Welcome to Ruthie's Bitchin' Kitchen

HAPPY HALLOWEEN! Anyone who knows me understands how much I love boozin', cruisin', smokin' and Halloweenin'. That's why this month is a kick-ass time of year for little old me.

There's nothing like getting all dolled up in some crazy costume and hitting a party or painting the town blood red. So however you celebrate Halloween, be sure to do it up right and have yourself a boo-luscious ball. And if you see a hot guy dressed as a sailor or Amy General, but sure he is truly dressed for Halloween before you grab his ass. Trust me on this one... I learned the hard way.

Before you soak up the Halloween spirit, be sure to check out my gal pal Aunt Joanna, Oct 21 at the Alchemist Theater (2569 KK in Bay View). She's thrown together "Cabaret Q," which promises to be a fantastic night of talent. Go and check out the show... as well as this incredible hot spot in Bay View. Showtime is at 8:00 and tickets are $5 each, but to learn more simply let your fingers do the walking at www.alchemisttheatre.com.

Well, last month I offered up a bunch of advice and only a few recipes. I thought we'd mix things up a bit this month, too, and head into my Bitchin' Kitchen to cook up some no-fuss grub. That said, here are some recipes just perfect as the fall weather sets in. Try 'em... you'll like 'em. Now, eat good and shut up!

Witches Brew

If you can resist the allure of a chocolate martini, you're a better bitch than I am. Try this delightful concoction shared by Syl of Milwaukee

Cocoa powder
3/4 ounce chocolate liqueur
3/4 ounce white chocolate liqueur
1/2 ounce green crème de menthe
3/4 ounce vodka
Ice

Dust a martini glass with a bit of the cocoa powder. Combine the remaining ingredients in a martini shaker. Shake, and strain into the martini glass.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues

I recommend Godiva liqueurs for this recipe, but fee free to use something such as Bailey's or even one of the Starbucks liqueurs if you'd like to give the drink a mocha flavor.

Autumn Buzz

From Bay View, Darlene sent this delightful drink. (What the hell is this? The Bay View edition?) I love this beverage... and you will, too, damnit!

Now drink up, while I send Darlene her free Bitchin' Kitchen T-shirt!

1 ounce apricot brandy
1 ounce gin
1 - 1/2 ounces orange juice
Ice

Combine the brandy, gin and juice. Shake and strain into a short glass filled with ice.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues

Old Fashioned glasses work best for this recipe. Garnish with orange slices and/or cherries. Mix in a pinch of sugar if the drink is too strong for your tastes... oh, please, who am I kidding?!

Chill-Chasing Shots

"A friend gave me this recipe after he tried it on a cruise," writes Justin from Milwaukee. "I tried it, and I've been making them ever since." Thanks Justin! You're free T-shirt is on the way.

1 - 1/2 ounces cherry brandy
1/2 ounce warm coffee
1/2 ounce cream

In a shot glass, pour the cherry brandy. Slowly add the warm coffee and top with the cream.

Ruthie's Culinary Clues

If you don't have cherry-flavored Brandy on hand, feel free to try this with regular brandy. It may seem a bit boring, but it's a nice, warm, change-of-pace shot.

The Monster Mash

Here's a blood-red beverage from Jackie of Oak Creek. Thanks for the idea Jackie!!

3 ounces cranberry juice
3/4 ounce peach schnapps
2 ounces vodka
3 ice cubes

Combine all ingredients in a martini shaker. Shake ingredients together, and pour into a tumbler. Add additional ice if desired

Ruthie's Culinary Clues

Entertaining this Halloween? Surprise your gang of ghouls by using this recipe for shots.

Talk about HomeRuns – I think old BrewTown, and the great state of Wisconsin really did an extraordinary Gay World Series. A standing ovation to the terrific team work and tremendous outcome, providing a week that I can only hope our Guests, and Softball Participants enjoyed as much as I did! But before we look back – how about a peek ahead of what we can celebrate in October, 2009!

The Northern Lights Theater at Potawatomi will present Mr. Broadway/ Mr. Native Wisconsinite/Mr. Tom Wopat on Friday, October 2 9:00 p.m. On Saturday, October 3 Dolores O'Riordan, the voice of the Cranberries is in Concert. The Show starts at 8, $30 Floor, $20 Balcony. Her last album "No Baggage" was released this summer, and selections will be enjoyed in this performance. The Smothers Brothers return to the Casino on October 6 & 7, double your pleasure, double your fun, for two nights! Soul Asylum comes to town on Wednesday, October 9, 9 Bells. The Ultimate Doo Wop Show is slated for Thursday, October 15 8 p.m. The next night – Friday, October 16 come see Purple Rain: The Ultimate Prince Tribute @ 9:00 p.m. Good Golly Miss Molly, Little Richard, the King or is it Queen of Rock & Roll graces the Northern Lights Stage Wednesday, October 21, 8 p.m. You don't want to miss this historical night! Thursday, October 22 brings the talents of Indigenous 8 p. Brotherhood Acoustic Tour: Featuring Los Lonely Boys & Alejandro Escovedo Saturday, October 24, Show starts at: 9 p.m. Halloween night, Saturday, October 31, Los Lobos with the Duhks haunts Potawatomi at 9:00 p.m. What a month of stellar entertainment!

"Spring Awakening" debuts this autumn at The Marcus Center for the Performing Arts Tuesday, Oct. 6 – Sunday, Oct. 11. This Broadway smash hit starts the 2009/2010 Broadway Season at The Marcus Center. Due to the very Mature Subject matter of Teens coming of age, the topic of sexuality, and nudity- this show may not be for all members of your family.

The following Wednesday, October 7 through Sunday, November 15 "Bunk Bed Brothers" bounces into Vogel Hall at The Marcus Center. "BBB" has Milwaukee's Court Jester, or is it King of Comedy – John McGivern and co starring, his aide de camp, Chris Tarjan. You've seen these two cut-ups cut to the quick in "Shear Madness". Don't miss their newest adventure. Please keep in mind there are only 40 performances of this, the newest of Johnny Mac vehicles. This comedy is written and directed by Pat

Hazell and Matt Goldman, these talented writers had something to do with a little TV show, about nothing, called "Seinfeld".

Milwaukee's answer to Katherine Hepburn – Angela Iannone is now playing Katherine Hepburn in "Tea At Five" by Matthew Lombardo. Thursday, October 8 – Sunday, Oct. 25 In Tandem Theatre 628 North 10th Street (10th between Michigan and Wisconsin, in the Lower Level of the "Big Red Church".)

Friday, October 9 Switch Back at Jack returns to the Second Friday of every Month. Keep in mind Halloween, 2009 Celebrated at Jack Thursday, October 29 with a return to "Karaoke Thursday" Starring at last Brett and the Switch-Tenders. This Party will also serve as a preliminary for The 5th Annual Ricfest Sing Off. A Costume Contest will also add even more fun to this ToDo!

The Room of Boom will be the place to celebrate Travis' Birthday. Saturday, 10/10/09 8:00 p.m. Including in the celebration the Live Band: Rents Due starring Matt in the Hat! What is tastier than Brandon's bleu cheese stuffed olive? You don't believe me ask Ryan. Last month David Whitney hosted "The 2nd Annual Mr. Midtown Spa Contest" I was thrilled to judge again with Ms. Ruthie and Steve from Citi-Boyz Productions. The Room of Boom was Standing Room Only enjoying the Talents of: Greg Garrison – Mr. Club Wisconsin, Easton the Hottie that won this title last year and will go on to even greater things this year, Richie Rich, Mr. LaCage who had people up and out of their seats to tip this outstanding Performer – and a little cheesecake to go with all this beefcake – the incredible Miss Shannon Dupree.

First Runner-Up of the 2009 Mr. Midtown Spa, the sensual Sebastian, leaving us all in a lather - - and the Winner representing the Spa and the state of Wisconsin – Rick. Mark my words You will be hearing, reading, and enjoying the fantastic talents of Rick this Season.

The 20th Annual AIDS Walk Wisconsin takes place on Sunday, October 11 a 5K walk along the Lakefront, with Justin Vernon of Bon Iver as the 2009 Honorary Chair. He hails from Eau Claire – & extends the invitation to one and all to "Take the next step with me". Bon Iver's commitment continues later in the day with a Concert at the Riverside. We've had some mega Stars through out the years, but this is the first one to do a full show. A percentage of the proceeds will go to ARCW as well – what a monumental way to close out a Sunday and a Walk!

The 7th Annual Taylor's Art Pop! Party brought over $6,000 – a most generous outcome in these cash strapping times we are living in. Everyone had a time of it and received a “priceless” Block of Art! Thanks Dan!

The 22nd Annual Milwaukee LGBT Film/Video Festival will take place Thursday, Oct. 15 – Sunday, Oct. 25. The Oriental, UWM Union Theatre & the Milwaukee Art Museum are the places to see the latest & greatest of this genre. Website: Arts.UWM.edu/LGBTFilms e-mail: LGBTFilm@UWM.edu or (414)229-4308. Lights, Camera, Action, – Miss Desmond.

The Milwaukee Art Museum is celebrating Andy Warhol, a leading Gay Icon of our generation now thru 01/03/10. Please see all the influences Warhol has on our lives – even today, by patronizing our internationally renowned Calatrava. Andy Warhol: The Last Decade premieres in Milwaukee, before heading on a National Tour, from works of abstraction and figuration to pop imagery and self portraiture. We are soooo fortunate!

Friday, October 16 The Marcus Center plays host to a reunion of sorts – The Fab Four – The Beatles! Yes, unfortunately half of them are dead, but for one night only “Beatlemania Now” invades the Cream City and will take you once again on that “Long and Winding Road” to “Yesterday”. “Imagine” all together once more in song.

Join HIT (the Holiday Invitational Tournament) for a One Day Getaway to Oneida Casino in Green Bay. Sunday, Oct. 18 $65. For the 10/4 Please call: Claude 933-3228 or Miss Bunny 463-9849. Good Luck!!!

Before I even attempt to recap the Softball Tournament, let me say, Cheers and good job Kris & Michael of LaCage on the unveiling of their sky high lounge. Still unnamed and not quite totally completed, this space is a stunner! Miss Lizzie Bordeaux was the first Entertainer to grace the new stage – with the girls, doing that popular Drag Anthem “You Gotta Have A Gimmick” from “Gypsy”. The next evening I was there, in a capacity crowd, enjoying cocktails and a remarkable review, from a higher perspective, and an awesome view. Luscious Lily White returned from Minneapolis and was reunited with her cohort of the days and nights of Club 219, the kittenish Kylie West. For one night only! Kylie puts together a sensational show every Friday at 11 p.m., not to be missed! The LaCage tradition continues... Enjoying the festivities: Lizzie from M's, Miss Samantha, Brad from Jack, Jerry, Roger, Tod with one D, Principal Tom, Bill Lison looking flawless, Fluid's Puddy and Dr. Matt, Jimmy-Dan, and so many others as Patrick and Brian were preparing the drinks and Kris & Michael were beaming proudly.

Kudos to the Toast of our Town Raejean Kanter and her outstanding role as Honorary Chair of the Susan G. Komen Race For The Cure (Breast Cancer Walk). Brava!

Happy Halloween, 2009 !!! Commemorated as always in the Historic Walker's Point, with The Annual Halloween Crawl Saturday, October 31.

I had an absolute ball with the Tournament being held here in our own backyard or is that ball yard? Monday – Roger, Jerry Gin&Tonic, Joe Kender, Larry, Kelly, and many, many volunteers gathered at the Summerfest Grounds to work under Darren and who wouldn't want to work under Darren? (It worked for that witch named Samantha). Our task/pleasure admitting well over 2,000 individuals to take in the glory of The Opening Ceremonies. I loved seeing Shirley Fitzpatrick and her escort Marlo, looking fabu! Shirley shared great stories about 30 years of SSBL! She tips her hat to Tommy Salzseider who is always there, Ron Burbee looking as dapper as always, I was so touched he remembered me! Tommy Salzseider - Mr. SSBL, Ms. Tracy in all her glamour, Paul the pulsating dancer, in the stylish glasses, Dr. Beto & Tim, Mr. Joe Pabst – the maker of so many dreams, and all or most of Gay Milwaukee enjoying Niki Harris, Larry Edwards AKA Tina Turner, Martha Wash, and Thelma –what legs – Houston! Ms. Ruthie welcomed them on stage, giving all a warm, humorous night and fireworks too!!!

Wednesday was The Pabst Theater and the “Talent Show” to end all talent shows! Again, Ms. Ruthie was on hand with help from other Teams/Cities' Hostesses. Ezra a former Green Bay Packer, Velveeta, Mikey, Ginger Grant, Miss Mimi Marks, and Team Members from all over the world; singing, dancing, dragging, doing stand up, a lively (and profitable) auction of CDs and T-Shirts bringing in over $14,000 the second highest amount ever raised in their history! Thanks to the mega generosity of Mr. Pabst and Mr. Wardlow. The BestD Clinic and Richard's House of Waukesha were the worthy recipients. Gathered to thrill, to the program and grandeur of this grand palace dedicated to show were: Jerry Gin&Tonic, Jeff L, B.B. & Ron, Doug Hipenbecker, John Casper, Peter Konrath, Tom & Sandy Kleeba, Baby Jane Hudson, Debi Vance, Cindy O, Tod, Lee, Joe Pabst – as in The Theater, Dr. Beto & Tim, Kruz's Jerry & Serge, Miss Tracy – even making it onto the stage! Roland, Brian, Brian, Mona, Dan Nelson, Darwin, to mention but a few. Velveeta & Happy Meal bringing the house down was my favorite part.

Onto Kruz where Motor's Bradley and Carl, Nick with mending foot, Wayne, Dennis, Mark, Keith, Maple, Brad & Rick, Walter (now seen at M's on Mondays), Clint and Friends from Club Icon, David, Steve, C.C., Tom, Brent, Bobby, and so many others sipped away the evening.

Thursday brought “Taste of Milwaukee” and “Jazz In The Park” as well as a field trip to the Hyatt Regency for a tasty China White, then onto Woody's for 2-4-1s. Jeff AKA Lukas whose film career is just taking off, Jason, Kurt & Toby, Wes & Drew, Cookie Sue, Dan & P.J., Tony, Carl, Jerry, Jerry, Steven, Michael and the wild, wild New Englanders from Connecticut: Ross, Jeff, Matt, Holmes, and many more cocktailed into the morning.

Friday The Street Festival in Walker's Point took place and ooh what fun! Everyone was there like a huge Gay Family Reunion! The weather even behaved! I met Colton Ford and his lover, thank God for a drool cup, thanks to David Whitney and Roland Hoffmann for making introductions. (I felt as if I already knew him...)

I bartended 4 – 9:30 p.m. at The Room – like every Friday and met a Chicago Team starring Javier, and Susie, Alan, Lowell, Jeff, Papa Joe & Lee, Blanche, all my Regulars AND the SoftBall-ers too! Paul, Brandon and Jeff joined the fun with me at 7 and we glided through – what a party! Dan, Joel, David, Tim, Tim, Lance and Crew did capacity until dawn's early light. From The Room, to Boom to say hi to Tim and Lance then onto the Fest, so many people, names, memories...

Jerry was working a beer tent; local artists Felix Bofil and Tom Rezza were positioned in front of Fluid selling souvenirs, Bill Wardlow and his pretty cousin Judy, as well as the fetching Fluid Fellows all en masse. Onto The Boot Camp Saloon with Sy, John, Brent, Harold, and a very friendly crowd including Lloyd and David from Florida all partaking in the pandemonium.

Saturday Thee Party was at The Harley Davidson Museum – say hi Bradley! Here we saw Ruthie, Jackie Roberts, Lady Gia, Anastasia Devereux, Shannon DuPree, and many others joining headliners Chad Michaels as Cher, and Kristine W for a fond farewell to the flawless Boys of Summer.

Here is where I reconnected with Suzi Arnold – who looks great and was all excited about her upcoming Commitment Ceremony to/with lady love, Jo, congratz and my very best wishes on your real wedding taking place on the East coast, Lou &

Scott, Jerry Warzyn, Joe Pabst, Bill (Fluid) Wardlow, Tommy Kuehl in from Minnesota, Tony M., Jeff L, Shirley Fitzpatrick and Ms. Marlo, David Rogers & Ron, Wayne, M's Debi Vance, Cindy O, David Howser, Ginger, Ross, Nick from Chicago; formerly of Milwaukee, and so many more forgive me for not listing you – ooh what a night!

Afterwards to The Room where Oblivia (Dan), Paul, Brandon, Jeff, David, Tim, Collin & Matt, Ryan, Jim, and a trolley bringing Softball Players galore out to play, and played we did... On the way home – where else to go than The Ball Game? (Where it all started way back when) Ken took care of us, again a lot of friendly faces and fun to be had by all toasting to the success of the Tournament!

I also liked the history of the Tournament being recorded, however a few errors were documented and at this time I would like to correct. The Gay Chorus (we didn't even have a name) started rehearsals in the spring of 1985 for the Labor Day performance of the World Series '85. Ron (Rona) Thate of the then uber popular M&M Club organized a group of Gay People including Women (Diane "Legs" Gregory and Nancy Doughty) to sing. Under the musical prowess of Bernie Sans, Scott (Florentine Opera) Stewart, Ned Schamski, Joey Appleman, Jerry Whiz, and more than 50 individuals who serened the historic weekend in. We (yes, I was there too!) enjoyed making beautiful music and it blossomed into what would be known as The Fest City Singers... No offense, I just want to set our Gay record "straight".

Speaking of reunions and trips down Memory Lane, Bob Schmidt the beloved Bar Owner of the much mourned M&M Club paid a visit home. Bob was in town for a family gathering and squeezed an evening of cocktails with his other "family" Rona, ChiChi, Chris, Chad, Jonas, Dan, among others at M's. BTW – Bob still looks like a million dollars!

Greetings Gossip Mongers, It has been awhile since my last sojourn in print with all the boys of NAGAAAFEST in town. They kept everyone busy or at least some of the bars busy while they were in town. Congrats to all the hard work everyone put through to make this such a wonderful event to showcase Milwaukee and the Gay community in this great city.

This will probably be a short column since I have not been making the rounds lately since I quit smoking so watch out if I come off bitchy and do not let me bum any while I am out. So let's get to the gossip and happenings in the last month or so.

To begin with again Miss Lizzie would like to apologize to Miss Mona who had been omitted during the thankyou's on stage at the street festival. Definitely was not intentional on her behalf she had got caught up in the moment. So please accept his warmest apologies.

Packer season is back and a number of places are doing beer bust and specials for you Packer Backers. M's is joining the fray with a beer bust and food as well as shots whenever the Packers make a touchdown so joining Chrissy and Debi on Sundays!

I had a tantrum and tiara moment with a prominent local celebrity during the street fest. The battle of the Gorgons was short lived with Hobbit jumping into the fray. Cooler heads convened so there was no bloodshed. Speaking of bloodshed I hope Velveeta is recuperating from her third foray under the knife. Maybe this one will be the charm. I think he is trying out for the remake of the Stockard Channing role in the movie "The Girl Most Likely To".

Peter Konrath of the Rick Correa scholarship fame better known as Ric Fest will launch their next fundraiser at M's on Oct. 17th at 10 p.m. So watch for followups to launch your star in karaoke and help support a great cause as well.

Victor and Aryn recently returned from a vacation/casting call for Bel Ami video recently in Prague and Berind. They brought back their blue balls I mean blue boys back sitting proudly at M's. Unfortunately that was not the only one who had blue balls after a recent night out partying at my usual spots at Boom/Room, Triangle and Kruz with Bobby, Lance, KV, Dan from Kenosha and Bi/buy me Matt. P.S. sorry for the pda displayed by moi and James I advise not to view your security camera from outside the bar unless you have a strong stomach.

I want to thank all the xtra bartenders who helped out during NAGAAAFEST Michael, Matt and Colin, Matt from Triangle, Ron and Cotti from Luscious and Fred fame, Josh from Elsa's, J.C. from J.C.'s pub and grille, June Herman, Ashley, and Sparky. Check out Sparky on Tuesdays at M's and order one of his special shots.

Thanks to Britty for getting me online and a facebook page so check me out at charles braeger on facebook and if you have any gossip for me that's fit to print or any upcoming events you can email me at . Hope to see you all at M's third anniversary and if any of my drag sisters would like to perform for this auspicious event email or call the bar. The date of celebration will be October 10th. So keep the talk cheap and the liquor flowing Love Chi-Chi are old enough to make your own damn decisions and have the right to do to your body what you will. So to your peers, if they can't deal with your piercings then maybe you should find some better friends. As far

Well here we are again, I hope you all had fun last month where ever you decided to celebrate the end of summer. Which now brings us to this month, October! That right it is October, the month where even you can look pretty by putting a mask on and no one will call the cops on you, well except maybe a few of you, but I don't want to go there. Also in October is Football, you may ask me why I decided to tell you all that, and to be honest I am trying to figure that out too. Either way, who cares! Let's get on with it! The thing that we are going to talk about this month is nothing! That's right nothing; this month is completely devoted to reader mail. So I want to thank all of you who write in so regularly and let's get to answering some of your questions.

Brent,

My Girlfriend and I have an argument over which is the best way to keep our piercings clean. She has a hood and I have a nipple. Which is the best way?
----Sarah & Jessie

Well, the best way to keep both of them clean in my opinion is antibacterial soap. It kills bacteria but is not too harsh as to irritate the piercing. Just remember to only clean the piercing twice per day at the most. Cleaning your piercing any more than that can end up just irritating the piercing and causing it to take longer to heal.

Dear Brent,

Long time reader, first time writer. I was wondering how old is too old to get a piercing? I am in my fifties and I really want some piercings but I am worried about how my peers might react. Also are there any added health issues for older people when they get pierced?
----Paul.

Well, first thanks for being an avid reader of my column, and kudos for having the courage to write in, now on to your questions. First in my experience as far as peers go, I say to hell with them. You as your second question, health issues are always an important thing to consider when getting a piercing at any age. However as you get older time takes its toll and the body gets sick more often and things of the like, but when it comes to piercings the only additional concerns are if you have any health conditions that would hinder your body's ability to heal, such as diabetes. As long as you are free of conditions which could hinder your healing, or are on medication to offset these hindrances then you will be fine. Thanks for the E-mail Paul.

Brent,

I want to get into Play piercing how do I do this?
----C.P.

Temporary Piercings, also known as play piercings. (Ok you kinksters; break out your Crisco and paper towels) Play piercings are piercings done anywhere on the body but there is no jewelry inserted. The purpose of these piercings is to push the person receiving them to their limits. As well as pushing limits this form of play forces the body to produce endorphins creating a natural high. These piercings are done with very thin needles; usually 22ga to 27ga, by using these thin hypodermic needles there is usually very little blood loss and no permanent marks. These piercings will heal completely in roughly one to two weeks. Please though keep in mind that this is a very dangerous thing to get into if you do not know what you are doing. I definitely recommend you speak with someone who has done this in the past and knows what they are doing before you even attempt to do something like this.

Well it looks like I am out of room again. Please keep those emails coming in, they really do brighten up my day. Well except for the ones that force me to drink heavily.
