ONE-ACT PLAY TO HIGHLIGHT APRIL DINNER MEETING

Trapped, a one-act play by William Serpe of UW-Parkside dealing with the relationship between two men (one an avowed gay and one a heterosexual with self-doubts), will be the centerpiece of this month's meeting, a fish fry to be held April 10th at Larry and Ed's Steak & Stein (see additional information elsewhere).

Trapped was first performed at the University of Wisconsin - Parkside this past January, to a mixed audience. Afterwards, one non-gay woman was quoted as commenting, "I've known lots of gay couples, but I never realized they felt these kinds of emotions, the same emotions that I feel." A gay man stated, "I felt like I was hiding behind someone's couch, listening to something I wasn't meant to hear."

Playwright William (Bill) Serpe will be graduated in May from the University of Wisconsin - Parkside with a B.A. in English. During the past two years, Bill has written four plays - all containing gay-related themes. He currently has two plays in progress, one is a light-hearted piece which will complement Trapped, and the other is a full-length drama based on the garment workers' unions at the turn of the century. He hopes to premiere these pieces next fall. Bill is also writing a one-man show entitled An Evening With William Faulkner, which will be performed at UW-Parkside in May as his senior thesis project. Serpe hopes to attend graduate school "out east", where he can obtain an M.F.A. degree in Playwriting.

Actor Donn Britton is employed as a professional parceller during the day, and in the evenings he has been actively involved with the Racine Theatre Guild for the past 15 years, most recently appearing in their production of The Caine Mutiny, which will be touring in May. Michael Skewes is a professional actor (member of both AFTRA and SAG, the television and film actors' unions), and is currently working in a film for Columbia Pictures, which is shooting on location in Chicago. Both Donn and Mike live in Racine with their respective wives and families; each has two children.

SPECIAL THANKS to all CCBA members who donated their excess clothing for our clothing drive. Over 410 items were collected and distributed. It does make a difference to help those who have less. THANKS!

1987'S WEEKEND OUTING TO SPRING GREEN ANNOUNCED

On Saturday, September 19th, CCBA's annual Spring Green outing will feature the American Players Theater production of Twelfth Night, following an afternoon open-fire fishboil on the Wisconsin River. Sunday there will be a brunch, featuring champagne and shrimp. This year Saturday night will again be spent at the Wildwood Lodge in Spring Green. We will be renting two buildings: the Hillside (which has nine bedrooms, two large baths with showers, and a large living room with a bar, fireplace, and piano; we are not talking about roughing it here); and the Barn Studio (a remodeled barn which has two bedrooms, kitchen, bath, and a lounge area with sofa-bed and fireplace). Cost will be $50 per person, which covers tickets, the dinner, the brunch, and lodging; full payment will be due by July 1st. For further information, contact Paul Toonen and Jan Hill at 444-9195; or write them at 2842 N. 47th, Milwaukee 53210.

There will only be room for 30 people this time, so please get your reservations, with payment, in early; last year's sold out in just two weeks after the announcement appeared!

HALL OF FAME 1987 WINNERS ANNOUNCED

People chosen for a Hall of Fame are not ordinary people. In some cases, they may not always even be liked by the majority. What they have done, however, is demonstrate "significant leadership of an ongoing nature." Thus, CCBA is proud to announce its 1987 entries into the Milwaukee Lesbian/Gay Hall of Fame. While no Gay/Lesbian Community Center currently exists in which to hang plaques, when one does come into reality these (and other years') winners will be permanently installed. Michael Lisowski and Bill Meunier are two people who have contributed in many years over the years. Bill has not only been involved with gay sports, but served in many positions in the Gay People's Union. He has also led the community in involvement in political campaigns and politics in general, something many others in our community shirk. Mike not only remains the Chair of the GPU hotline, the only active remaining service of GPU, but is in charge of Gay Youth Milwaukee, and has been national co-chair of Black and White Men Together. Mike is also involved in the establishment of a gay/lesbian cable network for Milwaukee.

Ron Thate, a/k/a Rona, is not only the manager of CCBA member business the M & M Club, but is a founding member of the Fest City Singers. The number of organizations that Ron has been a part of, the number of lesbian/gay benefits that he has performed for, are far too many to count. Ron is truly one of a kind; very few men can be referred to as "hot" one day, and be whistled at by men as a gorgeous "woman" the next. Clarence Gernershausen, known to almost all as John Clayton, is owner and operator of C'est La Vie, one of the older Milwaukee gay bars. In addition to running several other business ventures, John has been a constant supporter, not only of gay organizations, but also hundreds of individuals. Many a gay bartender received his start at C'est La Vie. In addition, when people have gone to John for needs ranging from housing to being bailed out of jail, John was and is always there. Just a few years ago, John had the entire weight of the Milwaukee Police Department (under the leadership of Chief Brier) against his bar -- he fought and won.

Bob Schmidt is owner and operator of CCBA member businesses the M & M Club and The Glass Menagerie. Bob has served (and continues to serve) on many organization Boards, including the Brady East STD Clinic. Not unlike John Clayton, Bob has also been there for many people in need, whether of a job, a bail-out, or any other thing possible. When Bob became sole owner of the businesses, he made many major improvements in both the bar and the restaurant, adding further significant class to one of our establishments. In addition to these five living major contributors to our community, this year we are also making posthumous enrollments into the Hall of Fame. CCBA only regrets that we were not able to present these awards to these individuals in person.

Edwin Schlessinger, known as Ed S., died in 1986 at the age of 65. Ed was the helping hand to numerous gay men and lesbians who had alcohol and drug problems. He was a founder and supporter of "gay" A.A. and N.A. groups, both locally and nationally. Not only was he the founding director of the Galano Club, but he spent most of his life helping people. He was always available for emotional support and conversation. His home was open to those in need, for a day, weeks, or months.

Dale Sprang died in 1987 at the age of 41, due to inoperable colon cancer. An employee of Wisconsin Bell with his life partner Richard Dobranski, Dale fought for equal employment treatment well before it became fashionable. Dale was involved with many organizations and groups, right up to the time of his death. In addition to serving on the first Governor's Council on Lesbian and Gay Issues in the State of Wisconsin, Dale was a founding member of Dignity Milwaukee, the lesbian/gay Catholic group. Dale and his surviving spouse Dick, like Ed, always had their door open to anyone. Even with Dale's diagnosis, the two had people living in their home referred by the Milwaukee AIDS Project -- people who would be accepted nowhere else.

CCBA wishes to thank all those who took the time to nominate these, and many others whom we know will be named in years to come.

G-TV, MILWAUKEE'S GAY/LESBIAN NETWORK, TO SHOW CCBA PROGRAM

Milwaukee Gay/Lesbian Cable is excited to announce the upcoming dates for cablecast of CCBA's 1987 Annual Awards program of last January 14th on Milwaukee Cable Channel 14 (MATA public access). The 34-minute program is scheduled for: Monday, April 20, 9:30 PM; Wednesday, April 29, 7:00 PM; and Friday, May 8, 8:00 PM.

The program features the awarding of Cream City Bricks to the 1987 recipients of the Torch Bearer Award (Alderman Marlene Johnson), the Focus Award (Wisconsin Magazine of the Milwaukee Journal; Beth Slocum, editor), and the President's Award (Ron Geiman, Wisconsin inStep magazine). Tape of the other part of that January meeting, the State of the Gay & Lesbian Union, which featured a panel discussion and some lively questions from the audience, is presently being edited, and is expected to be cablecast next month. The broadcast dates will be announced.

G-TV is the suggested name for the Milwaukee Gay/Lesbian Cable Network. We are presently creative and energetic women and men of all backgrounds, to receive free videotape and studio training from Milwaukee Access Telecommunications Authority (MATA) in preparation for working on a planned monthly program. Contact Mark Behar immediately, at 277-7671, for more information.

BUSINESS ENHANCEMENT NEWS

Founded to nurture and expand the basic strengths of businesses serving the lesbian/gay community, as well as the community at large, the Business Enhancement Committee (BEC) has produced many significant advances for CCBA. In addition to workshops on accounting, investing, insurance, real estate, and many other areas of interest, the BEC has hosted the well-received Business Fairs and the CCBA Ad-Vantage, our special directory. Members of CCBA also have the opportunity to check with either the CCBA President or Ralph for other, unlisted business referrals.

What is the role of a Business Enhancement Committee? Business is the center of the American capitalistic system. It is a way for consumers not only to obtain products, but to do so with reputable and supportive people sensitive to the needs of gay/lesbian people. Small or large business members have a need to work together, to enhance not only their businesses but those of fellow members. Many stories could be told within CCBA about how another member helped her/him out of a tough situation. For members who have had a difficulty in dealing with a business member, CCBA is also establishing an ethics panel to negotiate problems for the benefit of members and business members alike.

CHECKING IT OUT!

AT ALPHA COMPOSITION

1983 was a big year for Bob Glinecki. It was in that year that he first joined CCBA. It was also in that year that he founded Alpha Composition, after spending 10 years as manager of the composition department at Linetone, Inc.

Bob, a man who has been very generous to CCBA in both time and talent, struck out on his own to offer graphic arts services in the Milwaukee area in a manner all his own. As you can imagine, Bob spent a lot of time in sales, lining up accounts for his new business; but successful he was, and is; he now counts Old Line Life Insurance, General Insurance, and Rexnord among his clients. For Rexnord, he has done layout and typesetting for various language manuals, advertisements, and in-office forms. Bob also does the typesetting for IN STEP, a magazine which is itself a CCBA Business Member.

Obviously Bob welcomes individuals or businesses needing graphic arts services, such as resume preparation; however, he has set his sights on more corporate business. Given the growth of his company in the past years (he has added the services of Ken Kurtz as a typesetter), he will no doubt be successful.

AT SHALOM ENTERPRISES

Need a letter typed quickly? What about a mailing list? And where do you go when you need personalized letters sent to 1,000 of your best friends? Need special projects done crisply, or a term paper with guaranteed service and error-free work?

If these or any other secretarial service work is needed by you or your business, you can turn to one of CCBA's first business members, Shalom Enterprises, Inc. Not only did Shalom serve as CCBA's service for several years, but it has always given endless hours of services to many lesbian/gay organizations in the Milwaukee area.

According to Shalom's President Ralph Navarro, the company was started to provide gay/lesbian people with a place to come for highly personalized service, with flexible hours and sensitivity not only to confidentiality, but also their special needs. "The key to who we are and the services we wish to provide is in our name, which most people know means "Peace" in Hebrew. Our highest value is Peace, and bringing peace into the individual and corporate reality, whenever possible." Large projects, or individual letters or resumes: all are possible at low rates. The staff at Shalom Enterprises, Inc. will help each client be even more successful in her/his own projects or businesses.

[EDITOR'S NOTE: We are pleased to have Kevin Conaty, former editor of The Newsletter, join us again in the writing of CHECKING IT OUT! Watch for other businesses to be highlighted every month.]

GOURMET DINNER GROUP FORMING

An organizational meeting will be held at 7:30 PM on Wednesday, April 15, 1987 at the home of Buddy Couvion for anyone interested in forming a Gourmet Dinner Group in CCBA. At this meeting we will assign groups - assuming there are enough people interested so that more than one group is needed. The dates and suggested dinner themes for subsequent gatherings will be determined at the organizational meeting. Possible themes include: Russian, French, German, The Ponchartrain (New Orleans), Luchow's (Oriental), Famous Inns of America, and Old Williamsburg (Colonial Holidays). Please bring a bottle of wine and some of your favorite hors d'oeuvres (including the recipe) to this organizational meeting.

The rules for the gourmet dinner group are fairly simple:

1. The responsibility for hosting will rotate each month.
2. The host is responsible for establishing the menu (based on the theme that month), assigning recipes and getting them to their guests, and setting the time and place for dinner.
3. The host is responsible for preparing the meat (main dish) for the evening, plus anything that completes the meal that is not being supplied by one of the guests.
4. If it is necessary to make a change in plans, it is your responsibility to notify the host for the month (or the guests, if it is your turn to host).

A complete list of names, addresses, and phone numbers will be developed after the April 15th meeting. If you cannot make it to the organizational meeting, please let someone know that you are interested in participating in the Group. If you have any questions, contact the coordinator:

Buddy Couvion
2513 N. Stowell, Apt. 17
Milwaukee 53211

He can also be reached evenings by telephone, at 963-1324.

Sample Menu (for a Mayan Meal):
Before-Dinner Drinks [Guest A]
Ensalada de Manscos (Seafood Cocktail) [Guest B]
Frijoles Negros Puros (Black Beans); Chayote con Pepitas
(Squash); Atole (Corn Pudding) [Guest C]*
* Depending on the number of people in the group, the responsibility for vegetables could be divided between two guests
Cochinita Pibil (main dish - Baked Pork) [Host]
Flan (Caramel Custard - dessert) [Guest D]
Full-bodied red wine with dinner [Guest E]

COME UP A WINNER CASINO '87!

Set aside Sunday, April 26, 1987 for Casino Night at the famous Grain Exchange, at the corner of Milwaukee and Broadway. This "black tie optional" event will use real gambling tables, trained dealers, etc. All proceeds from the unique community fundraiser will go to: 1. The Legal Defense Fund project, working to protect rights of the gay/lesbian community against discrimination; 2. SSBL (Saturday Softball and Beer League), to help them not only cover the remaining costs of attendance at the last World Series, but to help fund new activities this year for this great organization; and 3. Cream City Foundation's General Fund, which goes to support many smaller projects of need within the gay/lesbian community that come up during the year. The starting time will be 7:00 PM; a $25 door donation will obtain for each participant not only admission, but also gambling chips, 5 raffle tickets, and two drink coupons. Additional gambling chips will be available for further donations. There will be a cash bar. Checks can be made out to CCF (Cream City Foundation), and you may have a tax-deductible contribution. Miller Brewing Company has made an $800 donation to the "COME UP A WINNER ... CASINO NIGHT '87". To go towards advertising the event.

CCBA WOMEN TO HOST THEATER PARTY AT UW-M

On the Razzle, a UWM Metropolitan Arts production, will be seen by the CCBA Women and their guests on Sunday, April 12, 1987 at 2:00 PM at the UWM Fine Arts Theater. The cost will be $7 for CCBA members and $9 for potential members. Those attending this hilarious adaptation of the Viennese farce that became The Matchmaker and Hello, Dolly! are urged to join the group for brunch at the Kenwood Inn, located in the UWM Union on the third floor (reservations are for noon). For more information and reservations, call Ann at 962-1705 or Donna at 774-7992. The next Women's Steering Committee meeting is April 16th at 7:00 PM. For further information, call 265-6531.

COURAGE IN THE COMPUTER WORLD

David Bunnel, Editor of PC World and Mac World magazines, recently dared to stand up to be counted; and paid a price for doing so. The fact that he is himself heterosexual, and editor of a major publication in his field is not lost upon CCBA members. In a recent editorial, he acknowledged that "many programmers, designers, and engineers who happen to be gay have been the brains behind some of the most significant products that helped revolutionize our modern information-driven society." He went on to ask Georgia Governor Joe Frank Hams, "How can people who are gay feel secure living in Georgia when an inhumane law hangs over their heads?" The price of courage? $32,000 per month in known loss of advertising revenues, so far! Of the 1,000+ letters he received, only 20% have supported his position; and in just the first week after the editorial appeared, over 100 subscriptions were cancelled. What can we do? Write a letter to Mr. Bunnel at PC World, and consider subscribing to one of his magazines, if you are a PC or Macintosh user. [Your editor, who sets this entire newsletter on a Mac, plans to send his subscription in with a note applauding Bunnel's courage and integrity.]

NATIONAL NEWSNOTES

FRAMELINES, a San Francisco-based organization, is now accepting entries for the 11th San Francisco International Lesbian and Gay Film Festival, slated for June 19-28, 1987. The event will be held in conjunction with the San Francisco Lesbian/Gay Freedom Celebration. For info, call FRAMELINES: (415)861-5245.

DIGNITY, the Catholic organization of gay men, lesbians, and their friends, has issued guidelines in response to recent offensives by the Vatican. The guidelines affirm the purposes of the 103-chapter organization, "fulfilling our calling as Catholic men and women, we affirm our rights to full participation in the spiritual life of the Church as proclaimed by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops in their 1976 pastoral letter, 'To Live in Christ Jesus.' That pastoral stated, 'Homosexuals, like everyone else, should not suffer from prejudice against their basic human rights. They have a right to respect, friendship, and justice. They should have an active role in the Christian Community.'" [Here in Milwaukee, a local ultra-conservative Catholic organization has recently attacked Archbishop Rambert Weakland for showing excessive tolerance towards gay Catholics, especially towards Dignity-Milwaukee.] The National Gay & Lesbian Task Force (NGLTF) is soliciting applications for their Board of Directors. Interested? Contact Marlene Howell at (202) 332-6483. A White Paper entitled Anti-Gay Violence: Causes, Consequences, Responses has been published by NGLTF. Information: Urvasi Vaid at (202) 332-6483. NGLTF has urged all lesbians and gay men to use every resource available to challenge the proposed Reagan budget, especially as it pertains to AIDS and other issues vital to the community. It is pointed out that only by writing to members of the Congress will there be any hope of change for the better. The Human Rights Resource Center (HRRRC) and NGLTF have created an AIDS Pocket Card for Police Officers. According to NGLTF contact Kevin Berrill, "the pocket card describes tasks that are commonly required of police officers and identifies the level of risk (if any) associated with these activities."

CCBA MEMBER NEWS (AND INPUT) REQUESTED

Elsewhere in this issue, as in every issue, you may read articles about other CCBA members (Business, Charter, Individual, even Associate). Those articles could be about you! Why haven't they been? Because it seems we never hear about it.

Have you received an honor in your field (or has your business)? Have you been written up in a business or trade journal? Have you been promoted; or appointed to a new post? The Newsletter would love to run the good news; but we can't if you don't tell us. Please, let us know. Also: is there anything in this issue of The Newsletter that particularly pleases or displeases you? If so, please write. Even if it is only a letter to the Editor, your input is vital to the improvement of this publication, and this organization.
