ELECTIONS

At the January annual membership meeting of CCBA, the membership elected three new At-large Board members to replace those whose terms had expired. (Outgoing At-large members were Gary Scoville, Paul DeMarco and Leonard Sobczak.) Elected were Karen Gotzlar, Ann Lewis and Richard Moroder.

Also elected during the past month were Cliff Heise, Public Relations Chairman/Divisional Board Representative, and Jerry Johnson, Housing and Development Committee Chairman. Named to head the Resource and Referral Committee was Tom Martin. Elected as the Divisional Board Representative for Development was Greg Quindel. (Vacancies currently exist in the Special Projects Committee Chair, Affiliated Organizations Divisional Representative and the Membership Committee Chair/Divisional Board Representative positions.)

The Board has discussed the establishment of two new committees: a Business Enhancement Committee, to identify and amplify benefits to our business members, and a Committee on Ethics and Standards, to monitor all areas of concern relating to contracts, outside involvements and member complaints.

The Board of Directors, including both former and newly-elected members, held elections for CCBA officers at its January 25 meeting, in accordance with the provisions of the By-laws. Elected were: President, Marc Hauptert; Vice President/Planning and Outreach, Mark Franke; Vice President/Membership Services, Donna Leonard; Secretary, Sue Mortensen; Treasurer, Donald Boychuk. The election of Mark Franke to Vice President creates an open At-large position, to be filled through standard procedures of the Board and reported at the next membership meeting. Further information about the new officers and their plans for CCBA will be reported in an upcoming edition of The Newsletter.

Members interested in any open position should contact Marc Hauptert at 374-5599 as soon as possible.

Dear Ralph,

Please allow me a moment of your time, to express my most heartfelt "thanks" to you and Joe Hulbert, Marc Haupt, Donna Leonard, and C.C.B.A., for the time and effort spent in helping to make the "celebration of unity for Human Rights and Civil Liberties" a success.

To quote a beloved friend, "WE, business and professional people who are concerned with the development of the gay/lesbian community, must be equally involved with the evolution of the women, black, indian, hispanic, handicapped and all other people's."

It does my heart wonders to see people with "GUTS".

Thank you again, for your internal strength and generous hearts.

CCBA presented three awards for outstanding service to the lesbian and gay male community of Milwaukee at its annual meeting on January 11. Awards were determined by the Board of Directors acting as a committee-of-the-whole and facilitated by Special Projects Chairwoman Sue Mortensen. Awardees received a Cream City brick with a brass inscription identifying the award.

Presented with the Focus Award, for its continuing efforts to identify and respond to needs and concerns of the gay community throughout the year, was WISN-TV Channel 12. The Torch Bearer Award, presented to "a non-gay person in recognition of major efforts to ensure accurate information and justice for all gay/lesbian people" was presented to Daniel C. Maguire, whose acceptance remarks were quite inspirational for all in attendance. The Pace Setter award went to Mark Behar, PA, for his efforts over the past many years in setting up and staffing medical service facilities for the lesbian and gay male community in Milwaukee and his national facilitation of communication among gay-serving STD operations.

Mention of CCBA's awards was made in both the Milwaukee Sentinel and Milwaukee Journal, marking the first time both daily newspapers have carried CCBA information.

GENUINE STRENGTH

After a challenging day at work, following a quick work out and/or a cocktail or two and dinner somewhere, most of us end up back at home on most evenings, like a majority of the individuals that make up the Greater Milwaukee community. Perhaps we curl up with a good book or become entranced by TV or listen to grand opera (sometimes sharing this event with a lover or friend or just a loving lap animal) and we are content.

Most of us are living dual lives—gay (not the true sense of the word) on some events and non-gay at others. There is no question that psychologically this takes a great deal of mental and emotional energy. Although we work hard, at times, we also have learned how to be counter productive with our limited life energy. Many of us work hard at "passing" or "making it safely" through what we believe are dangerous, shark infested waters.

Quite contrary to popular beliefs, spread by many to entrance many into an attitude of personal impotence, each of us have the God given ability to be GREAT! Each of us has the ability to become a truly integrated focus of positive energy that gives life and therefore reflects fundamental and integral genuine strength.

True, some of us need a little more help than others to achieve this level of self confidence due to some heavier doses of negativism, nearly burying our youth, but we can make it.

One of the keys to achieving this goal is that a person realizes that s/he can't make it alone—indeed, that to become truly strong one comes to understand her/his relationship (essential and fundamental) to the universe we inhabit together. Contrary to what this may sound like, it is not merely a philosophical thought.

By essential and fundamental relationship to this universe it is meant that unless each of us learns to understand (intellect) and feel (heart) the pains and strengths of both those who deeply suffer in this world (and why they suffer) but also understand the lives of people that we classify as great or successful (and how they achieved that observed success) we are doomed to a life of coping, denial and constant small and large doses of self destruction.

This is commonly called being AVERAGE! There is no more disgusting concept to me than being "AVERAGE" and "Just Making It Along In Life" VOMIT! VOMIT! VOMIT!

If we dared to continue to learn about ourselves individually and learned about our gay/lesbian his/her story and truly began the process of integrating ourselves into the notion that "I am here to make a difference" and proceeded to personally and collectively build brick upon brick to achieve this (regardless of how young or old), we would emerge as people of genuine strength. We would help each other build and we wouldn't spend most of our time "putting down" and "tearing down" and working to succeed where non-gay people fear to tread—the destruction of our self confidence and worth by our alleged brothers and sisters.

We are called to be GREAT. That is the essential notion in the founding and ongoing building of Cream City Business Association. By nurturing our individual and group growth, we have drawn attention to ourselves at nearly every level of the Greater Milwaukee community. They are expecting a great deal from us—I am personally pledged to continue on my road to building personal and collective genuine strength, thus GREATNESS. I pray that you will believe in yourselves enough and give yourselves the greatest gift you can give—walking that path, rough that it is and filled with roadblocks, to emerge with me, truly making a difference.

CLAVIS PRESENTS CLOUD 9

Clavis Theatre announces the Milwaukee premiere of Cloud 9, the winner of three Obies and two Drama Desk Awards.

"A biting, satirical farce set in darkest Africa in 1880 and in present day London, it riotously examines a cornucopia of sexual mores—from heterosexual adultery to bisexual incest, in a circus of carnal confusion and topsyturvy theatrics (some males play female roles and some females play males). Act One introduces a proper Victorian British family and their guest, Harry Bagley, who instantly seduces the wife (played by a man), the schoolboy son (played by a woman), and the black servant (played by a white), all before marrying the governess, a lesbian."

"Act Two finds the characters (they have aged only 25 years since Act One) in the liberated 80's, seeking their sexual identities in a world without standards."

Performances of Cloud 9 will run as follows:

February 1-5 — 8:00pm

February 8-12 — 8:00pm

February 15-19 — 8:00pm

NGTF DOCUMENTS EPIDEMIC OF ANTI-GAY VIOLENCE

The National Gay Task Force reports that in the first eight months of 1983, 1,682 incidents of harassment, threats, and attacks against gays were reported to its Violence Project. Documented by the NGTF Crisisline and twelve local violence projects across the country, these incidents will be included in NGTF's first annual audit of anti-gay violence, scheduled for publication in the spring of this year.

Of the incidents reported to NGTF thus far, 57% are verbal harassment, 28% are physical assaults, and 1% are homicides. 4% are incidents of arson or vandalism against the property of gay people, and 10% are other types of crimes not yet classified. 7% of all incidents involved police harassment or brutality.

During this same period, the gay community was hit by the first wave of violence attributed to AIDS backlash. According to San Francisco's Community United Against Violence, fear and hatred associated with AIDS was a motivating factor in nearly 20% of all incidents this year.

Comments Virginia Apuzzo, Executive Director of NGTF, "As our communities have become more visible, so have the numbers of those who want to bludgeon us back into the closet."

HOW TO MINIMIZE THE RISK OF ATTACK

- Know your local "danger zones," areas where gays have been known to be attacked. Try to avoid these areas if you are alone. Pick routes where there is life in the streets.
- If you must walk alone, walk assertively and be alert. If you are intoxicated, drugged, tired, or upset, try not to show it. Assailants have a nose for vulnerability and are looking for easy targets.
- If you think someone is following you, widen the distance between the two of you. Walk closer to the street or cross the street. Walk into a store. Run if you need to.
- Prolonged or aggravated verbal exchanges often result in violence. If someone taunts or harasses you, do not respond unless you are prepared for a fight.

WHAT TO DO IF YOU ARE ATTACKED

- Carry a whistle and use it. Yell, this can deter the attacker as well get your own adrenalin going and alerting others in the vicinity to what is happening.
- If the assailant is armed, stay quiet and still. Never rush someone who has a knife.
- Defend yourself. Surprise them. Aim blows at vulnerable areas: the face, throat, solar plexus, groin, kidneys.
