Day, people often turn to the equally insecure men find true My Own Private Idaho. movies for the perfect romance. love almost While gav men and lesbians may in spite of love When Harry Met Sally and themselves. Sleepless in Seattle as much as Fast-talking anyone, they can't help wanting to dialogue see Meg Rvan stay home with and memo-Rosie O'Donnell and Bill Pullman go to the Empire State cameos Building to meet Tom Hanks.

Happily, the cinematic pursuit of this tale of romance overcoming love is now no longer the exclusive domain of straight Hollywood. Gay and lesbian filmmakers are taking up the timeworn "boy-meets-girl" formula and giving it a "rainbow" of variations.

Whether it's young heart-stirrings or grown-up heartache, sex amid skyscrapers or passion on the plains, there are many gay and lesbian romantic movies available on DVD and VHS through local video stores or such Internet services as www.tlavideo.com.

The next time you want some quality time with your "domestic partner," or you want to impress a potential "significant other." try one of these recent films:

The Incredibly True Adventure of Two Girls in Love (1995): The blossoming of voung love and discovery of one's sexual identity bian filmmakers. In this utterly charming film, white tomboy Randy and black debutante Evie must face race and class differences too, but they won't let anything get in the way of their romance. More Young Loves: And Then Came Summer, Beautiful Thing, The Edge of Seventeen, The Journey of Jared Price, Therese & Isabelle. Wild Reeds

Boyfriends (1997): From Boys in the Band to Queer as Folk, the "family of choice" can be just as exasperating as the biological family for interfering in one, s love life. In this secret treasure of a film, six young friends go on an Easter weekend in the British countryside, but their relaxing holiday unravels into a swirl of bed-hopping and ego-bruising that's both angst-ridden and hilarious. More Friends and Lovers: Bar Girls, Broken Hearts Club, I Think I Do, Queer as Folk -British and American versions.

Aimee & Jaguar (1999): Is there anything more romantic than unrequited love? Everyone loves a good "sob story," especially if there's a loving shoulder to cry on. In this true story, Lily is the wife of a Nazi officer who has many secret lesbian affairs until she finds her true soul mate in the Jewish Felice. The ending is tragic and inevitable, but the film takes us to a place of love we have seldom seen before.

Tell Trinity!

Ouote du Jour: "Obstacles are those frightful things you see when you take your eyes off your goal." - Henry Ford (1863-1947)

Dear Trinity,

Recently, I realized that all my child- Hey Trinity, hood friends UNLIKE me are part- I'm a gay nered off, have high paying jobs and own their own homes! Why do I feel like a looser?

Yours, Not Enough Ashville, NC

Dear Not Enough.

So your friends "made it" sooner than you, yippee! Do you want to be a simple Jackie Collins, 200 page novelette or a great Tolstoy novel where it all comes together on page 1238. Remember, Einstein failed third grade, Lincoln lost many more elections than he won and Edison failed over 10,000 times before getting the light bulb to work! If life is a book, keep reading. You, my little tortoise are incomparable to others. Every great (wo)man is told to. "Get real and stop wasting time". So either get "real" like your friends who APPEAR to have made it now or get real like the ones who took longer and MADE a difference! Kisses, Trinity

DATING DILEMMA #37

Dear Trinity.

When I get "all cleaned up" my boyfriend goes crazy for me. But when I am my "natural" self i.e., unkempt, dirty or just a little smelly he won't get close to me. Shouldn't I be loved for Natural Love Eugene, OR

Dear Natural.

In one of the most important dating manuals ever written, "Keeping Your Date Excited" It says, in the chapter called, "Skunk Love", "Don't be caught in your "natural state" ALL THE TIME! Get "dolled up" or "cleaned up" every so often just to keep the excitement, interest and to keep your date eager see you!" Now Pumpkin, appreciating you for the "natural you" is charming but honestly who wants to make love to a skunk if it hasn't been deodorized. Plus, smelling and looking delicious will assure you that your date will always have a good appetite... for you! Hugs, Trinity parent who is raising two kids. Do you have any advise for gay parents?

Sincerely, Parenting Ponders Rehobeth

Beach, DE Hey Parenting,

It's a lot of work being a gay parent in a world where gay parents have just started sharing experiences about having, adopting and raising kids. As I hope to have my own someday I know it takes love, patience and lots of socialization to make a child strong!

Dear Trinity,

I'm back in the job market but without any luck! I'm relatively new to whole phenomenon. Help!

Thanks, Job Jitters Miami, FL

Dear Job Jitters.

Looks, charm and a creative, even aggressive sales pitch will get you in the door but just in case that's not enough here are:

TRINITY'S SMART SUGGESTIONS FOR GOING ON A JOB INTERVIEW

- 1. Baseball hats, sunglasses, jeans and t-shirts are not uniforms for people who GET jobs.
- 2. Having a resume means you're SERIOUS! What's on it is not as important as having it!
- 3. Talk about things you CAN do! Never talk about things you can NOT!
- 4. Use sex appeal, charm, connections and familiar references. Everyone DOES this! Don't be righteous, just get the damn job!
- 5. Keep REPEATING, "I can learn anything!" Just get your foot in the door and you'll figure out the rest
- 6. If you APPEAR presentable, eager and responsible the job is already half yours!
- 7. Being late with an EXCUSE does not mean you are on time. Better to say, "I'm late. I'm sorry. It will never happen again," Period! No excuses.
- 8. There are many books on job interviewing. Buy them, yesterday!
- 9. Never "shot gun" (blindly sending out) resumes. Get a contact. Talk with them. Then send your resume. And ALWAYS follow up!
- 10. Lastly, you have thirty seconds (max.) to sell yourself. If they like you after that then sell yourself even more with everything you've got!

IN CONCERT

IT'S NOT TV IT'S HEO

Drag It Out Of Me!

Girrrrl, Can I just tell you

I had at the Joan Rivers concert this evening? All of Milwaukee's finest donned their glad rags, twirled down to Potawatomi's beautiful new theater to receive the old gal in the manner that she is accustomed to. The lovely Charlotte Lorraine, Chi Chi LaRue, Baby Jane Hudson, and my handsome escort for the evening Kurt and I all started the evening out with a delicious dinner at the M & M club. Unfortunately, the empty sugar boats put a damper on the event, and I was informed that it is "so hard to keep good help these days." Miss Rivers had the sold out audience rolling in the aisles, and marveling at her latest face-lift. I was able to finagle my way to her personal meet and greet session after the show, and let me tell you ladies "I highly recommend her very own fragrance "Now and Forever" It smells fierce!'

After the fabulous show I made my way with 9 conagain battling it out for the 50$ prize. The dazzlingly beautiful Alexis

Winters was my special guest along with "Snow

Queen" Tina Roberts and wowed the crowd as I knew they would. The gorgeous Peaches was the winner with Nanette and the Lady Gia tying for second place. The only down part of the competition was Desperately Seeking Susan not wearing a bra. Her new crown that she is sporting is a nice sight for sore eyes but girl..."Get a January 19th was the annual Miss Continental plus pageant held at the West Theater in Green Bay. The lovely and half-naked Stella has brought back the fat pageant that has been absent in Wisconsin over the last few years. As I predicted in my last column the red-haired diva Monica Munro was once again a no show, much to the frustration of everybody that paid at the door expecting to see the goddess perform. I don't know why she won't venture north of Chicago. Maybe she is afraid all that silicone will freeze. Let's hope the third time is the charm and she will show up for Miss Continental WI. The pageant itself went along very smoothly with the Green Bay girl Loretta Lamour sweeping every category, "I, once again, was shocked." Apparently second runner-up Shannon DuPree was an excellent competitor, but just could not compete with Miss Lamour's devastating looks, that also won her the most beautiful award. This must have been especially hurtful to Miss DuPree who just last week was asked to resign her spot as one of the "chemically enhanced" C'est la vie girls. I guess she can't throw a boot as well as the other girls. Congratulations to Loretta on a great victory, and best of luck to the rest of the girls on trying to win a spot to the national DRAG EVENTS TO LOOK FORWARD TO pageant. p.s. Miss Della, double-sided tape works great on the inside of a wig.

Friday the 18th of January was the night of the much anticipated Beach Party and show at Orbit. Evidently, it should have been called the Psycho Beach Party. After quite a time of partying was logged in, Miss Christina Chase found her date in the bathroom with Tina Roberts, Billy Blaze and Britney Morgan, the latter of which was down on her knees in the stall. I'm sure she was just adjusting her pantyhose, however Miss Chase proceeded to start slapping, scratching and pulling off wigs. The drag rumble eventually spilling into the bar. No bottles were thrown this time, and everyone still has all their fingers, so lets count all our blessings.

Seems the social event to really look forward to, is the annual birthday party and show for Miss Rona at the M & M club this Friday February 1st. The old girl will be turning 51 this year and that's about how many numbers Baby Jane will put in her back to back mix at the show. Everybody that is anybody will be there to give Miss Rona her birthday spankings. While you are there ask to see her fabulous pictures of the sunset in Acapulco. "Simply unforgettable".

Well ladies, I am on my way to visit "Miss 219" Desire Triumph who missed her rehearsal and was given the night off by "Osama bin Nova", lets hope she doesn't have a pool stick in her hand when I get to the door.

If anybody has some dish that needs to be told please e-mail me at my web site misslily-white.com. That's all for now girls! I'll be back in three weeks with all the grease. Stay fierce girls!

JANET JACKSON: IN CONCERT FROM HAWAII TO HEAT UP AIRWAVES ON HBO IN FEBRUARY

Four-time Grammy winner Janet Jackson will heat things up this winter when she stars in JANET JACKSON: IN CONCERT FROM HAWAII, it was announced today by Nancy Geller, senior vice president, HBO Original Programming. The exclusive music special will be presented Sunday, Feb. 17, from Aloha Stadium in Honolulu. Hawaii, and marks her second HBO concert event, following the 1998 Emmy®-winning "Janet: The Velvet Rope." Directed by Emmy® winner David Mallet, JANET JACKSON: IN CON-CERT FROM HAWAII will capture her dynamic live performance. showcasing the brilliant visual sense and style that have captivated concertgoers for more than a decade. Jackson will perform hits from her extensive chart-topping catalogue of music, including songs from her recent multi-platinum album "All for You."

"Janet Jackson is one of today's premier entertainers, and a favorite of our subscribers," noted Geller, "Her spectacular show continues HBO's tradition of presenting the biggest and best music."

This year has marked a series of successes for the superstar, beginning with the release of "All for You," produced by Jackson with Jimmy Jam and Terry Lewis; it debuted at Number One on the Billboard Top 200 Album Chart, marking the highest-selling week of her career, and has already sold more than five million copies worldwide. Jackson also exploded onto the singles charts with the album,s title track, the highest debuting single in Billboard.s

Soundscan history, remaining at Number One on the Hot 100 for seven weeks. Her second single. "Someone to Call My Lover," also soared to the top of the charts and produced a Number One hit video, Jackson,s latest smash single is "Son of a Gun." In addition, her "All for You Tour 2000" was among this year,s hottest concerts events, selling out arenas nationwide.

Selling more than 50 million albums during her career. Jackson's previous five multiplatinum albums include "The Velvet Rope" (1997). "Design of a Decade" (1995), "Janet." (1993). "Rhythm Nation 1814" (1989) and "Control" (1986). With 20 gold and five platinum singles, she has amassed a long list of honors, including four Grammy Awards, and

numerous MTV Music Video

Awards and Soul Train Music Awards, as well as The Award of Merit at this year, s American Music Awards. In addition, nearly two tions for "Again," from John Singleton's 1993 film "Poetic Justice," in which she also starred.

DavidE's Dish... Lord have mercy, "Queer As Folk" is back on and Pittsburgh has never looked better. The drama is flowing heavier than the Women's USA Olympic Hockey Team and we're only a few episodes into the season. Sit back children and enjoy the ride because the OAF crew have got one hell of a trip to take us on and DavidE always loves a good trip. Now in other drama news, it looks like the hype has started over Cher's new CD. Just remember ClubLand, you first heard about how fierce "Living Proof" is right here from DavidE. The almighty pop diva kicked off the "Living Proof" hype with a spectacular performance at the American Music Awards. The next morning every fag in America was buzzing about it while picking up his double foam latte at Starbucks! "Oh my God did you see Cher with blonde hair?" "Was it a wig or did she pull a Madonna and dve it?" Sweetje, put the war in Afghanistan on hold we need to discuss this important issue! Earth to fags - it was a wig! And I quote from Cher herself. "It was a good wig. Do you think I'd put crap on my head?" That's right girlfriend, Cher ain't slippin' on no two bit Dolly Parton knock off from Josephine's House of Hair! End of story. OK then...Cher's official website lists the U.S. release date of "Living Proof" as February 26th, plus she'll be on David Letterman Feb. 27 and 20/20 Feb. 28. Believe me, you'll be seeing Cher every where in February. She's gonna promote the hell out of her new CD and it's going to sell like hot cakes. Keep an eye on www.cher.com for all of her upcoming appearances and other developing Cher news.

Alrighty then, enough with the Cher crap. Love her and all but let's move onto movies. If you want to rent a fabulous gay love story check out, "All Over the Guy." It was so good I actually went out and bought the DVD. Seriously children, this movie made me feel like the first time I watched "Jeffrey" way back in 1995. Oh my God, has it been 7 years since Jeffrey came out? Thank God for good moisturizers because I don't look a day older! Anywho, "All Over the Guy" is a cute little movie about two gay guys who become friends and really fall in love, but they just won't admit it. There's laughter, there's drama, blah, blah, blah - it's fierce. Just go out and rent it!

In other DVD news. I picked up "Steel Magnolias" on DVD at Target for under $15. Why do you give a rat's ass? Well because first of all "Steel Magnolias" is a must own for any man who sucks another man's cock, and enjoys it. If you're gay you better own "Steel Magnolia's!" And secondly, the DVD retails for $20-25 so Target's price is totally faboo. You can even pick up the VHS for under $7. Love me some Target. Hell, buy a copy for everyone you know. Let's start a resurgence of "Steel Magnolias!" Blush and Bashful will be THE new colors for 2002.

Now if you're sick of sitting home watching Sally Field bawl her eyes out go check out Sean Penn's new movie, "I Am Sam." This one is a tear jerker so make sure you bring the tissues. As if you haven't cried enough watching "Steel Magnolias" right? Sean Penn plays a mentally handicapped father who has to go to court to win back custody of his daughter. Michelle Pfeiffer is simply fierce as his bitchy lawyer and the additional supporting cast is top notch. What's so great about this film is that it doesn't drown you in sappiness. Believe me, you will cry but the movie doesn't exploit emotional scenes. Sean Penn will receive an Oscar nomination for this one mark my words...

Well ClubLand that's all I have to blab about this week. Coming up in my next Dish, I'll be giving my color commentary on the Winter Olympics. "Now would you say those uniforms are purple or aubergine?"

Upcoming Events - Argonauts of Wisconsin

February 9 - The Argonauts of Wisconsin and the Milwaukee Knights will be hosting a joint club night Saturday February 9, at the Harbor Room in Milwaukee, beginning at 10:00 p.m.

There will be music, raffles, great prizes, and (as always) lots of hot leather men.

The Milwaukee Knights will also be doing several interesting demos that you do not want to miss.

Should be a lot of fun for everyone!

March 8 - The Argonauts of Wisconsin will be hosting a club night at Sass's on Broadway in Green Bay, on Friday, March 8, starting at 9:00 p.m.

The club night will feature music, raffles, prizes, a beer bust, and fun for everyone!

It has been a while since the Argonauts have held a club night at Sass's, so the evening is bound to be a great time.

March 22-31 - The Argonauts of Wisconsin will be sponsoring their annual Easter Egg fundraiser.

Plastic eggs may be purchased at area bars for $1 each. Every egg contains a prize. This year's prizes include drink specials, snacks, grab bags, and chances to win a grand prize. The grand prize this year is reported to be a High-Density TV. Each bar will have it's own drawing for other nice prizes.

Eggs will be available at Brandy's II, Buddies, Napalese, Sass, and the West in Green Bay.

Funds raised from this event will help support the Argonauts Charities Fund.

April 19-20 - The Argonauts of Wisconsin will be hosting Green Bay's third annual Daddy & Daddy's boy contests the weekend of April 20.

The weekend of events will start Friday night, April 19, with a club night/reception at Buddies in Green Bay. This event will feature raffles, prizes, drink specials, and a chance for everyone to come out and meet the contestants and our celebrity judges. The reception starts at 9:00 p.m.

On Saturday, April 20, the club will sponsor it's annual Leather Granddaddy contest. This contest is mainly for fun, and is very informal. The location of this event is yet to be determined. It will start at 2:00 p.m.

Saturday night, at the Napalese Lounge is the highlight of the weekend- the Daddy and Daddy's boy contests. Contestants are asked to be present and registered by 8 p.m. The contests start at 9 p.m. Contestant applications are being prepared and will be available soon in area bars.

For more information about these and other events, please visit the Argonauts web site: http://www.argonautsLL.org
