner Beverly's 68th birthday with a big bash on March 8. That also happens to be my photographer Doug's birthday (although he's not quite 68). Happy birthday to you both, and here's to many more! The next night the Shade introduced Keith and the Singing Machine for a Saturday night of fun at the bar.

Ces't La Vie wrapped up their month-long $2,000 dart tournament with a weekend of hot dart action March 9-10. Congrats to all the winners who ended up in the money: Rodney O. (1st); Arnie G. (2nd); Jim M. (3rd); Jess S. (4th); and Brian L. won the consolation prize.

Meanwhile, in Janesville, the Chicago Dreamboys dancers entertained the crowd at The New Leaf. (I'd swear the way people act when they see dancers that no one is getting any sex!)

A party hearty crowd crawled with Partner's to Green Bay for a night of bar hopping. The Bay bars all cooperated by providing food and drink specials, plus Partner's owner Jim B. fed the crowd subs on the way up. The bar crawl was a fundraiser for the Milwaukee Lesbian Gay Pride Committee (MLGPC).

Another place the crowd got worked that night was at the Mr. and Miss Black Gay Wisconsin 'On The Move' pageant at the downtown Ramada Inn. This was Mass Pageant Productions first pageant (and considering that, it was very well organized). The winner of the Miss title will go on to represent Wisconsin in the Miss Black Gay USA pageant. Special entertainment was provided prior to the pageant by Rufus and the Singing Machine (in this group the Singing Machine are some great vocalists who perform with Rufus), and during the pageant by Miss Black Gay America Alexis Bonet, Miss Gay Wisconsin Vanessa Alexandre, Miss Cosmopolitan

The beefy, brawny men of International Male dancers returned to the stage at Club 219 Plus for a packed-house show March 12. 219 owner Bobby has been trying to book male dancers at least once a month — just enough to keep people satisfied without wearing them out.

Za's hosted the International Male dancers the following night at their bar in Green Bay. One of the stars of the troupe and a crowd favorite is Tim Raines, centerfold of the May '89 Playgirl.

Partner's hosted an INXS reception party the night of the groups Milwaukee concert featuring INXS videos, and drawings for INXS CD's and stuff. The concert was great, so I hear.

I was at La Cage for a night of laughter with the petite flower of the comedy world, Judy Tenuta. The two show date was a benefit for the Milwaukee AIDS Project (MAP) and the 10:30 show I attended was a standing-room-only crowd. Judy was at her best, with a liberal sprinkling of Gay/Lesbian humor mixed in with her routines. A homophobic heckler in the audience (who should have been removed) didn't stop Judy from her well-aimed barbs. Notables in the audience included District 12 Alderperson Mary Anne McNulty (expressing obvious delight at the McGee and Schulz jokes) who attended with a friend; and bar owners Sharon (Fannie's) and Carrie (Nitengales) along with their entourages. Covarrubias Ibarra said he has letters from business, social, civic and religious leaders protesting "against the possible celebration in Guadalajara of an event of this nature."

But the mayor added that local Gay/Lesbian organizations have a right to host the conference and he said, "There will not be aggression against the (delegates)."

"But neither will we permit aggression (by them) against the (general) community," Covarrubias Ibarra said.

If the delegates stage any kind of public march, the mayor said, "they will be impeded by the municipal authorities to make manifest that Tapitian society is very conservative and doesn't recognize all this that is unnatural."

A never-enforced Mexican law reportedly forbids foreigners from joining political street demonstrations. Tapitians are the residents of Guadalajara.

Reached by telephone, conference organizer Jorge Romero Mendoza of the Homosexual Pride Liberation Group (GOHL), said delegates to the conference should not be alarmed by homophobic news articles or the mayor's ranting and raving.

"Metropoli is an ultra-right-wing newspaper," Romero Mendoza said. "This is only one of about ten hysterical articles that have appeared there. We were expecting it. The bottom line is that the authorities know we have the legal right to stage the ILGA conference. It is our constitutional right."

Romero Mendoza said GOHL member Pedro Preciado was in Mexico City preparing with for a meeting with Mexican President Carlos Salinas de Gortari who, he said, "supports the conference."

"Everything is going to be just fine," Romero Mendoza emphasized, adding that the authorities will never enforce the law prohibiting foreigners from participating in demonstrations.

ILGA traditionally stages one or two public protests during its annual conference, focusing on recent grievous homophobic incidents somewhere in the world.

unison, and in falsetto everyone say "Jooo-deeeee"...

Friday, March 15 was a busy day on the social calendar with Jeff Jennings and Rhonda entertaining at Napalese Lounge in Green Bay; the Beer Town Badgers club night at the Boot Camp Saloon; Sage La Rue hosting Lip Sync at Za's; Pam's birthday party at Jo'Dee's with free beer and food; and St. Pat's weekend raffle items at Station II. On top of all that, Club 3054 hit the Milwaukee bars on a bar crawl that started off at the Wreck Room at 8:30 and went on (and on and on) from there. Those Mad-City denizens can certainly party!

Za's was busy the night of March 16 with a Bay City Chorus benefit bake sale followed by another of King Productions Miss Gay USA benefit shows.

Jo'Dee's Intl. played host to Victoria's Variety Revue later that evening which went over pretty well and included Milwaukee guests; and Station II and Leaded Shade II got into celebrating St. Pat's a day early. The Station offered quarter green tappers and the Shade had free green beer and a corned beef and cabbage buffet.

St. Patrick's Day in Milwaukee traditionally means the Ballgame's anniversary and this year they celebrated their 18th anniversary with the usual day long affair with lots of door prizes, tons of food and sing-alongs with David on the piano. Congratulations to Rick, Kenny and the rest of the staff at the Ballgame, and best wishes for many more years!

St. Pat's partying was non-stop with specials at Club 3054, Jet's Place, Club 219 Plus [including a show], Mint II, Station II (annual bowling party), Wreck Room, Jo'Dee's and a dinner special at Glass Menagerie. (Pheww!)

Partner's also premiered their 'Milwaukee Wild Boyz' on St. Pat's day, but will move them to every Thursday night at 10:30pm. The Wild Boyz are all Milwaukee dancers and entertainers. They'll do production numbers and demonstrate new dance steps (not the usual strip routines) and may incorporate live singing in future sets. Sounds magazine said, "AIDS patients have gained a paradoxically privileged status.

"The few journalists who have visited the (facilities) have affirmed the quality of the equipment and the health personnel — deluxe prisons without bars," the magazine said.

Cuban officials have previously boasted of the sidatoriums comfort, particularly noting that each apartment is equipped with color TV.

Residents of the sidatoriums who hail from Havana are allowed to leave the hospitals on Sundays and visit relatives. Each HIV-positive is accompanied by a social worker who makes sure there is no sexual activity.

The situation is more restrictive for HIV-positives who hail from the interior of the island. According to the French reports, they are only allowed to leave the sidatoriums for four days every six weeks.

It was the respected Agence France Presse which reported that four young people infected themselves with HIV (AFP did not say how) so they could "live better." The report is startling to those, including this reporter, who have visited Cuba in recent years.

Cuban housing is cramped and often in disrepair, but not to the point of causing 'extreme misery.'

Guadalajara mayor denounces Intl. confab

by Rex Wockner

The mayor of Guadalajara, Mexico's second-largest city, has denounced the 13th Annual Conference of the International Lesbian and Gay Association, scheduled here June 30-July 6.

"It is an event we repudiate completely," Gabriel Covarrubias Ibarra told the daily newspaper Metropoli in late February.

"We are never going to...offer them even the smallest amount of support or backing, given that this meeting contravenes public morals."

Lesbian denied custody

Chicago — The American Civil Liberties Union of Illinois (ACLU) has joined forces in the Illinois Appellate Court with a mother who was denied custody of her daughter solely because the trial court concluded the mother is a Lesbian. This is the first case of its kind to squarely present to the Illinois appeals courts the question whether persons can be denied custody of their children solely because they are Gay or Lesbian.

The mother not only lost custody of her daughter last April in a custody battle with her former husband, but also was prohibited by the trial court from any visitation with her daughter in the presence of any female with whom the mother is living.

"This is an important, first-of-its-kind case for Illinois courts," said John Hammell, an attorney with the ACLU. "It hopefully will lead to a decision once and for all that Illinois parents cannot be denied the right to raise their children solely because of their sexual orientation."

Many studies have shown that persons' sexual orientation does not affect their ability to be good parents, or affect the well being of their children. A 1986 report of an American Psychological Association task force, for example, found that there is no evidence that homosexuals are less effective parents than other people.

The ACLU of Illinois filed an amicus brief supporting the mother in the Illinois Appellate Court March 5. The brief was filed on behalf of the ACLU itself, and the Illinois chapter of the National Association of Social Workers (NASW).

The ACLU brief argues that parents have a fundamental constitutional right to raise their children, and that right can be denied only if there is a compelling justification. The ACLU also maintains that it violates a mother's rights to due process and equal protection of the law if she is denied custody of her child solely because of her sexual orientation.

Cuba builds more quarantine facilities

by Rex Wockner

Cuba has completed construction of the second and third quarantine hospitals where all HIV-positives live, according to France's Gai Pied magazine, the Agence France Presse wire service, and the new Puerto Rican Gay magazine Caribbean Heat.

Agence France Presse also reported on the startling cases of four young people who allegedly deliberately infected themselves with HIV in order to live in the 'sidatoriums' — which feature a higher comfort level than ordinary Cuban housing. SIDA is the Spanish acronym for AIDS.

Cuba's first sidatorium was built in 1986 just outside Havana; it has 277 beds. The second facility, with 51 beds, has been erected in the central province of Las Villas. The third is next door in Sancti Spiritus; it has 20 beds. A fourth sidatorium is under construction at Guantanamo, on the eastern end of the island, according to the French reports.

Gai Pied called the sidatoriums "truly heaven on earth for those who suffer from extreme poverty. In the climate of extreme misery which reigns on the island," the

Please, as a warning to the wise, no matter what your age, take an official piece of identification with you when you go out to the bars. Milwaukee police are clamping down on all bars (no it's not directed just against Gay/Lesbian bars) and checking for underage customers, as well as checking capacity limits in the bars, and giving out parking tickets outside the bars. The police in the 2nd district invited all bar owners in their area to a meeting several months ago and warned them all they were getting complaints on these problems from neighbors. Just be forewarned, and don't get upset if doormen or bartenders ask for ID.

Once again waves of vicious rumors are floating around Milwaukee. Rumors can cause great harm & unnecessary problems. Make sure what you repeat is based on FACT.

For all you Madonna fans, you might want to pick up April's Vanity Fair magazine which features her on the cover in an homage to Norma Jean (Marilyn Monroe). Inside, the article talks about her upcoming Blonde Ambition tour documentary, "Truth or Dare: On the Road, Behind the Scenes, and in Bed with Madonna." It seems all but one of Madonna's male dancers are openly Gay, and their sexuality is very much a part of the documentary. In one scene two men kiss passionately while Madonna looks on with enthusiasm. "That's my favorite scene in the movie, I love that people are going to watch that and go home and talk about it all night long. I live for things like that," she said in the article.

states that homosexuality is incompatible with military service.

In early March in a hearing in his Washington courtroom, on a motion by the government to preclude Steffan from obtaining government documents that would support his case, Judge Gasch called the discovery request burdensome. Steffan's attorney, Marc Wolinsky, objected. Judge Gasch responded, "The most I would allow is what relates to this plaintiff, not every 'homo' that may be walking the face of the earth at this time."

A few moments later, Judge Gasch suggested that Steffan's lawyers may have presented insufficient evidence to support one of his discovery requests. "On what basis do you contest (the dismissal from the academy)?" Gasch asked Wolinsky. Wolinsky replied, "On Mr. Steffan's affidavit." Gasch responded, "That he's a 'homo' and knows other 'homos.' Is that it?"

One of Steffan's attorneys, Sandra J. Lowe of Lambda Legal Defense and Education Fund, a New York-based Lesbian and Gay rights group, stated that the judge's comments may have violated the American Bar Association's Code of Judicial Conduct which prohibits judges from manifesting bias on the basis of sexual orientation. Lowe commented, "The Judge's repeated references to Steffan and other Gays as 'homos' was particularly inappropriate in a landmark civil rights case challenging discrimination on the basis of sexual orientation." Steffan noted that the difference between 'homosexual' and 'homo' is every bit as crucial as the difference between 'negro' and 'nigger.'

the risk, you postulate that the risk of any one patient contracting HIV disease from an HIV infected surgeon is somewhere between 2.4 per million and 24 per million," she testified. "That is a very low risk in the context of the health care system."

But despite nearly unanimous pleas from a broad array of interested groups at the meeting, some in the health care and patient advocacy arenas feel that something more needs to be done to protect patients.

Among those groups are the American Medical Association and the American Dental Association which, responding to the much publicized Florida dentist's case, have called on HIV infected physicians, dentists and health care workers to voluntarily inform their patients of their HIV status and refrain from performing "invasive procedures" on them.

All interested parties are now awaiting the CDC's new guidelines, which, gauging from the bulk of the testimony given at February's Atlanta conference, are expected to be largely in keeping with current "universal precautions," with additional changes enhancing the overall safety of the workplace from all infection transmission from health care workers to the patients they treat.

"Hopefully the CDC will not change their guidelines significantly," said Belinda Rochelle, health lobbyist for the National Gay and Lesbian Task Force. "Hopefully they'll favor infection control based on the improvement of equipment and protective equipment like gloves and needles, because removing the worker from the workplace will not protect the patient from AIDS."

Once the proposed regulation changes are announced, federal law mandates that they be published in the Federal Register for 60 days in which the public may submit comments to the agency before the guidelines are made final.

Sources suggest that the CDC may announce its new guidelines by as soon as March 23.

What is worrying Capitol Hill lobbyists, though, is that as the 1992 federal appropriations process is moving forward, arch-foes of the AIDS and Gay and Lesbian communities will most likely try to capitalize on the attention around the issue to impose their own restrictions on any number of money or health related bills while the CDC is finalizing its guidelines.

"Regardless of what the CDC does," said Feldblum, "I'm sure that (Rep. William Dannemeyer (R-Calif.) and (Sen. Jesse) Helms (R-N.C.) will think they can do it one better."

Health care worker guidelines

By Cliff O'Neill

Washington — AIDS lobbyists coming off a weekend of testimony at a recent conference at the Centers for Disease Control are looking forward to quick action from the agency on new disease prevention guidelines for HIV infected health care workers to help repel expected congressional proposals on the controversial issue.

Sparked by last year's revelation that a Florida dentist most likely transmitted his HIV infection to three of his patients, the Atlanta-based agency Feb. 22-24 heard three days of arguments from health care, patient advocacy and public policy groups on the contested issue of HIV infected health care workers.

There in full force were representatives from a broad coalition of AIDS, Gay/Lesbian and civil liberties groups who argued that the standing CDC guidelines calling for "universal precautions" are sufficient protection from what they characterized as a "minimal" risk of HIV transmission from infected health care workers to patients.

Calling the level of risk of such HIV transmission "staggeringly infinitesimal," Chai Feldblum, AIDS lobbyist for the American Civil Liberties Union told the CDC panel that any new guidelines must be a reflection of the "actual, real level of risk that may exist" and not a "reflection of public perception or public hysteria."

"Even under (the CDC) model...with its various flaws that may overcalculate

Mil-Ma-IDS Six

Milwaukee — Mil-Ma-Ids VI (Milwaukee and Madison Against AIDS), enters its 6th year as a 9-pin no-tap bowling tournament as a fundraiser for the Milwaukee AIDS Project and the Madison AIDS Support Network in alternate years. This year MAP will be the beneficiary.

Scheduled for April 20 at Red Carpet Regency Lanes located at 6014 N. 76th Street (When MASN benefits, the tourney is held in Madison) the tournament is limited to the first 300 bowlers who register. Registration begins at 12 noon and bowling will start promptly at 2pm.

The 9-pin no-tap tournament simply means that a strike counts as a strike, and 9 pins down on the first ball also counts as a strike. Entry fee is $20, which includes bowling, a buffet (at the lanes after bowling), prizes and a MAP donation. The donation is designated for direct patient support (such as financial assistance, recreational enjoyment, needs and wishes for People Living With AIDS).

This is a singles tournament, but groups of five are encouraged to apply on one application so that there are 5 bowlers per lane. Handicaps of 80 percent of the difference between the average and 200. If average is more than 200, 100 percent of excess is subtracted from each game. Bowlers should use last year's highest average based on 21 or more games. If no '90 average, use this year's highest average based on 21 or more games. A blind of 160 for men and 130 for women will be assigned those with no averages at all. The 10 pin rule will be in effect for them.

For additional information and to receive an entry blank, call Co-Directors Jeff Clark at 414-482-1700 or Steve Steinhauer at 265-6188.

11:06 pm Ben goes to the bathroom, and wonders aloud why I would pave the floor like a gravel driveway. I decide it would be best not to tell Ben that Fluffy scatters his litter, and doesn't seem to care about winning a good housekeeping award.

11:10 pm Once on the bed I notice, Fluffy has ripped my satin sheet into ribbons. Ben doesn't seem notice or just thinks it's some new trend in bedding.

11:15 pm HOT and HEAVY. Suddenly, out of nowhere, Fluffy appears sitting on the end of the bed, watching. The darkness pierced with 'glowing eyes. Ben notices. Wilts. Says he can't possibly get, well... "Excited" if that "hateful, voyeuristic Thing" is going to sit there and stare at him, 'it's sick!' Ben suddenly remembers appointment early the next morning, has to go. He'll call. Right.

As you can see, Fluffy did promote Safe Sex simply by not allowing us to

Me and my cat

I am convinced cats were conceived, not only as the 'official Gay pet,' but as mother nature's very own safe sex monitors as well. To illustrate how they perform this function, let's look at how I spent a typical Saturday. I'd been preparing for a date all day long (it took nearly 4 hours and a quart of styling gel just to sculpt my hair into the PERFECT hair-do!) Ben was set to arrive at 9pm. Dinner to be served promptly at 9:30 and if things went according to plan, PASSIONATE, HOT sex would begin by 11pm. The following minute by minute dairy chronicles the events of that day.

12:30 pm I come home from the grocery store with the ingredients for dinner. Fluffy greets me at the door, falls to the floor at my feet and rolls over, feet in the air. I plan on being that submissive for Ben tonight!

1pm Fluffy decides it's dinner time (his stomach obviously ignoring his usual 5pm feeding) he meows, dances, purrs, rubs against me and finally, in desperation, bites a softball-sized chunk from my ankle, nearly intimidating me into thinking it's 5pm.

1:01 pm In self-defense, I bribe Fluffy a kitty treat.

1:02 pm He swallows it without chewing.

1:03 pm As though re-enacting that scene from Alien, Fluffy throws up the treat encased in a hair ball. Can cats be bulimic? I make a note to ask the vet.

1:04 pm Jumps on dining room table, cleans himself, leaving enough fur on the table cloth to make a small sweater.

1:07 pm Heads upstairs. Afternoon nap.

4:48 pm I open a can of cat food, FancyFeast "Tender Liver and Chicken Feast with Walnut Glaze" My mouth begins to water, it sniffs better than what I am cooking for Ben.

4:59 pm Fluffy hears the can opener. After careening down the stairs (and apparently breaking the sound barrier as evidenced by a loud 'sonic boom') he bolts into the kitchen, knocking over his water dish. He carefully avoids the expanding spill, his look clearly conveys a message, "Disgusting, how can you work in such a messy kitchen?"

5:01 pm Tender Liver and Chicken Feast with Walnut Glaze is completely devoured.

5:02 pm He begins cleaning himself. I discover that 'sonic boom' was actually an expensive vase filled with flowers, now destroyed.

5:03 pm On the way back upstairs he stops to watch me sweep up the vase. Plays with the shattered pieces and quickly loses interest.

9:06 pm Ben arrives!!

9:15 pm Fluffy carefully stalks downstairs, then leaps from his perch on the 13th step. He flies 17 feet through air to my lap, claws digging painfully into my thigh. The impact completely collapses my hair-do! He begins purring immediately.

9:16 pm Ben screams, "What the hell was that? A badger?!"

9:17 pm I explain that Fluffy is my cat and just a bit heavy (he weights close to 25 pounds, the vet says he should go to overeaters anonymous or people will start mistaking him for a throw rug) I introduce them, "Ben, Fluffy.... Fluffy, Ben." Ben Hates Cats!?!?!?

9:30 pm I decide to serve dinner. I've never heard of a Gay man who doesn't like cats.

9:31 pm Fluffy feels left out, decides to join us. I "shoo" him off the table, but not before he sheds a handful of hair all over Ben's pasta.

9:33 pm Ben's appetite is ruined. Mine too. I feel sick to my stomach. While Ben orders a pizza, I lock Fluffy in the bedroom. He is not amused.

10:02 pm The pizza arrives, the delivery boy is cute and slightly familiar. I think we did it once. Embarrassed, I quickly over tip him and shut the door.

10:32 pm The pizza is gone, the mood more romantic. Now we are finally alone! I've set the volume on the CD player on level 9 to drown out Fluffy's whines, Gay/Lesbian organizations are competing for the same basic membership. Frequently, this is true. So, what? Why can't Gays and Lesbians belong to several organizations without any one of them feeling slighted or threatened? Why are we so afraid?

Thirdly, and most importantly, Gay and Lesbian organizations believe they are competing for the same donors. They have decided that the 'pie' is only so large, so that if they don't get the first piece and stop their neighbors from getting any at all, they will lose out.

Anyone who knows fundraising and some basic tenets about donors realizes that this is untrue. People who donate tend to give to many organizations. If a donor is created, he or she will in all likelihood give to more than one organization. If a donor is cultivated, he or she will continue to give to the initial organization and to all others which represent his/her viewpoint and treat him/her respectfully.

The pie is not limited! It is an ever expanding base — in generosity, if not in number.

Lastly, there is a long history of division between Gay and Lesbian organizations. And, when women have attempted to participate in organizations which represent both Gays and Lesbians, they have been mistreated and ignored. It is time for a new era of cooperation and respect as well as an end to discrimination both in organizations representing men and women, as well as among organizations which represent only one or the other.

Therefore, for these reasons alone, a Gay and Lesbian Coalition should be organized. To stop the competition. To stop the backstabbing. To heal the old grudges and close the old wounds.

But, should this organization attempt to solve problems which affect our entire society, as well as the entire world? I believe not. It should be quite narrow in focus. Besides addressing the situations listed above, it should choose its issues carefully and very specifically. They should be issues directly affecting the Gay and Lesbian community in Milwaukee, which we can do something about.

One such issue might be choosing and uniting behind a Gay candidate for a city or county office. Another could be determining the feasibility of having a Community Center and if its feasibility is proven, raising funds for one. A third could be selling tickets to each others events and coordinating with each other. Finally, joint fundraising might be a possibility as well as the sharing of membership lists when necessary.

As for inclusivity, obviously The Coalition would have to become so in order to survive. But if it doesn't start out that way, is that a reason for it not to exist? I think not. If the organization is operated in an effective manner and continues to reach out to include all people of every ethnic group as well as every other minority, it will slowly but surely become inclusive.

Cream City Foundation, of which I am now Vice-President, started out as a Gay white male foundation. We now have people of color, women, the physically challenged, etc., on our Board of Directors and on our committees. We will continue to reach out until we are fully inclusive. Why can't The Coalition do the same?

It would be wonderful if The Coalition began with representatives from every Gay and Lesbian organization as members. It would be terrific if all minorities were represented. If men and women were equal in power.

But that's probably not possible. So, isn't it more realistic to begin, not to give up because things aren't the way they should be — but to work very hard to make them so?

That's my vision of The Coalition — its purpose, goals and eventual membership. The next meeting is at the Enterprise Center, 2821 N. 4th Street, at 7pm on April 17th. Come and share your vision with us!

Reflections from the Joan Zone by Joan Lawrence

Do we need a G/L coalition?

There's a new organization forming in the Gay/Lesbian Community of Milwaukee which is very hard for me to describe. Having attended two out of their last three meetings, I would hope to have a clearer knowledge of its purpose and its goals, but frankly, I do not.

The first problem is that the organization does not have a name. Those attending the meetings chose not to name it until its mission was more clearly defined. For the purposes of this article, I will be calling it The Coalition.

The second problem that I have with The Coalition is that its not sure what it wants to be if and when it grows up. Should it be an umbrella group for all the various Gay and Lesbian organizations in Milwaukee from the Pride Committee to L.A.M.M. to Lesbian Mothers, to CCF, or should it be a coalition of individuals? Since most of the individuals attending are activists in at least one of the Gay/Lesbian organizations, it seems to me that it will eventually become a coalition made up of representatives from the major Gay organizations, anyway. But the other attendees have not chosen to come to this conclusion.

Ostensibly, the purpose of the last meeting was to define the issues confronting Gays and Lesbians in Milwaukee which The Coalition might address. A great deal of time and conversation went into defining these problems and they ranged from white male domination to racism to Gay Rights to the need for a Community Center. I was and am not convinced that The Coalition should be taking on such global issues as white male domination or racism.

However, while this discussion was occurring it became apparent that many of the women in the group were deeply concerned that their views were not and would not be represented fairly and thoroughly. I believe this concern was valid.

Finally, after an extremely lengthy discussion of all these issues and problems, the group decided that they could not really be addressed until or unless The Coalition became more inclusive. Since there were no people of color, physically challenged people or other minorities in attendance, the group decided to put aside these issues and meet again on April 17th. All members would strive to get as many minorities as possible to attend the April meeting. The consensus seemed to be that if by the April meeting we were not a great deal more inclusive, then The Coalition should disband.

At that point I and several other people became quite disgusted.

Do I personally believe that there is a need for a Gay/Lesbian Coalition in Milwaukee? Indeed I do.

There is a history of a severe lack of cooperation among many, if not all of the Gay/Lesbian organizations in Milwaukee. We often do not know what each other is doing nor do we make any real effort to communicate with each other. We schedule events on the same day so that neither event experiences the success that it should. We then decide that the other organization did this deliberately and a grudge is started. Usually it is all due to a total breakdown in communication!

Secondly, we seem to believe that all
