Rainbow Over Wisconsin Pride Picnic

PAST/OUT

BY DAVID BIANCO

What was the Alpine County Project?

In October 1970, the Los Angeles Times ran a story about a plan by the local Gay Liberation Front (GLF) to establish a gay colony in Alpine County, California. The ensuing brouhaha - which spread to the national media and caused an uproar in the tiny, snow-bound county itself - is a fascinating episode that illustrates the utopianism, the folly, and the media savvy of the early gay liberationists.

The plan originated with a speech by underground newspaper reporter Don Jackson at a December 1969 gay liberation conference in Berkeley. Jackson's speech, later reprinted widely in the gay and underground press as "Brother Don has a Dream," envisioned "a place where gay people can be free.... where a gay government can build the base for a flourishing gay counter-culture and city." He urged gays to move en masse to California's least populous county, register to vote, and elect an all-gay government which could then use tax dollars to create a gay civil service, community college, museum, hospital, and other public facilities and services.

Jackson's plan was dismissed by many as a quixotic fantasy. But it was nonetheless exciting to many gays and lesbians precisely because the legal and demographic hurdles to actually setting up a "gay county" seemed relatively small. A recent California Supreme Court decision had required counties to allow new residents to register to vote after only 90 days. Also, the 450-population Alpine County (nestled in the Sierra Nevadas 10 miles south of Lake Tahoe) had only 367 registered voters. It seemed to Jackson and a small group of supporters that the plan required only a few hundred gays and lesbians willing to make a three-month experiment.

Meanwhile, many members of the Los Angeles GLF were frustrated by the lack of media attention to their movement. Despite their attempts at public protests and pleas for gay and lesbian equality, the most attention they got from the Los Angeles Times was an occasional story written by its medical reporter.

So a group of GLF members decided to use the Alpine County idea as political theater, in hopes of gaining the attention of the Times and other mainstream news outlets. Unlike Jackson and some of his idea's boosters, the Los Angeles GLF treated the Alpine County project as a publicity stunt, not an actual plan. They called a news conference at the GLF office to announce that hundreds of gays and lesbians were already preparing to move to Alpine County. Only the medical reporter from the Times covered the conference, but his article quickly gained national attention, with stories soon appearing in the Wall Street Journal and Time, as well as on every network news broadcast.

The GLF members continued to string out the hoax, announcing new developments in their plan, and even sending a scouting party up to Alpine County during Thanksgiving 1970 to make "preparations" for the gay colony. Some GLF supporters - men and women - who read about the plan in the papers or saw it on the news took it seriously and even started planning to move. One lesbian couple from Long Beach told The Advocate they were planning to open a "little country store" in Alpine County.

When the long-time residents of Alpine County heard about the plan, however, they were not amused. The chairman of the Alpine County Board of Supervisors noted the cold climate of the region and said that "no fruit is very welcome up in our particular county." The county began to explore the option of merging with the more populous neighboring El Dorado County. The project found enemies nationwide, including a New Jersey fundamentalist preacher who announced plans to counterbalance the Alpine project by flooding the county with missionaries who could out-vote the gays. One GLF member claims that the Alpine County Board traveled to Sacramento to ask Governor Ronald Reagan to stop the gays from moving to Alpine, but that Reagan said that there was nothing he could do under the Constitution. Another GLF'er remembers differently - that Reagan threatened to call out the state militia to keep the gays out.

In any event, by February 1971, the plan had lost steam. The GLF issued a statement that they were abandoning Alpine County for a "more temperate county" with better soil and rivers. The media attention had died down, although the GLF had achieved its goal of being taken seriously by the press as a political force, not a medical issue. The project was not publicly revealed as basically a hoax until many years later.

Northwoods, The Argonauts of Wisconsin camp-out was fun and the run went off without a hitch. The Mr. Northwoods Contest turned out to be a tough one to decide. It ended up between Stacy (Mr. Rod's) and Colin (Black Guard of Minneapolis officer). Colin walked away with the title. That's all right, Stacy, wearing more than one sash at time can be cumbersome; besides, Colin has been trying for years and at his age...just kidding, Colin.

To spite me, Paul K, aka Helga, dyed his hair lavender for the occasion and stuck a green feather in his hat. When I saw him the following weekend he gloated over his new kitchen as well (saves the old girl's calves; she ain't 21 no more).

According to insiders and impeccable sources (a leak), The Argonauts of WI and The Castaways MC will be doing Northwoods as a joint run next year. Not sure how they will be handling their 2nd weekend in November anniversary run in 1997, but do know it is on for this November. The aps are out and you can sign up now.

Also heard the Daddy and Daddy's Boy Contest will be limited to The Argonauts of WI and the Castaways MC. In talking with members of the other two clubs who participated, it was too much at the wrong time.

Speaking of The Castaways MC., Get Linked, what a nice party - Mr. Chicago Leather, Jeff (into dusty boots), as previously mentioned, is trying to get a friendship chain going for presentation at IML 97 and for permanent display at the Leather Archives. It was an evening of camaraderie and fun.

It turned out to be a joint affair with The Firebirds, who participated with an after hours party. Sorry, but that information didn't get to me early enough for my last column. There was a very nice turnout for both.

One last thing for the Castaways, they are doing a joint club night with Rodeo Riders, 10 pm, Sat., Sept. 7, at The 1100 Club. These joint affairs are fun to go to and the turn out is super.

Memorabilia from the Wreck Room was auctioned off Aug. 21 at Serb Hall. Bob and Tom were successful bidders for the wagon with the Uyvari carved and signed penis tongue. This treasure, which everyone (but me) claims to have been seduced on, will rest in their spacious, but spartanly furnished, Oak Creek home. It was rumored to be donated to or displayed at The 1100 Club. Blanch made a bird when she heard that.

Talked to many folks about their memories of The Wreck Room Bar. There is a feeling of not being able to say goodbye to a good and fun friend that many of us have experienced for those twenty odd years. Most all expressed disappointment at not having a last blast, and maybe the auction in the bar.

Also talked to folks who have been in the bar since the auction and they say it is eerie, stripped to the bare walls and tomblike. Maybe best to let go and remember it as it was in its heyday.

Labor Day Weekend, the Brew City Bears partied with fellow bears from all over. Eighty or so piled in to The Boot Camp for the evening. If you are into big and hairy men, this was your night.

Besides the Bears, there are more and more "specialty" parties happening. S & M, Bondage, Rubber and Latex, Boots, etc. Many of these group gatherings are/were very private, held in homes with an invite from the host needed. These parties have been going on for decades and only in recent times have we felt comfortable talking about and bringing our kinks out of the closet. All of us know persons who "do" the parties, but most of us would be surprised if we knew who they were.

The Men of Rubber (HQ in Chi, IL) are new and will go anywhere to have a party. They will be doing a field trip to Milwaukee Sat., Sept. 14. The evening will start at The 1100 Club with a 7 PM meet and greet. Later the party room opens (approx. 10 PM). Details are being firmed up, so check in with The 1100 Club or write the address in the last column.

The party fee will be $10.00 with in and out privileges so that attendees can check out the bars and the Oberons Club night which start at 10 pm at Just Us on South 2nd: "Homeless in Milwaukee - Part 2" with a $5 beer bust and raffles. If holding their club nights at different venues continues to be as fun and successful as the last one at The 1100 Club, they probably won't settle for one bar again.

Another specialty (kink) with a following that surprised even me, is the Boot Men. Having been involved with several contact groups for some time, I have just learned of another which is exclusively on the net. This one, California (where else) BootMen InterNEtional, has a format much like the Great Lakes Harley Riders - only a contact point, one person collects & disperses the message. From there, you're on your own.

They get word to people like me who can really spread it around (settle down). So here is the word. If you are into boots, it would seem all dtypes are welcome, you can make contact only at dmmdr@cyberg8t.com (David Minor) Subject: California Boot Men.

Or, for you boot men out and about in Milwaukee on Fridays, The 1100 Club, 10 - 12 PM is the designated time and place to make contact. This is subject to change and/or addition.

So, now we can say we have a Wisconsin Boot Men group. Will appreciate your feedback on this one. And, if you are a boot boy, needing a daddy type with lots of boots to take care of, don't go there, come to my house - then we will go there. Guys, forgive me if I again cut this short. Two weeks ago we started to work evenings on the deck. Wouldn't you know, Lee got called out of town for 10 of those days. My ass is dragging, I am behind in my leather work, but just now my honey got back from Canada.

P.S. Devin Delap, formerly of Green Bay, member of The Argonauts of Wisconsin, now of Milwaukee and a Great Lake Harley Rider, died as a result of an accident on Monday, August 26+. Our heartfelt sympathy to his family, especially nephew Christopher and to long time companion, Mark Shepard.

I'm out of here -- love you a lot. Papa

ROW WEEKEND A BIG SUCCESS!

Rainbow Over Wisconsin, the non-profit group formed out of gay owned businesses in the Fox Valley, Green Bay, Sheboygan and Wausau, reported the first annual pride weekend had a great turnout and is considered a success. The group raised over $8,675.00 in gross sales over the weekend events including a bowling tournament, and a picnic which included beer, soda food and t-shirt sales. All profits realized will be distributed to area non-profit organizations that serve the Les-Bi-Gay communities mentioned above.

Revenue raised earlier from other fundraisers was around $8,000. Todd West, Rainbow Over Wisconsin's Treasurer will be preparing a report of total profits realized so far this year and Quest will publish these totals when they become available.

Some members of the group were concerned the picnic turnout would be less than hoped for because some people from Green Bay and the Fox Valley were unhappy the Customer Appreciation Picnic which used to be held on Memorial Day Weekend was now a pay as you go event. In fact, the older picnic which dates back to the 70's was discontinued after last year. Rainbow Over Wisconsin Pride Weekend is a brand new effort that is hoped to someday rival the Magic Picnic in Madison. Some of the same bar owners are connected with both picnics, and so it is natural that there would be some confusion among the customers of these bars.

Great weather and a large turnout helped make both the bowling and picnic a great success. Positive Voice, GLEEDA, PFLAG, ECHO, Center Project/Fox Valley AIDS Project, Sheboygan AIDS Task Force and The Argonauts of Wisconsin all were on hand to help make the event a success. Performers were on stage all afternoon donating thier talent and any tips received. Countless others helped lend a hand policing the area and helping out where needed. "We are all very excited to be a part of this and have high hopes for the future", said President Mark Mariucci. "Rainbow Over Wisconsin can raise much larger dollar amounts in it's collective efforts than can be realized by individual groups or businesses. This translates into much needed funds becoming available to area groups."

Gross revenue from the weekend was as follows:

Bowling: $2375.00
ROW T-shirt Sales: $1000.00
Picnic Ticket Sales: $5300.00

See pictures from Rainbow Over Wisconsin's Pride Weekend in this issue of Quest. Pictures from the LINKS Block Party also held Labor Day Weekend in Milwaukee will be in the next issue of Quest.

deliver remarks about business initiatives and issues at the State and City level, and then take questions and comments from the Chamber's gay and lesbian business owner members. Ann Sather's Restaurant, 929 W. Belmont, is the meeting site, with cocktails and check-in at 6 pm, dinner at 6:30 and the program at 7:15. A business meeting will follow. Cost is $12, including the buffet dinner.

"This election season gives us a unique opportunity to make sure that our State legislators hear our ideas and opinions," said Victor Salvo, Chamber Programming Co-Chair. "Very rarely do gay/lesbian business owners have a chance to present their ideas in a forum specifically designed for them."

NICCOLET ISLAND SITE FOR TWIN CITIES 25th PRIDE FESTIVAL

The three "Town Meetings" the Gay-Lesbian-Bisexual-Transgender Pride Twin Cities hosted created great opportunities for the Community to give its input for the 1997 Festival.

"The two meetings hosted in Minneapolis were very successful; we had some great feedback from the participants," said Nan Cournoyer, Executive Chair. "In the meetings we covered accessibility issues, open board positions, some possible new events for 1997 and also some ideas to improve the Festival layout."

Niccolet Island has been selected as the site of the '97 Festival, to be held June 28 & 29 at the premiere of "Stonewall."

She continued, "We still encourage people who are interested in Volunteering or joining the Board to contact Barb Hutchins, Volunteer Director at the Pride Line for more information." Pride Line is (612) 362-3680 or 1-800-PRIDE-YA or check out the Pride web site <http://MEMBERS.AOL.COM/MPLSPRIDE>

The Chicago premiere of "Sweet Land of Liberty," a dark gay & lesbian comedy (by Christi Stewart-Brown) will be staged on Friday and Saturday nights Sept. 13-Oct. 19 by Left Eye Productions.

In a not-too-distant future where blonde is the national hair color and urine tests are routine, two couples - one gay, one lesbian - must swap partners to protect themselves from an intrusive government.

Performances will be at the "O" Bar & Cafe, 3343 N. Clark, Chicago. Tickets are $10. FMI (312) 802-9167.

The production is directed by Nadine C. Warner. Cast members include Edward Dzialo, J.J. Fenza, Jim Floyd, Burgandy Kahout, Geryll Robinson, Brett Sears, Craig Shaynack and Sherman Shoemaker.
