WHATS HAPPENING ? ? ?

A lot of people have a few favorite bars that they go to out of habit, maybe they meet their friends or co-workers at a certain bar. If you think about it you probably are the same way. We usually go to the same restaurants, drug stores, gas stations etc. out of habit. Have you ever stopped to think why you go to the places you do? I expect if you ask yourself this question you will come up with answers like convenience, my friends go there, a likeable bar tender or maybe you have just been going there a long time.

Now, ask yourself this question. Why did you go to this place the first time? This is a tuffy. All business owners are trying to find this answer, especially gay business owners. Because of the limited clientele they have, it is very important that the gay community support their business. This attitude works great for the gay community, because we get a lot better deals for our money. Take a look through this calendar and see how many times you find things for FREE or reduced price. If you make a comparison of bar ads in this magazine with a straight publication you should be amazed.

I go to all of the gay bars and restaurants at least twice a week, and when I see a bar like Kisses, one of the nicest discos in Milwaukee, gay or straight, selling drinks for .25¢ or The Baron, a niteclub that can compete with any niteclub in any city, selling tickets for a national known entertainment (Tuxedo Junction) for four dollars; I wonder why everyone doesn't go to gay bars.

There are lots of good deals in Gay Milwaukee. The Wednesday Buffet at the Wreck Room is excellent. A steak dinner for two with champagne for less than $10. is a real bargain at Mr. Ric's. You have Hot Dog Disco at the Y.P., Beer Mug Nite at the Beer Garden, the Hangover Party at the Ball Game, there's more; Lucky Shot at The Finale, nitely specials at Sugar Shack, Ten Hundred East and C'est La Vie. Free entertainment at M&M/Side Board, Rainbow Grille and Wreck Room. There are good discounts to be had at The Factory. The Club Baths and B.H.C. keep our Calendar filled with things being offered just about every day.

Editor's Copy

Look at the give-a-ways. The Baron, Kisses and the Wreck Room have given away a fortune in prizes. Even a small bar like The Finale gave away over $150.00 in show tickets food and drinks at their cast party.

I guess the reason for all this copy is to make you aware of how hard some of these businesses have worked to attain your support. They have earned it.

ART SHOW...

If you missed Tom Pionke's Art Show at The Finale you missed a great showing. It was a fantastic success, with 80% of his art being sold. However you will have another chance to view his work. Now in planning, is a second show to be displayed at Mr. Ric's sometime in May. Watch for the announcement in the Calendar, you should not miss it again.

GODSPELL...

Ten lucky people won tickets to Godspell at the Cast Party Thursday, but if you weren't one of them maybe you should think about buying one. The show is excellent and Theater East's Theater-in-the-round makes you a part of it. Ask someone who has seen it, after that, I'm sure you will want to go.

By-the-way, last issue we printed Bobby Scherkenback as now being Thomas More. Wrong! Bobby Scherkenback is still Bobby Scherkenback. Thomas More is the School he graduated from. Sorry Bobby.

GOING FOR FOURTEEN...

Your Place is starting its fourteenth year this May. One of the most successful bars in Milwaukee, and rightfully so, we wish to congratulate Jimmy, Roy and the crew, and wish you another fourteen, at least.
