Dear Ruthie

How the hell are you? I myself am still beat from Pridefest. Yes, yes, I know. That was weeks ago, but I'm an old broad who isn't used to being surrounded by gorgeous men for hours and hours...at least not while I'm on my feet. So, give me a break will ya?

And as long as we're talking about Pridefest, a big thank you to all of the organizers, volunteers and supporters of this year's event. It was fabulous. (As you can see from the photos at the end of this column, I had a helluva time.)

I especially want to thank those involved with the Pride Parade for putting in all of those thankless hours to get a great afternoon off of the ground. (And thanks to the kids at Out 'n About for throwing an incredible party at the parade's step off.)

And, I can't forget the men (and woman) involved in the 5th Annual Pridefest Leather Show. This year's theme was "Pride Behind the Leather," and I had the honor of emceeing the event. Thanks to Marty, the models, Steve P. for his musical talents, Jeff H. for organizing the opening segment, and special thanks for the hundreds of people who showed up! The audience for this show grows in numbers every year.

The leather show raised close to $200 in donations in about 45 minutes. I think that's pretty incredible. Every penny went back to Pridefest to help keep this wonderful event alive and well.

If you want to see some shots of the leather show, Pridefest and the Pride Parade, check out the Pride scrapbooks on my Web site, www.dearruthie.com.

Needless to say, I had a blast. In fact, I don't want to hear one goddamn complaint from anyone out there about the Pride celebration this year! I mean it! If I hear you complain, so help me, I'll break into your house and shave off your eyebrows while you're sleeping. I'm serious.

There's nothing to complain about. We had great (and free) entertainment, no long lines for beer or beer tickets, great food options, a pride parade and perfect weather!

Period. End of story.

Okay, one more thing and then I'll shut up about this. I must admit that I did hear a couple of losers complaining about things like waiting to get beer tickets or snickering that the parade wasn't as long as they expected it to be. Well, let me tell ya something, if more people got involved then there would be LESS WAITING for a beer or there would have been A LONGER parade. Don't bitch about things that you could have helped change, but didn't.

Did you march in the parade or help your favorite watering hole or organization put together a float? No? Then shut the hell up and figure out what you're going to do in the parade next year.

Did you volunteer to take a shift working a ticket booth at the Fest? No? Then be quite and mark your calendar for next year's celebration so you'll remember to get involved. If you're not going to, then you have no right to complain. Simply attend the functions and have fun. It's that simple.

Besides, with glorious weather, an overwhelming spirit of friendship and community, few and ineffective protestors, and smiles as far as the eye could see, only a bunch of Negative Nellies would sit around and whine. And that's not you, right?! I didn't think so. My readers are fun loving, take charge men and women who just wanna enjoy life, make friends and have fun.

So with that said, let's read an e-mail from a fella who is having a little too much fun playing with his hard drive.

Dear Ruthie,

I like Internet porn. I like it a lot. I look at some sort of porn online everyday. Sometimes I just check in with a cam site or two to see what's going on. Other days, I'm on the computer for a couple of hours. But it's not like I'm calling in sick for work or losing my job over it.

People tell me that this isn't healthy behavior, but they watch just as much TV as I watch Internet porn, so it's not like I'm wasting more time than them. Besides, jerking off to stuff and chatting with guys online is safe compared to screwing people night after night like some of my friends do. Sounds hypocritical to me.

Is Internet porn as bad for me everyone tells me it is?

Signed,
Playing It Safe

Dear Playing,

First off, I'm a little concerned that you e-mailed me this question. I mean, is my Web site one of the sites you pleasure yourself to? I guess I shouldn't be surprised. The boys are crazy for me. Well, your message reads damn good for someone who only used one hand to type it.

You're right in that doing what you're doing is a safe way to have a little fun. However, it's important that you don't let your computer get in the way of having real relationships. You're never going to meet Mr. Right watching computer porn, unless Mr. Right is Chi-Chi LaRue.

Cut back on the porn, and keep an eye on your behavior and your time at the computer. If logging on is the only way to turn you on, if it becomes addictive, or if it gets in the way of life and relationships, you might want to seek help.

E-mail Dear Ruthie at Ruthie@dear-ruthie.com or visit www.dearruthie.com for more Pride photos.

Riders

By Titan Men

Get your asses in gear and mount up for Riders! Four 2-wheeler-themed scenes with no back-peddling and a final destination of 12 long-distance explosions. Riders has that special TitanMen mix, with uncut Latino and French men and one smooth young stud among the eight hairy-chested, well built guys working up sweaty, man-on-man action.

Four of the most popular TitanMen roll out in Riders. Solidly packed Ben Jakks plugs everhard Joey Russo, making him do what you are gonna do -- hit the wall with your load! Kent Larson gets off his Hog to hang some oversized pony clamps on the meaty pees of Matthieu Costa, before the hog rider's overheated exhaust pipe devours every inch of Costa's fat uncut tool. Heavyhung newcomer Cliff Rhodes burrows into Miguel Bravo. And Bobby Williams gets off his bike to get off twice with big bulb-headed Dylan West.

Cordially Yours

By Michael Johnston

Happy Summer!

To all of you who were afraid we would have another cool Summer Season -- fear not! I have a feeling we are in for a long hot adventure ahead! Looking ahead we have quite a month of Independence... With the Fourth being on a Monday this year, everyone will have one swell of a sweltering Holiday Weekend.

I understand Switch is going to be hosting a "Red, White and Blew Foam Party." The patriotic blowout is in honor of their bartender who is always full of hot air K.V. Careful now, it's a surprise... it seems the powers-that-be (read that Craig) forgot his true blue employee had yet another birthday - at this point in K.V.'s career it's a wonder he can even keep track of how many he has had. (Birthdays that is!) Anyway come on down to quote Paul Simon "Slip Sliding Away..." Sunday, July 3rd - Independence Day Eve 9PM Central Time on the Lanai. I know when you all think of "Foam Parties" you think of K.V.

"Little Shop Of Horrors" will be blooming once again beginning Tuesday, July 5th. Yes, this monster of a hit will haunt us through Sunday, July 10th. What a wonderful SummerFest alternative! Remember air conditioning! The Marcus Center for the Performing Arts will serve as a hot house for this production. Suddenly Seymour will be captivated once again by the astounding Audrey, this time out, Madison's very own native daughter Tari Kelly blossoms in the ingenue role. Though carving out quite the successful career in New York - and enjoying the fruits of her labor with this Broadway Tour, the last time I enjoyed Ms. Kelly was at The Sky-light Opera Theatre's production of "Chicago." Our Miss Kelly was portraying another Miss Kelly - Velma, she was quite the killer-diller!

Madison Art Fair On The Square (Main, Pinckney, Mifflin and Carroll Streets) Saturday, July 9th 9 - 6 PM. Sunday, July 10th 10 - 5 PM Featuring the marvelous Jewelry Designs of Polly Daeger.

Saturday, July 16th will bring about Madison's Pride Weekend. Remember, they were kind enough to come a calling here -- we should all venture up to our Sate Capitol and celebrate! Watch out for Patrick, the toast of Madison...

The Kohler Arts Center Art Fair 608 New York Avenue Sheboygan. Saturday, July 16th 10 - 6 PM, Sunday, July 17th 10 - 5 PM

That same Saturday, I will have the unique honor of femcee-ing a "Shower Party" at Switch in the Beer Garden. Rub-A-Dub-Dub This Gay-la is the Switch-Hitter's SSBL (Saturday Soft Ball League) Fund Raiser. There is a $100. Prize, lots of fun, frolic, folly and drink specials!

I had a blast a couple of weeks ago at Club 219. The Event was "SSBL's Follies." Brian R. and Dee did a bang up job getting some of Brew Town's hottest jocks stage-ready and quite entertaining! The Show started with host Wes making his debut as a Hot Leather Daddy, while his movement and lip-synching was exquisite. It should have been, Wes is known near and far by his stage persona of Goldie Adams -- also a fine make-up artist! Each team took to the legendary stage and raised a fortune for their athletic budget. High marks, standing ovations and lots of laughs was the game plan. Steve and the Boys of Summer from Woody's won the "Tiara" this time. Congrats! The Harbor Room, The Triangle, Fluid, The Ball Game -- all phenomenal. Glad I didn't have to judge. I had quite the time with

Mr. Gay Wisconsin, USA Joe -- what a honey! Dave made sure, in spite of the heat, we were refreshed and it was great fun playing with Bill Wardlow, Honey-Honey, Jerry, Jerry Ross, Danny and all our Softball Super-Stars. Let it never be said I'm not an Athletic Supporter... However, I was swept away by the Beauty of Miss Gay Wisconsin USA

Tracy (Tod) and Edna (me)

Natasha Marques - not only did she steal all the bases with her number(s), but slid "straight" to home base and our hearts as co-hostess. We have a lot to be proud of with this star.

Sundays are good again, the return of "Queer As Folk" on Showtime. The fourth and final season...

For something completely different "Silent Sundays" at Switch with Andy. Milwaukee's Premiere Signing Bartender.

I always like to give a Shout Out and aim my spot light at new and exciting, emerging talent. This time around, a round of applause to Scott Malcom. The charm of the South, Georgia to be exact, has put a lot of "Georgia On My Mind." I had the pleasure of hearing his unique song styling at The M&M Club. Scott was participating in "The Gay Singing Idol Contest" for PrideFest. If you enjoy the Joni Mitchell and Jane Oliver of yesterday -- you will enjoy the "Troubadour of Today" Scott Malcom. The last time I spoke with him he was appearing at The Mosaic. Please keep an eye out, better yet ear out for this Balladeer. He plays piano, sings, writes both music and lyric and he has something to share...

Three outstanding outings I had I will summarize as briefly as possible... But, it provided fabulous times that I have to share with you. Thanks to my dear friends Bonnie DeLeeuw of Stardust Advertising, Tod and Lee, I was asked to attend The Marcus Center for the Performing Arts 35th Anniversary Celebration. What a Friday that was... Memorial Day Weekend, IGBO - 25, IML ... Tod created quite a likeness as Tracy Tumblatt that traumatized teenager trying tirelessly to integrate an "American Band-Stand." Well, Tracy (Tod) needed a mother Edna (me)! For the first time in my career, I didn't have to worry about looking younger or thinner. Hallelujah! Tracy and I crashed the Dessert Buffet at The Marcus. There we were, with 300 Patrons that paid $350. Or maybe it was 350 Patrons paying $300. Anyway we terrorized these delightful Makers & Shakers having the time of our lives as we "Hair-Spray-ed" into the night. The Celebration began with a "Biggest Hair-Do Contest" that Hair Dresser to the Stars Joe Kender of Barney's Brother took part in. His model, our favorite model - Princess Debbie. Hair by Joe Kender, Face by Goldie Adams, retro fashioned her into a clone of Barbara "Valley Of The Dolls" Parkins. John McGivern - served as Judge, teasing and back combing his way into Milwaukee's hearts and funny bones alike -- it was "Shear Madness!" A formal sit-down dinner, the actual "HairSpray" performance and then Us... Thank you all -- for giving me a most memorable Memorial! And yes I stuffed! Kudos to Goldie Adams, she gives "good face" and Joe Kender who can really make Dynel do anything!

IGBO 25 put Milwaukee right back on the map where we belong. Over 650 Bowlers, two from as far as New Zealand - hi Alan & Philip! The Holi-Gay- Inn on 6th and Wisconsin - will never be the same! I commend Jeff Welk the Manager of The Holiday Inn and his most professional Staff. The pool area was right out of "Where The Boys Are"... The ballroom transformed into a white and silver dream. Flowers designed expertly by Jimmy Brown of Regency Floral -- Bravo, white and silver balloons -- a stage even Norma Desmond would have envied! All brought to fruition by "Fairy GodMother" Dr. Beto -- Bravo. As Edna & Tracy - Tod, Lee and I "crashed" Friday after The Marcus. The following night I had the pleasure to bring a wee "Welcome Show" to life with the incomparable talents of: Velveeta Head Cheez - Miss HIT 2004-005, Dame Edna Ross and Florence Welk - that Bossa Nova Babe(s), Candy Stick -- who the following night was feted with The IGBO Fellowship Award. A very serious and admirable award. Back a few years ago her long time companion BoBo was treated to the same acknowledgement, making them the first couple to share this title. And Fond Du Lac's very own Rhonda Moore rounded out our review of glamour for a wild and wily audience. The next night was a banquet at The Midwest Center where award and citation and acknowledgment may still be taking place... A refreshing comedian named Michelle Ballard had us all in stitches, literally rolling in the aisles like bowling balls. Thanks to the Hospitality Chairs: Jerry Gin & Tonic, Ward & Jimmy and your dedicated committee for being so kind and helpful. A standing O to David Burney & Mark Klemme and Bill Conklin for directing this tour de force -- all strikes, no alley balls here!

While all this is taking place here in Cream City --- Milwaukee, Wisconsin, The Midwest for that matter -- our Country was being represented by Steve S. at IML in Chicago. Steve ended up #17 out of 52! The first time in over 20 years, Wisconsin scored that high! WOOF! Steve has always been #1 to me, going all the way back to when I sashed him: "Mr. Harbor Room."

PrideFest 2005 what a hit! Congratulations Mike Hall and all the many People who did their thing to make for an unforgettable weekend! Of course, good old Mother Nature did help... Over 21,400 showed their Pride and our Diversity over the two day soiree. I loved the return of the Parade! It brought the Community together -- and I for one love the sense of cohesiveness! Dear Ruthie, Charlotte Lorraine, Miss Rona, Princess Debbie, Dame Edna Ross, Alexis Winters (Miss PrideFest looking exquisite in a designer gown), Bill Wardlow, Craig, Ricky and the Ball Game, Rita and his Polka Band (The Riverwest Accordionist, Paul Toonen) and The Boot Camp, I only wish the route would have been a bit longer and included The M&M Club and This Is It - who knows, maybe next year? My deepest gratitude to Michael Z. and Doug Hipenbecker for the ride in their Classic Collectible 1969 Convertible. I loved Taylor Dayne, RuPaul and Dear Ruthie & The Leather Fashion Show tradition as well as all of You!!!

So it is with tremendous Pride and a bit of exhaustion, I remind you all It's the Glamour NOT the Grammar as I remain...

STILL Cordially Yours.

Tales from the Trailer

By Terry Halverson

Hello Readers,

Trailer Terry here trying to keep you up to speed on what's happening and a bit of fun Gossip at the same time. It's summer here in Wisconsin and with all the Pride events to backyard parties it's hard to keep up. I am going to give it a shot Kevin AKA Bartender (Club 5) had a FABULOUS Birthday Party @ his downtown rooftop Condo, seems with a band and several guests a new policy was enforced only 20 guests and no music after 10pm, Honestly dear only 20 guests what you going to do that doesn't even cover your Hot List on Gay.com, now does it. HMMMM I can here someone saying Bitch when this is read.

Then it was off to Ken's Memorial Day Back Yard BBQ, after a quick stop at the DOLLAR STORE to pick up a few glow sticks for this event, stop calling me CHEAP. Of course, I was 1st to arrive so had tour of his home Queer Eye has nothing on him can you say FABULOUS..... He did all the work himself headboard everything hard to believe a Gay guy did not have even 1 of his LESBIAN friends over to hammer and saw. Club 5 had there Jello Wrestling and that went over very well a few of our local boys were able to show us just how BUTCH they are at least for a few minutes, this once a month please check out Club5 website for dates.

A few of us were off to Puerto Vallarta Mexico for an extended weekend, thanks Travis for leaving me passed out on the beach @ 2am. With luck at the Gay Resort we stayed at a Dr. was having Cocktails the next day from New Orleans and on back of a Bar Coaster wrote out a prescription for Sand Fleas seems I was rolling around at the beach a bit too long. Darling next time take me back with you I could of been robbed, mugged or Molested. Danno was off to see the strippers, Travis and Terry were at Apaches Bistro drinking White Russians & our dear friend Michael was off Hustling the locals. Seems like 6 of The local Boys were at war over who was going to bag him, we still don't know which one he landed, but I do know he did not use my bed.

Our friend was so busy how busy you ask the Maid wheeled a washer and dryer up to our room, just to take care of the dirty towels, think you know what I mean.

Chi Chi I see is back in print. Welcome back Honey, then there is Ruthie who has the world laughing with her, I so love your column.

We have yet someone NEW to scene actually in Milwaukee his name is Eric and this man has printed a Gay Business Directory for Wisconsin. It is very tastefully done please pick one up or check online www.outsourcewisconsin.com good luck to you Eric on your new venture this will be a great service for months to come in our community. Feel free to contact him about advertising and listings, keep in mind this is not a Bar Directory but Gay Owned and friendly Businesses of all sorts.

Here we go off to Milwaukee Pride Fest. I can only tell you the weather was absolutely beautiful for your event. The entertainment was awesome all weekend long, looked to me like Saturday was very busy, however I always like Sunday more laid back, but still alot going on. We started at "Out N About" which a dear dear friend of mine Beverly and her partner Pam own.

The place was packed @11am for god sake. about 16 of my friends had there Fabulous Brunch, I opted for a Brat. Ronnie Nyles was playing in the parking lot, her wonderful staff was slinging cocktails and DYKES on BIKES were finishing brkfst so they could get in line for parade. Which this year went down 2nd st, seemed to work and go very smooth. We then went to Summer Fest grounds, I can only tell you that ABSOLUTELY EVERYONE that helped coordinate and volunteer for this event needs to be congratulated You had something for everyone from Family's-Bears. I noticed how well it was set for our handicap & friends. This could not be done without volunteers if you'd like to help next year please see a Pride Fest Coordinator or ask one of your friends who helped how to go about it.

Ok now onto something a bit more serious which I have never touched on. In the most recent months I have experienced and you may have as well. Someone we know family or friend touched by Alcohol or Drug Addiction. These folks need our support, help and guidance this is a serious disease that can take everything from them home, job, friends and possibly death or permanent damage to self. PLEASE PLEASE DO NOT sit back and let this happen to anyone.

I realize how hard it is to get involved sometimes but you really need to show that individual that you do care. It is not too late for them to turn their life around, we have several great organizations to help with these additions. These are folks we love and care about so let's help what do you say. STOP for a minute and not think about just yourself all I have to say.

It is a much happier world when we can all get along and help each other.

Some of us that maybe all we have is our 2nd family, so when your thinking negative thoughts turn it around to be more positive and constructive You will feel much better trust me. Sorry if last paragraphbrought you down I did not intend for that to happen. just felt I needed to say this and hope it's not too late.

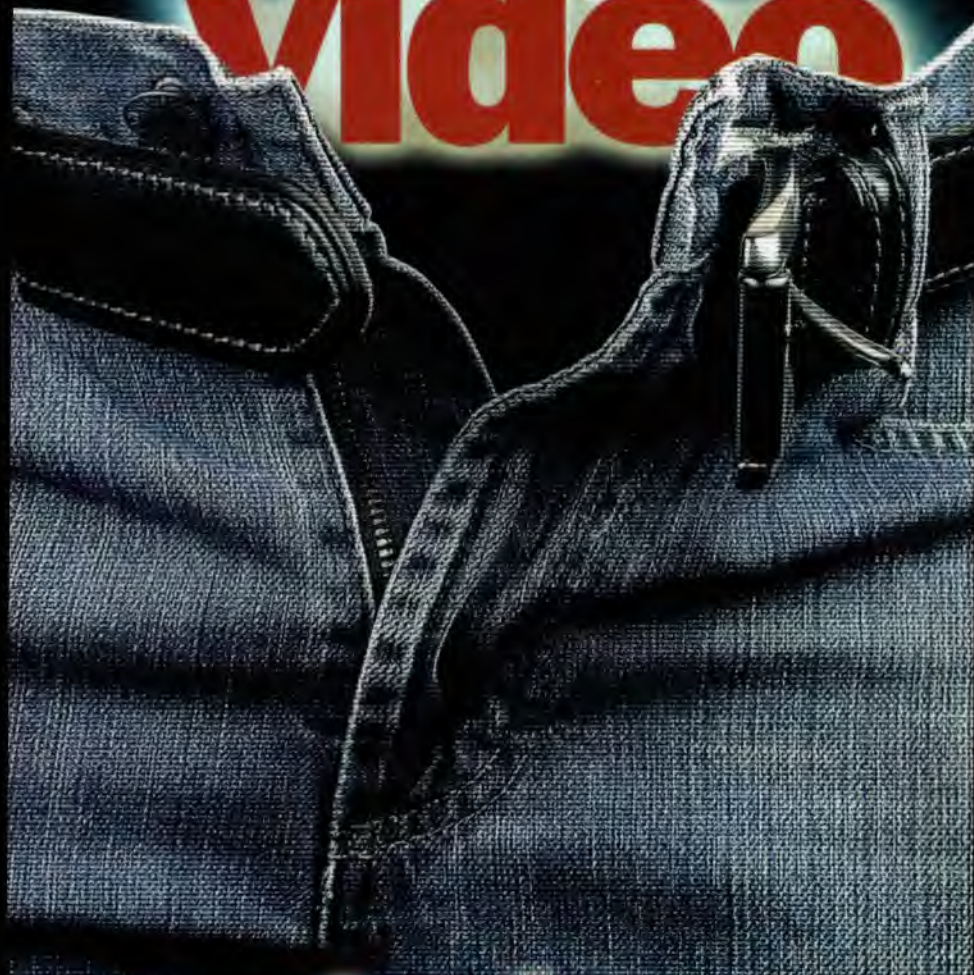

Here are a couple things to mark on your calendar, Saturday July 16, GLBT Travel Booth @ Madison Pride grounds, on Tuesday August 2, GLBT and Friends Business Card exchange bring your business cards. pamphletsanything you have to promote your business or yourself if you work on commission also tell a friend. This is a free event so get your name out, we introduceourselves then you can pass out your cards and get to know each other and what service you have to offer held at West Side Business Club Madison , prvt room for just our group 7-9:30pm. The last time I had this over 40 people attended appetizers catered by Queen Anne's and Cash Bar. This is for anyone interestednot just Madison folks. Please check out www.justterry.com for address it's in scrolling yellow on home page also RSVP by July 20th if possible click on send Terry Email on left or call me 608-223-1350 .

Hoping to see you here in Madison for our Gay Pride July 15-17th.

God Love Your Ass!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Potawatomi Food Drive at PrideFest Collects 9,000 Pounds of Food For ARCW Food Pantry

MILWAUKEE, WI – In only four hours, the Potawatomi Bingo Casino Food Drive at PrideFest collected 9,000 pounds of food for the AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin's (ARCW) Food Pantry.

The PrideFest donation is annually the largest donation of food to the ARCW Food Pantry from a single event.

PrideFest was held June 11th and 12th at Henry Maier Festival Park along the shores of Lake Michigan in downtown Milwaukee.

The food drive promotion allowed attendees to gain free entrance to the festival by donating four cans of non-perishable food during two-hour blocks of time on each day of the festival. More than 1,700 people made donations.

"PrideFest is proud to have facilitated such a large donation to the ARCW Food Pantry," said PrideFest Task Force President Scott Gunkel. "We thank Potawatomi Bingo Casino for sponsoring this great community effort. This is one important way that we can extend the positive impact of the festival beyond PrideFest weekend."

"ARCW has always enjoyed tremendous support from the gay community as well as PrideFest. We are so happy to partner with the organizers of PrideFest in a way that helps everybody," said Doug Nelson, President and CEO of ARCW.

"I know our staff was pleased not only with the quantity of food, but also the quality. By donating to the food drive, festivalgoers contributed in a real way to the fight against AIDS," said Nelson.

ARCW's top rated food pantries in Milwaukee, Kenosha and Green Bay provide people with HIV/AIDS healthy, nutritious food to meet the nutritional requirements of their medical regimens.

PrideFest is Wisconsin's largest celebration of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) culture and community.

PRIDEFEST REVENUES UP 9.8% IN 2005

MILWAUKEE, WI – PrideFest announced gross revenues of approximately $279,300 for this year's festival. Gross revenues in 2004 were $254,261. Resulting in a 9.8% increase.

Festival-related expenses are still being calculated. Net income will be determined in coming weeks.

Following the close of the festival's fiscal year on July 31, an independent audit will be conducted to verify all financial information. A community Town Hall meeting will be scheduled following completion and full review of the audit.

PrideFest, Wisconsin's largest celebration of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) culture and community, was held June 11th and 12th at Henry W. Maier Festival Park on Milwaukee's lakefront find themselves left out of political and social discussion because they are neither gay nor straight, while at the same both. In other words, in a world that wants to see things in black and white, what do you do if you are a shade of gray?

effectively lock the submissive person up for as long as they (oops I mean you) want.

That's about all there is to the guiche; it is a very stimulating and erotic piercing. And I am sure that it will give you (and anyone else you show it to) pleasure for a long time to come.

And now on to some future events. In the past couple of weeks I have been talking to the editors and a few friends of mine around the country and we have come up with an idea. But before I get to the idea (I know I'm sadistic, but it's the only way I can be) I want to ask you a few questions. #1 do you like to See Hot Bodies? #2 do you Like to See Hot Guy's taking off their clothes to show you something? #3 do you like to Hot Guy's With Piercings and Tattoos? If you have answered yes to any of these questions, then please find your local bar whore and pay them for their services. No I'm joking. I would like to announce that Outbound is going to have a Mr. Skin & Steel Contest! So there you have it. A Tattoo and Piercings contest where the only thing that counts is how much you have to take off to show us them. So without any further delay, if anyone, yes anyone, (including the skinny pasty guy in the back of the bar) has an interest in this contest please e-mail me at brent@outboundwi.com. There is only one requirement to enter the contest; you must have at least one tattoo or one piercing or both. So please send us some feedback along with any pictures of your tattoos and or piercings. Please also state if you would allow them to be printed or not. Well it seems I have run out of time again. Until next month please keep your e-mail's coming and next issue we will talk about extreme piercings, until then have a great month of July!

Skin and Steel

By Brent

Well here we are in the wonderful month of July! I hope everyone had a great time at Pride and enjoyed the wonderful parade that Jim and James from Outbound put on for the great Brew City. I had a great time before and during the parade. Of course there is one other reason that July is a wonderful month is because I have a birthday this month! And no I won't tell you how old I am no matter how drunk you get me and how many times you sing happy birthday to me! (And believe me drunk singing is bad!) But anyway enough about me. . . on to the piercing of the month. The guiche!

The guiche is a piercing which is placed in that little piece of skin that most people call the "taint." The "taint" is located at the end of the scrotum just before the rectum begins. It is usually done with a 14ga. thick ring with a 5/8 of an inch diameter. It can be done with larger but anything more than a 12ga. and they will tend to reject from the body. This piercing is fairly easy to heal and take care of. It heals in approximately 4 to 6 weeks, and is best kept clean with antibacterial soap. Basically all you have to do is wash it in the shower. (Or during your hose down for those dirty boy's out there!) There are some issues with it however, one is that bicycle riding or horseback riding can get very uncomfortable very quickly for you if this piercing is not completely healed. Basically anything with a narrow seat or very bumpy ride can become mildly painful.

But don't get scared off yet! The guiche provides some very good and pleasurable feelings as well. You see, the guiche is designed to stimulate the prostate gland, which has been long considered the male equivalent of the female "G-spot." So things like a motorcycle ride, where there is a little vibration, may begin to stimulate and arouse the person riding. (Just make sure you hold on those handle bars tight!) The guiche piercing also is great during sex. By playing with it a little bit, rubbing and perhaps a gentle tug now and then, you can really light someone up :). The guiche really only provides sensation to the person who is wearing it during sex. So if you both want to feel something maybe each partner should get one and you can tie each other together. (Evil hands how dare you type that!)

Speaking of tying things together the S & M community brings a whole new array of devilish things you can do with a guiche piercing. A very simple thing is that you tie a small string to the piercing and apply small amounts of weight, much the same way you would with ball weights. Through this tugging and pulling you provide a wide degree of feelings from pain to pleasure and back again. The guiche can also be used for chastity, by taking a padlock and placing it through a Prince Albert and through the ring in the guiche you can
