PAST/OUT

BY DAVID BIANCO

December 28, 1986 (10 years ago this week): Terry Dolan, Reagan supporter and leading fund raiser of the New Right, dies of AIDS at age 36.

Ten years ago this week, Terry Dolan, a key conservative activist of the 1980s, died of AIDS. Even as a child, Dolan was active in Republican politics, volunteering for Richard Nixon's 1960 presidential campaign. When he was 25, he helped organize the National Conservative Political Action Committee (NCPAC), and he soon became that organization's director. Dolan was an extremely talented fund raiser, and many credit him and his organization with the stunning triumph of the New Right in 1980. Dolan worked hard for the nomination and election of Ronald Reagan as President, although his influence was equally significant in the defeat of liberal Senators such as George McGovern, Frank Church and Birch Bayh. The conservatives who replaced them (including Dan Quayle) gave the Republicans a majority in the Senate for the first time in a generation.

Dolan was also gay. He was a regular in the cocktail-party circuit of Washington, DC, and often vacationed at gay resorts such as Northern California's Russian River. But Dolan's relationship to the gay-rights movement was complex. Dolan was opposed to gay rights laws, insisting that the government shouldn't interfere in people's hiring practices. He balanced that view with a strong defense of privacy - which makes sense, because a decade before "outing," he relied on the gay community's discretion to keep him from being disclosed among his conservative peers.

In 1982, he granted an interview to The Advocate in which he repeated his support for privacy and criticized "some of the rhetoric that some of my friends in the right have used on gay activism." But Dolan (who later denied those comments) was not above using anti-gay rhetoric himself. NCPAC sent out a fundraising letter that declared "the nation's moral fiber is being weakened by the growing homosexual movement and the fanatical ERRA pushers (many of whom publicly brag that they are lesbians)." Some say Dolan approved the letter, although he apologized for it to the New York Times, calling it "totally inappropriate."

In the early 1980s, Dolan joined with former Republican Congressman Robert Bauman, famed discharged gay Vietnam veteran Leonard Mlodovich and several other gay conservatives to found the Concerned Americans for Individual Rights (CAIR). Unlike the gay Republican group the Log Cabin Club, CAIR found little success. Few members were willing to take leadership roles if it meant publicity, and while David Bianco, M.A., teaches gay and lesbian history at the Institute of Gay and Lesbian Education in West Hollywood. The author of Modern Jewish Publication or through his E-mail address: ArBianco@aol.com.

What can we make of a person whose personal and political lives seem so contradictory? Many would settle for a simple answer - Dolan was a self-hating homosexual who never became comfortable with his sexual orientation and expressed his discomfort by trying to hurt all gays and lesbians. But the truth is probably more complicated than that. There is no inherent "gay position" on issues such as military spending or taxes - and an individual, regardless of his or her sexual orientation, who feels that conservatives are right on such issues may find themselves having to face the same challenges Dolan did. But then, they find themselves in bed (politically, at least) with a Ronald Reagan or a Jesse Helms, and the conflicts between advancing causes they believe in and maintaining dignity as a gay person become almost insurmountable. Given the slow response to the epidemic from the administration he helped put in place, Terry Dolan's death from AIDS made for a final irony in a life full of paradox.

many gay conservatives offered words of encouragement and even cash donations, few would write checks or even allow their names to be associated with the group. At one point, the group proposed to send out a fund-raising letter to find conservatives who would support gay rights, and several of the organizers are said to have requested the names and addresses of any and-gay responses so they could target those individuals with homophobic fund-raising appeals. By the time of Dolan's death, CAIR had largely faded away.

When Dolan began to get sick with AIDS, he insisted publicly that he suffered from anemia and diabetes. When he died, his family held a memorial service that excluded Dolan's gay friends. Instead, conservative mourners such as Pat Buchanan and Utah Senator Orrin Hatch came to pay their respects to a key architect of the conservative revolution in American government. A separate service was held by Bauman and others who wanted to remember Dolan for all that he was. The Washington Post accurately reported the cause of death, and later ran a long article about Dolan's homosexuality. The conservative activists family and straight friends were furious. His brother Tony Dolan (a noted Reagan speechwriter) even took out a two-page ad in the Washington Times insisting that Terry Dolan was not gay.

LEATHER/FETISH

by Papa Joe

Merry Christmas, have a Happy and full 1997. May you know peace and be surrounded by good people and things; you deserve it.

Saturday, Dec. 14, turned out to be one heavy party day full of Christmas spirits for me. With my husband, Lee, stuck in rainy Seattle, I took in the local sights starting with the Castaways Christmas party and Dinner at M&M. Being with great friends, stuffing myself on great food for two hours and with enough bubbly to park the truck, I rode with friends to take in the South Water Street Docks Christmas party.

Seemed just about everyone was there and in a holiday mood, having fun. Dan C and his crew of "darling" leather elves, besides being capable beverage consultants (aka tucking far benders), were easy on the eyes. Pictures promised on Tues., so with luck, Mark will get them in time to publish in this issue of Quest.

From there it was off to the 1100 Club for the Oberons final fund raising party for Children with AIDS. Here again, the place was packed with some of the hottest (not off the rack) leathermen. John (great Oberon Chieftain) and crew were everywhere pushing all the right buttons to put everyone in a Gay and festive holiday party mood. The party was a financial success as well as fun. Tim's message below has details.

That ended my day, called a cab, and it was beddy-by time for this old goat. Sunday, my gay nerves frazzled and with my honey's plane late, I stayed in bed until we met for a late afternoon brunch at the M's.

From there it was off to the Boot Camp Saloon for their Christmas party. Another nice party with another bountiful buffet and again the place was lined up with hot leather men, (couple of which we chanced to meet for the first time). There had to be something in Milwaukee which attracted so many hot men. I'll just bet they heard a rangy and randy studd muffin was out and on the loose.

While at the Boot Camp, I had a chance to talk with Jeff E (mighty kahuna) of the Firebirds, who verbally confirmed the Club is/will be doing a club event on a routine bases. He said he would get me info on that and details about their Raphael House fundraiser. I'll pass it along as soon as I can.

From Tim/Oberons subj.: Club Nights- edited- "The Oberons December club night at the 1100 Club was a rousing success, capping off our most successful fund-raising year for the Christmas Club for Children with AIDS.

Raffle prizes donated by many area businesses and individuals were given away. A silent auction of several donated leather items contributed towards the over $400.00 raised that night.

The 1996 total is in excess of $1600.00. A full report of the 1996 fund-raiser will be issued in January after final collections & disbursements.

As a reminder, the 1100 Club will have its traditional Christmas Day buffet, Wednesday, December 25, from noon to 4pm. The food is free; donations will be accepted for the Christmas Club for Children with AIDS.

The 1100 Club is the Oberons new home bar! Our first club night of the new year will be a beer bust, January 11, 1997. "Home, But Not Alone" will be the theme and feature our club brother Jerry Straley, Mr. SE Wisconsin Leather, offering another of his 'Leather Fantasies.' Want to make sure I mention that the Argonauts of Wisconsin (AOW) and the Castaways MC (CMC) are doing two joint ventures this year.

The first being the 1997 Daddy/Boy contest, April 25 & 26. This year it will be a Friday evening and Saturday affair. The auction normally held on Sunday afternoon will be Saturday afternoon. As usual, the Boy contest is on Friday night and the Daddy contest is Sat. nite. Both events now held at the 1100 Club. These events and contests are open to the public. We will do more on this as the time gets closer or for more information contact Northwoods Productions, PO Box 1104, Milwaukee, WI 53201

The second event is a joint run. August 15,16, & 17. I noticed the information sent to me did not refer to it as NorthWoods. But expect it to be much like North Woods with the notable addition of the Starlets of the Castaways doing a show on Friday evening and arrangement with a local hotel for the non-outdoorsy types. Again more details as the time gets closer. If you want to be on the mailing list for these two clubs, you can write to them at the above addresses.

Again just missing my deadline is a meeting of the powers (I hope to sit in) regarding the Leather Swap Meet, Beer Bust, boot related events and after hours party for Saturday, Feb. 1. This event is the long time idea of Bob G (major hot-booted Harley Man), who has relocated to the Manitowoc area.

At this time, I can report it appears it will be a full afternoon of sales and swapping of new and used leather and boots as well as toys and accessories for men and boys.

There also seems to have at least 3 other leather clubs involved with the day and night activities which will all be held at the 1100 Club.

If you are interested as a retailer, manufacturer or a person who wants to sell some no longer needed items, contact Bob G at Post Office Box 94, Francis Creek, WI 54214 or email BOOT4SALE@aol.com. I don't have permission to publish phone #. Maybe next time.

UNIFORMS seems like there are a number of you interested and getting information regarding the start of a Uniform Club or group. Warren (copboy), bartender at S. Water St. Docks, is sorta coordinating that effort. If you want to connect with him, he works the Thurs. levi/leather night at the docks. Warren said he will keep me posted on how it is going. Keep the info, pictures, comments and stuff coming in. I'll talk at you next year.

Spirituality Retreat Planned for Women Living with HIV/AIDS

Jan. 17 & 18 in Milwaukee

This spirituality retreat is being planned by St. Camillus HIV/AIDS Ministry (414) 259-4664, Milwaukee, and is designed to help women living with HIV/AIDS to explore the role of spirituality in their lives. There is no fee for participation, but enrollment is limited.

Meditation, group sharing, music, art, ritual and preparing a meal together will be tools for this journey of self-exploration and connection with one another.

Participants will be encouraged to remember the past, talk about the present and envision a future of hope. Sharing in creative activities and rituals of healing, those who attend will find a renewed strength and commitment to live fully now and experience healing from within and from one another.

The women will gather Fri., Jan. 17, after 4 pm and conclude by 3:30 the following afternoon. Overnight accommodations are limited, so commuters are both welcome and needed!

Oberons Pick 1100 Club as Home Club!

The Oberons of Milwaukee will call The 1100 Club, 1100 S. First St., Milwaukee, their home club, with their first club night set for Sat., Jan. 11, the theme of which will be "Home, But Not Alone."

A beer bust will be offered from 10 to 1, and special guest and club brother, Jerry Straley (Mr. SE Wisconsin Leather) will present another of his 'leather fantasies.'

(Alexandria, VA) -- Pictured here are more than 60 activists from across the United States who attended a day-long organizing institute convened by the National Association of Lesbian & Gay Community Centers (NALGCC), held in conjunction with the National Gay & Lesbian Task Force Creating Change conference. Participants in the NALGCC institute represented approximately 40 lesbian and gay centers and center organizing committees, and including representation from Milwaukee. The next bi-annual conference will take place Sat., July 26, in Atlanta. FMI (212) 6290-7310.

Family Day Planned for Milwaukee PrideFest!

PrideFest has announced its first new feature for the 1997 festival -- Family Day on Sat., June 7. Parents are invited to bring their children to the festival to play in the Children's Area and participate in the special activities that are being planned from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m.

"As a father, I feel it is important that we include activities for children," said Mike Hall, PrideFest co-director. "So many gays and lesbians are parents, and they should be able to bring their kids down to the festival knowing they will have something to participate in."

Family activities coordinator Theodore Berg would appreciate any ideas you may have to enhance the new venture - PrideFest, Inc., PO Box 93852, Milwaukee, WI 53203 or FAX (414) 272-3391.
