TRIANGLE

135 E. National
TRIANGLE.GAYMKE.COM

Equally preposterous is Private Man's One Track Mind, a big-budget offering featuring such hardworking Euro-hunks as Vilem Cage, Eric Flower and Drago Lembeck.

Plot? What plot? To figure out what's going on, you'll have to replay the voice-over narration far more times than this reviewer was willing. Basically, there's a strange painting, a family curse and a demon guy in a horrible, Ozzy Osborne wig.

Much better to sit back and watch the sex, which for Private Man, is surprising energetic and hot. Case in point is the very first scene where two soldiers find a strange painting of a naked man. Both Drago Lembeck and Igor become positively transfixed, ripping off uniforms and humping each other like crazed rabbits. Rock hard throughout the scene, Drago rides Igor as if he were in a bronco riding completion at gay rodeo. Giddyup!

Drago, now in possession of the painting, both figuratively and literally, returns in several scenes including a kinky solo and later in a dream sequence where the badly-wigged demon guy gets Drago in a sling and rides him hard.

Thrown in for good measure are a couple of bondage-laced orgies with the always reliable Cage in control as the puppet master.

On Track Mind spirits along with a total of seven moody sex scenes with 14 hot, uncut Eastern European models flexing their ripped torsos and dabbling in a dazzling array of fetishes, from boot-licking and foot-worship to sex toys, dog collars and some pretty hot bondage.

Ruthie's Bitchin' Kitchen

HAPPY PRIDEFEST!!! It's that time of year once again. Time to enjoy what I consider the biggest and best little pride celebration in America. You just can't beat the lakefront venue, the masses of happy folks, the entertainment and those damn corn dogs.

I'll be at the Fest all weekend. Hell, I wouldn't miss it for the world. In fact, I'll be emceeing a show for The Shoreline Dancers on Saturday at 1:00 at the Rainbow Stage. You can also catch me selling my line of clothing, refrigerator magnets and more at the Outwords Books booth in the marketplace.

I'll be at the booth on Saturday from 2:00 to 4:00 and on Sunday from 3:00 to 5:00. Stop by, say hello and register to win to a Bitchin' Kitchen Gift Basket. But most importantly, stop over and buy my crap!

As you can see, Pridefest keeps me busy but I love every minute of it. And speaking of being busy, thanks to everyone who attended the reading of "The Women" for RSVP Productions last month. The cast was fun, the show was a riot and I hope a good time was had by all. An extra special thanks goes out to Melissa, Brian and the staff of M's for throwing us a helluva cast party on Friday night and to the gang at Harbor Room for opening their doors to the cast on Saturday night.

Now let's get on with enjoying June...the month we celebrate the leaps we've made as a community and gear up for the challenges ahead. As a community we've got a whole lotta celebratin' to do, so I figure we'd can the advice for this month and get right into a few celebratory recipes.

Perfect for summer parties or casual nibbles at home, you're sure to find something to tease your taste buds in Ruthie's Bitchin' Kitchen, so let's take a look at what folks are munching on lately.

The recipes shared here came from home cooks, just like you. No experts whipping up fancy crapola you'd never be able to reproduce yourself. Nope. Not here. In fact, I tested these dishes myself, and I hope you like them as much as I did. Try them this summer and let me know what you think!

Shake Your Bon-Bon Salsa

It may not be as hot as that cute, little Ricky Martin (Come out, come out wherever you are!) but it's darn good. It's a no-fuss salsa that's a refreshing treat to share with your amigos on a hot summer night. A gal-pal named Amy sent it.

2 seeded diced tomatoes

1/2 each medium red onion and white onion, diced

1/2 each medium green pepper and red pepper, diced

1 Scotch bonnet or Havanero pepper, diced

6 green onions, sliced thin

2-3 large cloves of garlic, minced

1 avocado, diced

1 mango, peeled and diced

Juice of 1 lime

Juice of 1 orange

Salt and pepper to taste

3 tablespoons olive oil

2 tablespoons chopped

cilantro, optional

Combine all ingredients in a bowl.

Serve with tortilla chips. Store leftovers in the refrigerator.

DVD REVIEWS

One Track Mind from Private Man
DaVinci Load 2: Electric Twinkaloo from PZP Productions

Adult entertainment doesn't get much more fun or certainly any goofier than One Track Mind from Private Man or PZP Production's Da Vinci Load 2. Electric Twinkaloo which picks up right where Da Vinci Load left off with tattooed muscle twink Sebastian Young returning as Agent Leo Da Vinci. His mission accomplished, Da Vinci now must defeat a dark prophecy that threatens mankind.

There's a twink out there, somewhere, named Billy O'Reilly destined to be father of "the Antichrist." Da Vinci must find that one twink, the Electric Twinkaloo, pound his ass and turn him away from pussy forever. To find the right Billy O'Reilly and complete his "righteous mission," he enlists the help of horse-hung Agent Randy Schlong (Casey Wood). If Randy's amazing schlong won't turn a straight twink gay, nothin' will.

The first Billy O'Reilly is a pizza boy (Matt Havoc). Gee, now that's certainly an original porn premise. Sebastian offers Billy a piece of pizza, then his substantial hardon. It ain't long before straight-boy Billy eagerly services Leo from head to toe. Leo rides the pizza boy every which way he can. Sad to say, this Billy isn't the Electric Twinkaloo. Next!

Up next is bizarre three-way with Harry Beast's loony Nazi lurking in the background. First Billy Matt Havoc is joined by slim twinks Tristan Everhard and Remi Steele and it's all fun and games until a spurting cock triggers a poor twink's gag reflex...

Casey's Randy Schlong is back, visiting a distant relative and happily bunking with the hot son, another Billy O'Reilly (Derrek Scott). Billy warns Randy not to touch him but touch him he does. Restless and armed with a mega-hardon, Randy turns his attention to the slumbering lad's trim little butt. Somehow Billy remains asleep while Randy rims him, turns him over and offers an energetic blow job. A kiss awakens Billy's sexual passion and soon he is happily taking every monstrous inch that Agent Randy Schlong has at his disposal. Wood's mighty cannon fires an impressive load while Scott's money shot looks rather dubious.

The final Billy O'Reilly (Jayden Holloway) is a clean-cut member of the Church of Latter Day Saints who just happens to turn up on Leo Da Vinci's doorstep. An explosive sneeze sends the two into a hot bath encounter with Sebastian Young hard and more than eager to seduce the wayward Mormon. Holloway is a pro and accommodates every inch Young offers, leading to the cumshot that saves the world. Or is it Da Vinci's laser penis that saves the world?

Twink-lovers be warned, Da Vinci Load 2: Electric Twinkaloo is a decidedly low-budget for those used to Bel Ami. On the plus side, the screenplay is fun and Casey Wood not only offers a major piece of hardware but a great smile and some genuine enthusiasm. Let's hope the promised sequel loses the strange soundtrack, the shaky camera work not to mention some of the phoniest cumshots seen since the 1980s.

Juicy Drunken' Meatballs

You can't believe how surprised I was when this recipe arrived. That's because it was sent by Jim and James...the previous owners of "Outbound Magazine." They are living large in Pennsylvania and wish everyone the best. The dynamic duo wanted to share a favorite dish, and sent this keeper. Serve the meatballs on their own as a Pride Party appetizer, ladle them over pasta for dinner or tuck 'em into a sandwich bun for a satisfying lunch! No matter how you like your balls, you'll think of Jim and James when you pop these suckers in your mouth. (Okay...that sentence didn't sound quite right.)

3/4 cup milk	1/4 teaspoon ground ginger
1/2 cup soft breadcrumbs	2 pounds ground beef
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce	2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 teaspoon salt	1 (18-oz.) jar peach jam
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder	1/4 cup granulated sugar
1/8 teaspoon pepper	1/2 cup brandy
1/8 teaspoon hot pepper sauce	1 tablespoon cornstarch
1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg, divided	1 tablespoon water

1. In a large bowl, combine the first seven ingredients. Stir in 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg. Crumble the ground beef over the mixture and kneed it all together. Shape into 1-inch balls.
2. Heat oil in an extra-large skillet over medium heat. Add the meatballs in small batches until browned. Drain meatballs on paper towels.
3. In a Dutch oven, combine the jam, brown sugar, brandy and remaining nutmeg. Heat over low heat and simmer 10 minutes. Carefully add meatballs to Dutch oven, cover, and simmer for 1 hour, stirring occasionally.
4. In a small bowl, combine cornstarch and water. Slowly stir into the Dutch oven. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until sauce thickens.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues

A Dutch oven is a large pot-like thing-a-ma-gig that will allow you to simmer the sauce and the meatballs all at once. If you don't have one, use an extra large skillet or two large skillets with lids.

Make soft bread crumbs by tearing up fresh bread and chopping it with a food processor. Do not use dried (canned) bread crumbs in this recipe.

If you'd like to half the recipe, simply use a dash of hot pepper sauce and pepper, and remember that half a tablespoon is 1-1/2 teaspoons. You'll need about 2 slices of bread to make the 1/2 cup of bread crumbs the meatballs call for.

Gay 'n' Goopy Butter Bars

Okay...if there's only one recipe of mine that you ever try, make it this one! A gal named Marcee sent the recipe, and I'm telling ya, it's gonna become your all-time favorite treat. Best of all, you can dress the snacks up however you like. You just can't beat 'em damnit! Marcee calls 'em Goopy Butter Bars, but since it's Pride time, I figure it couldn't hurt to gay them up a bit!

Ruthie's Culinary Clues

Marcee says that there are many variations you can create with this basic recipe. She manually stirs in 1/2 cup EACH of white baking chips, peanut butter chips, butterscotch chips and toffee chips at the end of Step 3. Experiment with different flavors of cake mix. "These bars are very rich," writes Marcee, "and a little goes a long way so I cut them into small bars or squares."

Because their recipes were published, Amy, Jim, James and Marcee all received free "Bitchin' Kitchen" T-shirts from www.dearruthie.com.

Want a shirt of your own? Check out Ruthie's line of fun shirts, baseball caps, sweatshirts and more at www.dearruthie.com. Want to get in on the freebies? Send your favorite recipes to her at dearmsruthie@yahoo.com.

Well I hope you have all learned something, and will remember it when you go and get your next, or first, tattoo.

Cheap Talkin' Chi Chi

Hi everybody I'm back! Mark was very gracious in allowing me to bring back the cheap talkin Chi-Chi column back now that I'm gainfully employed at least part time in the bar business. Hopefully, I will have enough dirt for a monthly column, so let's get to the dirt and the happenings I've been squirreling away all this time. To begin with I and everyone at M's would like to thank all of Joan's friends for coming out and celebrating his life. Joan was one of those people who would not have wanted people to feel sad for too long and it was evident that he had touched many people. I had the opportunity to work with him first at M&M Club and then later at M's. We would fight like sisters and make up the same way. He had the biggest heart as well as a few other things, but he always made everyone around him smile and forget about their trivial problems and look at the bigger picture. He's irreplaceable however he will always be a part of our lives.

As everyone knows it is Pridefest this June, and if the weather cooperates we are looking to having one of the best Pridefest ever. From the entertainment lineup to all the exciting things that are being planned for the parade it should be one to remember. One of the most exciting things happening along the parade route is the fact that Melissa and staff at M's are going to be pulling out all the stops for Sunday's big event. Cocktails alfresco and entertainment by the always fabulous Mrs. Fun with $2 vodka rail mixers everyone should be feeling no pain until Monday. I checked in with our sister bar Kruz and Jerry is being very mysterious with his plans however the deck looks beautiful and he has a pool table outside as well. I just wonder if the only balls that will be shooting for will be going into the pockets.

Speaking of Kruz, there was a particularly nice piece of eye-candy that goes by T-Bone that is quite the pool shark. If you like your meat with the bone in watch out.

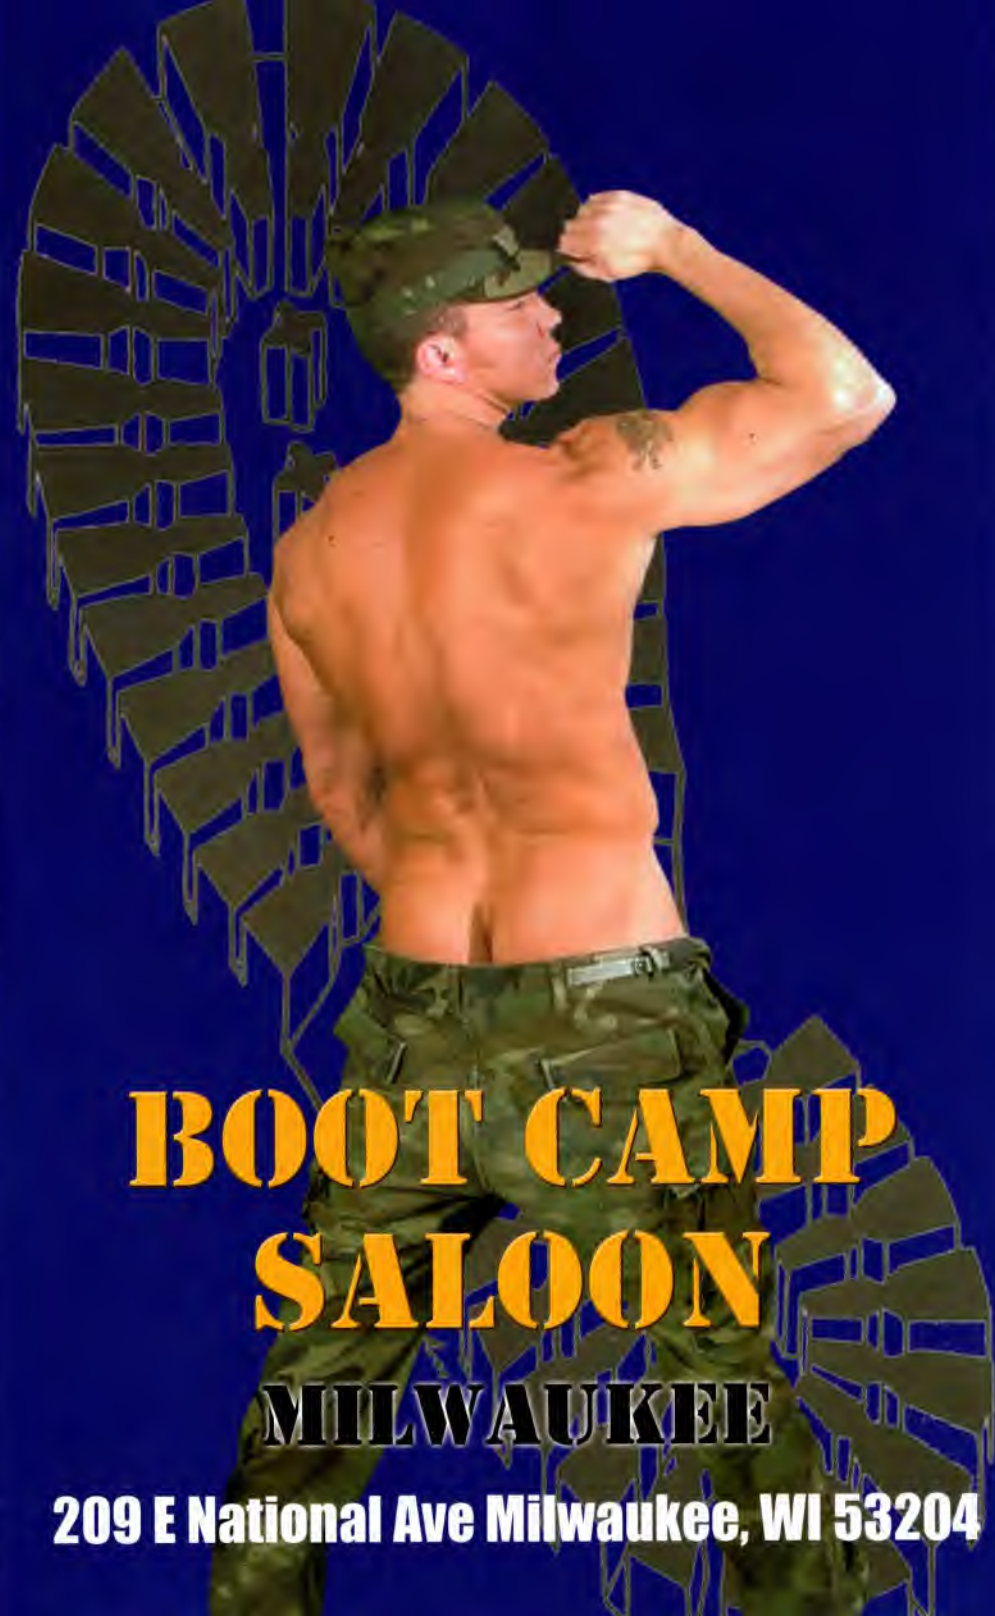

If your in the BayView area go see my girl Becky at Frank's Power Plant. Although a straight bar they are very gay friendly, being very supportive of the last Rickfest. Becky, Justin (yum), and Jennifer keep the party going. Not too far from Frank's is the PumpHouse which is becoming quite the destination can't wait to see the volleyball courts being used. If you guys need a towel boy for the showers let me know. My makeup artist extraordinaire Miss Goldi Adams is celebrating 20 years in the entertainment industry with a very special show and I was honored to be invited to perform in. It's the least I can do for the miracles she performs in transforming me Miss Chi-Chi.

I like to call this item sex, lies, and videotape. You might have noticed some bartenders switching employment from their usual bastions to new pastures. The camera sees all, unfortunately it seems some bartenders seem to forget about this all important fact. I wonder if any of them will be on YouTube anytime soon.

My hottie-scottie over at Switch is leaving for the west coast to finally be making the big bucks in the financial world. I wish him good luck but he can always give my mother a call at Rascal video for an audition. He would not be the first performer for gay for pay.

That's about it for now, I've really missed doing the column and I hope everyone will enjoy it as much as I am writing it. As always keep the liquor flowing and talk cheap!

Love Chi-Chi

BOOT CAMP SALOON MILWAUKEE

209 E National Ave Milwaukee, WI 53204

Well, here we are again, back in print and bursting with pride. I hope we all have a great time at pride this year. And being the month which has pride in it, I want to urge all of you to help support the groups and people who put on this great party for us all. First off you have PrideFest which is held at Henry Maier Festival Park on Milwaukee's lakefront, during June 8th through the 9th. For more information on PrideFest contact them through their website at www.pridefest.com. Also, we can't talk about pride without talking about the Parade, this year the parade will be held on 2nd street on Sunday June 10th, with step off taking place on 2nd and Greenfield Avenue at 2:00pm and ending just north of 2nd and Oregon Avenue. For more information on the Pride Parade, contact them through their website at www.prideparademke.com. Well, now that I have gotten all that out of the way, lets get to talking about what you really read this column for . . . piercings and tattoos!

This month I figured I have talked enough about piercings for a while so why not talk about tattoos for a bit. Let's get going.

First off, in tattooing you have to decide what you want to have tattooed on you! Now I know all you guys are thinking to yourself about getting a hanging rooster tattooed on your calf so you can tell people. "Hey guess what? I have a cock that hangs below my knees!" But don't get it! Don't be a douche, think about what you are going to get. Don't just pick something or let your friends talk you into something. Remember you are the one who is going to have to live with that pink flower on your ass when your friends die from laughing at "How cute it is!" So remember think long and hard about the tattoo you are going to get!

Next let's talk about choosing a shop. Now I know I got a bunch of hate mail for saying this last time but I will say it again. Don't go to any tattoo shop in the City of Milwaukee! The reason for this is that 99% of all the people who are tattooing in the city of Milwaukee have only been tattooing for less than 1 year. In a real shop someone with that experience isn't even trusted to clean the toilet! So when you are choosing a shop make sure to ask how long they have been tattooing for, and make sure the number sounds believable. After all, you don't want to get tattooed by a guy who says he has been tattooing for 30 years when the guy himself is only 20! And if you believe that, I have some swamp-land in Texas to sell you!

Also when you are at the shop make sure to check out the room that they use to tattoo, this room should be clean and neat and tidy. If they are tattooing you in a lounge chair with fluffy frills then you might want to leave. While you are in the shop make sure you check the license on the wall and make sure they are all valid and not expired.

Finally we have to talk about aftercare; since there are so many types I will touch on most of them and then tell you which one I have had the best results with. Each tattooist has their own versions of aftercare. These are the ones I have used. First I have tried using A&D ointment. This really helps heal but when the scabs begin to fall off, the ointment can pull the scabs off prematurely and cause damage to the tattoo. The second way is to use a lotion like Lubriderm to help heal the tattoo. This way also works similar to the A&D ointment and also has the same drawbacks, although not as bad because the lotion spreads easier on the skin. The final way is to dry heal, this is when you put nothing on the Happy PRIDE Wisconsin! It must be June and I am bursting out all over! 2007 is half way in and we can launch the Summer Season with PRIDE Weekend. To a Summer of PRIDE!

Saturday, June 2 8 PM Men's Voices Milwaukee (MVM) will proudly present: "Mostly Love - Listen To Your Heart" Ken McMonagle will have the pleasure of directing this "Proud Posse of Fine Singers of the Lower Octave". Helene Zelazo Center - UWM 2419 East Kenwood Boulevard 414-229-4308 $15. in advance/$20. at the door.

By the by, the Ladies of Women's Voices Milwaukee (WVM) Spring Concert was simply superb! How apropos Mother's Day Eve. I look forward to their next effort in December for the Holidays. You go girls!

Sunday, June 3rd This Is It turns back the clock with a "Masquerade Party". Celebrate the "Roaring 20's - the Swinging 40's in costume, a benefit for ARCW's Food Pantry.

This, the first weekend in June also brings the 50th Celebration of The Little Theatre On The Square. Sullivan, IL. will once again be the sight of Broadway in the corn fields as Guy S. Little, Jr. commemorates a lifetime in the American Theater with a very special production of Sondheim's "Follies In Concert". Starring personal friends of the esteemed Founder/Producer: Ann B. Davis, Bill Hayes & Susan Seaforth Hayes, Anna McNeely, Colleen Zenk Pinter, Mark Pinter and Miss Joan Roberts, the original Laurey in "Oklahoma". We are all so glad that dear Guy can still sing, "I'm Still Here"!

Wednesday, June 6th Milwaukee's "King of Court Jesters" John McGivern returns to Vogel Hall @ Marcus Center for the Performing Arts 123 East State Street in "A Midsummer Night McGivern". John will warm hearts with his Will Rogers-like tale of yore... Growing up in the Cream City in the 1960's. Tickets are priced "Patron-Friendly" at $32. - $36. "Midsummer" runs midsummer, through Sunday, July 1st.

Obviously, I don't have to remind You All that our favorite "Rainbow Weekend" of the Year takes place Friday, June 8 with PrideFest - 20! Yes, Midwest Pride meets on Milwaukee's Lakefront with comedienne extraordinaire Kathy Griffin and the sounds of Cascada. Saturday June 9th the Grammy Award Winning Chaka Khan - she is "Every Woman", with Benassi Bros., featuring Dhany headline. Joan Jett and the Krash hearts with Ronnie Nyles and the Krash Band close out our "Lavender Love-In", Sunday, June 10th - after the Pride Parade - III.

Remember support the Fest, the Parade, the Bars, the Hotels, the Restaurants - all in Solidarity. Two of my favorite activities are Dear Ruthie's "Leather Fashion Show" hot, hot, hot and the "Pride Singing Idol" coordinated by the Original Idol, himself, Corky Morgan. Props to Pump for running the Dance Tent again, this time!

Later in the month, as our Pride continues - you can continue the Celebration in Song with The Wisconsin Cream City Chorus, Ltd. They will be closing out their 20th Season "In Our Own Words" The Off-Broadway Theatre 342 North Water Street 7:30 PM.

Boom/The Room Welcomes Roman (nee Woody's) to the roster. He opens early Saturdays @ 2PM and can be seen through out the week at the Boom-Bar. Karaoke is a successful Tuesday staple at 9 bells in The Room, come and be discovered! The Pride Parade can easily be enjoyed from the complex as well on Sunday, June 10th. Per Dr. Slippy: "This is the place to be before and after Pride - wild, fun, good people. and who is going to argue with the AMA?"

DairyLand Classic). Still interested in WigFest? Talk to Craig and Rita and talk it up! It could happen...

The Harbor Room IS STILL OPEN! Remember, by repeating rumors you can inadvertently cause/make something happen. Case in point Club 219.

To mark the First Anniversary of Milwaukee without The M&M Club, a tasteful group of a dozen or so toasted with Rona on Mother's Day, out of Habit, The Irish Pub's success. This date also marked Rona's Thirtieth Year as a Beverage Consultant! Is this a record? Cheers! Charlotte, Jane, Cookie, Fred, Joe & Lee, Glenn, Peter, Michael, Sarah, Rona and Cordially Yours all enjoyed Keith and Chris behind the newly decorated bar.

Another newly appointed Bartender is "Opal" at M's drop in and make his day!

We all know how I love the Arts, and in this the month of the Tony Awards we celebrate a bountiful Broadway Season coming to our own backyard. Bravo to a SRO Season ahead! "My Fair Lady" – arguably the best musical – ever debuts The Marcus Center M&I Bank Broadway Across America Series. From London, with the 50th Anniversary Production October 09th – 14th. The following month, spell-check intact, will bring "The 25th Annual Putnam Spelling Bee" November 06th – 11th, better start brushing up now! Disney's Masterpiece "The Lion King" roars into Brew Town in February, 2008 to start off a New Year and the second half the Award-Winning Series. The Milwaukee Theater, working in conjunction with the Marcus/M&I Series will have the honor to host "The King of the Forest" of Musicals. "Avenue Q," meets Water Street beginning February 26th – March 02nd, 2008. How else could one close out this Season of Gold? Maybe with "Spamalot" Yes, "Monty Python's Spamalot" will tickle you April 29th – May 04th.

Talk about an All-Star Extravaganza! Order now – you won't want to miss a magical moment of this majestic adventure.

On the topic of the Arts/Theater – besides, "Mama Mia" starring Meryl Streep and Christine Baranski coming to the Cinema – Mya Lynn (one of the Stars of the local production) tells me that "Naked Boys Singing... The Movie" is next! Opening (pardon the pun) next month. I wonder if the crazy, too much time on their hands, protesters will make a scene, again???

Happy Golden Birthday – Broadway Bonnie! I loved "Bonnie-pa-looza" at The Room!

Since last we played, Switch became another year older. I toasted number Eight with Craig, Jeffrey, Pecs and Guppy as all enjoyed the fine food from Miss Katie's Diner – which I understand has a bloody good Sunday Brunch. (I will have to investigate this one and get back to you). Tod, with one D, Bonnie, John Hale from Babylon and Pump, Larry from the now defunct, still lamented Café Mélange, Al, Andy, Steve's Brother, Jerry and Crew all had quite the time!

Also, Happy 9th B-Day Fluid! Everyone was there – including a VERY much alive and kicking, Honey-Honey! What a time I am having with Fluid's Bingo Matches! It's infectious, I just can't say no! Wilma Wardlow invited me to don "the Habit" and play "Catholic School Bingo". Strictly Straight A!!! Pope Rosie (who also had a B-Day recently) was phenomenal in making her debut as his/her Holiness. Natasha Marques shined above all of us, as only she can, and does every other Sunday. Kitty and Mrs. Beasley manned the bar, as "Mrs." Hobbit was on duty as "Lunch Lady", Maple, his real sister Ann, Germaine and the winning Team of the Flaming Aardvarks all pooled their considerable resources for another successful fund raiser. In the Class were: Shelby & Todd, Fr. Antonio, the faboo Dan E. Dance, Miss Danielle, Dan, Wendy, Dan, Tim and Mike from The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel doing a photo-report. What a time and no demerits! Loved The RSVP feature in The Milwaukee Journal Sentinel!

Props go out to Russell & Mike of The Milwaukee Pump House, for their highly successful "AIDS In Africa" fund raiser. David & Michael were kind enough to rise to the occasion and open their doors and arms for the cause. I was invited to appear and fem-cee, and you all know. I can't say no – so the day of the "Run for the Roses" we were doing what I believe was the first Show at The PH. Bobby and John liquid-fied us, as Fred DJ-ed, spinning the music into the night, Matt-Ress was on lights helping us all to shine. Besides Moi, Head of Security and make-up Guru Goldie Adams, The PH's very own sweet little things Hot Fudge and Joan Monet, Title-Bearers: Jackie Christine, Anastasia, Christina Chase, Billie Blaze and Jessica Daniels dazzled the ever appreciative audience. Applauding and tipping us into a stupor were: Paul from Mayor Barrett's office, Roger, Jerry, Todd, Jerry, Tim & Michael, Gary & Deb, Ted, Miss Danielle, Brittany Morgan, Tracey Michaels, Jeff, Amy, JoAnna, Jeff, Sir Steven Seffeldt - -Thee Leather God of all there is - (Congratz to Boy Patrick for winning a well-earned sash and best wishes for a successful tour)... Special "You-Hoo" to Natalie and Lady Gia, who were invaluable in this most worthwhile pursuit. If I inadvertently left out an Entertainer, my apologies – certainly not deliberate.

What a truly grand time of it I had with "The Women". Yes, You read right! RSVP Productions – was gallant enough to extend an invitation so tempting I couldn't resist. Working with Ray Bradford, my Sister-In-Print, "Dear Ruthie", Missy, Sandy Lewis, and my "Mother" Barbara Weaver provided me the unique opportunity to realize the fantasy of being apart of Clare Booth Luce's world totally "Jungle Red".

Congratulations go out to Billy Kirchen and Bobby Troka and their interpretation of William Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice". Their collective cultural missionary work bringing the Master's words to the school-aged is exemplarity!

Bravo to "Hairdresser to the Stars" Joe Kender, for opening a new salon Grum (Groom) On Bellevue 2532 East Bellevue Place 2nd Floor where Bellevue and Downer Avenue meet. 414-962-0817 Tue – Sat. Making Milwaukee's fashionable east side, just that!

Rumor has it, that jet-setting couple of yesterday, have decided that the grass is greener in the Midwest and will be returning before we storm the Bastille! And not a moment too soon, I might add!

A sincere thanks to all those dear ones out there that offered their sincere condolences on the loss of my all-time Icon, Kitty Carlisle Hart. It's like loosing that last link to one's childhood. Kitty was my Streisand, Bette – Midler and/or Davis, Crawford, Cher, Madonna...Thanks in a major part to Guy S. Little, Jr. I had the pleasure of meeting Kitty three times, including celebrating her 95th at Feinstein's at The Regency on Park Avenue! Ironically, her Memorial Service will be held on Tuesday, June 12th at The Majestic.

It may be curtains for Carlisle, but hopefully not me, for awhile at least! As I suggest it's the glamour, not the grammar as I remain in PRIDE,
