MARK'S REMARKS...

With this issue of QUEST, we've completed a full half year of publishing! thank you!

The predictions were hot and heavy this would not happen, but this great American system of ours has prevailed again!

You can count on a new issue of QUEST every other Wednesday (Thurs. outside Milwaukee)! We're counting on your continued support, of course.

Please permit me a public acknowledgment to Joe Mallien of Milwaukee for his continued advice and moral support. No wonder his admirers are Legion!

Miss Gay Guernsey Gala

The Miss Gay Guernsey Gala pageant date has been set for Saturday, August 20 in Green Bay at Za's - 1106 Main Street. This fundraiser event now three years running will attempt to raise badly needed money for the Center Project Emergency Fund. Although the pageant is expected to draw many eager to catch a rare performance of such "famous celebrities" such as "The Grand Madame" or "Connie Franchise", the real action is in the voting. Each of Green Bay's four bars is sponsoring two people. Patrons vote for any of the eight contestants at any of the four bars by spending $1.00 per vote for the person of their choice. Voting is going on now and ends with the pageant. Last year was a big success & the promoter's are hoping to exceed last year's total.
