Our life-style in these United States centers around the marketplace. Therefore, advertising is of the utmost importance to provide competition among businesses. Advertising also provides the all-important link between the business and the customer. Without it, the customer has no idea what to expect from the business, what services they provide, what specials they have to offer, and, most importantly, what they are doing to keep the customers coming back repeatedly.

Here at RAGG, business support has been encouraging but, I can't understand the "laissez-faire" attitude some businesses have. We have made space available (at a very attractive price!) and have constantly been turned down. They seem to believe that "word-of-mouth" advertising is best. "Word-of-mouth" is not the best, nor the most efficient way to advertise anything! Facts get turned around, dates and times get forgotten, information that began correctly gets completely mis-understood.

I feel that the printed word is still the best way to disseminate information. It's also the most enduring because it's written down! One can refer back to it without getting the facts misrepresented.

To the consumers of Wisconsin--- If your favorite bar, restaurant, business, etc., does not advertise regularly it is not fair to you. They are not providing information to you, without which you cannot make a wise choice as to why you should choose that establishment over a competing one.

We want to offer Wisconsin an alternative to mediocrity that's why RAGG is here! (and will stay here for a long time) Wisconsin Gay-owned businesses are in a fine state! Let's keep them that way by advertising and promoting competition!

GREEN BAY

What's happening in Green Bay, you ask? Well, on Saturday August 20th, Prosthesis Productions presented a fabulous benefit show to raise money for the Gay Community Center and Gay Hotline here in G.B..

It featured Connie Franchise and Jerry Snow as hostesses. Some of the guests included our very own, Ernestine, Miss BodyShop, Miss 1101 West, Impress Jackie, and many many more. All in all the event proved to be a great success!

Napalese is celebrating their first anniversary on this Sunday, September 11th from 3-7pm featuring an open bar, and a smorgasbord for only a $3 cover!

Tuesday and Wednesday September 6th and 7th A.C.U.F. held auditions for their Fall play "Knock Knock". Will let you know more when the details become available. See you next week!

APPLETON

Let's just say the "Little Apple" is quite pleased with the new logo that appeared at the end of our article recently. The only thing we were wondering, who got the bite of the "Little Apple"? Whomever, we're sure it was enjoyable! (IL WAS! -typesetter)

Those of you who read ESCAPE and RON'S WISCONSIN, in his last article he mentioned how well the patrons of 1101 West mix (Lesbians, Gay men, and female impersonators). He also mentioned that the bar was staffed by a Lesbian, Gay male, and a female impersonator. TO SET THE RECORD STRAIGHT (so to speak) the woman tending bar at 1101 is a straight female. You can't mix better than that, now can you???

September 11th, Miss Trixie will be having a "Night with the Queens" with various local talent. The Nasty Girls along with Mr & Miss Body Shop (Jerry & Jess) will be appearing. Sunday, September, 25th, The Dream Girls will be making an appearance in Appleton! A group of entertainers from Cleveland, Milwaukee, and Appleton will be taking the stage along with the reigning Miss 1101 Larinda Kelly.

We promised you Milwaukeeans a treat. October 2nd, Larinda will be appearing at Club 219. For those of you who have not seen her perform, be at 219 on the 2nd, and see why she has her title, and why we are proud to have her represent Appleton at the Miss Gay Wisconsin Pageant. Break a leg, Larinda!

Correction: It was Colleen Fitzmartin who appeared in the Aug. 14th show! Sorry Colleen!

MADISON

Once again, Mad-town outdid themselves! Last weekend was ROD's third annual "p" Party which started on Friday and was still going on Sunday. A great time was had by all (some more than others, Right, David?) especially around the hot tub. Sunday, they had a contest of words beginning with the letter "p". (see this week's centerfold)

So, if you didn't make it down here this weekend, you missed one hell of a good time! There's always something happening in our great city!!!

MILWAUKEE

Congratulations are in order for the successful grand-opening of the NEW SHADOWS! The food was x-cellent and the show was ssssuch a good time. Way to go, Girls!

Thursday, September 22nd promises to be a great event as CLUB 219 holds its annual Mr.219 Contest! Don't miss the hypnotist, his act is fan--tastic!

While on the subject of parties YOUR PLACE (the YP) is holding its 19th anniversary! many bars would like to celebrate even 9 months!!! The party will be the 18th of September, from 3-7pm. Good Luck YP!!! Still one more "mr" contest!

The Mr. WHECK ROOM contest will be held September 25th. Judging to take place at 10:30. It's gonna be packed as usual, so get there early and claim your spot for the duration. As always--expect a good time! SO C'MON MILWAUKEE, LET'S PARTY!

WE ARE STILL IN NEED

JOCKEY SHORTS

Here I am again, people! First off, let me, again, let you know that I do not DJ live, I DJ on tape. I've heard people wondering where I "did my thing".

Ready for another SUPREME'S remake? Well, the HOLLIES (remember them?) have a version of "Stop, In The Name Of Love" on their new album entitled "What Goes Around, Comes Around". They've regrouped the original members due to the popularity in England, of a "Stars On 45"-type mix of their classic hits called "Holly Days". Also, speaking of groups re-organizing, look for the return of YES with all the original members, except for Steve Howe, who plans on sticking with the group ASIA.

If you think HUMAN LEAGUE's album "Fascination" is a letdown, you're not alone. It seems they lost their producer, Martin Rushent, who was responsible for the album "Dare" and the now-classic "Don't You Want Me". They would bring him a piece of music and Rushent would finish them off into full songs. Now that he's gone, Phil Okey and the League have to do it all by themselves.

Mitch Ryder (remember the DETROIT WHEELS?) has an album out called, "Never Kick A Sleeping Dog" produced by John Cougar. Ryder's last few albums in the late 70s included one called "How I Spent My Summer Vacation" which had a few songs dealing with sex between 2 men. In Rolling Stone Ryder defends this by stating: "I'm sure there are more of us than care to be counted who have played with persons of the same sex.". Worth a listen to!!!
