DVD REVIEW

What happens when the doors are about to close at the local watering hole and there are hot and horny customers still lurking about? You can find out when you take a ride with the 4 hot customers and 3 sexy employees in Chi Chi LaRue's "No Cover".

One of Luca DiCorso's dreams literally came true during the filming of "No Cover". Ever since he was signed as a Rascal Exclusive, he always wanted to do a scene with fellow exclusive Jan Fischer. Their schedule's finally matched up and Chi Chi put them in this scene together. You can see how amazing the scene came out because the lust and passion are all real. This is one of the best performance's that Chi Chi has captured from both of them.

You can also find a video diary from Jan Fischer on the second bonus DVD. Follow Jan around the city and the set and you can get a feel of what it's like to be on a porn set, from the eyes of a real porn star. You will also find footage of the photo shoots, shot by Adam Killian and lots more nasty and raunchy extras for your behind the scenes pleasure.

"No Cover" trailer: <http://www.channel1releasing.com/no-cover.html>

Starring Rascal Exclusives: Tyler Riggs, Benjamin Bradley, Jan Fischer, and Luca DiCorso Also Starring: Jeremy Hall, Lex Sabre, and Trey Casteel Directed By: Chi Chi LaRue Written By: Doug Jeffries Videography: Hue Wilde Edited By: C.H.

What a month May was! The M&M Club not only hosted the hilarious (and well attended) Mother Superior Show on May 7, but it closed its doors forever on May 13.

I loved performing in the last show at this landmark, and I was tickled to see hundreds upon hundreds of folks stop in during that final week. (But I have to wonder where the hell all of these people were on nights when the bar needed the business?!)

Another stinker of the month is that I discovered my e-mail crashed, so I haven't received anything recently sent to me. Things appear to be up and running now, however, so keep sending those letters and recipes to dearmsruthie@yahoo.com!

Between the closing of the M&M Club and my computer woes...not to mention the finale of "Will & Grace"...I needed a helluva pick me up—and Pridefest certainly fit the bill! I love Pridefest more than you can imagine. Between the beer, the men and all the free entertainment, it's better than Dolly Parton opening for Barbara Steisand at a Playgirl centerfold reunion.

Since my e-mail was down, I don't have any advice letters to share with you, but I figure, what the hey? It's Pride month. Why not devote this whole column to tasty foods that help celebrate the Gay movement. Have a wonderful Pride month everyone...now eat good and shut up!

STONEWALL SANGRIA

I know Sangria is from Spain and the Stonewall riots occurred in New York. (And if you don't know what Stonewall is, you better find out!) I combined the two references to celebrate Pride month as well as my love for Spanish gay guys who don't take crap from nobody.

|--------------------------|----------------------------|
| 1 bottle red wine | 2 cups ginger ale |
| ½ cup triple sec | 2 cups orange juice |
| ¼ cup brandy | 6 orange slices |

3 pt3 pt Stir all of the ingredients together in a big pitcher; set it in the refrigerator for 8 hours or overnight. Serve over ice. Store leftovers in refrigerator.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues:

- Garnish individual glasses with fresh mint or orange slices.
- It's pretty tough to screw up sangria, so go nuts and play around with the ingredients. For instance, try replacing the red wine with white wine and substitute the orange juice with pineapple juice for a sweet, white sangria.

PRETTY PRIDE CAKES

Okay...okay, they're cupcakes. You do get a rainbow of surprises when you bite into each one, however. Top them with my no-fuss frosting.

- 1 package (18-1/4 ounces) white cake mix
- 2-3 drops blue food coloring
- 2-3 drops yellow food coloring
- 2-3 drops red food coloring

- Ruthie's Rum Frosting
- 1 can (16 oz) cream cheese frosting
- ½ teaspoon rum
- Additional food coloring, optional

Mix cake batter according to package directions and divide evenly into three small bowls. Combine blue food coloring with batter in one bowl & repeat step for remaining two food colors. Set 18 paper-liners into a muffin tin. Fill each cup with 2 tablespoons blue batter. Gently top each with 2 tablespoons yellow batter and then 2 tablespoons red batter. Bake at 350° for 20-24 minutes or until a toothpick comes out clean.

While the Pretty Pride Cakes are cooling, whip up the frosting. Simply pop open the frosting (which should be at room temperature, and stir in the rum a half-teaspoon at a time. Stir in the food coloring of your choice if you really want to jazz up the appearance of these cakes.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues:

- Change the food coloring preferences all you want!
- Leave out the frosting's rum if you'd like.
- Colorful cake sprinkles are another way to dress up the tops of these sweets.

LGBT TREATS

Make this candy however you want to...and be proud of your creation! It's a simple candy that folks can't get enough of.

- | | |
|-------------------------------|---|
| 1 cup chopped pecans, toasted | 1 package (10 to 12 ounces) white chips |
| ¾ cup flaked coconut | 1 tablespoon peanut butter |
| 1 cup Rice Krispies cereal | |

In a bowl, combine the pecans, coconut and cereal. Next, combine white chips and peanut butter in a microwave-safe bowl. Melt chips and peanut butter in microwave by heating on medium heat for 30 seconds. Stir chips. Repeat until chips are melted and combined with peanut butter.

Pour melted white chocolate mixture over the pecan mixture. Cool slightly. Drop by rounded teaspoonfuls onto waxed paper-lined baking sheets. Let stand until set. Store in an air-tight container.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues:

- You just can't get enough color during Pride Month, so why not add a few drops of green or blue to the white chocolate mixture when it comes out of the microwave?
- Feel free to substitute the Rice Krispies with another cereal. The gang at the Rusty Nail Trailer Park likes it with Captain Crunch.

Hey gang! I'm emceeding the Leather Show at Sunday's PrideFest - Stop by the Dance Pavillion at 4:00 and say hello. And remember to send me your favorite recipe. Mail it to dearmsruthie@yahoo.com. insults on a person who knew nothing of a little something called capitalism, because now I can clearly see that I should have used them on you! How can you defend someone who tries to take away someone else's hard work? I mean are you rolling in they hay with your pigs too? Lord knows I wouldn't be that mean, after all just responding to you has made my head hurt.

I think I need a drink after that one, and talk about great timing. We have once again come to the end of our time together. Don't forget to stop on by in Mr. Rodg. . . sh*t sorry I regressed a little back to child hood. DAMN THAT LITTLE RED TROLLEY! Cordially Yours

By Michael Johnston

Happy Pride Wisconsin!

Can you believe it we're at the half way mark? To hot fun in the Summer Sun 2006!

Thursday, June 1st marks Barney's Brother's One year Anniversary at their fashionable new address: 777 East Wisconsin Avenue-Galleria Level. The salon a dream of owner Kip's - the Kenneth of Milwaukee has an impressive history of more than two decades of beauty-making. Where else can you have hairdresser to the Stars Joe Kender and his talented co-workers Joy, Juanita and Staff beautify you?

Next weekend is PrideFest - Friday, Saturday and Sunday. Please don't forget the Parade on Sunday afternoon - OutBound Founder's legacy! On that note-it's a great honor to acknowledge in print OutBound's new owner the great Za. Thanks to Mark, my ink will continue to flow. This is just one of the many changes this Community is going through.

Switch, Fluid and Walker's Pint will be offering a complimentary Shuttle Service Fri & Sat from 6PM and on Sun from 5PM Craig is also hosting a Pride Foam Party, Pride Friday the 6th, 10PM-Close. Also that evening & Saturday "Male Entertainment".

"The Show Must Go On" Wisconsin AIDS Fund - a Fund within The Greater Milwaukee Foundation will hold their annual Benefit and Awards Dinner Thursday, June 15 7-10PM. This year's location The Historic Humphrey Scottish Rite Masonic Center 790 North Van Buren Street. Kudos in advance to the esteemed Honorees: Dr. Brian Buggy, MD, Scott Stokes, The Argosy Foundation, The Woman-To-Woman Program/The Counseling Center Of Milwaukee, Darryl Davidson and Jenny Hillis - Applause! Also this month on Friday, June 16th The 18th Annual Challenge Party will take place. What a grand and important occasion this one is!

The Following Saturday the 17th of June Men's Voices Milwaukee raise their voices in song! Their Summer Show will introduce the debut of Women's Voices Milwaukee under the direction of Melissa Berstrom. Fun is the theme- and I think we can all use a large dose of FUN!

The legendary lady of song herself, Miss Joey Cross will be taking The Italian Community Center by storm - or would that be song? On Monday, June 19th 6PM-9PM. She'll be appearing with Jazz After Five Quartet. Joey will return on Monday, August 7th with Joe Zarcone Quartet featuring Jeff Stoll. Talk about a way to make for a steamy Summer night...

Since last we met it's been simply a whirlwind! Times like this I wish "Cordially Yours," was daily - at least weekly! Fun things of note: Yanni's East Town's bistro dedicated to the gracious art of fine dining. 540 East Mason Street - www.yannimilwaukee.com is a must! Request Robert, you won't be disappointed!

I had the pleasure of hosting theater icon Guy S. Little, Jr. (The Melody Top, The Little Theater On The Square...) and his life partner Kirk for a brief visit. Brief yes, but the BrewTown tour was terrific! We started with The Ball Game enjoying Rick & Staff's welcoming ways, then onto Boom and a sip with Lance, then thru the threshold to Dan A /"Oblivia" and visit to The Room. We boomeranged to the TazzBah for a time we'll never forget. A flawless fish fry was of the offering and adding spice to our trek and dinner was none other than "Bar Wench" himself. What a hot time- drinks, food and lot's of eye candy... right Trigger? And no the Lone Ranger wasn't there! Next our tour took us to City Lights-Chill, a pleasant place to chill on Milwaukee's south side. How does one conclude a bar

Well here we are in June again; I hope you all had a wonderful Memorial Day, I know I did. And with June comes Pridefest & the Pride Parade. I know all of my avid readers will be there. (Hopefully not to throw rotten tomatoes!) I will be volunteering & I know the Parade committee is always looking for help so please give them a ring and get active in anything you can. There is one other thing that I haven't talked about for a while, International Mr. Skin & Steel! I know things kind of moved slowly and didn't quite get off on the right foot, but I assure you that everything is moving along. I have gotten in contact with several people around the Midwest & abroad to help put the contest together & things are moving along quite well. Next month I should have the new website address to give you all & much more info. And now that my babbling is over lets get to some piercing stuff. This month I figured I should talk about tattoo conventions. Now it has been awhile since I've been to one but I remember well enough why I stopped going. Unfortunately tattoo conventions have become nothing but a freak show for passing tourists. Now I understand that the convention needs to make money otherwise they go out of business, but the shows themselves have changed from the old days. A tattoo convention of the old days was a very respectable thing to be a part of. Now every contest is rigged. To be very bluntly honest if you want to win a tattoo contest all you have to do is buy the judges enough beer and get them laid and you are pretty much a lock to win. Which I know and you know is a total crock pot of sh*t. So I guess the moral of me rambling on about this is that just because you see someone who has all these trophies from conventions doesn't mean they are good. It just means they showed up with enough bribing money in their pocket.

Speaking of tattoos, lately I have been seeing some really great work out in the bars and in the shop. But by the same token I have seen some real disasters! And the worst part is the people with the worst tattoo's always show them off like there slicker than snot and defend the crack pot that did the tattoo in the first place. Look I guess what I am trying to say is that when you look into a tattoo don't go where your buddy went, go where your gut tells you to go. Don't walk in a say "Well I think this one will do!" Remember tattoo's are forever. Look for a shop that has been in business for a long while, check there reputation and the quality of their work. Just remember the only thing that will take them off is a Belt sander and 5 alarm chili.

Well seeing as I have some room let's check in with the reader mail.

Brent,

I have been reading your column since you started it and love it dearly. But I have to say that what you said to the person who wrote in last month was down right mean! How could you say the mean things you said in PRINT! I though you were a little more mature than that. Apparently I was wrong or am I?

D.M.

My God, can I get someone to screen these email for stupid? Listen, D.M. the only reason I said all those mean things is because I would have felt bad if I found him and hit him in the head hard enough to throw off his crash helmet, with face guard I might add, hell he might have even had a drool bib to go with it! But you have changed my mind; apparently I was wrong to waste all those good run of this proportion? The M&M Club for a little cha-cha with Chi-Chi. Ooh what a night! The following day brought a lovely luncheon at The Pasta Tree. The occasion a reunion of Melody Top Alumni. Robert rolled out the lavender carpet of gentility as we feasted on marvelous Italian creations. "Here's to the ladies who lunch"... That very evening provided a special invitation to partake in a visit to Charlotte Lorraine's palatial palace. Who else but darling Charlotte serves brunch at 7PM? Lorraine's logic- "I get up at 3PM, I need breakfast!" Who am I to argue with The Tiara? Concluding the night was a Surprise Birthday/Good Bye Party for OutBound Founders: James & Jim. Switch was the site and Craig hosted a fond farewell. "Good bye and good luck" to paraphrase Edward R. Murrow.

FREE POOL EVERYDAY!

have the joyous experience of fatherhood when Dillon Matthew O'Brien makes his welcomed debut in time for Father's Day.

As reported ever so briefly in last month's effort "Rona's Nun Show" at The M&M Club was moved up a week. Usually held on Mother's Day-for the past four years honoring Mothers, Nuns and Rona's astounding 29 years at The M's. This year on Mother's Day there was no more M&M Club. "The Last Drag Show" was bittersweet, thank God for waterproof mascara! As always an array of Adorables gathered to play the boards one last time talk about "Follies"! Charlotte Lorraine, Dear Ruthie, Goldie Adams, Dame Edna Howser, Miss Trixie, Chastity Belt, Baby Jane Hudson, Shannon DuPree, Brittany Morgan, Ashley Michaels, Tracy, Tatiana, Chi-Chi, Cordially Yours and Miss Rona—apologies if I forgot a name or two after all, those were the days and as Rona reminded us of all our memories of the way we were... I can't be held accountable. So honored to be apart of The Last Drag Show. I also caught Trixie AKA Mark Luko on the piano at The M's for the last time. No one knows how to tickle those ivories like our Trixie! Trixie was kind enough to share the limelight with Joyce Bevan another beauty that knows her way around a spinet. I was also there for Last Call, Really. The closing of The M&M Club after over thirty years of magic and memories! What a tribute that last night was—no one could sing it better than Jon & Jay reminding us it really was "For The Good Times". It was like my photo album had come to life, many names that you've seen peppered in this Column throughout the past seven years were people I met at M's: Legs, Charlotte, Doris, Jerry Gin&Tonic, Jay... Lizzie was so gallant to let me talk one last time on the microphone. I ended up closing the place and pouring the last GAY drink! The M's was Milwaukee's first Gay Community Center. It was a home base. It was there that we met, we fell in love, we grew up and we said so many good byes. Now it was time to say good-bye to the very establishment. I say good-bye and thank you to Bob Schmidt for being our host. As well to BooBoo, Rona, DeDe, Rita, ChiChi, Peter and all the Others too many to list here. Thanks for the memories-time can't erase all we shared... It isn't good-bye to each other -- for we will carry on with the life-long friendships that were made there. As the Sun was coming up on another day- an era known as The M's was truly over and another day was dawning. To home, for a quick nap and off to Brian Kohler's "Bereavement Brunch". There is where we fed our hearts and souls and downed a sea of Champagne -- Cheers! The rainbow in this adventure was spending time with Bob Schmidt arguably the God Father of Gay Milwaukee. A more dedicated, committed man you'll never find. He shared with me -- it was his wish that he would go to his grave with The M's in full operation. It wasn't meant to be. The universal favorite M&M moment after asking everyone from Bob to Rona to the many that made up the throng of "The Last Call-Really Party" was: the night Bob, with the help of Chef Tommy opened a new window! Literally, by ripping off the repressive dark shutters-the light was allowed in. I wasn't there that historic night, but the first time I saw it I was terrified by the exposure. Bob knew we had nothing to hide -- and by doing this bit of un-window dressing, perhaps the biggest comment of PRIDE was expressed. I'll keep you posted as to where all our favorite staff members will go onto. As of this typing the only one with definite plans is Rita. He will be Switching to Switch Wed, Thu & Fri starting in June.

Finally, on a purely personal note of self-promotion I too have Switched... I have been Boom-eranged to The Room on Fridays inaugurating "Cocktails With KV" 6:30pm-9:30pm. My dream of a Live Piano Bar shift has finally become a reality. David on the keyboard and me behind the bar, together we'll usher in your weekend in style, with style! To Craig of Switch-dom I thank you for the past 51/2 fabulous years. I wish Rita as much fun, success and good times as I had... To David Boom/The Room I look forward to a new songbook of memories with you & yours and a long successful run. Remember it's the glamour, not the grammar!

To you my Readers I wish You a month of PRIDE, Growth and an Endless Summer of Magical Moments As I remain STILL "Cordially Yours,"
