Past Out Continues

indicates the letter was considered "extremely sensitive" and passed on to the Secret Service — presumably because the young man was considered a threat to the president's safety in some way.

Other letters were much more friendly. One, from Houston's Gay Political Caucus, invited President Reagan or a representative of his administration to speak at the 1983 Gay Pride Week Rally in Houston. In a similar vein, a director of the International Gay Bowling Tournament, held in Washington in May, 1988, requested a letter of welcome from Reagan to be distributed to the 1,500 gay bowlers who came to the nation's capital from all over the world.

It is difficult to say whether these letter-writers were aware of the irony of their requests to an administration that regularly vilified gays and lesbians. Clearly, the Reagan White House would never have considered allowing the president to address a gay pride event or to welcome gays of any persuasion to Washington. But perhaps such requests were a self-conscious political maneuver to remind Reagan that he was the president of a country which included gay and lesbian Americans, too.

David Bianco, M.A., teaches gay and lesbian history and politics at the Institute of Gay and Lesbian Education in West Hollywood. If there's anything about the history of gays and/or lesbians you've always wondered about, contact him care of this newspaper or through his E-mail address: AriBianco@aol.com. "Past Out" appears twice a month.

CC Rae Featured in "Dragazine"

Dragazine, the magazine for Halloweeners and inbetweeners is featuring an article and pictures of local impressionist/drag artist CC Rae in their Spring-Summer 1996 issue. Many of you know this Green Bay native who appeared on Quest's cover with an interview over a year ago. CC Rae travels all over the country working in small medium and large clubs everywhere performing her impressions of Barbara Streisand, Pee Wee Herman, the Churchlady, Peg Bundy, Linda Richman and Morticia Addams. This busy performer is making quite a name for himself.

Randy Bouche (aka CC Rae) told Quest you can get a copy by calling (213) 851-5279 or write Dragazine, P.O. Box 461795 West Hollywood, CA 90046. Cost per issue is $5.95 plus S&H.

It was also reported to Quest that CC Rae has appeared recently in Genre Magazine as well.

PAST/OUT

BY DAVID BIANCO

A reader from Hialeah Gardens, FL writes:

How and why is it that the U.S. military will not knowingly accept gays voluntarily but they have no problem with drafting gays during a war?

It is true that during wartime, the military has often allowed gays and lesbians to serve, only to discharge them when the war ends. During World War II, there were dozens of cases of the army overlooking evidence of homosexuality among otherwise-wanted military personnel. In perhaps the most famous example, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower ordered Johnnie Phelps, a sergeant in the Women's Army Corps, to produce a list of lesbians in her battalion. When Phelps warned the general that the list would be quite long and begin with her name at the top, Ike replied, "Forget the order."

During the Vietnam War, increased acceptance of homosexuality within society led to what the armed forces saw as a new problem: straight recruits pretending to be gay to avoid the draft. The solution was to demand "proof" from potential inductees who insisted they were gay — a psychiatrist's note or sworn statements from sexual partners. Of course, since sodomy was a felony in nearly every state, both straight and gay malingerers looked for other ways to resist the draft.

Journalist Randy Shilts has documented many instances of military personnel sent to the Middle East to fight in the Gulf War, who returned to face discharge proceedings. Indeed, beginning in September 1990, the Department of Defense's "Stop/Loss" policy phased out nearly all discharges of personnel the army deemed useful, and lesbian and gay soldiers (some relatively out) fought and risked their lives in the Persian Gulf.

The Defense Department's policy in the Reagan and Bush years insisted that homosexuality is incompatible with military service for a host of reasons — from good order and discipline to security. But under what many gay military insiders jokingly called the "Queen for a Day" clause, commanders who had evidence of a servicemember's having engaged in homosexual behavior were allowed to NOT discharge him or her as long as the behavior occurred only once and the individual regretted it. Needless to say, this policy gave the military the discretion to keep some gay and lesbian soldiers and discharge others (and to let "wayward straights" off with just a warning if they misbehaved only once).

The Queen for a Day clause and the fact that gays and lesbians have rarely been discharged when the army needs them point to a clear contradiction in the military's policy. If gay people are a threat to security, good order and discipline, then wartime should be the time when gays are ferreted out most meticulously. Indeed, by the early 1990s most supporters of the military's ban on gays and lesbians admitted that homosexuals had the capability to be excellent soldiers. Even pro-ban Sen. Sam Nunn — who until 1995 was the chair of the Senate Armed Services Committee — indicated that it was only open homosexuality that was a threat to the military, and that discreet lesbian soldiers and celibate gay sailors were all right by him.

The current policy of "Don't Ask, Don't Tell" was supposed to have rectified the situation as outlined above, by allowing gays to serve as long as they did not engage in same-sex behavior or share their sexual orientation with anyone. But recent reports show that this policy has resulted in more witch-hunts and discharge proceedings against gays and lesbians, rather than fewer. If history is any guide, the discharges are likely to proceed until the United States goes to war again and gay and lesbian servicemembers are needed to defend the country.

What did gays and lesbians write President Reagan about?

While many lesbian and gay Americans vilified President Ronald Reagan for his right-wing politics and inaction during the AIDS epidemic, Reagan received more than just hate mail from America's lesbian and gay citizens during his presidency.

A recent Freedom of Information Act request produced a variety of letters to President and Mrs. Reagan on lesbian and gay concerns, some of which were quite poignant. A Florida man wrote the president in 1988 about being fired for being gay, then finding that he had no legal recourse to get his job back. The White House's response was to pass the letter along to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (even though firing gay employees has never been against federal law). A young man dying of AIDS in 1983 wrote the president anonymously, and a note in the Reagan files

Sally and Sue just finished celebrating birth-days that are only a day apart. This couple has been together for 6 years and what is unusual is that they not only live together, but they also work together. As if this isn't enough they also are the co-owners of Sass, a gay bar in Green Bay. When I asked them if spending this much time together is ever a problem they told me that many people have asked that question and they never get sick of each other.

Birthdays: Sally, April 14 - Sue, April 15

LEATHER

by Papa Joe

The Mr. L/L Daddy and Daddy's Boy April 26, 27 & 28th, 1996

The Argonauts of WI (AofW), now 20 plus years old, was originally a Milwaukee based club. When membership opened to out of towners, a number from other areas including Green Bay joined. It wasn't long before the northern membership exceeded SE Wisconsin membership and the thrust of the AOW came out of GB. It has been so for the last 15 or so years.

The focus of the club was social, (party, run throwing and going), that is until the AIDS crisis hit. Since then the Club's main focus is devoted to fund raising for financially strapped PWA's. The funds since the mid 80's were distributed through Center Project, Inc. Lately, I have been told, it is directly from the club to recipients.

I am not aware of the amounts raised and disbursed over the years, nor will I ask. I am aware that one year, while I was a member, the amount was in the neighborhood of $6,000.00. The money is raised by membership dues, fund raisers such as cookie and candy sales, bar nights, outright cash contributions, as well as other events including The Daddy Weekend.

Be aware that the Wisconsin law prohibits unlicensed organizations from fund raising. License registration is mucho red tape and legalese, designed to protect the public from scam artists. It's very nature discourages the "little guy or group" from getting involved. To avoid all the hassle, these events are not openly billed as "charity" fund raisers. The money officially goes into the clubs' treasuries and then out as a donation as they see fit.

The Daddy weekend, now in its 5th year, came about when AOW was looking for a major fund raising event. The criteria had to be fun, new to this area and geared to the LC. Earlier, they did a contest entitled "Here's the Beef"; a take off on the commercial with the little old lady doing "where's the beef?". It was fun and raised a pretty penny, but with the old lady out of the picture, it didn't work. Mr. L/L Daddy Contest also lends itself better to an annual event.

The first year was just a Daddy Contest. It was wall to wall contestants and people. Would you believe, "Where are the boys" was what everyone seemed to ask. No problem, we'll do a Boy with the Daddy contest. Well, that was easier said than done by an out of town club, no matter how good the facilitator, producer and director (1 person) was. That's how the other clubs came to be involved.

All seven of the Wisconsin clubs were invited to join this alliance. Those who cooperated in the beginning (less one dropout) are now reaping the benefits of this fun fund raising event. The work is shared by the clubs many members who operate as if one. The proceeds are divided according to the work units members earn for their club. It is an enviably smooth operation. If a venue needs to be changed, it is done without batting an eye.

It took time to build and there was a period of adjustment, which was fodder for a few vocal and well placed hand wrenching naysayers. Visions of Aunt Lilly (she's the one with the mustache) kept going through my head.

Anyhow, that's all history. The weekend continued to build to the point that it is now the major Wisconsin leather event where the fun people gather. Expect to meet the new hot men and "boys" and if your contacts fog up, you've been warned.

The 1100 Club and The Wreck Room have been the two bars where main sites for the weekend, and along with the AOW's, Castaways, Oberons and the Unicorns clubs, are where details of the weekend, contest entry forms and the like can be picked up.

It should be mentioned that outside of San Francisco, to my knowledge, this is the only MR. L/L DADDY event in the USof A and not to be confused or associated in any way with the pan gender International Daddy Contest, new last year and out of Oklahoma City. I looked pan gender up and learned it means women compete with men for the title of Daddy as if they were a man. This was a new one on me for in all my years (somewhere between sixty and death), I just didn't know it was that way. At my age, I get confused easily so I won't dwell on it.

Happy first anniversary goes out to the Firebirds! Hey, it is 80 degrees outside, the Harley's battery is charged and I'm out of here.

I'll see you at the kick off party; Ride easy and play safe. Papa Joe

MILWAUKEE CO. EXEC TOM AMENT NAMES LIAISON FOR GAY COMMUNITY

Newly re-elected Milwaukee County Executive Tom Ament recently appointed Gerard Randall as liaison to the gay, lesbian, bi and trans community. His office is in room 306 of the Courthouse. Telephone 278-4211.

This appointment was a prompt response to a strong recommendation made by the Gay Lesbian Work Group working with the Commission on Aging.

It was felt that Milwaukee County should have an accessible conduit for the exchange of information and concerns in the same way that the City of Milwaukee has with Marge Biel in Mayor Norquist's office.

With the recent retirement of three long-term Board members, MGLRC is seeking energetic women and men who care about the future of Madison's lesbian, gay and bisexual community. Board members are asked to commit to volunteering approximately 3-5 hours a week on community projects and to attend bi-monthly Board meetings.

They are looking for individuals with experience in volunteer coordination, library management, marketing & fundraising and as holder of the office of board secretary.

Contact MGLRC, P.O. Box 1722, Madison, WI 53701, or phone (608) 257-1349 (leave message).

PRIDEFEST (JUNE 7-8-9) NEEDS VOLUNTEERS!

Over 400 people will be providing a variety of services at PrideFest in Milwaukee, with such services as food preparation, ticket sales, assisting judge coordinators and grounds patrol.

Volunteers will be needed starting Friday morning to help unload the trucks and hook up the equipment. On Saturday and Sunday, volunteers will be needed shortly before the gates open right through to the end of the days. People who sign up prior to the festival will receive free admission tickets for the day(s) they work, and all volunteers will receive tickets for a complimentary meal at the PrideFest Grill at the end of their work shift.

As in the past, several organizations will be supplying volunteer teams to help out during the week-end.

LAMM and SSBL will be staffing the four major beer bars on Saturday and Sunday. LAMM members may call the LAMM office (264-2600) to sign up. SSBL members should contact their respective team managers.

As the first openly gay member elected to the Wisconsin State Assembly, Rep. Baldwin has brought a new visibility to gay and lesbian issues.
