Wet Boxers Contest At Brandy's II

The Wieners, err... Winners

Wet & WILD!!!

I called a friend, Greg, bartender at Boom in Milwaukee, to meet me out for a drink. He joined me then informed me of a NEW GAY BAR that opened a couple weeks back in Milwaukee. It's called Out N About (1st & Greenfield - 1407 S. 1st); a very cool looking space with metallic paint, cool lighting, funky furnishings and an Awesome Staff. Out N About is open 7 day's a week, a few happenings there include live jazz Monday-Friday with Happy Hour, DJ Friday-Sunday 9pm; a new place to try for lunch and dinner. I will be trying their Sunday Brunch. OK, I also heard they are open for food late night as well. Please call and find out hours. (414) 643-0377 Let em know trailer Terry sent YA!!!!!!! This is a must to check out the place is Absolutely to Die For. Rumor has it I maybe planning a Bar Crawl to Out & About soon.

Ok, I almost forgot! While at M&M's, Cheap Talkin Chi-Chi entered. We chatted, had a couple drinks together and, yes, someone wanted a photo shoot. So, after they found a WIDE angle Lens so we both fit in same PICTURE, the photos were snapped. If they are able to develop the pics and Chi-Chi is not the center of attention, I may send them for your viewing.

P.S. I still have rooms available on The Feb/March 2004 Gay/Lesbian/Str8 Cruise. Please feel free to call for info:

Terry (608) 223-1350. Hoping you all have a Fabulous Labor Day.

Love, Kisses and Trailer Park Wishes,

About the Cover - Interview with Jason Branch

By Roger Krawiecki

This month I had the opportunity to interview adult video star Jason Branch. At first I hesitated because I had no idea who he was. So the first thing I did was to look him up on the internet. I found www.jasonbranch.com, a nice little free website with a bio, pictures, and videography.

Next I wanted to see him in action so it was off to Video Adventures on Brady Street in Milwaukee. They have thousands of titles in absolutely no order so it took me awhile to find Jason. I found "Up for Grabs," a movie about a garage sale. Nothing like that ever happens at my rummage sales. I also found "Convictions Part I." I have no idea what this movie was about. Jason plays a hot master that makes a business man do very naughty things. Jason gave an excellent performance in both movies.

Finally I felt prepared to tackle this difficult assignment. Arrangements were made for a phone interview and here it is.

Roger: You are currently 39 years old. You started making adult videos 6 years ago when you were 33. Why did you decide so late in life that you wanted to perform?

Jason: It was happen chance. I was in a relationship with someone who lived in Portland Oregon and I lived in San Francisco. I was working for a non-profit organization and he was finishing his masters. So he suggested it as a means to pay for our travel expenses to keep our long distance relationship alive. Initially I was not very keen on it and thought that I couldn't do it. He brought it up again. So I told him to do all the research and he found an ad. We did a phone interview and then an in-person interview and they liked both of us. We shot a video together the next time he was in San Francisco. Oddly enough the company really liked me and started to recommend me to other companies. If someone would have told me six years ago that I would be doing this full time for a living I would have thought "not in a million years." I stumbled into it and feel very fortunate about the longevity of my career.

Roger: How much longer would you like to continue making adult videos?

Jason: I have told myself that this is going to be my transition year. I have been doing this full time for 3 years and consider myself very blessed in the fact that my work is appreciated and my fans still like my work. But I feel like it is time to move on to another challenge.

Roger: What type of work would you like to do in the future?

Jason: I want to go back to school and get a degree as a sex therapist. I would like to produce videos that would be educational in nature. I realize, especially in the United States, that porn is an enormous educational tool. In my opinion 90% of the videos that are out there are crap. I would like to produce videos that deal with the proper use of toys, foreplay, and sensuality. There is so much that men just don't know. Unless they learn by experience, there is nothing out there to help train them.

Roger: Some people say, "You take your middle name plus the street you grew up on to come up with your porn name." Is that true for you?

Jason: No it is not. Jason just seemed appropriate and actually the very first company I worked for I had to pick a last name. There was nothing in the office that inspired me. So I looked out into the backyard which was a garden. I started going through the litany. Jason Flower, no, Jason Trunk, no, a little bit too much, and I kind of came up with Jason Branch. There is a double entendre there, but it is also in line with my northern European ancestry because it can actually be a real name.

Roger: Besides making videos what else do you do?

Jason: Prior to this career I worked for CAPS, the Center for Aids Research Prevention Studies at UCSF. I was doing behavioral aids research. This was a lead into the work that I do now and the therapy work that I hope to do down the road.

Roger: Do you spend a lot of time maintaining your appearance?

Jason: I don't obsess about it. I get in and out of the habit of going to the gym. I travel a fair amount so it is easy to stop but difficult to get back into a routine. I am pretty healthy and active. I think I am genetically more predisposed to be in shape. I'm a big eater but have the damndest time putting on weight.

Roger: Do you have any other talents that your fans should be aware of?

Jason: I am a bit of a linguist. I love languages. I love to travel. I'm a great cook. I love to cook. Since I am on the road a lot, I love to entertain my friends here in San Francisco.

Roger: Are you currently in a relationship?

Jason: I'm dating somebody. It's a new relationship and he is a very nice guy. We are just taking it easy. I was in a long-term relationship that ended at the beginning of the year. So I am taking some time for myself. The Portland relationship lasted about 1 year. Then I dated Blake Harper who was also in the industry for 3 years. My last relationship was for around 2 years. I tend to be relationship oriented.

© Falcon Studios

Roger: You have been in 54 movies for many different companies in just 6 years. That's a lot of movies in a short amount of time. Which video do you like the best?

Jason: How can I politically answer that question? I have been very fortunate to work with all of the grade-A high-end companies. Every company has been nice for different reasons. Granted, there are a few companies that I will never work for again. I enjoy working for any company that puts out a good product and treats me well. Porn, by the nature it is, makes an enormous amount of money. A lot of people have made money off of me and my image. The companies that realize that I do sell product for them and that I am a good professional performer is the reason that I am still around and working in this industry. So there is not any one video that stands out that I prefer over the others.

Roger: How many days does it take to film one scene?

A Hot Dancer at Boom!

Jason: A normal scene for me might take 4 hours and might end up as 45 minutes at the most in the final product. Scenes without dialog are quicker to shoot. There are different angles to shoot so there is a lot of starting and stopping. The more people you throw into a scene the longer it takes. It also depends on how experienced the guys are on the set. I have been doing this long enough so I know how to work the camera, if you will. There is always the money shot. If everyone lets their "stock" build up, the money shot comes quicker. I usually won't cum three days before a shoot. Some of the guys get nervous and when the pressure is on it can take them an hour and a half to two hours before they cum and no one can leave until they do. I don't want to be in the position to be the last one to cum.

Roger: You have a rich deep masculine voice. Do you get more speaking parts because of your sexy voice?

Jason: I think so, sure, I tend to be pretty verbal naturally when it comes to sex which is good for sound track. Some guys are very quiet. In my bondage videos the top has to carry the scene so consequently my deep voice helps. It would be hard to see someone with a high voice in a dominant position.

Roger: You have been in mainstream porn but you have also been in leather, fetish, and bondage films. You have done water sports and fisting. Is there anything you haven't done yet that you would like to do?

Jason: The stuff that I haven't done yet I am not inclined to go towards. Like animals, no way. I don't get into blood sports. I don't get into scat so I'll never do a video like that. I would never do a hardcore video where someone gets knocked up or smacked around or cock and ball torture. I don't find that erotic and that doesn't work for me. I don't like to promote sexual violence. Sex is one of the greatest expressions itself. It is a very beautiful thing. It is unfortunate that in our country there is a lot of shame and guilt around it.

Roger: You have received several awards. "Nastiest Leather Stud", "Best Oral Scene", "Best Top", and "Best Performer of 1999". Which award means the most to you?

Jason: At the Grabby Awards this year over Memorial Day weekend in Chicago I was inducted into their Hall of Fame. I did not know this was going to happen ahead of time. I was very touched and honored to be inducted for my contributions to the awards and the industry. I touched upon my contributions as a whole instead of just a body part or sexual technique. I have always approached my job as a professional. I am from the Midwest and have got that good work ethic. I was always taught that you do the best you can and that you are judged by the quality of the work that you do.

Roger: The video stars are never wearing underwear in the movies. Do you wear underwear in your daily life? What kind?

Jason: I do. I am a boxer guy. I love my boxers. The only time I may not wear underwear is when it is hot out and you want to have the shorts hanging kind of a little low. Overall I like my underwear. As soon as I walk into the house I start taking my clothes off down to my underwear.

Roger: Your bio says that you are "mostly cut." What does that mean?

Jason: Apparently I am what they call "French Cut." When I am not hard I can actually make it look like I have a foreskin. When I am hard I have a little bit of extra skin going on. When I was circumcised, and I can thank my Grandfather for this because he was a doctor, he left me a little extra skin.

Roger: Not only are you good looking you are well educated. You have a Masters degree in International Relations. You know how to speak French, German, and some Mandarin Chinese. You have green eyes. You're the perfect man. Is there anything wrong with you?

Jason: I wouldn't say that I am perfect. I am human. That's a hard question. I can't think of anything off hand. I'm very tidy. I love plants. I have a green thumb. I am not mechanically inclined. I must lose some butch points for that. I am big on keeping my home nice and love to cook. I love being gay. I can be as masculine or feminine as I want to be. What does it matter? If someone is going to call me gay or a fag, so what. What's your point because I am gay.

Roger: Logan Reed has performed in Milwaukee this year. Have you ever performed with him?

Jason: Actually I have done a scene with him. We did "Don't Ask Don't Tell" for MSR Video. It was a three-way scene. He's a nice guy.

Roger: You are coming to Milwaukee for an appearance. Have you been to Milwaukee or Wisconsin before?

Jason: I sure have. I grew up in Chicago. As a kid, on our summer vacations we would go camping in Wisconsin. Definitely some fond memories of the dairy state.

Roger: What should your fans expect to see when you come to Milwaukee?

Jason: A fair amount of flesh, depending upon the laws of the city. I am not a dancer. I am not a go-go dancer. When I perform by myself I try to make it as erotic and sexy as possible. My costume is very limited and there is no velcro holding it strategically in place.

Roger: Will they have an opportunity to talk with you one-on-one?

Jason: One of the most gratifying aspects of my work is the fans. That is why I like to do these performances. It gets me out to cities where I can meet people that normally wouldn't have an opportunity to interact with me. That's the highlight for me. I love my fans. They are an incredible group of people. I have never had any bad experiences. I have always been treated just so well everywhere I go. I am successful because my fans appreciate my work. I don't take that for granted.

What a wonderful person. I really enjoyed talking to someone who knows what they want to do with their life. Why can't I find someone like Jason? He definitely has one more fan because he sure won me over. Jason will be appearing on Saturday September 20th at Boom. If you go, tell him Roger sent you.

Cruisin' Carl—Military Days

By Cruisin' Carl

Running back into the cave, it quickly became pitch dark. We could see nothing but black. Hearing a faint voice calling out, "Hellooo. Anyone there?" We stopped and kept silent, listening to see if they would come back any deeper into our cave. After about ten minutes of silence, sling man was chosen to be scout and went back towards the entrance to check and see if they left. When he returned, he delivered bad news. Another triad of men from the survival test had decided to take up residence in our cave.

With nowhere to go, we continued further back at a slow, careful walk. The route seemed to be on a level course, going neither up nor down. The ceiling started getting lower and lower and soon was only high enough for us to walk crouched over and just wide enough for two abreast. It was dark, damp and ominous. Water dripping and the floor had puddles here and there. The air was getting cooler, meaning that we were going deeper and deeper into the mountain.

We stopped to rest and I got out a flash light that I had smuggled along. We weren't allowed to bring flash lights, but I was not going to let some trivial rule stop me from having the luxury of seeing in the dark. I turned on the light. The other two guys nearly jumped out of their clothes from fright. The look on their faces also told me that they were scared and I was going to have to take over as leader. Even Master, as tough as he seemed to be back at the entrance where safety was assured, was turning into a frightened little puppy.

Next, I reached into my pack and got out a candle and lit it, with a match that is also forbidden. I held up the candle and noticed a gentle breeze causing the flame to flicker, meaning there was another opening up ahead. The other two were unaware of what I was doing and I decided to keep them uninformed of my observation.

Taking charge, I turned off the light and kept the candle burning so we could see. I used the pretense that the candle would burn slow allowing us to save the batteries for emergency lighting and still leave me some candle for starting a fire later. I continued to lead them on, checking each fork in our path with the candle to see which way the breeze was coming from. The air started to get warmer and soon the sound of trickling water became louder, more like a mountain stream.

The next bend in the cave revealed a faint light up ahead and we all let out a sigh of relief. The cave opened up into a large space, another entrance into the side of the mountain. Outside the entrance was a small stream with clean, cold, fresh water. Thirsty, we all had a good drink and soon we were laughing and carrying on about what happened back at the other entrance requiring us to make a break for it.

We could tell by the surrounding geography that the likelihood of any of the others finding our new spot was slim to none. Better yet, we spotted the landmark for our final pick up point. Coming through the mountain, brought us to only about a day's hike away from it. So, with nine days out of ten left for our survival training, we decided to make camp at this new entrance. We gathered pine boughs for bedding and used Master's parachute canopy that he saved back at the landing site as a mattress cover. The result was a large king-sized bed perfect for plunking each other's behind for the next eight days before having to hike to the pick up point.

We finished making our bed just as the sun was starting to set. The air was warm and we were getting frisky. First, sling man started taking his clothes off. Master and I walked over to him and began helping. I stood behind him and reached around in front, undid his belt and slowly began unzipping his fly. His tool was hard as rock and since he didn't have on any underwear, the massive piece of meat sprang out, slapping his belly. Also, I realized that he must've left his boxers (too) at the other entrance to the cave; we all had on boxers when we left. It was regulation and the sergeant was always checking at the most inconvenient times that we had them on. I think he was just checking so he could get a better look at our tools, as he even would make us show that we did not have anything extra on underneath.

We were fairly young men and our stamina seemed unlimited. That night we did just about everything three horny men can do in a cave. We switched places at least a dozen times. One man would be on the bottom and the other two would stack; the middle man sunk deep into the bottom man; the top man with his dagger up to the hilt in the middle man. Then, when one of us was near the brink of no return, we would switch. Finally we fell asleep and when morning came we got up and relieved ourselves with the three of us standing next to each other looking over at each others fat tool which seemed to have swelled up a bit permanently, although not fully erect or hard, probably from the workout they got last night. Seeing each other in this apparent half-excited state brought on another intense desire to take pleasures before breakfast.

We got out our fishing lines and hooks. Worms were plentiful under the rocks and fallen trees and we caught enough fish for two meals. The fish were very plentiful and it was going to be easy finding food here while we waited. We decided to do a little exploring and found a pool in the stream near a clearing. It was long and narrow and the end farthest from the stream was warmed from the sun, perfect for swimming. A large flat rock jugged out over the pool so we could work on our tans. Of course, we went totally naked and when things got hot, not just from the sun, we jumped in the water for relief.

Well, to say the least, we had a good time for the next seven days and it had to come to an end. We packed up our stuff and put on our hiking clothes and headed for the pickup point. We figured that we would reach it with about half a day to spare, so we were not in a big hurry and had plenty of time to fool around. We were coming in from the East and the other triads would be coming in from the West. Our paths would not be crossing and we figured we could enjoy some more nude sunbathing along the way without concern for being caught with our pants down and our tools in the engaged position, warming them in each other's man hole. And that we did.

We arrived at the pick up point with no time to spare due to our extracurricular activities along the way. The sergeant really gave us an ass chewing for being the last triad to get back and gave us laundry duty for the rest of the company as punishment. He ordered us to go get cleaned up and report to the laundry building after we washed all the filthy stinking grime off our worthless pitiful bodies. Actually, it wasn't grime. We must have smelled of sex pretty bad, if you know what I mean.

When I walked into the showers I was surprised that they were empty. Usually there are at least four or five other men tantalizingly soaping up their buff sexy bodies. Instead, I was all alone. The hot water and steam from the shower enhanced the smell of sex that washed off my body and the affect of my own pheromones was making me get hard and very aroused. And, although a bit cliché, I'll tell you that I took things into my own hands. I couldn't resist the urge and could not care less if someone came in. As the water poured over my chest running down to my tool and soothing my low hangers, I was rapidly approaching an explosive climax. My man tool was swollen and extended beyond the grip of both hands. My body convulsed and my load erupted with such force that I let out a loud moan and it landed two showers over. My tool pulsed again and again, each shot a bit shorter than the last and then it just flowed, spilling at my feet. Relieved of the pressure, I got back to the job of washing the "filthily stinking grime" off me and I heard a noise out in the dressing area outside the showers and in walked the sergeant.

The sergeant had a body that was sexy and buff beyond description. I turned away slightly so as not to be obvious that I was eying him over. He said that of all the triads, ours seemed to be in the best physical shape. Most of the men came back half starved, all scratched up and dragging their feet from exhaustion. He went on to say that also one of the other triads had found a cave with army issue boxers left behind by some previous tenants. The boxers, aside from being a bit stained with man juice, were fairly new. Also the cave floor was littered with used condoms and their wrappers. I just commented about how odd that was and continued to wash.

Just when I was turning off the shower and turning to leave, he commented about our "all-over" tans that our triad seemed to acquire during the survival test. I looked over at him and noticed that his tool was starting to swell up and realized he was cruising me. I made an attempt to get out of the showers, but just as I was passing by, he grabbed me by the waist and slammed me up against the wall. He pressed his hot sexy body up against me. Our chests smashed against each other as his tool probed between my legs. Always prepared, I reached down and suited him up in preparation of what I knew was to come.

He had me and I was finally spent and just as I was leaving the showers, he said "Carl, I saw it all. Your secret cave shortcut is in perfect line with our observation tower and my 200X telescope leaves nothing to the imagination. But don't worry, I am the only one with access to the tower. And by the way, I put in a request for you to be stationed here for the next six months as my new ASSistant."

Tales from the Trailer

By Terry Halverson

Hello All Trailer Terry here.

I had the opportunity to check out our local Gay Bars in Madison this last month. Here is a run down. Ray's closed his location at 3054 East Washington Ave and moved to a new location @ 2526 East Washington Ave next to Red Letter News. Cheryl @ CE's Bar 2415 East Washington Closed May 31st. She is now working @ Shamrock Bar 117 West Main. Cheryl is in the process of looking for a new location; any suggestions let her know. I had stopped into shamrock Bar on a Wednesday H-Hour while Cheryl was working in the back bar. I sat next to her partner Ann and began doing shots with her; think she may of been late for work the next day. Cheryl works mainly in the back Bar of the Shamrock. Please stop and say hi during one of her shifts. Cheryl's schedule is Sunday 4pm-? Tuesday (main Bar) for Karaoke 8-Close, Wednesday/Thursday back bar 4-?

Ok after a couple of shots, tehehe, Ann and I decided to check out the NEW RAINBOW ROOM, 121 West Main St. about 7:30pm. The bar was full. Matt & Bob were tending bar and, yes, both Gay and very hospitable. Ann needed to plug her parking meter and Bob, the GENTLEMAN that he is, walked my LESBIAN friend to her car. I was hoping when I left he was going to do the same for me. Nope, I walked alone. Steph came in to tend bar at 8:00. she is a CUTE little ball of fire. The bar has a fresh coat of paint, a Cat Walk for the DJ in the back of the bar. It looks very nice inside. PLEASE stop in and check out the NEW LOOK and the FUN STAFF.

I then ventured to Club 5 for a night cap; or lets say, to possibly get LAID. Amber was tending bar in the front. She is a BEAUTIFUL LESBIAN with a personality to match. Karaoke was going on and I have no talent with a Microphone. Well, maybe I do but for a different purpose than most. So I headed to the back bar, The Barracks, where several out-of-town MEN were hanging out. Let's just say I needed one more punch in my card for a FREE NIGHT at Super 8 and I more that FILLED IT!!!!!! HMMMMMMMM, wonder if that's why I'm called Trailer Trash Terry???

Oh Oh, Club 5 has line dancing on Monday nights with one hour of free lessons and then open dancing 7-10:30pm. Every Monday a large group has shown up for this every. I plan on trying this out as soon as I can find a pair of boots that I like. No you do not need boots this is very informal and DIANA DJ's this event. Monday also brings an alternative crowd to Club 5 at 10:30 DISRUPT different DJ's every 1/2 hour in the main Bar.

I needed a day out of town so I headed to Milwaukee on a weekday afternoon while stopping at M&M's, FABULOUS RONA had the Pleasure of serving me. She asked if I had a purple car as she had seen one earlier that was headed for Harbor Room with a guy in it with NEON sun glasses; she new a Fag was driving. I think Rona is a bit to DETAILED or may have been out CRUISING before her bar shift.

Playing With Fire 3

A three-alarm sex hoedown! Continuing in the tradition of the previous PLAYING WITH FIRE series, this one's just as scorching as the first two! The action begins in the firehouse kitchen where muscle hunk, CAESAR, is checking out new recruit, LEXX PARKER. Caesar is all horny and wants blond Lexx to suck him off. Caesar plants a sloppy kiss on the new guy and begins to manhandle the young stud. Lexx goes for the man meat and sucks off Caesar's throber with Caesar binding his hands with his belt. Caesar strips and shows off his bow-hunk body. FILIPPO ROMANO and SAM TYSON return from a call. Sam proclaims that fighting fires makes his man tool hard and asks Filippo to put it out with his mouth. The two lie on the bunk as Filippo undoes Sam's pants and sucks his boner through the white boxers. Filippo sniffs his fingers after rubbing Sam's butt, then goes back and spits and licks more cock and Sam's shaved man sack. Filippo mounts Sam's smooth, sweet ass and pumps him doggy style, both of them with rubber boots still on. Sam gets on his back with his legs spread wide for Filippo to dive in deeper into his ass. Sam gets a load of Filippo's man juice in his face as he strokes himself to a thick climax. This scene is crammed with intense rimming, sweaty bodies, spitting, and hard man ass fucking. In another scene, LANCE LANDERS swaps spit with Filippo and licks his way down his six-pack stomach. If you like hot muscular firemen, this is a Must See! These firemen are so hot, that you'll keep cumming back for more and more! Chi Chi Larue Realy Out does it with this one!
