Mil-M-Aids 20-Year Anniversary

It is hard to believe that the Mil-M-Aids (Milwaukee and Madison Against Aids) 9-Pin Bowling Tournament has been in existence for 20 years.

Milwaukee will be the proud host to Madison this year. The event will take place on Saturday, April 16 at 1:00p.m. at the AMF Bowlero. Over the years, Mil-M-Aids has raised over $75,000 for AIDS related charities. The beneficiaries of this year's tournament will be Camp Heartland and the BESTD Clinic. In addition, bring non-perishable food donations for The Hunger Task Force and receive a ticket for a special raffle.

Cost for the event is $25.00 before April 06, $30.00 after April 06. Additional Awards Party tickets are available for $10.00 each. Our party host will again be Victor's on Van Buren.

For applications, information or to donate a raffle prize, please contact Debi or Cindy at 414-328-3636 or Bob or Rick at 414-881-8071. The e-mail address is milmaids@aol.com

Dear Ruthie

The month of March is here, which means that spring is just around the corner. And thank God for that! I've been thinking about warm weather more often than Liza Minnelli dreams about happy hour.

And speaking of colorful characters, let's all give a big round of applause for Patty Bouvier of FOX's "The Simpsons." I'm not sure if Marge's sister is the first animated gal to step out of a major television network's cartoon closet, but more power to ya, Patty! (And cheers to the folks at the FOX network as well.)

Hopefully Patty's announcement will start a new trend, inspiring dozens of other animated characters to show their true colors. Wouldn't it be fabulous if Patty's coming out allowed Fred Flintstone and Barney Rubble the chance to stop living a lie? (Which one do you think is the top?)

Perhaps super-hunks like Batman and Superman will admit to the world that they only fight evil villains because it gives them the chance to wear tights. In the same light, I bet Spiderman could come public about his latex fetish. And I could have sworn I saw Aqua Man with a yellow bandana one time, so I've got an idea about what that guy is into.

Maybe Scooby-Doo can finally have a romp in the back of the Mystery Machine with Garfield. Similarly, Scooby's buddy Velma can finally toss aside her glasses and her inhibitions and confess her love to Daphne.

Thanks to Patty from "The Simpsons," Wonder Woman can become a roadee with the next Lilith Fair, and SpongeBob SquarePants can admit that he's into the Levi/Leather scene. (I knew I once saw a sling in the background of that underwater pineapple of his.)

Because of Patty, Tweety Bird no longer has to "butch it up" around Sylvester. And as for Peppermint Patty and her gal-pal Marcy....well, I guess they've sort of been out for years now, haven't they?

I know, I know... "The Simpsons" is only a cartoon. But the FOX network's willingness to "out" one of its long-running characters is still a step in the right direction. If you ask me, any time the LGBT community gets an opportunity to show the nation that gay folks are just as normal as everyone else, it's a good thing. Even if this message comes in the form of a cute, little, yellow cartoon character.

Alright, enough of that. How about we read a letter? This one came in via my Website www.dearruthie.com. Be sure to stop by there sometime when you're out "surfing the web," as the kids say. And remember to drop me a line, saying hello!

Dear Ruthie,

I just found out that my girlfriend cheated on me again.

Notice the word, "again." I used that word because she did this to me two other times before.

I forgave her the other times, but I'm not sure I can do it again. I always try to see the best in people and give them second chances, but I'm not sure I can do it this time. To be honest, Dear Ruthie, I'm very sure that I cannot do it again this time. I've just been too hurt in the past, and now I really don't trust her.

I do love her, and she really wants another chance. Some of our friends say I should let her prove her love to me again. Hey! What do you know?! There is that funny word - again!

What do you think I should do? Thanks for your help. I hope you answer this question in your column.

Thanks,

Lonely Laura

Dear Lonely,

So you've got a girlfriend who just can't seem to help getting herself a little piece of chicken on the side, 'eh? Well that sucks! (Let's not beat around the bush with this one.)

What's the problem with this dame? Not only has your girlfriend been caught with her hand in the cookie jar one too many times, but it sounds like she eats more cookies than Delta Burke on a Nabisco-factory tour.

I can understand your forgiveness the first time. (After all, we all make mistakes, don't we?) And if I try real hard, I can even imagine your point in giving her another shot after the second time.

If you ask me, however, I'd say that after three strikes, she's out! Tell her to leave home plate and to go sit in the dugout because her swinging days are over.

I truly think it's great that you are such a forgiving person. I really do. But there's a big difference between forgiving someone and allowing someone to walk all over you. After hitting the sheets with others three times, I'd say she's taking advantage of your forgiving nature.

Do you really believe that this woman is going to change? She didn't learn any lessons the other times she promised to be faithful, what makes you think this time will be different?

Even if you did forgive her, went to a professional who offered couples therapy and tried to move on, do you think you'd be able to establish a degree of trust again?

It's your call whether or not you want to invest more time in this relationship. It sounds to me like you do not.

Being forgiving is wonderful, but you also have to consider your own happiness. For instance, if you forgive the guy who breaks your arm every time the doctor takes the cast off, you're still going to be pretty miserable - and sore.

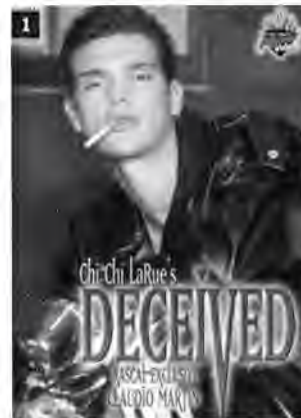

This same thing applies to your heart. Even if you forgive the person who broke it, you're not going to be happy if that person breaks it time and again.

Tell your honey that you need to be on your own for awhile, and go find a person that will treasure you, your relationship and your heart.

Got a question for Ruthie? Drop her a line at www.dearruthie.com. You can also visit her cyber trailer home at www.dearruthie.com.

Cal is so turned on by Johnny, that Cal submits to him and ends up giving him his ass. As it turns out, this is just a movie that Rascal Video Exclusive Eddie Stone is watching in the local dirty movie theater. Eddie is approached by newcummer Jay Varilla and the watchers soon become the watched. They end up giving a nasty performance that is just as good as anything on the big screen. ## Cordially Yours

By Michael Johnston

Hello again, Dear Readers.

I come to you with paper cuts from opening all my Valentines! I had to gather up all the no-parking cones in front of my house due to all the floral and gift deliveries. All I can write is one gigantic Thank You to all of you who remembered me... Did you know that St. Valentine's Day and National Condom Day Are one in the same? February 14th, it fits like a hand and a glove...

Bravo to Milwaukee's very own Ray Jivoff & C. Michael Wright who were part of The Journal Sentinel profile on "Theater Couples". Eat your hearts out Lunt & Fontanne!

Also, I have to wish you all a Happy New Year! The Year of the Rooster, or for the more daring -- The Year of the C*ck, While we are acknowledging milestones a Happy 5th Anniversary to Boom! It seems impossible to believe that David has been running this Second Street club for sooooo long! Maybe that is because I have sooooo many fun memories... The place keeps on growing too! Figuratively and literally -- The Patio, The Room and other constant re-tuning and enhancers. Congratulations to David, Tim, Greg, Lance, Jeff, Chris, Jim, Michael and their new welcomed face Steven - currently doing Thursdays and Saturdays.

I had a riot emceeding the Switch portion of "The Fat Tuesday Pub Crawl." Craig was thrilled with the impressive turn out. Jonathan did an admirable job bartending, making sure everyone was in the right mood. His costume was admired by many as well! I hope this will not become THE Switch uniform -- if indeed it does, after 9 PM PLEASE! "Birds Of A Feather" flew away with First Prize for Original and the exotic beauty of "Miss Bourbon Street - Chantal" won for Best Drag. I did enjoy Travis The Cowboy from Appleton, Master Matt-Ress, Sin & Virtue and all the creativity in the room. Localites in the bar spectating as opposed to participating were: Roger, Alan, David, Aaron, Mark, Jim & James, Joe and Paraders a-go-go waiting to be beaded and feathered... The Party started at The Triangle, no one knows how to launch an evening like Lana, after everyone made the Switch, it was onto Fluid. Bill was prepared to catch the ball and run with it. Finale time as always was at Cage. The divine Miss Nova D'Vine crowned the winners and they all partied until Ash Wednesday.

My next emceeding gig took me to the ever embracing Out And About. I was very flattered to be requested by Beverly - Ms. Out And About - herself! The reason for the Show? A benefit for the most worthy BESTD Clinic - now in their 30th year! What a time we all had! First off Thank You's to Beverly & Pam for the use of their emporium - and on a very busy Lenten Friday Fish Fry Night! MONA's (Milwaukee's Out aNd About) Staff: DJ Kelly (my co-host and able minded aide de camp), Walter, Eric and the cute Cowboy Bar Manager with the heart on. Of course the BESTD Clinic Executive Director Kevin Lynch was there -- beaming at the success of the soiree, at his side, as always Dan and a posse of Clinic Volunteers. It was wonderful seeing BESTD stalwarts Irv & Ross. The Sin-sational cast was the hard working and sexy sirens of C'est La Vie Saturday Night Show: Brittany Morgan - and what an array of fascinating home made fashions, Lady Michelle - entrancing her audience, Tracy - returning to the stage to a gleeful response, and two new Debs (at least to me ): Jackie and Miami - who I encourage you to check out. I know these two will become Brew-Town favorites! Their costumes alone were worth the price of admission! The appreciative audience included: Ted, Joe AKA Madison Brooks, Princess Debbie, Michael Jonas of The Hunger Task Force of Milwaukee, Vito, Susie, Jim Moore of The Wisconsin AIDS Fund and his valentine Paul, Camp Heartland's Tony, Jeff, Wendy, Tamara, Maria and a very fun, energetic Friday Night group of revelers. Talk about a win/win situation! 30 years of the BESTD Clinic! Much needed funds to keep them going! Helping the Community, the awareness of the Clinic and it's importance to our Community! Great Entertainment and yet another unforgettable evening at MONA's.

On to a post-party at Cage/ETC. Thank you to Dominic and Ken for providing such a welcome and being so kind. It was invigorating seeing the throngs out on the dance floor... But you know me, there I was catching up with friends -- not the place for conversations. Therefore I ended up down in ETC., visiting with Gary from Victor's, Vito, Susie, Ted and Joe ...

From there it was to Boom/The Room, to connect once again with adult superstar Clay Maverick. Talk about heating up your Valentine's weekend! Rumor has it, Mr. Maverick was "showed up" by a local bartender who works at another popular nitery who more than "measured up"... Kind of like "Melts in your MOUTH, NOT in your hands"? Talk about making a deep impression and being "discovered." In my next life I want to be a tape measure! Hopefully, said bartender will be free, Easter eve. - Saturday, March 26. Boom/The Room will be doing a "Basket Contest/Underwear Party" -- Free Beer for those in their BVDs. Mr. BigStuff will be hopping down the bunny trail and everybody will be asking "What's Up Doc?" Enough of my Looney Tunes!

So many dear friends celebrating their day-of-days AKA Birthdays. So happy, happy: Michael Jonas, David Howser, Guy S. Little, Jr. and his special decade, Ted, Jeff L., Jerry Gin & Tonic and our Miss Rona!

In fact, Rona's Birthday was shared with his pet charity -- Men's Voices Milwaukee. A new tradition has been christened with: "The Wheel Of Miss Fortune". The always winning Chi-Chi as in "Cheap Talkin' Chi-Chi won the title! Over $1,700 was raised for the boys, due in a great part to the parting of major bucks from Sal and Noah and a thoughtful, generous audience. It was an All-star Cattle Crawl -- naturally! Sharing their beauty and talents were: Princess Charlotte Lorraine, Dear Ruthie, Velveeta Head Chez, Dame Edna Ross, Lizzie Bordeaux, Alexis Winters, Cordially Yours and the titled one: Chi-Chi.

Spotlighting with special numbers were: The Triangle's Mistress of Mischief: Lana St. James, Natasha Marx the beautiful Miss Gay Wisconsin, USA and the former Miss Rockford: Madison Brooks. Since it was her B-Day and her Show, Rona femceed and proved she still has it! The attractive assistance of our very own Vanna White in the glamour of K.C. Rae, spinning the wheel to our future and fortune. That frisky filly herself, Phyllis, added her own unique essence in the crowd. BooBoo was on sound as Rita and Peter "watered" the masses. Peter, Paul & Mary -- I mean Rona and Crew -- built a first rate set that Goodson & Todman Productions would have been envious of. The beauty before mentioned was brought to fruition by: Trixie, Joe Kender and Goldie Adams. The "Sheboygan Rat Pack" themselves limo-ed in to see Carrot Top and offered their collective best wishes as well.

Seeing as this is the merry, merry month of March, I want to remind you all that St. Patrick's Day is Thursday, March 17th. The day will be celebrated like no where

Tales from the Trailer

By Terry Halverson

Hello Readers,

Trailer Terry here with this Month's Gossip & Happenings in and around Madison. We started out with Kites on Ice here at Lake Mendota — Beautiful & Colorful. I almost threw on "The Orange Wig" and joined in, BUT I didn't want our local Drag Queens to get pissed at me as you know it would hit the Front Page of State Journal, as we do not have much local news. Then Glenn, owner of Shamrock, had Birthday Party. Hmmm, how old you think he is???? I'll just say early 30's to be safe. Heard he hit The Jameson Bottle nice and HARD but at 30-something everything is still Hard now isn't it?

This must be the Month for Birthdays. Felica had one also. Damn Bitch lived longer then I thought. Let me tell you, she threw a Disco Birthday Bash at a local Roller Skating Rink. Heard she was doing POPPERS. When they blew the whistle to STOP, she just kept skating, thinking it was bells in her head. She had a great turnout, as anything this GRLLLL puts her mind to is going be a huge SUCCESS. Only a few injuries occurred at the rink: one being a broken wrist. As if this individual's wrist was not limp enough, he had to go and break it. Marsha, our local LESBIAN, was out for her birthday as well, drinking Tap Beer and eating Olives. That is just so BUTCH. Well, let me tell you — and you didn't here it from me *Wink — the olives got the best of her. She went on the dance floor and let one rip. Yup, drifted all the way back to The Bar Area. I immediately went and located a FRESH URINAL BLOCK to stick in the shirt pocket of the Gal she was dancing with. I then explained proper etiquette of how to let one rip. Tell me if I am wrong guys. You Have to POOF not just let one rip, for Pete's Sake.

Oh, before I forget. If any of you Women have info on Lesbian Week in Provincetown Mass., please let me know. I'd like to plan a group trip for Sept., 2005. Well, Spring is around the corner so before you know it TWO LIPS will be sprouting or popping up through the ground. Damn spell check must not be working. You Gardeners know what I mean.

On travel news, if your planning on heading to Key West FL, do so soon, as November 2005, Atlantic Shores Gay Resort is in the works to be BULL DOZED to make room for High Rise Condos.

Last month took a few of us back to one of our favorite destinations — Puerto Vallarta GAY MEXICO. We had only a few mishaps — one in our party, while in the LOVELY GARDENS. Ok, I'm not going to Sugar Coat it. While grabbing his ankles in the bushes — pitch black dark — his wallet fell out. Thanks to staff at resort, wallet, cards & money all returned next day. Then there is Travis. Oh Darling, you are so wonderful to travel with. We hardly see you, BUT WE CAN hear you. This one comes back so early in the morning she gets the ROOSTERS CROWING. I know your biting your lip and, no I will not forget you Dannol — going to The Strip Club every night and then sneaking off to Bear Night with out us. WOOF! Next month takes us to New Orleans.

Tad, a dear friend of mine, is having a Fundraiser show at Club 5 for St. Jude Children's Hospital, Sunday, March 13th at 9PM SHARP. It is called Real Live Women NOT. Hmhmhmhmhm, sounds like I need to look at performing for this fundraiser. I think I still have one of Desi's outfits. This is for a great cause, so come have fun and show your support. Tad promises to have some ABSOLUTELEY wonderful performers.

So we had a couple local Gay Soft Ball teams head to Tampa FL to PLAY. The ROUGH RIDERS took 4th. Great job guys. I received an Email from a buddy of mine in St Pete. Seems Todd B. and a friend were seen at Sun Coast Gay Resort. See, you can't get away with anything when you have a Gossip Columnist as a friend. Todd was happy they had bottle of Miller Lite, even though he paid premium price for it. It was reported to me that his drapes would not close nor his door lock to his room. What you think that was all about????????? Can we say Balcony BINGO? A few of you reading this know how this is played, DON'T WE? If not, ask someone sitting next to you or one of your loco BARTENDERS.

Oh Yes we have a bus leaving Shamrock Bar, Madison, Saturday, March 12th headed for MILWAUKEE. Look out! These BOYS are ready to PARTY. We will arrive around 8PM and a few of the stops will be M&M, Out 'N About, Boom/The Room, Switch and then to Fluid, as we have two of our very own Guest Bartenders, Brent & Kenn slinging Cocktails at Fluid. Who knows, maybe Outbound Mag will be out taking photos on the town this evening???. We do have a few Ladies with us as well, so I will be checking out Walker's Pint with them. So LOCK UP YOUR DAUGHTERS. After that, I will probably head to health club Midtowne Spa for a soak in the Hot Tub. Check out our Madison Pride Site, www.madison-pride.org — Madison Gay pride is July.
