Top 12 Music Playlists

and some various ramblings by ZA

Now that summer is coming to an end and some of you are getting ready to go back to school, I thought it would be a good time to look back and reflect on the dance music scene these past months. Generally it's been a good four months with a lot of great stuff coming out. Video dance music has been a little scarce, but August seems to have things catching up a bit. The trend to re-do every disco classic that ever was is continuing much to my displeasure! Somebody please tell the record companies that a few of us DJs are old enough to have played all those songs the first time around! (Of course I wouldn't be speaking of myself or Kimberly Ann! We just look like we've been around the block six or seven times!)

At any rate, I spent a week with my DJ friend Chris Racine (now known as Missy Chrissy) learning how to remix music on Macintosh computers, and soon I'll be able to rework some of those videos that have me all pissed off! You know the ones that would have been great if they had actually used a dance mix instead of the awful radio mix that no one can dance to! (You didn't think I was ever gonna shut up about that now did you?)

And now my Top 5 Songs That Just Won't Die. These are the songs they like best at Za's and keep other great stuff from getting into the top ten list. Most of them are older songs and I usually won't chart something this old even when it is this hot; so save this list for future reference, girls!

1. Nicki French....."Total Eclipse of the Heart"
Still number one and a perfect Gay Anthem!

2. Livin'Joy....."Dreamer"

I had stopped playing this video now it's back to our top five! WTX radio is just added it to their playlist. I am now using a remix off a second CD single (cut six) called the Jupiter 12" Collision Mix

3. Olivia Newton John....."Zanadu"

I will forever thank Rockamerica for this one. Just enough camp keep 'em wanting this one!

4. Grease Megamedley (Za's special video edit).

My friend, Chris, suggested I do a video edit from the Grease Movie to match this '91 import CD. I thought he was off his rocker, but now it is one of our most requested songs. 5. M People....."Movin' On Up"

Okay, you caught me; I still play this one cause I like it!

Also doing very well for us right now is Scattman John, "Scatman", Buckheads, "The Bomb", Pizza Man, "Sex on the Streets", Laura Branigan, "Dim All the Lights", Eve Gallagher's remix, "Love Come Down '95" a video with this really hot man in a scimp leather swimsuit type thing and, oh yeah, Eve's also in it, but then I'm a pig and wasn't watching her! Michael Jackson's HISStory Megamix video packs our floor, (we only have that boring video version of Scream) and Clock's "Whomp! There it is" is also doing well.

We just got Pet Shop Boy's new video, "Paninaro '95". I was at first reluctant to give it a try because I never really liked the original. Not only is it fabulous, the video is equally hot! (If this isn't aimed at the gay boys!) I am now playing a new remix of "Human Nature" by Madonna, (the Human Club Mix) and it is much much better! (Time to do another video edit, I think). Lastly, I should mention two songs that I am a little luke warm on, but should end up being extremely popular up here, Xaviera Gold, "Bad Girls" (she even sounds like Donna!) and Harajuku, "Can You Feel the Love Tonight" Very fast and a little too la la la but it's doing so well everywhere else so...

Have a great MAP FEST & Laborday Weekend & get ready for a slew of new hits coming this fall!

New Bar - Madison, Wisc.

6. Ru Paul....."Free to Be"
7. Laura Branigan....."Dim All the Lights"

MACAREVEY SHOW AT BESTD CLINIC

BESTD Clinic, continuing its policy of providing space for art shows, is hosting a show of the work of Sue Macarevey continuing through Oct. 15, and featuring eight of her works. Macarevey has been a BESTD volunteer and is a former case manager/art therapist for MAP.

Sue graduated in 1983 from the Art Education Program at St. Rose College in New York. After teaching in upstate New York for three years, she moved to Milwaukee to pursue the art therapy program at Mount Mary College, receiving her Masters in Art Therapy degree in 1992.

Using her grandmother's name, Sue Emery's works have been displayed in various cafes, offices and galleries in southern Wisconsin, including several shows at AfterWords Books.

'LONG ROAD TO FREEDOM' COMES TO WISCONSIN BEGINNING SEPT. 5

The nationally renowned exhibit, "The Long Road to Freedom" is coming to Wisconsin. The exhibit, sponsored by the Seagram Company and The Advocate, is on a national tour and is being displayed in major cities around the country, starting Sept. 5 in Milwaukee and then moving on to Madison later in the month.

PrideFest and Attorney Steve Brondino are the sponsors of the display's Wisconsin tour. A PrideFest release calls the exhibit "a very important, professionally presented chronicle of our history from the time before Stonewall to now. Through text and pictures, it offers a wealth of information about who we are, and where we've been. PrideFest is pleased to join with Brondino in presenting this critically acclaimed display."

The Wisconsin portion of the tour will begin on Tues., Sept. 5, with a gala opening night reception at Milwaukee's City Hall. The gala will include an open bar, music, silent auction and food. Tickets are $25 each. Proceeds benefit PrideFest.

Tickets for the reception may be purchased at AfterWords Book Store, Brady's Bunch Antiques & Collectibles, Designing Men, In Step Magazine, This Is It and The Wisconsin Light. Tickets may also be charged by phone at AfterWords (963-9089).

Following the opening night gala, the exhibit will be moved to the downtown Milwaukee Public Library (2nd floor Humanities Section thru Sept. 14), and moves Sept. 15 for a two-week run at Madison's Civic Center, 211 State St.
