Dear Ruthie

HAPPY HOLIDAYS! I hope you're having a wonderful season and that all things merry and gay come your way, particularly that little go-go boy you've had your eye on.

I'm up to my keester in Christmas potlucks, Hanukah craft sales and Kwanzaa cook-offs. Honestly, Christmas isn't even here yet, I've already had my filling of frozen meatballs (usually warmed in a crock pot), taco salads (everyone thinks theirs is the best), and those little bite-sized cheesecakes and cream cheese pinwheels.

C'mon people! Everyone knows you get those cheesecakes and pretzel-bread pinwheels from the freezer section at Sam's Club. Give these appetizers a rest - those Nancy's Swirls or Pinwheels, in particular. What the hell is pretzel bread, anyway? Why not just serve frozen mini corn dogs topped with a can of chili? Actually, that doesn't sound bad. I've gotta write that down.

Anyway, jolly old St. Nick may be busy on December 24th, but I've been working my rear end off since November. These are busy times, but they're filled with cheer, laughter and booze, so I can't complain.

My holiday actually started off with a wonderful night at the M&M Club. It was November 19 and less than a month after some friends and I hosted our annual, 300-guest Halloween party. My gal-pal Charlotte Lorain asked me to join her during a benefit for the Gay Games being held in

Dear Ruthie

Chicago. The divine Miss L. celebrated her birthday that night as well, and a terrific time was had by all.

The next day, I made an appearance at Frank's Power Plant in Bay View. A delicious pig roast, valuable raffle, silent auction and entertaining show was held for the first annual Ricfest in memory of our dear friend who recently passed away. Best of all, the profits went toward a scholarship for LGBT youth that is being awarded in Rick's name.

The show was a hoot, and I just want to thank Peter, the organizer of the weekend-long event, and Jane Hudson, the show's talented emcee, for including me. Who would have thought a drag show at a straight bar on Milwaukee's Southside could be so much fun-and so well attended!

Thanksgiving night had me scheduled to appear at one of my all-time favorite hot spots, Boom/The Room. Thank goodness for all of those hunky HIT bowlers...and for Boom's eye-catching bartenders. Best of all, I couldn't ask for a better cohort that night than "Outbound's" Cheap Talkin' Chi-Chi.

December 4th, it's back to the M&M Club for the first of, what will hopefully become, monthly shows. What a great way to complete the weekend. I was honored to kick off the venue.

But enough about me! I know your time is valuable, and I'm just glad you found a few moments to flip through "Outbound" and read an article or two. Your feet are probably falling asleep by now (I know that most of you read this while sitting on the john), so let's get to a Christmas letter.

I have to admit that this question arrived too late to publish in last year's holiday issue, so I kept it for this year's column. Hopefully, the contributor catches my reply.

Dear Ruthie,

I've HAD IT with Christmas carols! Every year, I enjoy Christmas songs when they start playing them, but by the middle of December, I'm pulling my hair out. It's now December 23, and I'm losing it. They are playing everywhere! On the radio, in restaurants, in shopping malls, at parties - there's no escape!

Am I a Scrooge? Are you a Christmas-carol fan? Please tell me I'm not alone.

(signed)

Rudolph the Pissed Off Reindeer

Dear Ruddy,

I'm not big on the tinsle-related tunes either. I wouldn't say I hate them, I mean, some are cute enough, and there are actually a few that I enjoy because they only come around once a year. If I had a favorite, it would be the following.

"Women's Underwear"

(Sung to the tune of "Winter Wonderland")

Lacy things--the wife is missin,
Didn't ask--her permission.
I'm wearin' her clothes,
Her silk pantyhose,
Walkin' 'round in women's underwear.

In the store--there's a teddy,
Little straps--like spaghetti.
It holds me so tight,
Like handcuffs at night,
Walkin' 'round in women's underwear.

In the office there's a guy named Melvin,
He pretends that I am Murphy Brown.

He'll say, "Are you ready?"
I'll say, "Whoa, Man!"
"Let's wait until our wives are out of town!"

Later on, if you wanna,
We can dress like Madonna.
Put on some eyeshade,
And join the parade,
Walkin' 'round in women's underwear.
Walkin' 'round in women's underwear.
Walkin' 'round in women's underwear!

MERRY CHRISTMAS EVERY-
ONE and a SAFE NEW YEAR!

Cordially Yours

By Michael Johnston

Happy Holidays or is that Holidaze? Here we are once again -- the "happiest time of the year." Or so they say! This is the last column for 2005 and I got an early gift. A prime place back in OutBound Magazine.

Charlotte Lorraine that Princess of an Entertainer had quite the Birthday Bash. The M&M Club was the scene and it was a virtual who's who. Of course Charlotte Lorraine and a Show go hand in hand, and this was no exception. The Gay Olympics held next Summer in Chicago was the benefactor of "25th Anniversary of Charlotte Lorraine." Suzi Arnold co-Chair of The Gay Olympics and former Milwaukee was thrilled at not only the monies raised, but the interest and attention raised as well. Lizzie Bordeaux was Emcee, exceptional and Baby Jane Hudson, Dear Ruthie, Velveeta Head Cheez, Danny Dancer, Goldie Adams, the legendary Legs, Miss Rona, Cordially Yours and the B-Day Girl all painted up, talk about an Olympic fete! Forgive me if I left any Entertainer out, it's been a hectic Season!

From Princess to Porn and all within walking distance! Boom/The Room also engaged a Performer the same night. Tyler Riggz. Mr. Riggz, didn't disappoint either... I guess you could say each Production got a "Standing Ovation."

Saturday nights are always great to visit The Ball Game. Craig the toast of the Hills, will make you feel most welcomed! Rick and Ricky still keep the North end of South Second Street Gay and friendly! Long may the Rainbow Flag wave!

In the past I always like to use this space as a "suggestion box" for Holiday shopping. Shop the Community -- support our local LGBT and LGBT-Friendly Retailers. David Howser's Bossa Nova - a unique boutique 2665 South Howell Avenue Also on the sensational South side we have Signature Designs Jon and Karen's floral-emporium and much more! 2674 South KK Avenue (where KK & Russell meet) (414) 727-5100. The recent Grand Opening was as Grand as the Owners! On the North side Larry and Michael's legendary The Flower Studio, Ltd. will add that special touch and panache to your Seasonal decor and throughout 2006. Celebrating their first anniversary at 6858 North Santa Monica Blvd. (414) 228-9200. It's Always Happy Hour with Brian & Andy! Isn't that the truth... Their shop is located in the Coquette Cafe building, 316 North Milwaukee Street. Online: www.alwayshappyhour.com Grava Gallery, in The Historical Third Ward is the new kid on the block and has it all framed up. To be beautified for the Holidays there is Barney's Brother and their spiffy new salon. 777 East Wisconsin Avenue - Galleria Level. (414) 276-6555. Kip and Crew must have been very good - Santa rewarded them with a great new working space. Outwards Books, Gifts & Coffee 2710 North Murray Avenue is the place to be for the perfect present. (414) 963-9089.

Gift Certificates for a fine meal is always a welcomed treat! Such as the classic M&M Club offering lunch, dinner and specialties like: Sunday Brunch and Friday Fish Fry. The Tazzbah is now offering lunch Tuesday - Saturdays 11 AM. in addition to their highly praised dinner selections. Elsa's In-The Park - is a perennial palate pleaser -- especially when Steve Tanner is at your service. My favorite Fifth Street eatery -- Botanas 816 South 5th Street Jaimie, Angel, Norma, Enrique, Manuel, Max, Edwin and the rest will heat up your Winter, adding a little spice to your life! Ole!

Recently, I had the thrill of joining Jody, Dr. Beto, CoCo, Jeffrey and Jerry for a South of the border supper. What fun! The pride of KK, Cafe LuLu 2265 South Howell Avenue where Sarah and Cammy tantalize your taste buds with their mouth watering creations.

Dear Brent,

I love to read your column I just hope you don't make fun of me the way you do in your column. Anyway, I want to get a piercing but I have no idea what to get. I don't even know where on my body I want to go with the piercing Can you help me out?

Signed,
Pierced Every Nut In Sack.

PENIS.

If that is your real name, I promise I won't make fun you the way I do other people. And as far as deciding what you should get pierced, that is really up to you. If you want to go someplace other than your sack then that still leaves a lot of real estate available. So just think about it, use your little head, or just go with your gut feeling and get that piercing that you really want!

Dear Brent,

I was wondering what it is like to get a piercing, is it really painful? Does it feel Good?

Signed, Paul

Paul,

This is a very interesting question. See, a piercing is different for every person. Some people say it is painful and bad. Other people say piercing hurts but the rush of endorphins makes up for it and more. And yet other people say that it is an almost orgasmic experience. So it really depends on whom you are, where the piercing is, and what you want to get out of it.

Well it seems I have run out of time again. Until next year have a great XXX-mas (how many x's are there supposed to be? Oh well.) or at least a great month of December.

Skin and Steel

By Brent

Well here we are, getting ready for Christmas parties and family events. Hopefully you all didn't eat too much during Thanksgiving and end up not seeing your feet for a few days, but on to bigger and better things. This month I am going to talk about what you need to bring and what you should do before you come into a piercing shop. So without any more babbling from me here we go.

Well the first thing you need to bring with you to a shop is some sort of identification. Every shop has different qualifications of what kind of ID they will accept but to avoid problems stick to the following types of ID: State issued ID cards or driver's licenses; birth certificates accompanied by a picture ID, Federal ID, military ID, or passport. All of these IDs provide the shop with any and all knowledge that they need to make sure that you are who you say you are and that you are over the age of 18 yrs old.

The next thing that you should always bring is a form of payment (I'm just fooling around I know all you guys aren't that dumb, or at least not many. Back to the column.) The next thing you want to think about is where you're going to put your new piercing. I mean after all this is your body and you do have the ultimate say-so. So please, coming from a hard working piercer, please figure out what you want before you come in the door. Once you are in the shop if you have questions about a piercing I will gladly help you with them. But don't come in and sit there going, "gee I don't know if I want my earlobe or my asshole?"

And now onto a very important point. Please for the love of... Well, what ever you love, take a shower!!! The worst thing a piercer wants to deal with is the dingle berries on your butt. Basic cleanliness is a necessity to healing of your piercing. So remember to take a shower before you come in and after you get screwed by your better half. Just keep it in mind for the next time you go to your doctor too. Hey, maybe if you do, he won't be so rough with that mysterious probing he is forcing you to deal with every other week.

Of course the final thing that you must absolutely bring with you every time you go to a piercing shop—an open mind. Always remember that piercing is an art form that has existed for much longer than any of us and it will outlive us by a long shot. So try not to look at other people and call their piercings gross and disgusting. As there might be something they find disgusting about you. Always remember to be kind and courteous to anyone you meet not just pierced and tattooed people.

So with all that out of the way it seems I still have room for another e-mail.
