MARK'S REMARKS...

Here we are again, summer beginning to wind down as MAPFEST revs up for Labor Day weekend, &, ultimately, a return to our fall & winter schedules.

It appears a lot of our favorite haunts are well into their fall plans...& it looks like lots of fun is in store for all of us!

You will note we're publishing our first Nitelife Bar Guide, a new feature, in this issue. We need your help to complete it & would appreciate it if you'd make a point to check it out & follow through. (QUEST wants very much to serve everyone well; your help is needed.)

Our staff will be doing an exclusive interview with recording artist/video star David Burrill, for our next issue. It will be quite interesting & revealing (David had just gotten out of the shower before answering our first round of questions by telephone from his Florida home.)

Look for David Burrill to be touring our area next month — so far, Rockford, Milwaukee and Green Bay are on his itinerary.

As usual, your input continues to be much appreciated as QUEST moves toward its first birthday!

EDITOR'S NOTE: A recent letter we received from the co-chairmen of ARCW is worthy of publication without editing in any way. Their letter follows:

It's been an historic and exciting year in Gay & Lesbian History: the March on Washington, the Gay Games, Stonewall 25, the success of the motion picture "Philadelphia." The impetus of all this activity stems from the most Gay/Lesbian friendly administration in history and, sadly, the continued increase in HIV infection in the Gay community.

The AIDS Resource Center of Wisconsin (ARCW) has had very strong support from the Gay & Lesbian community and is pleased to announce the 9th annual MAPFEST. This year's MAPFEST will be held on Sunday, Sept. 4, 12 noon until 10:30 p.m. at the Performing Art Center's Peck Pavilion and riverfront grounds in downtown Milwaukee. MAPFEST is held to honor the Gay and Lesbian community for the loyal support given throughout the AIDS epidemic.

MAPFEST is excited to welcome international recording artists THE FLIRTATIONS and the jazz group SUEDE. MAPFEST also features a variety of local and regional Gay & Lesbian entertainers throughout the day. This year's Marketplace will feature an expanded variety of unique items for sale. New to this year's event will include an all day Dance tent that will feature the latest in dance and alternative music.

We also hope you will attend the special Balloon release and dedication that will pay a colorful tribute to our family members and loved ones who have died of AIDS. This touching ceremony will be held at dusk along the shores of the Milwaukee River on the MAPFEST grounds.

We would like to extend a special invitation this year to our out of town supporters! During the past year, our friends from around Wisconsin have contributed support to ARCW. Please plan to spend the Labor Day holiday weekend in Milwaukee. We welcome you to contact us for suggestions on local accommodations and further information. Bars and groups from around the state are encouraged to carpool and wear your own T-shirt, etc. as a way of recognition.

Continue the MAGIC OF '94 by attending this year's MAPFEST! Please feel free to contact us through the ARCW offices at 1-800-359-9272 if we can be of assistance to your group in making arrangements to attend this year's MAPFEST. Thank you for your support!

Sincerely, Lowe Peterson and John Goff

This is a new feature we are adding to Quest which will eventually replace the Directory. Our hope is this listing will be a big help in selecting places you'd like to try out that you haven't been to before. Wisconsin Gay bars are a wealth of diversity, and here we hope you will Discover which ones are just right for you. We will later add Gay owned or "friendly" businesses as well as service organizations.

This list is by no means complete yet. It would help us complete the list with greater accuracy if our readers and the bar owners can fill in information for bars either not yet listed or incomplete. Please send your comments to Quest, P.O. Box 1961, Green Bay, WI 54301
