The mission of BESTD Clinic is to provide quality professional diagnosis and treatment of sexually transmitted diseases as well as HIV/AIDS prevention counseling and testing in a manner that is sensitive to the sexual orientation and gender identity of our clients. BESTD Clinic provides its services at no cost.

The BESTD Clinic has a long tradition of volunteers providing health services to the Milwaukee community. The BESTD Clinic arose from a rising incidence of sexually transmitted diseases in gay and bisexual men and the need for competent and sensitive health care. It was established in October 1974 by the Gay People's Union and located at Broadway and St. Paul in Milwaukee.

In 1981 the Brady East STD Clinic established its facility at its present location. Dr. Roger Gremminger, a volunteer physician, board member and building owner, donated his property equity to BESTD.

While traditionally focusing on the diagnosis, testing and treatment of sexually

BESTD CLINIC
New Rapid HIV Test at PrideFest

BESTD Clinic will be offering a new rapid HIV test at PrideFest. The rapid test involves a single drop of blood from a finger stick and 20 minutes for the test to develop. With paperwork, helping clients with questions and the actual testing, the total time from saying "I'd like to be tested" to getting the results is less than an hour! This is very exciting for BESTD Clinic and for the whole community. BESTD Clinic has been doing the rapid HIV test in the clinic on Mondays to prepare for this newest advance in HIV testing technology. This test was approved by the FDA this year. The test is 99.6% accurate in detecting HIV. As with all other HIV tests, this test covers the day you were born through three months ago. If a person was recently infected with HIV, it may not show up on any HIV test.

transmitted diseases, BESTD, because of its entirely volunteer staff, has been flexible and swift to respond to new challenges.

In 1983 and 1984, BESTD volunteers began preliminary responses to what we now know as a serious epidemic. The board of directors formed the Milwaukee AIDS Project as a committee of the BESTD Clinic. As the complexity and demands of HIV disease and AIDS increased, it became obvious that an appropriate Milwaukee response was far beyond the capacity of the dedicated group of volunteers. The Milwaukee AIDS Project was divested from BESTD and became an independent entity in January 1986.

The Milwaukee AIDS Project later became the AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin (ARCW).

Reaching out to those at risk, clinic volunteers initiated one of the nation's first "out-reach clinics" for off-site testing of STDs in the 1970's. BESTD was also one of the earliest pioneers in HIV outreach testing, which began in 1987 at the Wreck Room and M&M Club and continues today at dozens of outreach sites. Today, BESTD is one of the most active and accessible HIV testing sites in the State of Wisconsin.

BESTD Clinic has been supported by donations since its inception in 1974. The BESTD all-volunteer staff provides counseling, testing and treatment, as well as vaccinations and medications to our clients free of charge. The donations you generously give are what allow BESTD to continue to help the community.

You can help BESTD continue its work by donating when you visit the clinic, by sending a check or by designating BESTD Clinic through United Way. BESTD Clinic is a 501(c)3 not-for-profit entity, making your donations tax deductible.

Cheap Talkin' Chi-Chi

Greetings Gossip Mongers!

Well after my recent sabbatical from the column, I am fully rested. So let's get to recent happenings around town in May.

Sister Charlotte

To begin with, Miss Rona had her annual Mother's Day show at M&M Club on the 11th. This show is a benefit for Men's Voices Milwaukee and $800 was raised during this event. Among the luminaries performing in their habits were: Mother Superior Rona, Sisters Trixie Steinway and Joan Bennett as well as yours truly representing the M&M Club; Sisters Karen Valentine and Ruthie of IN Step; Sister Charlotte Lorraine and Sister Sprecher Amber; Straight from the Vatican Princess Debbie; and David "Diana Ross" Howser representing MoTown's Detroit Convent. Oh yes, and Baby Jane Hudson. Kudos go out to my new MAC make-up artist Miss Goldie who turned this puss into something glamorous. God Bless You!

PULSE LEATHER

Unfortunately I had to create that pivotal scene from Valley of the Dolls as Helen Lawson when her wig gets snatched off her head. It seems Jane as Neely O'Hara, had too many Dolls (actually 7 & 7s) and tried to steal my wig at Club 219. I regained my composure and walked out of the club with my dignity and wig in hand just like Susan Hayward did in the movie. I left the way I came in, through the front door.

On a sadder note, I would like to wish my fellow comrades at work speedy recoveries. Our thoughts and prayers are with you Debbie and Jack.

On a lighter note, I would like to welcome Ms. Melissa Beaström to the roster of chanteuses on Sunday at M&M Club. You are a welcome addition and I hope you will be with us for a very long time.

I noticed a certain ex-bar owner of a straight bar, was enjoying some reciprocity from a fellow bar patron one evening. He may have lost at dice, but he won in the car. Another recruit from the other side, straight that he was, has seen the light with a dark, demure sister of mine. I would advise these two ships that passed in the night to get their alibis straight so there are no discrepancies in the future. By the way congratulations on your freedom from your band of gold you won't have to wear anymore.

While out bar hopping with my older sister Miss Ashley, I stopped in to say hi to Craig and Scotty over at Switch. After a few rounds of shots with the boys, I met the cutest new addition to the Switch family "Jake." He is very cordial as he is handsome. He is my featured bartender this month, so stop by and see him on Saturday nights and tell him Chi-Chi sent you. Also on the calendar during PrideFest at Switch they are sponsoring another one of their infamous Foam Parties on June 7th. I promise I will not be in any Speedos for the one, but maybe Cordially Yours, Miss Karen Valentine will be!

It was on to Woody's where I was pleasantly surprised to see Marc (formerly of Shakers) as a new addition to the bar. Marc has the greatest mom "Brigitte" who's also a proud member of PFLAG and a model. Now I know where Marc gets his good looks from. Steve the owner just had a new baby, Miss Coco. She's an adorable little fluff of fur and I just fell in love with her. So Steve I advise to keep your eyes on me, so I don't steal her away from you!

With the summer just on the threshold of Milwaukee, Boo-Boo and Lady Bi have been busy as little bumble bees getting the patio ready at M&M Club. Among the new features are a beautiful water fountain, extensive landscaping, and a patio bar that will be used this Summer. So kids get that suntan lotion out and catch some rays.

Also, tennis and softball as well as volleyball and bowling leagues are forming. So if you are interested, join a league and get a different physical workout.

A different version of Jailhouse Rock is happening for an unfortunate bar worker who Keteled One his way into a weekend stay at the county jail. Hopefully he will learn his lesson and listen to this bartender the next time he is offered a cab or a cup of coffee.

In conclusion, I would like to say that I hope everyone has a very enjoyable time at PrideFest next month. It looks like this one, with the entertainment scheduled, will be the biggest and most successful yet. Until next month keep the talk cheap and the liquor flowing!

Love, Cheap Talkin' Chi-Chi.

Cruisin' Carl Falls in Love with the Artist

By Cruisin' Carl

Wednesday night, at last. I had been waiting for tonight since that trucker dumped me. I was so heartbroken and could not keep my mind off of him. All day at work and every night in my dreams he was always there caressing me and making love. Then I would wake up to find that it was all just a dream and I was alone in my king size bed. You know that song "Sleeping Single in a Double Bed?" Well sleeping single in a king size bed is even worse.

As I got out of the shower, I saw my leather studded cockring on the ledge in front of the mirror. I grabbed it and with one hand hefting my balls up I strapped the leather around the base and snapped it tight. Let's see, the ad said "Wicked Wednesdays, Leather and Latex Party." The cockring was the perfect start to my ensemble. I just had my leather chaps cleaned at the corner cleaners. Thinking back, I remembered the man at the cleaners that looked to be only a few years older than me and had the biggest arms and legs that anyone can have and still look normal. When he handed me my chaps he looked at me with a knowing smile. So, just before I left, I dropped one of the little square cards advertising Wicked Wednesdays on the counter and pretended like I didn't know it. I think he was pretending like he did not notice it either and just as I left and turned to look back, he was picking it up. I was hoping I would see him at the club tonight.

I put on the chaps and then added a leather vest. Admiring my pumped up body after the hard workout at the gym, I realized that my leather armbands would be the perfect final touch that would be sure to lure that perfect cut of beef. I got out one armband from the top drawer of my high chest of drawers and started to slip it up. "Damn!" I couldn't get it all the way up. It stopped about an inch of slipping past the biggest part of my bicep. I squeezed my bicep while trying to relax it and it still would not go. "Damn!" I saw the lube on the night stand and quickly grabbed it. After squirting some into my hand and working it around my bicep it tried again. "Shit!" It still won't go. The workout got me so pumped up that my armbands wouldn't fit. Now I was pissed. I would be going without my armbands. Then I noticed that my arm looked sexy all greased up. I thought about putting some lube all over but I don't like how it gets sticky as it dries so I tried some baby oil. I was getting turned on while oiling my skin and I couldn't wait to get going.

I snapped out of my narcissistic dream as I got into my PT Cruiser and headed for downtown Milwaukee. The club has plenty of parking in the rear and they say you can park in the lot across the street. As I walked in and paid the cover I saw the manager. A real nice looking man. I was thinking that maybe I could put the moves on him.

Walking in, I my spirits were uplifted. I forgot all about my troubles as I saw sexy guys in leather every where I looked. I looked around to see if the guy from the cleaners was here but, no. Sally, the bartender, asked if I wanted a drink and of course I did. I'm sure that she looked hot and sexy. All the straight guys would be crooning over her. She had on a leather bustier and if it were not for what looked like black electrician's tape arranged like an X, her nipples would have been visible to all.

Just as I thought I was going to strike out, the guy from the cleaners showed up. He was so sexy, dressed in chaps and a full harness. His muscular arms had chrome

The feel of his harness was rough and he looked like a Roman gladiator. He pulled out a condom and some lube. He forced the condom down over his massive tool and started slopping lube generously all over it. With a large puddle of lube in his hand he reached down and slapped my butt. The force of his hand hitting my butt forced most of the lube up inside me and my tool shook and slapped my belly. I felt him at the entrance as he probed firmly, gradually making his way.

We made love to each other on the warm sand over and over until the sun began to show on the horizon. We stopped and just sat there taking in the beautiful sunrise as we held each other and gently caressed each other's body.

It was now Thursday and I had to get to work. I kissed him good bye as the bus came and he got on rode off.

Next month more of Cruisin' Carl's Military Days.

arm bands that made his biceps look really hot. He had a set of abs that looked like he did 100 sit ups every night. A thin trail of hair went from an inch or two above his navel down into his jeans. But the only way you could see it was when he bent over slightly to pick up something he dropped on the floor, because the harness had a strap that disappeared into his jeans. I imagined a heavy chrome ring attached and circling a massive tool and balls. While he was bent over, his butt pointed right at me. It was amply rounded and tight. I think he dropped whatever it was just so he could show me his butt. When he stood up he looked right at me and smiled. I began to breath heavily and my jeans became tight in the crotch at the anticipation of what I knew had to happen later that night. Since I was wearing chaps, my basket bulged out and I was sure he noticed. I walked over and offered to buy him a drink. We went over and let Sally wait on us. He kept moving closer and closer to me and soon he had his hand around my waist and was giving my butt a firm squeeze. I reached down and rubbed the fly of his jeans and gave a squeeze to see if he had on a cock ring as I imagined earlier. He did and I kept a firm hold as I felt him stir and begin to enlarge in my hand. I massaged and tugged until some one happened to notice us. I leaned over and asked him if he wanted to go some where else where we wouldn't be interrupted. He said it was my choice and asked if I had wheels. "Of course, I drive a real cool PT Cruiser," I said and motioned him to come with me.

I started driving toward Lake Michigan. He started unzipping my chaps and had them off after about two block. After opening the fly of my pants he grabbed my butt with one hand and he reached in for my tool with the other and began massaging me. I was becoming hornier and hornier and thought that the beach would never come into sight. But, finally I stopped at the beach and slowly and tantalizingly he removed my shirt and then began to suck on my nipples. Just as they began to tingle, he stopped sucking and started to pull my jeans off.

He removed his jeans and now all he had on was the leather harness. As he moved, the strap pulled on his tool which was now hard and pointing up at a forty-five degree angle. It was massive and I grabbed it. It felt hot as it throbbed. The feel of it in my palm was exciting. Space in the front seat was becoming to confining and we got out of the car. The night air was cool but comfortable. He picked me up with his muscular arms and put me down on the sand, falling on top of me and pressed himself against me.

By Terry Halverson

Hello dear friends and fans.

Terry here, sittin in my Trailer across from the sewer plant in Madison. This is my first article so BEAR with me. Ok I have my TUMBLER of Dr's over ice and a pen watch out! I do get around so you never know who, what or where I'll be talking about. Let me tell you it's been a busy one. In April, three friends and I ventured off to a couple Gay Resorts in Florida to PLAY Balcony Bingo. We landed in Tampa and I had rented a cute yellow Ford Escape. Well, when my three FRIENDS saw that, they looked at all our LUGGAGE and said "OH Honestly" you will have to get us an upgrade. So off to the rental counter I went. A lovely lady was behind the counter with a ROCK on her finger you needed sun glasses for. After telling her how FABULOUS her ring was, we were upgraded to a BUTCH SUV with plenty of room for our Fat Asses. Oh, and our luggage too. I immediately got out a Gay Rainbow sticker and placed it on the back of the SUV so we looked like locals. Yes, I always place a sticker on my rentals. It comes right off. (Editor's note: Sure!)

We loaded up and headed to the Parliament House in Orlando Florida, about one and a half hour drive. This resort has 125 rooms of all MEN. I could tell we were getting close. You know how your ASS starts to twitch when it knows it's going to be SERVICED?

I checked my friends into their rooms. I had to wait of course, as I needed a room on the back of the hotel, with the help. Always a wait for those rooms. My friends, the Bitches, needed poolside with a view. For Gods sake, everyone at the pool knows your shit — I would never.

After a few cocktails at the pool bar with bartender Vickie, they paged that my room was ready. I had already stopped and picked up a banana and permanent marker to write what mood I was in and opened my drapes and placed it on the table. You know how when you wake up in the morning and say "Today is going to be a Foreign Object day," or whatever your in the mood for — Top/Bottom/Kink. When you write it on a banana and place it in the window, it draws attention. I then took the mirror off the wall and placed it behind the door so I could see the Hot Men walking the Balcony. I replaced the bright light bulbs with a subtle blue color, got out the toys, and the Mood was set. Kinda like a scene from 2 Wong Foo. Only took me two minutes as well.

Orlando was beautiful. I had promised my friends a SURPRISE. So we headed to the theme park. I had rented a crane to hoist our ASSES up 300 feet. I'd pull the cord and we'd FREE-Fall. OH my God what a RUSH — better than Amsterdam Popper's.

Three days in Orlando and a few good men later, we loaded up and headed for our next destination, Sun Coast Resort in Saint Petersburg. As we were singing along I looked to my right and noticed a sign "Biggest Flea Market." Well you know I love to shop and always looking for a deal. "Pull in my Friends," I said.

"You Cant be SERIOUS," they said.

I insisted, as I was out of douche and a few other personal things. "Forty-five minutes and were out of here," I could hear them say, as I walked away. Don't smile! We're the only people here with TEETH and they might get stolen, how tragic. Only a half hour into my shopping spree and they informed me to hurry up. They said, "We're going. We can't take it any more. We're worried that Jerry Springer is going to pull up with his camera crew and start filming.

Off to Sun Coast Beautiful Gay Resort. Tiki Bar, Leather Bar, Piano Lounge, Restaurant and shops — 121 rooms of Men. The Sunday tea dance ... over a thousand people. Well, after a couple of days and a FEW men later, we packed our shit and headed to Tampa Airport ONLY to find out we would have a layover. Well, let's just say, after a few cocktails and four hours later, I boarded the plane. They could have put my DRUNKEN ASS in a crate and flew me as FREIGHT, as much as I cared at that point. My friends kept calling me Karen Walker. What's that all about?

May, I headed to Wisconsin Dells to check out Captain Dix Gay Resort. OH my, what a nice property. I was greeted by owner/bartender Gary who always had a smile on his face. I inquired about the rooms available and Gary took the time to show me several rooms — all a bit different. I had my stash of lube, condoms, and poppers in pocket just in case he tried anything. I personally like the four units/cabins with front and back decks. I was thinking, if I left my back door open a BEAR might come out of the woods right into my bed.

May also took me with a group of 45 to Chicago for a night of partying on Halstead Street. Oh my God, I had a friend Ken tend bar on the bus. I need to mention that he lost some weight and looks very Hot. Not that I would want to do a Friend or anything. Anyway, as the trip went on, the aisle seemed to get narrower or Ken got swishier. He could hardly make it from front to back without hitting the seats.

We arrived in Chicago about 10 pm, Sat. evening. A bit cocktailled, we hit several clubs and then started to break up and go our own ways.

Well I needed a Hot Tub so I opted to head to SteamWorks only to be told I was too cocktailled to come in. "OH HOnestly." So I left, leaving only one more option for this tramp, Ram Book Store. I was allowed in. I found a dark booth in back of the store.

OMG, I thought I had entered a fun house. All of a sudden, these hands started coming through the holes in my booth. I opened my poppers and dropped the lid. Damn, I couldn't find it. One of the guys put his mouth down by one of the holes and said, "You Drunk Bitch! Put the lid on those or I'll get your ass kicked out of here." I thought, OH No, two places in one night! Kicked out? So I put my finger on the bottle.

A little after 4 am we were loaded on the bus back to Madison with almost everyone passed out or shall I say sleeping. It left the horny guys free rein to play in the back of the bus and YOU know who you are.

Back in Madison, I had heard that Ray, from Ray's Bar on East Washington, had opened at a new location so I went to check this out. Joey, a long dear friend of mine, was tending bar. It's a nice narrow long bar, tastefully decorated with a pool table, juke box and Art Deco booths. While sitting there, two LESBIANS came in that I knew, Toby and her girlfriend Ann. They told me how good I looked. They better, after just getting back from Florida all tanned and shit. I said, "So, Lesbians, what's new?" They informed me they had just opened a leather shop and outlet, off State Street and Francis, called "Look at That" — open seven days a week. So, Lesbians, Leather Queens and Pride Collectors, check them out at 438 Francis Street.

OK! Time to run. Rumor has it, I will be riding with Chi-Chi and Out Bound Magazine in Milwaukee Pride Parade. Girrl, what shall I wear???

Interview with Bill Wardlow, Owner of Fluid

By Chi-Chi

One of the more popular watering holes has re-opened in our community, Fluid. I recently sat down with Bill and discussed what is new and what has changed.

To begin with, Bill Wardlow has retained the name Fluid, after dissolving the previous corporation by becoming the sole proprietor. This process allowed the name Fluid to become open from the previous agreement with the creation of the new corporation.

In the interim time that the bar was temporarily closed, Bill created a completely new environment for his patrons. In the approximately 10 weeks that the bar was closed, the building went through an extensive renovation that took the establishment down to its studs, no not the ones serving behind the bar. His vision was to class it up from the ground up from the floor to the ceiling.

The result is a more warm and spacious feeling that has opened up the bar. From removing ceiling tiles, carpeting, awkward speakers, and views hidden from windows, the result is quite remarkable. This was all accomplished by a very dedicated group of individuals. Bill personally would like to thank Mr. Don Antoniak and Mr. Anthony Kagel for the Venetian plaster work, and the air brushing techniques respectfully.

A special mention to the general contractor Mr. Terry Buchaman for the extensive shelving behind the bar area among all the other projects involved.

Bill's dedicated staff has all mostly returned, including De, Brian, and Matt. Bill will still be behind the bar some nights, but now with added duties of being the sole owner, his attentions will be to running the bar even more.

With the advent of the bar's more contemporary feel, the music will reflect this change. However, special drink promos like Cosmo night on Thursdays and 2-4-1 between 5-8 Monday through Friday will remain the same. A special grand opening is being planned in the upcoming weeks so check their web site at www.Fluid.GayMKE.com.

Bill would like to thank the community and all his customers for their patience during this transition period. He would like to stress that with customer input and with striving to create a sense of community through the bar's sponsorship of tennis, softball, and the AIDS walk, this is a new chapter in his life.

They say that the hardest boss you work for is yourself, and bill will definitely rise to the occasion. We're still here, so have a Cosmo and tell Bill, Chi-Chi sent you.

Good Luck!
