Welcome to Ruthie's Bitchin' Kitchen

Cupcakes, ahoy! February played host to the Iron Cupcake Professional/Amateur Competition. Dozens upon dozens of bakers whipped up hundreds of cuppies for the event that took place at MSOE and benefited WMSE 91.7 FM. I was lucky enough to emcee the Sunday morning event and helped play host to Duff Goldman of the Food Network's show who donated a percentage of the profits of their Iron Cupcake bookstore to the Milwaukee LGBT Community Center! Thanks guys!

As March rolls in, so does the LGBT Community Center's (real) grand opening party! Celebrate the center's new home (252 E. Highland Ave) on March 12 with food, drinkies and a live auction. Best of all, the night features hilarious comedienne Nadya Ginsburg of YouTube fame. Nadya will be performing her side-splitting, one-woman show "The Madonnalogues" that night, featuring her takes on Cher, Britney and, of course, the material girl as well. Visit www.mkelgbt.org for more details. I had the pleasure of interviewing Nadya for the cover story of "Quest" magazine, and I have to say, she's an absolute stitch. Pick up a copy of "Quest" to see what I mean.

"Ace of Cakes."

Duff judged the competition, creating his own categories and announcing the winners himself. He also signed copies of his new book, "Ace of Cakes: Inside the World of Charm City Cakes." Other food celebs included Michelle and Vinny Garcia of Bleeding Hearts Bakery, who also signed copies of their books and posed for photos.

Organized by my friend, Milwaukee's very own Cupcake Queen – Sandy Ploy, the event ushered in a whopping 2,000 attendees! Needless to say, the bake-off was sold out, and Duff promised to return to Milwaukee on New Year's Eve with his band and take the Polar Bear Plunge the following morning. What a honey bear! Special thanks to Boswell Book Company

Later this month, you can Party with Heart for Camp Heartland. The fun takes place March 26 at Potawatomi Casino, 8:00 to midnight. If you want to get your party on early, swing by The WhereHouse. For a simple donation, you'll be treated to food, drink specials and a show including my gal pals Karen Valentine, Goldie Adams, Bambi, Maple Veneer and more.

You'll also want to check out the musical "Mother Courage" at Off the Wall Theatre. Running March 24 through April 3, this revised version of one of the greatest anti-war plays ever written is sure to make you think while entertaining you as well. It's a great, change-of-pace way to spend a night in Milwaukee. See www.offthewalltheatre.com for ticket information.

That should be enough to get you through this chilly month of March...and don't even get me started on St. Patrick's Day!!! I'm going to forgo my Bitchin'Kitchen this month, in favor of a few reader questions that have been piling up. That said, grab a cold beer or a hot toddy and enjoy some reader letters with me.

Dear Ruthie,

I'm in love! I'm thinking about asking the woman I've been dating to move in with me, but I'm not sure the time is right. I'd like to ask her right now, but I don't know. We have been exclusive for 3 months. Some friends tell me to go for it, other say to wait a bit longer. Why? We're in love. But, 3 months really isn't that long when you think about it. What do you think? How long should we date before moving in together?

Love and kisses, Mac 'n' Cheesy

Dear Cheesy,

This reminds me of an old joke: What do two lesbians do on the second date? Move in together. What do two gay guys do on the second date? What second date?

Seriously, though, I've gotten this question before, and my answer is always the same. I don't care whether you're women or men, newly out or longtime lady-lovers....I suggest dating for a year before moving in together.

Why wait so long? It's simple, damnit! You need to date for a year so you can understand what your lover is like over the course of a full 12 months. What sort of things do they like to do in the summertime? Do they get depressed in the winter? Is it important to them to go to church on religious holidays? How much time do they spend with their family over the course of year? Does their occupation involve a busy season? If so, how does that affect your relationship?

These are all questions that a year of dating will answer, so put your domestic dreams on hold for a bit. A year will pass by before you know it!

Dear Ruthie,

Over dinner last week, some friends and I got into a discussion about how many dates should occur between two men before they have sex. Some said three dates, some said two dates and one thought it was perfectly fine to screw like monkeys on the first date.

At that point, my friend Joe said, "We should ask Aunt Ruthie!" So, Aunt Ruthie, what do you think? How long should men wait to strip down and hit the sheets?

Luv ya, Dinner Club Query

Dear Query,

Aunt Ruthie (?) has an answer for you, but you're not going to like it. The correct answer is...there is no correct answer. (Don't you hate it when THAT'S the answer?! Well, in this case, it's true.)

I don't care what any fancy-smancy psychologist tells me—men think differently about sex than women. Period. For the most part, men can easily separate sex from love. That said, you stick two men together who are attracted to each other and the temptation to drop trou is going to arise sooner rather than later. That said, giving into that temptation is really up to the people involved. There's no right answer, since the answer depends on what each of the parties want from the experience.

Let's say you go on a date with a complete douche (as the kids say), but the douche is hotter than Ricky Martin jagged up on Viagra. You know that you have no desire to see the guy again, but you wouldn't mind running your tongue over his abs for an hour or two. There's your answer! Grab a few condoms and have yourself a ball if that's what you want to do.

Now, let's say you're on a dinner date and things are going well. In fact, you know there's great chemistry between you and the hunk across the dinner table. If you'd like to see him again, hold off on sex! Keep your legs together, and get to know him better. If you think he's the one, you may want to lock your knees for several dates. After all, if he's Mr. Right, he's not going to go anywhere just because you won't sugar his nuts right away.

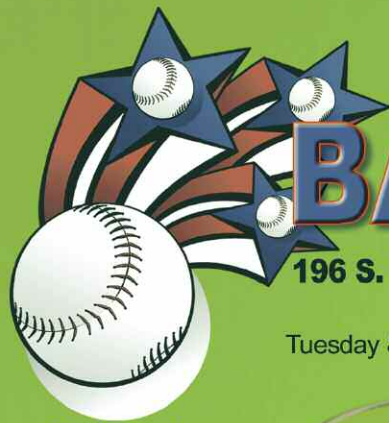

Speaking of nuts, I'll be back next time with a special edition of Ruthie's Bitchin' Kitchen, so be sure to send your recipes my way! Remember if I publish your dish, you'll get a free Bitchin' Kitchen T-shirt.

Send your recipes and questions to me at dearmsruthie@yahoo.com or drop me a line on FaceBook via Ruthie DearRuthie! Thanks kids, and have a helluva March!

Cordially Yours

by Michael Johnston

March is once again upon us, are we all ready for our "Spring Awakening"? Hopefully the worst part of the winter is behind us and blue skies will be on the horizon.

The mellow sound of Merle Haggard with Kris Kristofferson will be right here in the Cream City Wednesday, March 2 and Thursday, March 3 at the delightfully refurbished Northern Lights Theater at Potawatomi Bingo Casino at 8:00 p.m.

On Friday, March 4 "Blues at the Crossroads: The Robert Johnson Centennial Concert" also at 8 p.

"White folks don't understand about the Blues, they hear it come out, but they don't understand how it got there" – Ma Rainey.

To hear the wit and wisdom of the late, great Ma Rainey – the Ma of the Blues check out the Milwaukee Rep's latest effort. The Milwaukee Rep will proudly present August Wilson's "Ma Rainey's Black Bottom" Tuesday, March 1 – Sunday, March 27 Quadracci Powerhouse. To the Blues in the night! Please call: 414-224-9490 or milwaukeeerep.com

The Rep also offers: "Bombs-itty of Errors" an ad-Raptation of William Shakespeare's "The Comedy of Errors" Friday, March 18 – Sunday, May 8 The Stackner Cabaret.

During these troubling times it's nice to know that the sun will come out tomorrow – starting Thursday, March 3 through May Day, Sunday, May 1 "Annie" will be lighting up the Fireside Theatre in Fort Atkinson.

The Sunset Playhouse – Elm Grove is doing Mitch Albom's best selling novel – "Tuesdays with Morrie" Thursday, March 10 – Sunday, April 3.

The Milwaukee LGBT Community Center will be celebrating their new haven – Saturday, March 12 with the "Official Grand Opening" The Blatz 252 East Highland Avenue "Welcome to your New Home!" Midday is a "Family Fanfare" LGBT Families, Children, Grandchildren and the alike. The evening offers – "A Sumptuous Soiree" for LGBT Adults and Allies. For more information: galamkelgbt.org

With St. Patrick's Day happening this month (Thursday, March 17) besides feasting on corn beef – remember to drop by The Ball Game and wish Rick, Danny, Gary, Debi, Ken, The AARP Table and Company, a Happy 41st Anniversary. Remember Thursdays are Debi Day!

Always a great opportunity for all to turn out and pay homage to Milwaukee's Queen Mum of Gay Bars, the oldest, Gay-Owned/Operated Bar – Bravo!!!

Dublin's Traditional Irish Cabaret featuring Noel V. Gininity will "shamrock" their way into your heart – Monday, March 14 and Tuesday, March 15 @ 7:30 p and Wednesday, March 16 at 11:00 a.m. Vogel Hall of the Marcus Center for the Performing Arts.

Where the Story Sings! The Skylight Opera Theatre has for your entertainment – "Cosi Fan Tutte" Friday, March 18 – Sunday, April 3. 414-291-7800 www.skylightopera.com

The other uber-popular Opera Company in town – The Florentine Opera Company brings to the boards "The Italian Girl in Algiers" – L'ita Liana in Algeri by Gioacchino Rossini – sung in Italian, with English translations. Directed by Skylight's William Theisen. Friday, March 18 through Sunday, March 20 at the Marcus Center. www.florentineopera.org

Please don't forget the Opera Social held at The Room of Boom, Sunday, March 13 at 7 p.m. Providing a chance to enjoy a very informal chat about Opera – the particular show being featured, meet a Star or two, and hear the talented Florentine Interns raise their voices in song. This function also provides you the opportunity to take in the new color scheme of The Room. These Sundays before each Florentine Opera Production are truly an extraordinary opportunity to familiarize yourself with this jewel in Milwaukee's cultural tiara.

For the budget conscience and these days that is all of us – here is a special offer: Three Great Companies. Three Amazing Shows. One Incredible Price. Skylight Opera Theater, Florentine Opera Company, and The Next Act Theatre provide a passport to flirting, exotic adventure and dreaming. "Cosi Fan Tutte", "The Italian Girl in Algiers", and "A Sleeping Country" – all for $100 a savings of 40% over individually purchased tickets. To get your ticket to three nights of live entertainment, please call: 414-291-5700 ext 224. By supporting this pot pourri of music and theater – more combinations of this may be made available.

The Peking Acrobats commemorating their twenty-fifth, with a Silver Anniversary Tour – including a visit here to The Marcus Center – Sunday, March 27 is an absolute must see. China's most gifted Tumblers, Contortionists, Jugglers, Cyclists, and Gymnasts will bring their celebrated "Circus" to Brew City, step right up, for Three-Rings of international delight!!!

The Room of Boom held a "Show It Off" Contest – giving you all that opportunity to take to the stage and be a Star! We were fortunate to hear the smooth sound of Jonathan, all the way from Chicago, who came and did a "Nice and Slow" number that earned him First Place and $100!

Second Spot was secured by the soulful sounds of Shane garnering him $75. Shane channeled Etta James and did "Something's Got a Hold on Me" – I think it was the impressed audience. They loved him! An American Idol! Shane's music can be found at: youtube.com/Shane03a or search Shane A Muric on Facebook. Donte did a dreamy, interpretative dance to Beyonce's "Get My Body" – and yes, we did! He rounded out the top three prizes with winning a $50 bounty.

Lance Brannan opened our Contest, bravely, with a hysterical stand up routine of comic current events to rival that of Jon Stewart and/or Robert Colbert. And Tristan and gal pal Alicia brought down the house with a marvelous improv, send-up of Batman! Taking ad-libs suggestions from the capacity audience and flying with them. Thanks also to our dynamic Judges: Douglas, Raejean, and Ryan.

The following night "A Fleshjack Party" took place – five actual fleshjacks were given out! It is the number # 1 selling male sex toy! The only disappointment was no demo by that hot bartender Brad.

Welcome back Lance! I got a ton of calls, e-mails, etc... about Lance leaving well yes he left, for a Hawaiian vacation. He has now returned, rested, tanned, and you should sample his nuts – Macadamia, of course!

This Is It! has added some very attractive eye candy behind the bar, including Austin making his debut as a bartender, as well as seasoned professional George Schneider.

George & Brandon (from The Wisconsin Club) Hosted a wonderful "House Warming Party" with Brandon moving into their tres chic eastside condo. Celebrants included: Ryan, Michael, Abigail, George's This Is It! Colleague Jerry Gin&Tonic (returning to the bar on Fridays Happy Hour 3 – 8 p.m. after taking a brief sabbatical) as well as many more merry makers as young as their waste lines!

I understand I have a loyal Reader from of all places – Fresno, CA! Travis Hawley! Welcome! Thanks for reading "Cordially yours,"/OutBound, Cousin Dearest (Patrick Farrell) and I look forward to your impending Milwaukee sojourn.

I've had the pleasure of grazing at Bartolotta's latest venture: The Harbor House 550 North Harbor Drive (414)395-4900, not to be confused with Gregg's & Eddie's popular nite spot The Harbor Room.

The Harbor House takes the place of where Pieces of Eight for many years to everyone's confusion and amazement was housed. Harbor Drive finally has a venue worthy of the address and view! The restaurant itself is sleek, white, and reminds me of being at sea. The service is timed to perfection. The selections on the bill of fare – are as expected fresh, tempting seafood, a phenomenal grouping of oysters and fresh jewels from the waters all over the country are featured. Including: Seafood, Steaks, Raw Bar, Cocktails on Milwaukee's Lakefront, you can't go wrong patronizing this palace of palate pleasing.

In my three visits I was most impressed and have highly recommended this establishment to all. Milwaukee now has a star on the shore – thanks to Bartolotta's and Michael Cudahy – we are all the richer for it!

Saturday, March 26 Maple Veneer, Goldie Adams, Bambi Adams, among others will join me in once again celebrating Camp Heartland. Tall Keith's Annual Camp Heartland Fundraising Event will take place at The WhereHouse.

This Camp provides an outing for children affected/affected by HIV/AIDS. I think this is the third or fourth year – if you're free drop in and bring a financial gift for the Camp, 4 – 8 p.m. Showtime: 6:00 p.

Shout out to Boris & Doris of The Shepherd Express, thanks for your kind and sweet words in your recent column. They do give good ink!

Congratz to John Weiler, Mr. Leather Man – on being indoctrinated into The Argonauts, as an Honorary Member. I should be so lucky!

February is Bar Month – who knew? Glad you all survived! There was a list of the Top 20 Favorite Bar Names in Milwaukee- #1 is My Office! Three other drinking establishments that we're all familiar with were in the line up: # 5 D.I.X., # 14 Fluid, # 17 The Ball Game, tying with Not Nancy's, Rim shot, please – if they only knew...

Another regrettable milestone to report, the passing of Chuck Ciciello (nee Balistreri) the man who brought The Factory into our world. In later years he was at the helm of Club 219, where for many years the HIT Welcome Show was held. Chuck was always a gracious host and besides running a favorite club at night, during the day he was very devoted to SSBL and softball games. You'll be missed.

And Alvin (Tuni) Harris, Jr. a very popular bartender, who was bigger than life, that made Sunday afternoons at Cest La Vie an institution for many years has passed.

I'm off to San Francisco visiting Dr. Lance and Adam – so ends another effort on my part. May you enjoy the longer days and brighter sun!

Please remember it's the glamour, not the grammar, as I remain Still Cordially yours,.

Well here we are preparing our green duds for Good old St Patrick's Day. Just remember, what goes in green usually comes out green, so don't blame your trick for the evening on that! Well March has come and hopefully some warmer temps come with it, I mean jeeze my jewelry gets cold awfully fast! With March also we are getting closer to Pride and the parade and the festival are really gearing up from the rumblings I hear. Check out their websites at www.pridefest.com and www.prideparademke.org. Also don't forget that both of these organizations have facebook pages so like them and stay involved! Well onto my rant and rave about well, nothing really.

One more little note I want to tell you all. It's Anniversary Time! This column marks the 6yr anniversary of this column and I just want to thank our editor, Mark Mariucci (congrats on 10 years of Outbound too by the way), for printing the wonderful magazine. Thanks to all my loyal readers who read my column every month, despite how bitter or crappy the column is written! Thank you all and I hope I have the opportunity to keep writing for another 6 years!

This month I figured I should talk more about the common question that we get in the shop. The most common is "Is it gonna hurt?" Well there is only one response you can have to a question like that. "Miss that will be five dollars to answer any stupid questions you have." You have to realize that you are putting a hole in your body. There is going to be some discomfort with that. However the amount of pain you actually feel during the piercing is over so quickly that you rarely even realize that the piercing has been done.

Another stupid thing that people do constantly is not listening to the piercer. To be very honest last week I had a lady come in to get her navel pierced and I told her to lie down. Well she laid down alright. . . on her stomach. I was very tempted at that point to ask her if she had children, for if she did, I am sure that we are all massively screwed come the future. We can tell a customer to look straight ahead at us and all they do is turn their head and lean on stuff. Have you ever wanted to smack the hell out of someone?? Stop in the shop sometime and I am sure you will meet someone who needs to get hit. (But beware, if you want to hit me I charge. And I may be easy but I sure as hell ain't cheap!)

And as I sit here in my office staring at the deceptively nice looking day outside, I can't help but wonder what the hell is going to happen when I am too old to wipe my own ass. And seeing some of the people of today coming in the shop I have but one simple request. When I am so old that I can't wipe my own ass, just take me out into the field and put me out of my misery like old yeller.

Well now that I have ranted and raved for a little while how about some reader mail.

Brent,

I was wondering how do you learn to become a piercer?

Dan

Well Dan you have to first make sure you are interested in the career. And secondly you have to find someone who is willing to teach you how to perform the art. Also and this may be the hardest part, making sure that the person who teaches you knows what the hell they are talking about.

Brent,

I want to get my dick pierced, but I am really emberassed cause I have a really small pecker. Can I still get my dick pierced?

Little Prick

Well Prick, you can definitely still get you dick pierced. And trust me there is no embarrassment issue at our store, we have seen it all, including dicks I had to go chopping through hair to get to. So don't worry about it.

And so this just about wraps up my column for this month. I hope you have a great St. Patrick's Day and most of all I hope you remember at least most of it. Don't forget to drop me an e-mail at Avantgarde@voyager.net.

COMEDIAN LESLIE JORDAN TO HOST "THE HOOKIES" THE 5TH ANNUAL INTERNATIONAL ESCORT AWARDS SHOW

Presented by Rentboy.com in association with BPX: The Black Party® Expo

Emmy® Award-winning comedian and actor Leslie Jordan will host "The Hookies: The 5th Annual International Escort Awards", on Friday, March 18th at Manhattan's Roseland Ballroom. Presented by Rentboy.com, the world's largest male escort site, the show celebrates the best in the male escort industry with awards in 15 categories including Best Newcomer, Best Daddy and the night's top prize, Mr. International Escort 2010. "The Hookies: The 5th Annual International Escort Awards" is the official opening event for BPX: Black Party Expo Weekend.

"Having hired my first hooker at 14 when I gave a boy my lunch money out in the woods, I am truly honored and excited to be hosting this prestigious event," said Leslie Jordan from London where he is currently starring in his one-man West End show, My Trip Down the Pink Carpet. "Let those boys know that Little Sugar Daddy is in the house and looking for someone to spoil!"

Mr. Jordan won an Emmy® Award for his portrayal of the gleefully bitchy Beverley Leslie on TV's Will and Grace. He is also recognized nationally for his role as "Brother Boy" in the screen adaptation of Logo-TV's Sordid Lives.

Founded in 1997, Rentboy.com is the world's largest male escort website, connecting men with over 72,000 working boys in 160 cities around the world. The International Escort Awards is Rentboy.com's opportunity to recognize and applaud the thousands of escorts and masseurs who put their effort, courage, and skill into the underappreciated escort industry every day.

"The Hookies: The 5th Annual International Escort Awards", takes place March 18, from 11:00 p.m. to 1:00 a.m. at Roseland Ballroom: 239 W. 52 Street, New York City, as part of the BPX: Black Party Expo Weekend.
