EDITORIAL

I'd like to offer a comment concerning the letter that we ran last week. First and foremost, the reason we ran it, is because we are obligated to print both sides of any issue that is before us. This includes what we consider to be a negative as well as positive viewpoint. Unfortunately many of you failed to appreciate this fact, and were rightfully indignant because it appeared that this was RAGG's personal opinion. For that We humbly apologize.

Now to the business at hand...WE NEED MORE SUPPORT FROM WISCONSIN'S GAY COMMUNITY!!! Now, I do not necessarily mean monetary support (although that would help!) I mean anyone who is interested in writing, or special artwork, or anything related to improving our cause! I know you've heard it before, and here it goes again... Please help us by sending in any column that you think would be of interest and we'll get it in RAGG. This includes poems, items of interest in your locality, or just a gripe or praise. Write

MILWAUKEE

This past weekend was quite a hectic one! Fortunately for you, I was able to be present at a few of the happenings in Milwaukee.

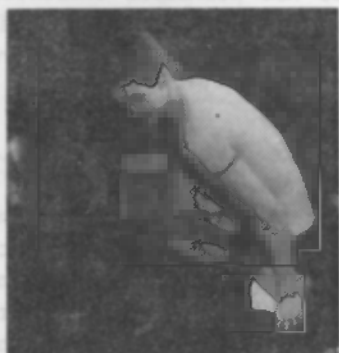

The weekend started off early with the MR. 219 CONTEST on the 22nd. The judges had quite a problem deciding which ONE of the hot men to choose. They proved that they made the right decision by naming DANNY the winner! It sure was a tough decision! They were all so good!

Entertainment by World's Fastest Hypnotist, John Ivan Palmer was superb! He had a group of people onstage with him, and put them all "under". Probably the highlight of the show was when he made one girl believe that her lover was naked in the audience, and you should have seen the dirty looks she got from her lover onstage! Great Show!!!

The second "biggie" of the weekend was the annual MR. WRECK ROOM CONTEST. Again, the judges from all around the state, had a difficult time trying to pick one person of the 16 contestants. The contest was ultimately won by Paul, a local man who deserved the title! (honestly, though, of the 16, the credit must also go to Ma Barker, who proved that age is no barrier to entering contests of this kind!) Congratulations all, you did a great job!!! See you next time.

Hey, Wisconsin! We don't know what's going on if you don't tell us! Send us something! (you don't have to be a professional writer to get your point across!!!)

CRUISIN'

OUT & ABOUT

The Experience Theatre Company, Inc. (ETCI) will present two views of the Gay scene that not only transcend sexuality, but are also outrageously funny, and yet; profound, with the production of a double bill: The Madness of Lady Bright, and Robert Patrick's gem T-Shirts.

Opening October 26th in ETCI's theatre on the second floor of Century Hall, 2340 North Farwell, Milwaukee, and continues on selected dates through November 12th.

In showing 2 views of the Gay world, the double bill starts with a 1960's look thru Wilson's The Madness of Lady Bright, a one-act play set wholly in the mind of its title subject, who is a disintegrating, middle-aged queen. Effeminate, promiscuous, haughty, affected, and lonely, Leslie is both a stereotype and a sure representation of one segment and period of the Gay community. Wilson's skill as a playwright enables his principal character to transcend the stereotypical via the sheer force of his own individuality. Leslie ultimately impresses us as an aging person unable to come to terms with his own death.

Moving from the early 60's to the late 70's, the second play, Patrick's T-Shirts, provides a crash-course in what it's like to be a Gay man in any large American city in the 70's. Though they are of different ages and outlooks, Patrick's 3 principal Gay characters all face the same problems: finding love, balancing idealism against the spirit of the times, staying away from drugs, but, Gayness is not a problem here, only a given; but the problems lie in the new morality. T-Shirts, which is hilariously very funny at points, is also profound social criticism.

For ticket information, call 963-9417-days, and 963-9833-after 6pm. All performances are at 8pm. Tickets are $5 in advance, and $6 at the door. Group rates and special discounts are available!

The Madness of Lady Bright & T-Shirts, runs October 26th, 28th, 29th, November 3rd, 4th, 5th, 10th, 11th, & 12th at Century Hall.

DEAR DAVID

Dear Readers,

This is to introduce the newest, hottest addition to ever hit RAGE Magazine, possibly the world! It's the solution to your dilemmas, and the "friend that's always there:"

"DEAR DAVID"

At times, we all have questions about life in general that we're just too shy to ask, or possibly we don't know of a person to ask. This is where "DEAR DAVID" fits in. It will be a bi-monthly column designed specifically to answer these questions to help you get "back on the track" if need be, and to console when it seems that all others have turned their backs.

But, I will also need the help of YOU, the public, in sending questions, letters, or by just dropping a line to say "Hi!". Remember: it is not just a problem "hotline", and there is a person behind this pencil, with feelings and emotions like your own!

Therefore, I will most probably understand what you're going through, and I do want to help! So please, Send in all questions, no matter how dumb they may seem, because, as a famous person once said: "There are no dumb questions; questions show a thinking and growing person. Also remember, This is your column! so please make the best of it.

Finally, I would like to add I don't claim to be a psychologist, but I do promise to be a FRIEND!

Sincerely Yours,
DAVID

THIS IS A REPEAT OF LAST WEEK'S COLUMN

Are you ready for "videos" right off your standard lps? Well, they're on their way! It seems Pete Shelley's album, "XL-1", has tracks mixed into it that produce four-color graphics when hooked up to a Sinclair computer. Sorry, but the computer isn't available yet in the U.S., so the tracks were deleted on the U.S. albums. However, Atari is working with them on a system for here. I can't wait to see Ms. PacMan doing "It's Raining Men"!!!

For some good dancing, try "Close to the Bone" by Tom Tom Club. The album has many good cuts, including: "Measure Up" and "Pleasure of Love" which continue in the groove where their last release, "Genius of Love" left off...

Remember the Munsters TV show? Butch Patrick, alias Eddie Munster, has a '45 out entitled, "Whatever Happened to Eddie?". So what else does he call his group?? None other than Eddie & the Munsters of course! Look for it, nostalgia buffs.

Three Dog Night is back on the scene! All the original members are on their mini-lp, "It's a Jungle". Good album! They still have "it" and are anxious for the world to know it!

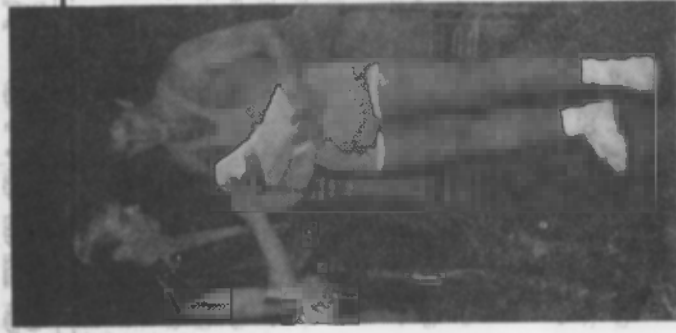

It's time for me to go out on safari and try to track down some wild animal!!!

Keep Listening.....KIP

Red to purplish blotches bumps or spots, usually painless occurring on or under the skin, inside the mouth, nose, eyelids, or rectum, that do not go away.

Persistent white spots or unusual blemishes in the mouth.

Weight loss of more than 10lbs. in 2, or less, months for unknown reasons.

fevers (greater than 99°) or drenching night sweats that may occur on and off, and last for several days to weeks.

Severe tiredness unrelated to exercise, tension, or drugs.

Long & Persistent dry cough or shortness of breath, unrelated to smoking, that has lasted too long to be from a usual respiratory infection or cold.

Persistent diarrhea unexplained by other causes.
