Mark's Remarks...

I wanted to take a moment and thank everyone who has been sending me notes concerning Quest. All the kind words are encouraging to say the least. I wanted to share this tidbit I just downloaded from E-mail off America Online: "I wanted to drop you a line thanking you for a GREAT magazine. I work in Milwaukee, but travel all over the upper mid-west. Your zine helps me to find like minded people and locations in the state. The calendar is always current.

Thanks for the up to date information flow." (MB)
It's comments like these that keep us going! Of course I also thank our advertisers who believe in us and make Quest possible in the first place!

As we continue to grow we will be able to add more things like stories or articles on gay related subjects. Anyone interested in doing a piece should contact me with your proposal soon. See below for address or our E-mail address over the Internet.

In this issue we have Halloween pictures that happened on Saturday for Milwaukee and the Fox Valley. We will have Madison's pictures and the Triangle's party featured in our next issue, hopefully. Also look for Pageant pictures in that issue!

Until then... Thanks again!

THE BLUE LITE

CC: Some of the same great characters will be back - such as Barbra Streisand. Last year I thought I'd give Babs a rest, but my audiences were not as eager to let her go. I soon found myself back in Barbra garb and wig. She's definitely a crowd pleaser and probably the largest gay icon.

Eunice P. Hole, my own creation and the overall crowd favorite, will be back in next year's tour with more of her wacky antics. She has become the 'mascot' of the CC Rae Show.

After six years of impersonating PeeWee and the Church Lady, I've decided to put them to rest. I feel burned out on these characters....it's time to move on. They will be replaced with amusing new characters such as Morticia Addams (from the Addams Family), Linda Richman (from SNL's Coffee Talk) and some new character creations of my own which I'm not ready to divulge, including my new puppetry contraption.

QUEST: As you travel the country, do you notice a difference in your audiences from state to state?

CC: Oh, yes! It also varies from city to city and club to club. I notice that the smaller the town, the more appreciative the audience. It also depends on the type of clientele. Although the enthusiasm varies from place to place, I generally get a terrific response to the show. Touring has been a very wonderful experience!

QUEST: With your third year of touring about to begin, can you look back at the beginning of your career and share some thoughts?

CC: I began by entering lip sync contests in Green Bay and Appleton, Wisconsin. Comedy was my first choice; dance my second; female impersonations my third. I was never interested in "drag" and only pursued it because I found myself envious of the attention female impersonators were getting. I dared myself to be as good at it as the others, perhaps even better. In most ways, I think I've succeeded, although there's always room for improvement. For example, I'm still learning about make-up. Some impersonators can complete their make-up job in 20-30 minutes. It still takes me a whole hour to finish.

QUEST: Thinking back to the beginning of your career, did you have any idea you would become as successful as you have?

CC: Not a clue! If someone would have told me this is how it would eventually be, I would have laughed in their face. When I began touring I really had to 'pound the pavement' to get bookings. Now the clubs are calling me before I can get to them. It's a great feeling.

QUEST: Is there anyone you would consider 'most influential' in helping you get started?

CC: Jim Suthers (a Wisconsin native, now living in L.A.). I learned a great deal from Jim about make-up, props and set building, as well as writing monologue material. He was a great teacher.

QUEST says quite plainly: We believe The CC Rae Show is unique, hot, hilarious, fast-paced, simply wonderful....and an excellent booking for any club in the country. It can be a special treat for patrons and a very profitable venture for the club.

Carmella Marcella Garcia, two-time national title holder, says: "The CC Rae Show is one of the top three female impersonator shows in the country!"

Norma Krisie, owner of the Miss Gay America Pageant, says: "CC Rae is excellent!"

Brandy Alexander, owner of the Miss Gay World Pageant, says: "CC Rae is phenomenal! Our city has never seen anything like her!"

Halloween seems to bring out the "freak" in just about all of us. David Shore, Eric Sobush, Ken Kujava & Za captured the pictures on these pages. Included are pictures from UW Milwaukee's Gay fraternity, Lambda Delta Phi. One highlight in Green Bay were a group known as "The President's Wives" It was the best parody I've seen yet!

LEGAL SNAFU CAUSES POSTPONEMENT OF VUK'S OPENING

The headline says it all! Owner Tom Vuk says he is befuddled. "I have no idea whatsoever what may be holding up our license, and the re-opening of my bar. We have zero violations on our license....period."

He continued, "I am confident we'll be ready to open in several weeks, hopefully." QUEST will keep you posted!

CC RAE PLANS AN ALL NEW 1995-96 COMEDY/VARIETY SHOW!

By the end of this year, national touring star and Wisconsin native, CC Rae, will have taken his show to 42 of the contiguous United States. His one-man show, which includes impersonations of PeeWee Herman, Peg Bundy, the Church Lady, Barbra Streisand, Eunice P. Hole and more, is headed for a facelift and a fabulous two-year extended tour to include Canada and the Virgin Islands.

CC Rae currently performs an average of four nights a week. The '94 tour included 150 cities, and CC Rae plans to increase that to 200 cities in 1995. The new show debuts in February, with most of the winter bookings cleverly scheduled in the southern states.

Randy Bouche', a/k/a CC Rae, took an hour from his hectic schedule to talk with QUEST about his career.

QUEST: We understand your '95-'96 tour show is in the works. Can you give us any details about its contents? Any new characters?
