MARK'S REMARKS...

Firstly, we congratulate Bill Menieur and the entire PrideFest community for a job done exceedingly well! A great time in our community's history! (Did you notice the general positive tone of the media coverage this year?! I think it speaks well for all of us. Progress is being made.)

Additional congrats go out to Dean at The Blue Lite, Sheboygan, as their 2nd anniversary is observed Friday, July 1. Fine job, Dean. We wish you continued success in the coming years!

And, WOW! Rod's, Madison, has a 15th anniversary on Thursday, July 7. Recording/video star David Burrill will entertain. I remember the opening; had just turned ten (Ya, right!)

We are off to Stonewall 25; our cameras will click like crazy, as you'll see in our next issue, which hits the stands July 13. (Deadline, July 6) Have a wonderful 4th week-end!

MIL-MAIDS CONTRIBUTE $6,261 TO MADISON AIDS SUPPORT NETWORK!

The Directors of Mil-Maids IX are proud to announce that thanks to all your support, this year's donation from the tournament to the Madison Aids Support Network (MASN) was $6,261. We extend our appreciation to each and every bowler who participated that day, as well as the many businesses who, through their generous support, helped us, once again, to cross that magical $6,000 mark!

We also express our gratitude to Ray's Bar and Grill for donating the trophies for this year's tourney, Fyfe's Corner Bistro for allowing us to descend upon their establishment for the Banquet &

Awards Presentation, and to Club 3054 for their generous support.

This was a particularly difficult year for us as we lost one of our co-directors, Brian Shoop, in 1993; we dedicated our entire efforts to his memory.

Next year's tournament will be held April 29 in Milwaukee!
