Up Front

Introductions are in order, so we'd like to say hello with this first copy of the new Milwaukee Calendar. We are Dan DiLeo and Ralph Paul, the publishers of the Calendar, and we hope you enjoy our first issue.

We purchased the Calendar several weeks ago from Dru Maki and Bill

Dan Di Leo

Tangney following a few weeks of negotiations with the two who said they could no longer continue the publication because of other personal and business commitments.

Present plans call for distribution of the Calendar every other Thursday evening. We also will be expanding the circulation of the magazine from about 1,500 copies to an immediate 3,000 copies (and more, if needed). The magazine will continue to be distributed free through our advertisers. In addition, copies of the magazine will be distributed in Chicago, Madison, Green Bay, and other Northern Illinois and Wisconsin communities.

Now, who are we?

Dan DiLeo, 41, is a native of Chicago, but grew up in Milwaukee where he attended Pius High School and studied journalism at Marquette University. He later worked for five years as a reporter for the Milwaukee Sentinel until he was drafted. He served almost six years in the Army, working as a German translator-interpretor in the intelligence field.

Ralph Paul, 45, was born in Chicago, and grew up in the Northern Illinois and Southern Wisconsin area. He still has family ties in Elkhorn.

DiLeo has 24 years of newspaper background, having worked for papers in Milwaukee, Rockford, and Decatur, Ill., and most recently for the Chicago Sun-Times.

Prior to entering the publishing business four years ago, Ralph Paul spent four years in the music publishing and recording industry in Nashville, Tenn. Before that, he worked 17 years as a newscaster and air personality in the Denver, Colo., and west Texas areas. He graduated from high school in Fox Lake, Ill., served four years in the Air

Ralph Paul

Our Cover

You'll find the smiling face on our cover this week, Brian Capelle, pouring the drinks at the Phoenix. Brian has been tending bar for about four months now and says he enjoys his job, especially meeting new people.

Brian, in addition to his bartending duties at the Phoenix, will be working for the Milwaukee Calendar. He will be one of several persons who will help the Calendar staff gather information about what's going on in Milwaukee. If you have messages, personals or unclassified ads, or for that matter photos or articles you want in the Calendar, leave the items with Brian who will forward them to our editorial and business offices in Chicago.

Countersport

Woman Appeared To Me, which is the fictionalized account of her relationships, "including the one with Natalie. As the Publisher's Note says, it is a book "written, translated, edited, designed, typeset, pasted-up, printed, published and distributed by lesbians."

The book features a valuable and lengthy introduction and history of Renee and Valerie and a beautiful picture of the latter with lillies.

COUNTERSPORT PRESENTS DEAR DR. MARBELS

Dear Dr. Marbels:

My admirers give me a lot of jewelry and I have forgotten who gave me which so when I go out I am confused what to put on and I wind up wearing several gold chains and lots of rings and both tiaras. I have been told that I have on too much. But what should I do?

Pretty Blond and Built in Shorewood

Reply: To get even more blond than just pretty blond, use more hair bleach.

Also, avoid wearing the tiaras in leather bars, as they are not butch enough and people are talking. They're all right for discos or drag, worn one at a time.

Dear Dr. Marbels:

We have so many nice pretty kitchen towels, but my lover says oh they're too good to soil. My philosophy is if you got it, use it.

Arguing Lover in Juneau Village

Reply: That's what I always say.

Dear Dr. Marbels:

I'm sick and tired of being called Scotch. Scotch is the name of the drink and the people should be called Scottish!

Flora McDougall of South Milwaukee

Reply: I have informed everyone of this and have received great co-operation. For instance the International Society of Musical Nomenclature has agreed to change Mendelsohn's Scotch Symphony to Mendelsohn's Scottish Symphony.

Force and then returned to the Midwest where he graduated from broadcasting school in Chicago, where prior his entering the publishing field, he served as a broadcast instructor.

In 1976 Ralph Paul began a News and Events hotline for the Chicago gay community. Later he published Gay Chicago Magazine and GCNews Journal and a Gay Chicago weekly newspaper. The two publishers joined forces in November, 1977 and in April, 1978 began publishing Gay Chicago Magazine in a format similar to the copy of the Milwaukee Calendar you are now reading.

It's somewhat ironic that we should wind up acquiring the Milwaukee Calendar, because it was the Calendar, then being published by Frank Thalacker, owner of the Finale and now Shadows, that gave us the idea for the present format of Gay Chicago and now the new Milwaukee Calendar.

The two publishers have done extensive traveling, but both have a warm fondness for Milwaukee, which we both refer to as our "dream" home. In all of our visits to Milwaukee, and especially throughout the gay community, we have found Milwaukeeans to be some of the friendliest people in the country and we are looking forward to being a part of the Milwaukee community, both gay and straight, for many years.

While we will continue to live and operate our business and editorial offices in Chicago, we will make the Milwaukee Calendar a strong publication for Milwaukee and Wisconsin.

You'll see us around town each week gathering data for the Calendar of Events listings, taking photos and obtaining information for articles about what is happening in Milwaukee. Of course, we'll need the help of members of the gay community. We won't be able to publicize an event or party or whatever unless you give us the information. We've made it easy for you to call us (toll free). Our Milwaukee telephone number is 344-9030 and our offices are open Monday through Saturday from noon to 5pm.

One of the successes we've had with Gay Chicago Magazine is to provide as complete and accurate Calendar of Events listings as possible. We're sure we are missing a few items in this first issue, but because of the short deadline we had to produce our initial copy of the Calendar we were unable to get in touch with everyone. We hope to rectify that situation by our second publication.

We also invite you to use our free message and personal sections in the magazine. For the time being, they should be sent to our Chicago office, 1437 N. Wells St., Chicago, IL 60610. Deadline is the Friday preceding Thursday night delivery. We also offer the lowest possible rates for unclassifieds for those of you interested in selling, renting, or buying something. It will cost you $2 for the first 30 words and 10¢ a word after that.

We invite your suggestions, comments, and yes, even criticisms, because they will only help to make the magazine a better publication. We welcome Letters to the Editor and also provide space in a Contributor's Corner for those of you who want to write an article or comment or anything. Please feel free to drop us a line and let us know what you think of the new Milwaukee Calendar.

PRIDE WEEK COMMITTEE PLANS A WEEK OF GAY ACTIVITIES

The Milwaukee Gay and Lesbian Pride Planning Committee has come up with a week of events to mark Gay Pride Week, which begins at noon Saturday, June 21, with a picnic in Mitchell Park (behind the domes on 27th Street). The following day, Sunday, June 22, there will be an ecumenical service at the lake front, followed by a street festival in an area near the Wreck Room and Factory.

On Monday, June 23, a gay art show will be unveiled at the UW-M gallery. The show will run through July 11. Tuesday, June 24, has been designated as Harvey Milk Day in honor of the slain San Francisco supervisor. A candlelight vigil will be held at the War Memorial to commemorate the victims of the holocaust.

Wednesday and Thursday, June 25 and 26 will be devoted to a gay film festival. The exact time and location of the showing of the two gay films has not yet been set. On Friday, June 27, there will be a gay talent show in the Wisconsin Room at the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee.

On Sunday, June 29, the committee is trying to arrange for several buses to take members of Milwaukee's gay community to Chicago to participate in the annual Gay Pride Parade through Chicago's New Town. Ticket information and details on the bus trip will be announced later.

On the Street

With the warm weather approaching, there's going to be a lot of guys shedding their shirts and donning their shorts. So, to show off that "body beautiful," you can take advantage of the Club Bath's "Workout Special." For $15 you get 15 four-hour visits and a chance to use the club's exercise equipment. The only stipulation is that the 15 visits must be used within a month.

The Pine Mountain Inn will be moving around the first of July from its present location at 100 W. Maple to the 16th and Beecher area. The bar will remain open at its present site until the move. . . There's a new gay men's rap and support group which will begin at the Farwell Center at 8pm Friday, May 2. Led by Tim McCoy, the tentative plans are to meet the first and third Fridays of each month unless the group wants to meet more often. . . Watch for details on the upcoming Milwaukee Wreck Room Classic. So far teams from New York, Toronto, Boston, Cincinnati and Minneapolis are scheduled to participate in the tournament here. More details in the next issue.

The GPU Building Fund and the Gay and Lesbian Pride Week Planning Committee will be the beneficiaries of an auction to be held the weekend of May 17 and 18 in the rear of the Farwell Center, 1568 N. Farwell.
