This week's cover.

Well, I should have been on the cover of this magazine months ago, but I've just been too busy with Kermit and recording contracts, movie offers and whatever. You know what busy lives us stars lead. I was on my way to Hollywood to star in another fabulous movie, but then I met this nice young man (Nick Gagliano, who's a bartender at the Ball Game in Milwaukee). We were introduced by a long-time customer (Kip, my designer). Nicky convinced me to spend the night in Milwaukee and you know how one thing leads to another. Well, that was last Labor Day and I think I'm going to hang around for a while. Nicky makes sure I get regular costume changes (do you like my Christmas outfit?) and he's sort of convinced me to serve as an unofficial mascot for the Ball Game. Oh yeah, for the time being, don't tell Kermit where I am. I sort of like it here.

by Anthony Daniels

ARIES (Mar. 21 - Apr. 21) — A more positive attitude toward yourself, others needed. There's more than just the gloomy side of life.

TAURUS (Apr. 22 - May 21) — Put yourself in the other person's place and you'll get a completely different perspective on the situation.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) — The excursion may have to be postponed, but don't allow the time to pass without taking time to relax and enjoy.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23) — Expensive tastes should be tempered with the realities of your budget. Cool it for a while.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23) — You're in the position to fulfill the fantasies of others. Go ahead and you'll discover you'll satisfy a few of yours.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23) — Tolerance of others may be difficult, but it still can be acquired. The results may prove surprising to you.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) — Temper your tastes temporarily. Patience is required now, but better things are definitely ahead.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 - Nov. 22) — Don't be afraid to publicize what you are doing as long as you don't turn it into an ego trip.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22) — A lot of tender loving care (TLC) needs to be applied now to help ease the hurt of someone near to you.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20) — A concentrated effort should be made to ferret out the root of the problem. Once in the open, things will ease.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) — Don't rely strictly on logic. Emotion and feelings should also be taken into consideration.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20) — Don't be completely assured you're out of the picture. You still have a chance, but you have to work at it.

We're Taking a Vacation!

To enable our staff to take a brief vacation, this will be the last issue of the Milwaukee Calendar until our first issue in 1981, which will be delivered on Thursday, Jan. 22. This issue contains expanded Calendar of Events listings through Jan. 25. When we return in January, we'll also have a new name, Gay Milwaukee Magazine, which will join our sister/brother publication in Chicago, Gay Chicago Magazine, thus making the "Tale of Two Cities" a reality. Looking forward to seeing you next year.

I did. So he put some on his chest and began jumping around the room like a Kung Fu monkey.

Then he said let's go to bed. I said to myself: why so fast? What's this kid want?

But he was just as pure and just as sweet as the music he liked. And as the films he likes such as "Nosferatu," "Private Benjamin," and "A Separate Peace."

In bed, he was unbelievably polite. Old-fashioned manners. Instinctually, he knew he was my guest, in my house, in my bedroom, in my bed, and he was so polite about it all.

He did something very sweet: he asked me "may I suck your dick?" I was totally taken by his courtesy. He didn't care that I had stretch marks, and that at 38, my body had become the pot at the end of gravity's rainbow. He was just so sweet about it all.

I got so excited that I came much quicker than I would have wanted. He laughed and said: "Don't worry, we can do it again in the morning."

My bedroom is designed like a magazine newspaper stand. I have all the latest journals and periodicals around my bed: Omnis, Interview, Archaeology Today, W.E.T., Altermaze, Life, In Touch, Time, Trouser Press. He picked out a Life special edition on World War II and asked me to read it to him, because he couldn't read. He said he had just learned how to make out the sounds and letters a few months ago.

It had been six months now that Billy Raye has been coming to my house a couple of times a week for sweet sex, and bedtime stories, and reading lessons.

I don't know if Evelyn Wood would approve of my method, but Billy Raye has been learning how to read better. He can now read most of the Sun-Times to me in the morning.

Sometimes he will get stuck on a hyphenated word at the end of a line. Like last week, he stumbled over that word "high-est." What's "est" he said? I said it's German or Latin for "is," or an expensive self-help religion. He said that didn't make any sense. Finally, I told him, no, it means super-high, the biggest high you can have. And it is a word people usually use when they are talking about inflation, not drugs.

Billy Raye is not my lover. He is a nice kid who taught me that even with all the books I have read, I can still misread people. I had him all wrong.

He is not going to be a life-long homosexual. Someday, I expect he will leave my bedroom, and my reading room, and he will find a girl to marry. I only hope that I can be his best man, and maybe the godfather of his first child.

But Billy Raye has already done one thing for me: he has taught me not to be so narrow in my reading and in my "gay" world. And for that I can say he is one sweet kid.

FARWELL CENTER'S FUTURE UNCERTAIN DUE TO SALE

The future of the Farwell Center, the gay community center of Milwaukee became uncertain this week as the building was put up for sale.

The Gay People's Union of Milwaukee presently rents the space at the Farwell Center, located at 1568 N. Farwell. The board of directors of GPU was scheduled to meet at press time Tuesday, Nov. 17 to discuss the future of the building, which has a $75,000 sale price.

Among the questions to be considered Tuesday night were should an offer be made on the building; and if so, what kind of offer can be made; does the community want a gay community center; and, is there someone in the community willing to make a major contribution to help finance the purchase of the building.

According to Paul Demarco, president of GPU, the organization is looking for all kinds of suggestions. He pointed out that the Farwell Center over the years has grown too small for the numerous gay organizations which are and want to use the facilities. Without the Farwell Center there could be a major loss of some services, including the VD clinic, the hot line and meetings spaces for gay organizations.

Persons interested in providing input toward solving the current crisis should contact GPU at 271-5273.

APOLOGIZES FOR REMARKS AT H.I.T. BANQUET

To All Gay Business Owners of Milwaukee:

I am writing this to apologize for any misunderstanding in the statement I made at the H.I.T. banquet. Any and all moral and financial support that the bars and businesses of Milwaukee gave H.I.T. was greatly appreciated and needed. Without this support, our tournament would never have been the great success it was.

Any gay athletic or non-profit organization in Milwaukee owes a lot to the businesses which stand behind them and I am deeply sorry for something, as I said, which may have appeared to be contrary to that.

I sincerely hope they will continue their support in the future as I will continue to support them and all gay athletics.

To M.C.: In response to your message to me in the last issue. You read about three or four different people (the same three or four people) every time you get the Calendar. Look at all the things that are put in Gay Chicago. You thought I was bitching at everybody and all I was doing was telling people what they are - stuck up - at least the last three months anyway. I was trying to make people realize that and make them think about it. People are friendly until they are known, then they are not friendly anymore. They get like everyone else, just looking for Mr. Right. I was looking forward to some response from the stuck up message. Maybe that's exactly what the message needed. People I know like to pick it up and look forward to reading some messages. Lately there has been very little. As far as the refusal message, I keep track of that. I thought people would like to be informed. A lot of aggression going right down the drain. I wish you would print the stuck up one. Maybe it would bring fun back to picking up the Milwaukee Calendar. Gary H. P.S. I know my friends would applaud that message.

Message 1: To M.C.: Thanks for not giving me freedom of press. Gary H.

Message 2: I want to wish everyone a most joyous and Merriest Christmas and a Happy New Year. Gary H.

Message 3: Happy Birthday to Peter on Dec. 8. I hope you had a good one. Gary H.

Message 4: Rejection should not be the way of our gay lives. It's a description of how closed our minds are. But I guess that's how we are! The Source (Gary H.)

You won't print Message 1, so here's a 5th.

EDITOR'S NOTE: The reason we declined to print your previous message is because you declined to sign your full name in naming specific individuals and establishments. This is heretay and editorially libelous. The above messages you have submitted, with the exception of Message 5 are being published.
